Tennant has streamlined the Secretary of State's Office to make it more efficient and cost-effective while improving services for voters, candidates, business owners, and citizens who depend on the office for important information about charities and administrative law.

Under Tennant's leadership, the Secretary of State's Office has met unprecedented challenges and promoted bold initiatives. Most recently, Secretary Tennant spearheaded legislation to allow for online voter registration in West Virginia.

Secretary Tennant's vision also includes pilot projects that improved voter turnout and decreased costs, secure community voting locations to make it more convenient to cast a ballot, online annual report filings that save business owners time and money, and a transparent approach to state government. One innovative effort Tennant has taken in transparency is live webcasting and social media so citizens can have an unfiltered look at what actions her office is taking.

West Virginia has also emerged as a leader on the national stage when it comes to making it easier for deployed military to vote using a safe and secure Internet connection. Secretary Tennant also has more investigations and convictions for election law violations than any other secretary in West Virginia's history.

Along with her duties as Secretary of State, Tennant was the first West Virginian chosen for the Aspen Institute's Rodel Fellowship program. In 2011, the Secretary of State's Office hosted the National Association of Secretaries of State Summer Conference for the first time ever in West Virginia. In 2012, Secretary Tennant was elected to another four-year term. She remains focused on conserving tax payer dollars and providing government transparency.

PATRICK MORRISEY
Attorney General of West Virginia

Patrick Morrisey was elected as the Attorney General of West Virginia on November 6, 2012, and sworn into office on January 14, 2013. Patrick Morrisey is the first Republican to serve as Attorney General in West Virginia since 1933 and, as a resident of Harpers Ferry, Morrisey is the first Attorney General from Jefferson County.

Since becoming Attorney General, Morrisey has made fighting fraud, waste, abuse, and corruption a top priority of the Office. Shortly after taking office he instituted a new policy for hiring outside counsel that has increased transparency and saved the state more than $4 million.

In addition, the office has worked to fight federal overreach by filing amicus briefs before the U.S. Supreme Court on a number of issues, ranging from protecting the Second Amendment to defending state jobs and our valuable energy resources. Morrisey also has strengthened the office's Consumer Protection Division, enabling it to vigorously enforce the state's laws and proactively educate citizens about scams.

In practice since 1992, Morrisey worked on many high-profile health care matters prior to serving as Attorney General and possesses a broad array of experience on regulatory issues, Medicare, Medicaid, policy, fraud and abuse investigations, legislative matters, strategic counseling, and legal and policy challenges to federal statutes and regulations.

Between 1999 and 2004, Morrisey served as the Deputy Staff Director and Chief Health Care Counsel to the House of Representatives Energy and Commerce Committee, helping draft and negotiate major legislation including the Medicare Modernization Act of 2003 and the Bioterrorism and Public Health Preparedness Act of 2002. Morrisey served as the principal liaison for the House of Representatives Energy and Commerce Committee on health care issues to the White House, the U.S. Senate, the House of Representatives, the Department of Health and Human Services and the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services.

Morrisey graduated with honors from Rutgers College in 1989 earning bachelor of arts degrees in history and political science. He received a juris doctor from Rutgers Law School-Newark in 1992. Morrisey is married and has a teenage stepdaughter.

Website: www.wvago.gov

Salary: $95,000 per year. Elected for term of four years.
(Office created by Article VII, Section 1, Constitution of 1863.)

The overarching mission of the Office of the Attorney General, as set forth in the West Virginia Constitution and the West Virginia Code, is to serve as the chief legal officer for the State of West Virginia. The Attorney General speaks for the legal interests of the State.

Pursuant to the Attorney General's broad mission, the office is responsible for providing skilled legal counsel and representation to the State, its officers, agencies, and boards on a wide range of legal matters. More specifically, the Office of the Attorney General is responsible for prosecuting and defending legal actions on behalf of the State, and for ensuring that the rights of the State and its citizens are protected in matters before the circuit courts of this State, the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals, and all federal courts. The Office also protects the State and its citizens against federal overreach. The Attorney General also is entrusted with enforcing the laws of the State as they relate to consumer protection, unfair trade practices, civil rights, and other important areas. Additionally, the Office of the Attorney General may appoint outside attorneys to serve as special assistant attorneys general on certain legal matters.

Finally, the Office of the Attorney General plays a critical role with regard to state criminal law. In addition to providing advice and consultation to county prosecuting attorneys, the Office of the Attorney General has the exclusive responsibility for representing the State in all state criminal appeals and in all habeas corpus proceedings filed by prisoners within the State.

Karen L. Bowling was appointed Cabinet Secretary of the West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources on July 1, 2013.

Prior to taking the helm of one of the State's largest agencies, Bowling held a variety of direct care and leadership positions in the health care and education arena. Her career started as an emergency room nurse in a small rural hospital in Wyoming County. She continued to work in acute care and hospital supervision until 1983 when she joined the Wyoming County Board of Education to develop the School Health Program.

Bowling served in a number of management capacities in both the hospital setting and higher education until 1990 when she began working in hospital administration. In 2001, Bowling became the CEO of Raleigh General Hospital in Beckley, West Virginia.

She has served in various leadership roles at the West Virginia Hospital Association, including chairperson. She was a board member of many not-for-profit organizations, which included the Raleigh County Community Action Association, YMCA of Beckley, and the Beckley Healthright Clinic. She also has served as the chairperson of the Raleigh County Chamber of Commerce.

A native of Mullens, West Virginia, Bowling graduated from Bluefield State College with an associate degree in nursing. She continued her education at West Virginia University, where she received a bachelor of science in nursing and a master of science in primary healthcare nursing. She also earned an MS in Higher Education from Capella University.

Bowling has two grown children and a beautiful granddaughter.

The Department of Health, now the Bureau for Public Health, was created by the Legislature in 1915, having been preceded by a Board of Health created in 1881. In 1957, the Legislature established the West Virginia Department of Mental Health. On July 1, 1977, the Department of Mental Health and hospitals under the jurisdiction of the Department of Public Institutions were incorporated in the Department of Health.

In the 1980s the Department of Health was combined with the former Department of Welfare (Human Services) to create the Department of Health and Human Resources. The DHHR established five bureaus of which the Bureau for Public Health is one. The Bureau for Behavioral Health and Health Facilities is another. The management of state hospitals and behavioral health facilities is now under the jurisdiction of the Bureau for Behavioral Health and Health Facilities.

The Bureau for Public Health performs a variety of health-related services and administers a wide array of public health programs such as: regulating sanitary conditions of institutions, schools, food manufacturers and establishments, camps, swimming pools, manufactured housing communities, water supplies and systems, and sewerage facilities and systems; inspecting milk; operating industrial hygiene programs; maintaining laboratories; registering vital statistics; collecting, analyzing, and disseminating health data; receiving reports of infectious and communicable diseases, events and conditions; conducting epidemiological studies, including the effects of environment, employment, habits and circumstances of life on the public's health; preventing and controlling diseases; conducting health planning and promotion; providing services to hemophiliacs and to veterans; providing maternal, child and family health services; supporting home health services; recruiting physicians to the state; assisting county boards of health, community health centers, local health departments, school health and dental health programs; certifying personnel and promoting emergency medical services and a statewide emergency medical communication system; conducting postmortem examinations; enhancing public health and medical preparedness among state and local organizations; and development of an integrated management information framework which serves as a network for the exchange of information between and among public health professionals to strengthen public health.

STATE DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES COUNCIL

110 Stockton Street, Charleston 25387-2521

On March 6, 1972, Governor Arch Moore established through executive order the State Developmental Disabilities Planning Council as required by the Developmental Disabilities Services and Facilities Construction Act, Public Law 91-517. The State Commission on Mental Retardation was designated as the agency to assist the state council in the development and subsequent revision of the state plan and to administer the state formula grant program for planning and services. The state Health Department became the administering agency for the program when the commission was merged with the newly reorganized state Health Department on July 1, 1977. The Department of Health and Human Resources was named the council's designated state agency in the executive department reorganization of July 1, 1989. On December 17, 1999, Governor Cecil Underwood issued an executive order that renamed the council the "West Virginia Developmental Disabilities Council." The federal Developmental Disabilities Act has undergone several revisions which have strengthened the role and autonomy of the council. The current DD Act is Public Law 106-402, the Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act of 2000. Currently over 60 percent of the council's 32 members must be consumers or family members.

Joseph C. Thorton, Cabinet Secretary

Born in Princeton, West Virginia, Joe is a 1983 graduate of Athens High School. After graduation, he entered the United States Air Force where he served 10 years, receiving an honorable discharge. During his Air Force career, Joe was stationed in San Antonio, Texas; Minot, North Dakota and Pirinclik Air Station, Turkey, where he served in direct support of the nation's first Gulf War efforts.

Upon separation from the Air Force in August 1994, Joe enrolled in the journalism and mass communications program at Marshall University where he completed his bachelor's degree - with honors - in May 1998. In August 1998 Joe continued his studies and enrolled in the Marshall University graduate program to begin his master's level studies in public relations; receiving his master's degree in May 2000 and was named Outstanding Master's Program student. During his graduate studies, Joe was hired and worked for three years for WSAZ NewsChannel 3 in Huntington and Charleston.

In October 2001, Joe began his career path in State Government when he was hired as a public information specialist with the West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources. He served in that capacity until January 2005 when he took over as director of the Division of Rural Health, Bureau for Public Health, West Virginia DHHR.

In September 2005, Joe was hired as deputy cabinet secretary for operations and media relations for the West Virginia Department of Military Affairs and Public Safety (DMAPS). In December 2009, Joe was appointed acting cabinet secretary of the department and on June 2, 2010 was officially appointed as cabinet secretary of DMAPS. Upon Governor Earl Ray Tomblin taking office in November, 2010, he asked Joe to remain in his role as cabinet secretary. As secretary of DMAPS, Joe serves on or as chairman of numerous boards and commissions, including the Governor's Advisory Council on Substance Abuse, the Governor's Committee on Crime Delinquency and Correction and the Regional Jail and Correctional Facility Authority Board, to name a few.

During his tenure as Secretary of DMAPS, the agency has led many efforts to enhance public safety in West Virginia. A couple of those efforts include the Justice Reinvestment Initiative to reduce the prison population growth in West Virginia while reducing jail overcrowding, West Virginia's School Safety Project to ensure a safe learning environment for the state's youth, as well as juvenile justice reform and transition to ensure the state's system is effectively moving toward a national model of dealing with troubled youth.

As secretary of DMAPS, Joe has administrative oversight of one of the largest departments of state government. DMAPS consists of 10 divisions, nearly 6,000 employees and an annual operating budget of over $600 million across three revenue streams. The department includes: the West Virginia State Police, Division of Corrections, Regional Jail and Correctional Facility Authority, Division of Juvenile Services, Division of Homeland Security and Emergency Management, West Virginia Fire Marshal, West Virginia Parole Board, Division of Protective Services, Division of Justice and Community Services and West Virginia National Guard. The Office of the Secretary proper also houses the day-to-day functions and operations of the Homeland Security State Administrative Agency, as well as the West Virginia Intelligence Fusion Center.

A resident of Culloden, Joe is married to Karen O'Sullivan Thornton, assistant attorney general for the State of West Virginia. Joe and Karen have one daughter, Jorden, a doctoral athlete at Duquesne University in Pittsburgh where she is in the Honors Program and the Doctor of Physical Therapy Program, as well as a member of the Dukes' Women's Soccer Program.

The commissioner of the Division of Corrections directs the state's adult correctional system. In November 1997, oversight of the juvenile correctional institutions was transferred to the newly created Division of Juvenile Services. The Division of Corrections' system consists of 15 adult facilities: Mount Olive Correctional Complex at Mount Olive, Northern Regional Jail and Correctional Facility at Moundsville, Ohio County Correctional Center at Wheeling, St. Marys Correctional Center at St. Marys, Huttonsville Correctional Center at Huttonsville, Pruntytown Correctional Center at Grafton, Denmark Correctional Center at Hillsboro, Beckley Correctional Center at Beckley, Lakin Correctional Center at West Columbia, Welch Facility at Welch, Martinsburg Correctional Center at Martinsburg, Stevens Correctional Center at Welch, Parkersburg Correctional Center at Parkersburg, Salem Correctional Center at Industrial, and Work Release Centers at Huntington and Charleston. The agency also operates one young adult offender facility - Anthony Correctional Center at Neola. The commissioner is also responsible for the supervision of parolees assigned to the division's custody or accepted through interstate compact. The State's correctional system is responsible for approximately 6,780 incarcerated adults, 220 youthful offenders and approximately 3,193 persons under probation and parole supervision.

DIVISION OF JUVENILE SERVICES

2nd Floor, 1200 Quarrier Street, Charleston 25301

Website: www.wvdjs.state.wv.us

The West Virginia Division of Juvenile Services, assuming responsibilities formerly charged to both the Division of Corrections and the Department of Health and Human Resources, was established under Chapter 53, Acts of the Legislature, Regular Session, 1997, and amended by Chapter 5, Acts, First Extraordinary Session, 1999. Designed to serve the needs of West Virginia's juveniles, the Division operates six detention centers, three staff secure centers, two correctional facilities and one diagnostic center. The detention centers are responsible for the nonadjudicated or predispositional youth. These centers are designed for the short-term secure detention of males and females between the ages of 10 and 18. The mission of the detention centers is to ensure safe, secure facilities with sufficient space and quality services and progressive programming to achieve positive outcomes for detention residents. The detention facilities provide for the general care and welfare of youths awaiting disposition of felony charges. The division additionally provides case management, counseling and a variety of programs designed to reduce recidivism and aid in the youths' successful transition back into their respective communities. These services include classes in anger control, coping skills and problem solving. Division staff work closely with the Department of Health and Human Resources, juvenile probation, community care providers and education in formulating treatment plans designed to enhance the youths' probability of success in becoming responsible citizens. The staff-secured centers provide a level of care to nonaggressive, juveniles of either gender who are detained pending felony criminal charges and those status offenders with a history of running from placements or shelters. These centers have a strong emphasis of therapeutic intervention and provide life skills, positive peer culture groups, therapeutic recreation and basic education. The correctional facilities utilize a unit management approach in addressing identified needs of incarcerated youths. The Division of Juvenile Services provides for the general care and welfare of residents sentenced to indeterminate terms of incarceration as youthful offenders and those juveniles tried as adult offenders and awaiting placement in adult facilities. The diagnostic units currently provide comprehensive evaluation services to adjudicated youth. A 60-day assessment and diagnostic information are completed and utilized by committing jurisdictions to determine a youth's next best step in returning to a healthy and productive life. DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE

ROBERT KISS, CABINET SECRETARY

State Capitol, Building 1, Room 300 West, Charleston 25305

Website: www.revenue.wv.gov

The secretary of revenue is appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to serve, at the will and pleasure of the Governor, for the term for which the Governor is elected and until a successor has been appointed and has qualified. The secretary's salary is set by statute at $95,000 per year.

The Department of Revenue, previously known as the Department of Tax and Revenue, was created by the 1989 Legislature, which combined the following departments and agencies under the leadership of the secretary of Tax and Revenue: Alcohol Beverage Control Commissioner, Division of Banking, Board of Banking and Financial Institutions, Lending and Credit Rate Board, Insurance Commissioner, State Lottery, Racing Commission and State Tax Division. The department began operations on July 1, 1989. On June 11, 2004, legislation took effect reorganizing the department and changing its name to the Department of Revenue. This legislation clarified the powers and duties of the secretary. The secretary is now also the director of the state budget and an ex officio member of the Council for Finance and Administration. The State Budget Office was moved from the Department of Administration to the Department of Revenue. Additionally, the legislation makes the State Athletic Commission and the Municipal Bond Commission part of the Department of Revenue. The department, through the Alcohol Beverage Control Administration, licenses manufacturers and sellers of beer, wine and liquor in this state and regulates the sale of these products. The Alcohol Beverage Control Commissioner also operates the state liquor warehouse. The department, through the Division of Banking, regulates and supervises state banking institutions, industrial banks, industrial loan companies, credit unions, supervised lenders and other financial institutions, which have been or may be placed under its supervision. The department, through the Insurance Commissioner, collects insurance premium taxes and regulates and oversees the insurance industry within the state, including, but not limited to, workers' compensation, hospital service corporations, dental service corporations, medical service corporations, other health service corporations, health maintenance organizations and other entities, which by statute are under the jurisdiction of the Insurance Commissioner. The department, through the Lottery Commission and State Lottery Office, operates the state lottery, including racetrack video lottery and limited video lottery. The department, through the Municipal Bond Commission, serves as fiscal agent for all issuers of general obligation bonds issued by West Virginia counties, county boards of education and municipalities and by other government entities when the commission is specifically named as the fiscal agent by statute. The department, through the Office of Tax Appeals, hears contested tax cases from the State Tax Division. The department, through the State Athletic Commission, regulates all amateur, professional and semiprofessional boxing, sparring matches and exhibitions, and any professional mixed martial arts contests, matches and exhibitions, or any form thereof, to be promoted, conducted, held or given within the state. The Secretary of Revenue is director of the state budget and, under supervision of the Governor through the State Budget Office, prepares the Governor's annual budget for state departments, agencies, boards, commissions and offices, including state-operated institutions of higher education. The State Budget Office administers the budget after it is passed by the Legislature. The department, through the State Tax Division, administers, collects and enforces various state taxes including the beer barrel tax, the business and occupation tax, the business franchise tax, the cigarette tax, the consumers sales and service tax, the corporation license tax, the corporation net income tax, the estate tax, the gasoline and special fuels tax, the health care provider tax, the motor carrier road tax, the personal income tax, the severance tax, the soft drinks tax, the telecommunication tax and the wine liter tax. The State Tax Division also appraises industrial and natural resource properties throughout the state for ad valorem property tax purposes, supervises the work of county assessors, prepares for the Board of Public Works tentative ad valorem property tax assessments for all public utilities operating within the state, and issues permits for and regulates charitable bingo occasions and charitable raffles held in the state. The department, through the West Virginia Racing Commission, regulates greyhound and horse racing and pari-mutuel wagering at the state's four pari-mutuel racetracks. The Racing Commission also regulates the sending and receiving of simulcast races in this state and pari-mutuel wagering in this state on simulcast races. (Code 11B-1-2)

Rick Thompson, Cabinet Secretary

In May 2013 Governor Earl Ray Tomblin announced the appointment of Rick Thompson as cabinet secretary of the West Virginia Department of Veterans Assistance where he officially began serving in June 2013.

Prior to his role as cabinet secretary and since 2007, Thompson served as speaker of the West Virginia House of Delegates. He was first elected to the Legislature in 1980 and was reelected in 2000, 2002, 2004, 2006, 2008, 2010 and 2012. Throughout his time in the Legislature, Thompson was a strong advocate for veterans, supporting legislation that elevated the Division of Veterans Affairs to a cabinet level department and pushing bills to assist veteran students in their academic endeavors. During his tenure as speaker, nearly 30 pieces of legislation in support of West Virginia veterans were adopted.

Thompson's military service began in 1972 when he volunteered for the draft. He served on active duty in the United States Army until 1974 and on standby reserve from 1974 to 1978. During his military career, Thompson worked as an MP and was honorably discharged in 1978.

In addition, Thompson graduated from West Virginia University College of Law in 1978 after earning a bachelor of science degree in criminal justice from Marshall University. He completed his studies at both Marshall University and West Virginia University Law School one year ahead of schedule and graduated with honors from both.

Upon graduating from law school, Thompson returned home to Wayne County to practice law. Rick and his wife, Beth Chambers Thompson, live in Lavalette. They have four children, Wesley, Rachel, Wade, and Dalton, and three grandchildren.

STATE BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Under Chapter 30, Article 1 of the Code of West Virginia, all boards of examination and registration are governed by the following general rules, unless otherwise specifically provided:

Each board is required to adopt an official seal, make such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, as it deems best, and hold at least two meetings each year. Each board is also given power to compel the attendance of witnesses, and its officers are authorized to administer oaths.

Each applicant for license or registration must transmit with his application an examination fee of $20 unless a different fee is especially provided by law. Each board is allowed to charge $5 for each license or certificate issued and the same sum for every duplicate thereof. All licenses or certificates of registration are required to be numbered serially and to be signed by a majority of the members of the board, and each board has power to revoke, for cause, the certificate it issues. An applicant who has been refused a license or a licensee whose certificate has been revoked has the right to appeal from the action of the board to the circuit court of the county in which he or she resides.

Unless otherwise specified by law, members of boards are allowed for each day actually spent in attending sessions of the board or its committees and in necessary travel, an amount not less than $35 per day but not more than the amount paid to members of the Legislature for their interim duties as recommended by the Citizens Legislative Compensation Commission and authorized by law. Members of boards are also entitled to reimbursement for all actual and necessary expenses in carrying out their official duties.

Each board is required to make a report annually to the Governor on or before the first day of January, and the secretary of each board is required to prepare and maintain a complete roster of all persons licensed or registered by it.
