The board is willing to entertain reapplication in one year. However, there will be work necessary on your part. The Board wants to see evidence of accountability and stability in your professional and personal life, and will review your ability to follow instructions and rules, the quality of your completion of the following tasks when you reapply, and will re-evaluate your application based on that information. Non Compliance with these tasks will result in your application being denied. The applicant is currently completing the tasks assigned by the Board.
