HONORABLE HULETT CARLSON SMITH
GOVERNOR OF WEST VIRGINIA

Foreword

This edition of the 1965 West Virginia Blue Book has been prepared for your use and convenience.

Biographical sketches and half tones of the Legislators, Judges and Department Heads of the Executive Branches of Government are included in this issue.

Contributions by Dr. James Hupp, Archivist, and Dr. Charles E. Harper, of the Historic Commission are included. These will serve to further inform West Virginians of the various services of the State. The 1964 General Election Returns will no doubt be of interest to many people. In addition, reports from almost every Department of State Government should give the user of the Blue Book a picture of the broad services offered by the State of West Virginia.

Again, my special thanks to the County Clerks of each of our fifty-five counties for their kindnesses and help. My appreciation goes also to the other Federal, State and County agencies to whom we owe so much. For the State Road Map inside the back cover, we are deeply indebted to the State Road Commission.

The thanks and best wishes of the editor go to everyone who uses this Blue Book with the hope that it will prove of value to them.

Sincerely,

J. HOWARD MYERS

To fulfill these purposes the Department pays weekly unemployment benefits to workers who are unemployed due to lack of work and who are in the labor market. The funds for payment of benefits are derived from a payroll tax paid by West Virginia employers under the terms of the Social Security Act.

Each board is required to adopt an official seal, make such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, as it deems best, and hold at least two meetings each year. Each board is also given power to compel the attendance of witnesses, and its officers are authorized to administer oaths.

Each board is allowed to charge $5 for each license or certificate issued and the same sum for every duplicate thereof. All licenses or certificates of registration are required to be numbered serially and to be signed by a majority of the members of the board, and each board has power to revoke, for cause, the certificate it issues. An applicant who has been refused a license, or a licensee whose certificate has been revoked has the right to appeal from the action of the board to the Circuit Court of the county in which he resides.

Unless otherwise specified, members of boards are allowed $10 per day for each day actually spent in attending sessions of the board or of its committees and in necessary travel, and entitled to reimbursement for all actual and necessary expenses in carrying out their official duties.

Offices: State Capitol—Telephone 346-8414

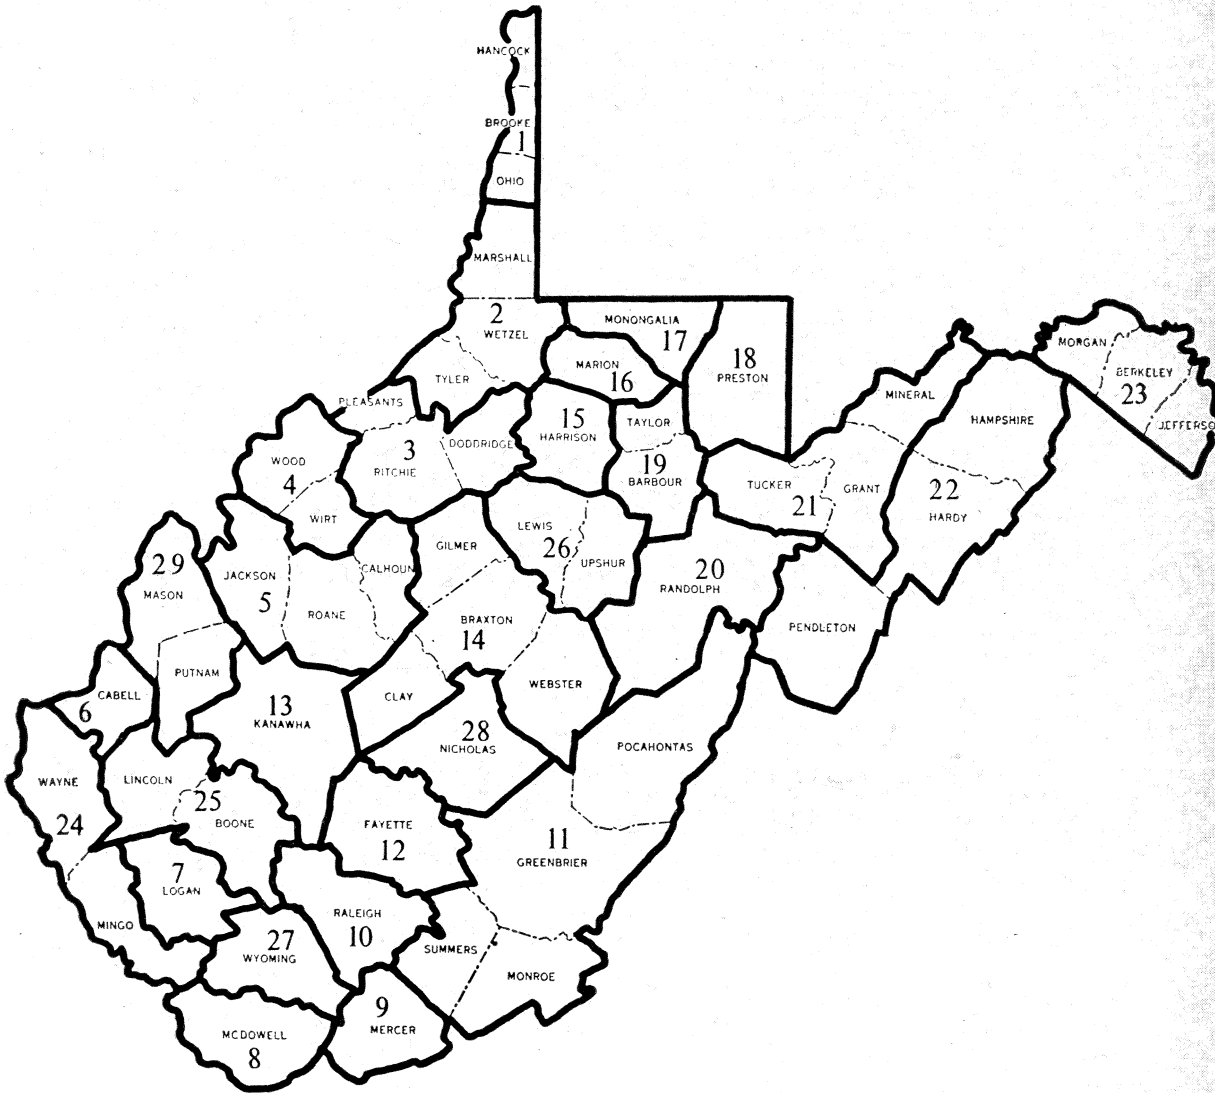

Created by the Supreme Court of Appeals under its inherent rule-making power as authorized by Chapter 44, Acts of the Legislature, 1945. The court adopted and promulgated a definition of the practice of law; a code of professional ethics, a code of judicial ethics and a constitution and by-laws for the government of the State Bar, effective May 1, 1947. Its membership consists of all persons lawfully admitted to the practice of law in West Virginia. No person can practice law in the State of West Virginia unless he is a member in good standing of The West Virginia State Bar. There are two classes of membership—active and inactive. The annual active membership fee is now $20.00 for members who have been admitted to practice for more than five years, and $10.00 for members who have been admitted to practice for not more than five years.

The objects of the State Bar are to protect the interests of the public; to advance the administration of justice and the science of jurisprudence; to improve the relations between the public and the Bench and the Bar; to uphold and elevate the standards of honor, integrity, competency and courtesy in the legal profession; and to encourage cordial relations among its members. It is its declared purpose to give effect to pertinent rules of the Supreme Court of Appeals, and to perform the functions expressed in its Constitution and By-Laws. A principal duty of the State Bar is to uphold the standards of professional ethics and to diligently and vigilantly investigate and prosecute violations of these standards.

The State Bar is governed by a Board of Governors, consisting of all officers, except the secretary-treasurer, as ex officio members, and sixteen Governors, one Governor being elected by the members of the Bar by a secret mail ballot in each of the sixteen State Bar Districts. Section Four

CONSTITUTIONAL

Declaration of Independence

United States Constitution

Constitution of West Virginia

THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

MADE BY THE ORIGINAL THIRTEEN STATES IN CONGRESS
AT PHILADELPHIA

UNANIMOUSLY ADOPTED JULY 4, 1776

When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume, among the Powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident; that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security.—Such has been the patient sufferance of these colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former systems of government. The history of the present king of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these States. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his assent to laws the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his governors to pass laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of representation in the legislature, a right inestimable to them and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved representative houses repeatedly, for opposing, with manly firmness, his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused, for a long time after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have returned to the people at large for their exercise; the State remaining, in the meantime, exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the laws for naturalization of foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new appropriations of lands.

He has obstructed the administration of justice, by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary powers.

He has made judges dependent on his will alone for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, standing armies without the consent of our legislatures.

He has affected to render the military independent of and superior to the civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation:

For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us:

For protecting them, by a mock trial, from punishment for any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of these States:

For cutting off our trade with all parts of the world:

For imposing taxes on us without our consent:

For depriving us, in many cases, of the benefits of trial by jury:

For transporting us beyond seas to be tried for pretended offenses:

For abolishing the free system of English laws in a neighboring province, establishing therein an arbitrary government, and enlarging its boundaries, so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these colonies:

For taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering fundamentally the forms of our government:

For suspending our own legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated government here, by declaring us out of his protection, and waging war against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is, at this time, transporting large armies of foreign mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun, with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow-citizens, taken captive on the high seas, to bear arms against their country, to become the executioners of their friends and brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands.

He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes, and conditions.

In every stage of these oppressions we have petitioned for redress in the most humble terms. Our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A prince, whose character, is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have we been wanting in attention to our British brethren. We have warned them, from time to time, of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity which denounces our separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind enemies in war, in peace friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in general Congress assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the name, and by authority of the good people of these colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are and of right ought to be, free and independent States: that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain is, and ought to be totally dissolved; and that, as free and independent States, they have full power to levy war, conclude peace, contract alliances, establish commerce, and to do all other acts and things which independent States may of right do. And for the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor.

ARTICLE I

2. The Government of the United States is a Government of enumerated powers, and all powers not delegated to it, nor inhibited to the States, are reserved to the States or to the people thereof. Among the powers so reserved by the States is the exclusive regulation of their own internal government and police; and it is the high and solemn duty of the several departments of government, created by this Constitution, to guard and protect the people of this State from all encroachments upon the rights so reserved.

Continuity of Constitutional Operation

3. The provisions of the Constitution of the United States, and of this State, are operative alike in a period of war as in time of peace, and any departure

Each district shall contain, as nearly as may be, an equal number of population, to be determined according to the rule prescribed in the Constitution of the United States.

ARTICLE II

1. The territory of the following counties, formerly parts of the Commonwealth of Virginia, shall constitute and form the State of West Virginia, viz:

The counties of Barbour, Berkeley, Boone, Braxton, Brooke, Cabell, Calhoun, Clay, Doddridge, Fayette, Gilmer, Grant, Greenbrier, Hampshire, Hancock, Hardy, Harrison, Jackson, Jefferson, Kanawha, Lewis, Lincoln, Logan, Marion, Marshall, Mason, McDowell, Mercer, Mineral, Monongalia, Monroe, Morgan, Nicholas, Ohio, Pendleton, Pleasants, Pocahontas, Preston, Putnam, Raleigh, Randolph, Ritchie, Roane, Summers, Taylor, Tucker, Tyler, Upshur, Wayne, Webster, Wetzel, Wirt, Wood and Wyoming. The State of West Virginia includes the bed, bank and shores of the Ohio River, and so much of the Big Sandy River as was formerly included in the Commonwealth of Virginia; and all territorial rights and property in, and jurisdiction over the same, heretofore reserved by, and vested in, the Commonwealth of Virginia, are vested in and shall hereafter be exercised by the State of West Virginia. And such parts of the said beds, banks and shores as lie opposite, and adjoining the several counties of this State, shall form parts of said several counties respectively.

[All of the territory of West Virginia was taken from the Commonwealth of Virginia and in the first constitution forty-four of the above named counties were designated as forming the State of West Virginia, and in addition the counties of Berkeley, Hampshire, Hardy, Jefferson, Morgan and Pendleton were to be admitted should the constitution be adopted by a vote of the people of the districts comprising the counties. The districts adopted the constitution and these six counties became a part of the State.

The remaining five counties were created by acts of the Legislature as follows: Mineral County, from Hampshire County, on February 1, 1866; Grant County, from Hardy County, on February 14, 1866; Lincoln County from parts of Cabell, Putnam, Kanawha and Boone Counties, on February 23, 1867; Summers County, from parts of Greenbrier, Monroe, Mercer and Fayette Counties, on February 27, 1871; and Mingo County, from Logan County, on February 23, 1895.]

Magistrates Servants of People

2. All power is vested in, and consequently derived from, the people. Magistrates are their trustees and servants, and at all times amenable to them.

3. Government is instituted for the common benefit, protection and security of the people, nation or community. Of all its various forms, that is the best, which is capable of producing the greatest degree of happiness and safety, and is most effectually secured against the danger of maladministration; and when any government shall be found inadequate or contrary to these purposes, a majority of the community has an indubitable, inalienable and indefeasible right to reform, alter or abolish it in such manner as shall be judged most conducive to the public weal.

Writ of Habeas Corpus

4. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended. No person shall be held to answer for treason, felony or other crime, not cognizable by a justice, unless on presentment or indictment of a grand jury. No bill of attainder, ex-post facto law, or law impairing the obligation of a contract, shall be passed.

5. Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishment inflicted. Penalties shall be proportioned to the character and degree of the offense. 9. Private property shall not be taken or damaged for public use, without just compensation; nor shall the same be taken by any company, incorporated for the purposes of internal improvement, until just compensation shall have been paid, or secured to be paid, to the owner; and when private property shall be taken, or damaged for public use, or for the use of such corporation, the compensation to the owner shall be ascertained in such manner as may be prescribed by general law: Provided, That when required by either of the parties, such compensation shall be ascertained by an impartial jury of twelve freeholders.

Safeguards for Life, Liberty and Property

10. No person shall be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law, and the judgment of his peers.

Political Tests Condemned

11. Political tests, requiring persons, as a prerequisite to the enjoyment of their civil and political rights, to purge themselves by their own oaths, of past alleged offenses, are repugnant to the principles of free government, and are cruel and oppressive. No religious or political test oath shall be required as a prerequisite or qualification to vote, serve as a juror, sue, plead, appeal, or pursue any profession or employment. Nor shall any person be deprived by law, of any right, or privilege, because of any act done prior to the passage of such law.

12. Standing armies, in time of peace, should be avoided as dangerous to liberty. The military shall be subordinate to the civil power; and no citizen unless engaged in the military service of the State, shall be tried or punished by any military court for any offense that is cognizable by the civil courts of the State. No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house, without the consent of the owner; nor in time of war, except in the manner to be prescribed by law.

13. In suits at common law, where the value in controversy exceeds twenty dollars exclusive of interest and costs, the right of trial by jury, if required by either party, shall be preserved; and in such suit before a justice a jury may consist of six persons. No fact tried by a jury shall be otherwise re-examined in any case than according to the rules of the common law.

[The amendment of this section was proposed by joint resolution of March 7, 1879, Acts 1879, p. 182, and adopted at the next election. Prior to being amended, the section read as follows: "In suits at common law, where the value in controversy, exclusive of interest and costs, exceeds twenty dollars, the right of trial by a jury of twelve men, if required by either party, shall be preserved; except that in appeals from judgments of justices, a jury of a less number may be authorized by law; but in trials of civil cases before a justice no jury shall be allowed and no fact tried by a jury shall in any case, be otherwise re-examined than according to the rules of common law."

The amendment as set forth above was proposed by joint resolution of March 7, 1879, and was adopted at the general election in 1880. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 56,482; Against ratification, 34,073; Majority, 22,409. Acts 1879, page 182.]

[The amendment of this section was proposed by joint resolution of February 21, 1883, Acts 1883, p. 137, and ratified at the next election. The original section provided that the general election should be held on "the second Tuesday of October," and the change was made in order that the election of State officers would fall on the same day as the presidential election. As a consequential amendment the term of office of members of the Legislature was made to begin on the first day of December instead of the first day of November, as in the original article.]

Further Provisions Regarding State's Officers and Agents

8. The Legislature, in cases not provided for in this Constitution, shall prescribe, by general laws, the terms of office, powers, duties and compensation of all public officers and agents, and the manner in which they shall be elected, appointed and removed.

Judgment in cases of impeachment, shall not extend further than to removal from office, and disqualification to hold any office of honor, trust or profit, under the State; but the party convicted shall be liable to indictment, trial, judgment, and punishment according to law. The Senate may sit during the recess of the Legislature for the trial of impeachments.

[The amendment of this section was proposed by joint resolution of February 22, 1901, Acts 1901, p. 472, and adopted at the next election. The original section read as follows: "No citizen shall ever be denied or refused the right or privilege of voting at an election, because his name is not, or has not been registered or listed as a qualified voter."]

ARTICLE V

Division of Powers

1. The Legislative, Executive and Judicial Departments shall be separate and distinct, so that neither shall exercise the powers properly belonging to either of the others; nor shall any person exercise the powers of more than one of them at the same time, except that justices of the peace shall be eligible to the Legislature.

ARTICLE VI

Legislature

1. The legislative power shall be vested in a Senate and House of Delegates. The style of their Acts shall be, "Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia."

Composition of Senate and House of Delegates

2. The Senate shall be composed of twenty-four, and the House of Delegates of sixty-five members subject to be increased according to the provisions hereinafter contained.

[The Senate is now composed of thirty-four, and the House of Delegates of one hundred members.]

Senators and Delegates—Term of Office

3. Senators shall be elected for the term of four years, and Delegates for the term of two years. The Senators first elected, shall divide themselves into two classes, one Senator from every district being assigned to each class; and of these classes, the first to be designated by lot in such manner as the Senate may determine, shall hold their seats for two years and the second for four years, so that after the first election, one half of the Senators shall be elected biennially.

Division of State Into Senatorial Districts

4. For the election of Senators, the State shall be divided into twelve Senatorial districts, which number shall not be diminished, but may be increased as hereinafter provided. Every district shall elect two Senators, but, where the district is composed of more than one county, both shall not be chosen from the same county. The district shall be compact, formed of contiguous territory, bounded by county lines, and, as nearly as practicable, equal in population, to be ascertained by the census of the United States. After every such census, the Legislature shall alter the Senatorial Districts, so far as may be necessary to make them conform to the foregoing provision.

[There are now seventeen senatorial districts, as provided by Chapter 1, Acts, 1st Extraordinary Session, 1964 (Code, Ch. 1, Art. 2)]

Senatorial Districts Designated

5. Until the Senatorial Districts shall be altered by the Legislature as herein prescribed, the counties of Hancock, Brooke and Ohio, shall constitute the first Senatorial District; Marshall, Wetzel and Marion, the second; Ritchie, Doddridge, Harrison, Gilmer and Calhoun, the third; Tyler, Pleasants, Wood and Wirt, the fourth; Jackson, Mason, Putnam and Roane, the fifth; Kanawha, Clay, Nicholas, Braxton and Webster, the sixth; Cabell, Wayne, Lincoln, Boone, Logan, Wyoming, McDowell and Mercer, the seventh; Monroe, Greenbrier, Summers, Pocahontas, Fayette and Raleigh, the eighth; Lewis, Randolph, Upshur, Barbour, Taylor and Tucker, the ninth; Preston and Monongalia, the tenth; Hampshire, Mineral, Hardy, Grant and Pendleton, the eleventh; Berkeley, Morgan and Jefferson, the twelfth.

[By the provisions of the reapportionment act of 1937, (Acts 1937, Ch. 128) the number of Senatorial Districts was increased to sixteen, the number of Senators to thirty-two, and the counties rearranged in the various districts.]

[Under the reapportionment act of 1964, Acts, Ch. 1, 1st Extraordinary Session, 1964 (Code, Ch. 1, Art. 2), the number of senatorial districts was fixed at seventeen. The County of Kanawha embraces two districts, the eighth and the seventeenth. The other fifty-four counties are arranged into sixteen districts, each consisting of two or more counties.]

Provisions for Delegate Representation

6. For the election of Delegates, every county containing a population of less than three fifths of the ratio of representation for the House of Delegates, shall at each apportionment, be attached to some contiguous county or counties, to form a delegate District.

(By the provisions of the Acts of 1901, Ch. 10, the House of Delegates consisted of eighty-six members, each county having at least one member. From 1916 to 1952, the House of Delegates consisted of ninety-four members. In 1951, the membership was increased to one-hundred members with each county continuing to have at least one member. Under Ch. 1, Acts 1st Extraordinary Session, 1964, the membership was again fixed at one-hundred, but seven delegate districts were established, embracing fifteen counties, and allotted a total of nine delegates.)

After Census, Delegate Apportionment

7. After every census the Delegate shall be apportioned as follows: The ratio of representation for the House of Delegates shall be ascertained by dividing the whole population of the State by the number of which the House is to consist and rejecting the fraction of a unit, if any, resulting from such division. Dividing the population of every delegate District, and of every county not included in a Delegate District, by the ratio thus ascertained, there shall be assigned to each a number of Delegates equal to the quotient obtained by this division, excluding the fractional remainder. The additional Delegates necessary to make up the number of which the House is to consist, shall then be assigned to those Delegate Districts, and counties not included in a Delegate District, which would otherwise have the largest fractions unrepresented; but every Delegate District and county not included in a Delegate District, shall be entitled to at least one Delegate.

Designation of Delegate Districts

8. Until a new apportionment shall be declared, the counties of Pleasants and Wood shall form the first Delegate District, and elect three Delegates; Ritchie and Calhoun, the second, and elect two Delegates; Barbour, Harrison and Taylor the third, and elect one Delegate; Randolph and Tucker, the fourth, and elect one Delegate; Nicholas, Clay and Webster, the fifth, and elect one Delegate; McDowell and Wyoming, the sixth, and elect one Delegate.

[There are now seven Delegate Districts, each county having at least one member.]

Further Apportionments

9. Until a new apportionment shall be declared, the apportionment of Delegates to the counties not included in Delegate Districts, and to Barbour, Harrison and Taylor counties, embraced in such district, shall be as follows:

To Barbour, Boone, Braxton, Brooke, Cabell, Doddridge, Fayette, Hampshire, Hancock, Jackson, Lewis, Logan, Greenbrier, Monroe, Mercer, Mineral, Morgan, Grant, Hardy, Lincoln, Pendleton, Putnam, Roane, Gilmer, Taylor, Tyler, Upshur, Wayne, Wetzel, Wirt, Pocahontas, Summers and Raleigh counties one Delegate each.

To Berkeley, Harrison, Jefferson, Marion, Marshall, Mason, Monongalia and Preston counties, two Delegates each.

To Kanawha County, three Delegates.

To Ohio County, four Delegates.

[Many changes have been made in this apportionment. Kanawha County, the largest in population, now has fourteen delegates. For the present apportionment, see Chapter 1, Acts of the Legislature, 1st Extraordinary Session, 1964.]

Arrangement of Senatorial and Delegate Districts

10. The arrangement of the Senatorial and Delegate Districts, and apportionment of Delegates, shall hereafter be declared by law, as soon as possible after each succeeding census taken by authority of the United States. When so declared they shall apply to the first general election for members of the Legislature, to be thereafter held, and shall continue in force unchanged, until such Districts shall be altered, and Delegates apportioned, under the succeeding census.

Additional Territory May Be Admitted Into State

11. Additional territory may be admitted into, and become part of the State, with the consent of the Legislature and a majority of the qualified voters of the State, voting on the question. And in such case provision shall be made by law for the representation thereof in the Senate and House of Delegates, in conformity with the principles set forth in this Constitution. And the number of members of which each house of the Legislature is to consist, shall thereafter be increased by the representation assigned to such additional territory.

Senators and Delegates Required to be Residents of District

12. No person shall be a Senator or Delegate who has not for one year next preceding his election, been a resident within the District or County from which he is elected; and if a Senator or Delegate remove from the District or County for which he was elected, his seat shall be thereby vacated.

13. No person holding a lucrative office under this State, the United States, or any foreign government; no member of Congress; no person who is a salaried

14. No person who has been, or hereafter shall be convicted of bribery, perjury, or other infamous crime, shall be eligible to a seat in the Legislature. No person who may have collected or been entrusted with public money, whether State, county, township, district, or other municipal organization, shall be eligible to the Legislature, or to any office of honor, trust, or profit in the State, until he shall have duly accounted for and paid over such money according to law.

Senators and Delegates Not to Hold Civil Office for Profit

15. No Senator or Delegate, during the term for which he shall have been elected, shall be elected or appointed to any civil office of profit under this State, which has been created, or the emoluments of which have been increased during such term, except offices to be filled by election by the people. Nor shall any member of the Legislature be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract with the State, or any county thereof, authorized by any law passed during the term for which he shall have been elected.

Oath of Senators and Delegates

16. Members of the Legislature, before they enter upon their duties, shall take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of West Virginia, and faithfully discharge the duties of Senator (or Delegate) according to the best of my ability"; and they shall also take this further oath, to wit: "I will not accept or receive, directly or indirectly, any money or other valuable thing, from any corporation, company, or person for any vote or influence I may give or withhold, as Senator (or Delegate), on any bill, resolution, or appropriation, or for any act I may do or perform as Senator (or Delegate)." These oaths shall be administered in the hall of the house to which the member is elected, by a Judge of the Supreme Court of Appeals, or of a Circuit Court, or by any other person authorized by law to administer an oath; and the Secretary of State shall record and file said oaths subscribed by each member; and no other oath or declaration shall be required as a qualification. Any member who shall refuse to take the oath herein prescribed, shall forfeit his seat; and any member who shall be convicted of having violated the oath last above required to be taken, shall forfeit his seat and be disqualified thereafter from holding any office of profit or trust in this State.

Members of Legislature Privileged from Civil Arrest

17. Members of the Legislature shall, in all cases except treason, felony, and breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during the session, and for ten days before and after the same; and for words spoken in debate, or any report, motion or proposition made in either house, a member shall not be questioned in any other place.

Provisions for Assembling of Legislature Other Than at the Seat of Government

21. The Governor may convene the Legislature at another place, when, in his opinion, it can not safely assemble at the seat of Government, and the Legislature may, when in session, adjourn to some other place, when in its opinion, the public safety or welfare, or the safety of the members, or their health, shall require it.

Length of Legislative Session

22. The regular session of the Legislature held in the year one thousand nine hundred fifty-five and every second year thereafter shall not exceed sixty days, and the regular session held in the year one thousand nine hundred fifty-six and every second year thereafter shall not exceed thirty days. During any thirty-day session, the Legislature shall consider no other business than the annual budget bill, except such as may be stated in a proclamation issued by the Governor at least ten days prior to the convening of the session, or such business as may be stated by the Legislature on its own motion in a concurrent resolution adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members elected to each house. All regular sessions may be extended by the concurrence of two thirds of the members elected to each house.

Concerning Adjournment

23. Neither house shall, during the session, adjourn for more than three days, without the consent of the other. Nor shall either, without such consent, adjourn to any other place than that in which the Legislature is sitting.

*[This section originally read as follows: "No session of the Legislature, after the first, shall continue longer than forty-five days, without the concurrence of two thirds of the members elected to each house."

Under Senate Joint Resolution No. 3, adopted February 12, 1919 (Acts 1919, p. 498), and ratified at the general election in November 1920, it was amended to read: "All sessions of the Legislature, other than extraordinary sessions, shall continue in session for a period not exceeding fifteen days from date of convening, during which time no bills shall be passed or rejected, unless the same shall be necessary to provide for a public emergency, shall be specially recommended by the Governor and passed by a vote of four fifths of the members elected to each house; whereupon, a recess of both houses must be taken until the Wednesday after the second Monday of March following. On reassembling of the Legislature, no bill shall be introduced in either house without a vote of three fourths of all the members elected to each house taken by yeas and nays. Each house shall determine the rules of its proceedings and be the judge of the elections, returns and qualifications of its own members. The Senate shall choose, from its own body, a President; and the House of Delegates, from its own body, a Speaker. Each house shall appoint its own officers, and remove them at pleasure. The oldest Delegate present shall call the House to order at the opening of each new House of Delegates, and preside over it until the Speaker thereof shall have been chosen and has taken his seat. The oldest member of the Senate present at the commencement of each regular session thereof shall call the Senate to order, and preside over the same until a President of the Senate shall have been chosen and has taken his seat.

Authority to Punish Members

25. Each house may punish its own members for disorderly behavior, and with the concurrence of two thirds of the members elected thereto, expel a member but not twice for the same offense.

Provisions for Undisturbed Transaction of Business

26. Each house shall have power to provide for its own safety and the undisturbed transaction of its business, and may punish, by imprisonment, any person not a member, for disrespectful behavior in its presence; for obstructing any of its proceedings, or any of its officers in the discharge of his duties, or for any assault, threat or abuse of a member, for words spoken in debate. But such imprisonment shall not extend beyond the termination of the session, and shall not prevent the punishment of any offense, by the ordinary course of law.

Accounting for State Monies

27. Laws shall be enacted and enforced, by suitable provisions and penalties, requiring sheriffs, and all other officers, whether State, county, district or municipal, who shall collect or receive, or whose official duty it is, or shall be, to collect, receive, hold or pay out any money belonging to, or which is, or shall be, for the use of the State or of any county, district, or municipal corporation, to make annual account and settlement therefor. Such settlement, when made, shall be subject to exceptions, and take such direction, and have only such force and effect, as may be provided by law; but in all cases such settlement shall be recorded, and be open to the examination of the people at such convenient place or places as may be appointed by law.

Acts to Embrace But One Object—Time of Effect

30. No act hereafter passed shall embrace more than one object, and that shall be expressed in the title. But if any object shall be embraced in an act which is not so expressed, the act shall be void only as to so much thereof as shall not be so expressed, and no law shall be revived, or amended, by reference to its title only; but the law revived, or the section amended, shall be inserted at large, in the new act. And no act of the Legislature, except such as may be passed at the first session under the Constitution, shall take effect until the expiration of ninety days after its passage, unless the Legislature shall by a vote of two thirds of the members elected to each house, taken by yeas and nays, otherwise direct.

How Bills May Be Amended

31. When a bill or joint resolution, passed by one house, shall be amended by the other, the question on agreeing to the bill, or joint resolution, as amended, shall be again voted on, by yeas and nays, in the house by which it was originally passed, and the result entered upon its journals; in all such cases, the affirmative vote of a majority of all the members elected to such house shall be necessary.

"Majority" Defined

32. Whenever the words, "a majority of the members elected to either House of the Legislature", or words of like import, are used in this Constitution, they shall be construed to mean a majority of the whole number of members to which each house is, at the time, entitled, under the apportionment of representation, established by the provisions of this Constitution.

*Compensation of Members

33. Each member of the Legislature shall receive for his services the sum of one thousand five hundred dollars a year, and expenses for one round trip in connection with any session, at the rate of ten cents a mile traveled in going to and returning from the seat of government by the most direct route: Provided, That if party caucuses are held in advance of the date of the assembly of the Legislature in odd-numbered years for the purpose of selecting candidates for officers of the two houses, expenses for travel at the rate herein fixed shall be allowed each member for one round trip in connection with attending such caucus. The Speaker of the House of Delegates and the President of the Senate shall each receive an additional compensation of five dollars a day for each day served as presiding officer. No other allowance or emolument than that by this section provided shall directly or indirectly be made or paid to the members of either house for postage, stationery, newspapers or any other purpose whatever. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Constitution, the compensation herein provided for shall be paid to each member of the Legislature on and after the adoption of this amendment.

[*The amendment of sections 22 and 33, Art. VI, was proposed by Senate Joint Resolution No. 3, adopted February 12, 1919, Acts 1919, p. 456, and ratified at the general election November 2, 1920. The only change made in section 33 was to strike out the words "four dollars per day" and insert "five hundred dollars per annum." Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 160,929; Against ratification, 122,744; Majority, 38,185.

Under Senate Joint Resolution No. 4 adopted March 11, 1953; (Acts 1953, p. 612), and ratified at the general election in November, 1954, the section was amended to read as given in the text. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 190,877; Against ratification, 137,624; Majority, 53,253.

Prior to the last amendment, the section read as follows: "The members of the Legislature shall each receive for their services the sum of five hundred dollars per annum and ten cents for each mile traveled in going to and returning from the seat of government by the most direct route. The Budget System

51. The Legislature shall not appropriate any money out of the treasury except in accordance with the following provisions:

Sub-Section A

Every appropriation bill shall be either a budget bill, or a supplementary appropriation bill, as hereinafter mentioned.

Sub-Section B

First: Within ten days after the convening of the Legislature, unless such time shall be extended by the Legislature for the sessions at which the budget is to be submitted, the board of public works, which shall consist of the Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor, Treasurer, Attorney General, Superintendent of Free Schools and Commissioner of Agriculture, shall submit to the Legislature, *two budgets, one for each of the ensuing fiscal years: Each budget shall contain a complete plan of proposed expenditures and estimated revenues for the particular fiscal year to which it relates; and shall show the estimated surplus or deficit of revenues at the end of such year. Accompanying each budget shall be a statement showing: (1) The revenues and expenditures for each of the two fiscal years next preceding; (2) the current assets, liabilities, reserves and surplus or deficit of the State; (3) the debts and funds of the State; (4) an estimate of the State's financial condition as of the beginning and end of each of the fiscal years covered by the two budgets above provided; (5) any explanation the board of public works may desire to make as to the important features of any budget and any suggestion as to methods for the reduction or increase of the State's revenue.

Second: Each budget shall be divided into two parts, and the first part shall be designated "Governmental Appropriations" and shall embrace an itemized estimate of the appropriations: (1) For the Legislature as certified to the board of public works in the manner hereinafter provided; (2) for the executive department; (3) for the judiciary department, as provided by law, certified to the Governor by the Auditor; (4) to pay and discharge the principal and interest of any debt of the State of West Virginia hereafter created in conformity with the Constitution and all laws enacted in pursuance thereof; (5) for the salaries payable by the State under the Constitution and laws of the State; (6) for the aid of public schools in conformity with the laws of the State; (7) for such other purposes as are set forth in the Constitution and laws made in pursuance thereof.

Third: The second part shall be designated "General Appropriations", and shall include all other estimates of appropriations.

The board of public works shall deliver to the presiding officer of each house the budgets and a bill for all the proposed appropriations of the budgets clearly itemized and classified; and the presiding officer of each house shall promptly cause said bill to be introduced therein, and such bill shall be known as the "Budget Bill." The board of public works may, before final action thereon by the Legislature, amend or supplement either of said budgets to correct an oversight or in case of an emergency, with the consent of the Legislature by delivering such an amendment or supplement to the presiding officer of both houses; and such amendment or supplement shall thereby become a part of said budget bill as an addition to the items of said bill or as a modification of or a substitute for any item of said bill such amendment or supplement may affect.

The Legislature shall not amend the budget bill so as to create a deficit but may amend the bill by increasing or diminishing the items therein relating to the Legislature, and by increasing the items therein relating to the judiciary, but except as hereinbefore specified, may not alter the said bill except to strike out or reduce items therein: Provided, however, That the salary or compensation of any public officer shall not be increased or diminished during his term of office; and such bill when and as passed by both houses shall be a law immediately without further action by the Governor.

*This provision has been modified by the amendment of section eighteen of this article, requiring an annual budget.

Fourth: The Governor and such representatives of the boards, officers and commissions of the State expending or applying for State's money as have been designated by the board of public works for this purpose, shall have the right, and when requested by either house of the Legislature it shall be their duty to appear and be heard with respect to any budget bill during the consideration thereof, and to answer inquiries relative thereto.

Sub-Section C—Supplementary Appropriation Bills

Neither house shall consider other appropriations until the budget bill has been finally acted upon by both houses, and no such other appropriations shall be valid except in accordance with the provisions following:

(1) Every such appropriation shall be embodied in a separate bill limited to some single work, object or purpose therein stated and called herein, a supplementary appropriation bill; (2) each supplementary appropriation bill shall provide the revenue necessary to pay the appropriation thereby made by a tax, direct or indirect, to be laid and collected as shall be directed in said bill unless it appears from such budget that there is sufficient revenue available; (3) no supplementary appropriation bill shall become a law unless it be passed in each house by a vote of a majority of the members present, and the yeas and nays recorded on its final passage. Each supplementary appropriation bill shall be presented to the Governor of the State as provided in section fourteen of article seven of the Constitution and thereafter all the provisions of said section shall apply.

Nothing in this amendment shall be construed as preventing the Legislature from passing in time of war an appropriation bill to provide for the payment of any obligation of the State of West Virginia within the protection of section ten of article one of the Constitution of the United States.

Sub-Section D—General Provisions

First: If the "Budget Bill" shall not have been finally acted upon by the Legislature three days before the expiration of its regular session, the Governor may, and it shall be his duty to issue a proclamation extending the session for such further period as may, in his judgment, be necessary for the passage of such bill; but no other matter than such bill shall be considered during such extended session except a provision for the cost thereof.

Second: The board of public works for the purpose of making up its budgets shall have the power, and it shall be its duty, to require from the proper State officials, including herein all executive departments, all executive and administrative officers, bureaus, boards, commissions and agencies expending or supervising the expenditure of, and all institutions applying for state monies and appropriations, such itemized estimates and other information, in such form and at such times as said board shall direct. The estimates for the legislative department, certified by the presiding officer of each house, of the judiciary, as provided by law, certified by the Auditor, and for the public schools, as provided by law, shall be transmitted to the board of public works, in such form and at such times as it shall direct, and shall be included in the budget.

The board of public works may provide for public hearings on all estimates and may require the attendance at such hearings of representatives of all agencies, and all institutions applying for state monies. After such public hearings it may, in its discretion, revise all estimates except those for the legislative and judiciary departments, and for the public schools as provided by law.

Third: The Legislature may, from time to time, enact such laws, not inconsistent with this section, as may be necessary and proper to carry out its provisions.

Fourth: In the event of any inconsistency between any of the provisions of this section and any of the other provisions of the Constitutions, except amendments thereto heretofore made and ratified by the people, the provisions of this section shall prevail. But nothing herein shall be construed as preventing the Governor from calling extraordinary sessions of the Legislature, as provided by section seven of article seven, or as preventing the Legislature at such extraordinary sessions from considering any emergency appropriation or appropriations.

[This section—added to Article VI—was authorized to be submitted by Senate Joint Resolution No. 1, adopted May 23, 1917 (Acts 1917, p. 69 ex. sess.) and was ratified by a vote of the people at the general election held on the fifth day of November, 1918, as an amendment to the Constitution known as "The Budget Amendment." Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 51,405; Against ratification, 26,651; Majority, 24,754.]

If any item of any appropriation bill passed under the provisions of this section shall be held invalid upon any ground, such invalidity shall not affect the legality of the bill or of any other item of such bill or bills.

Motor Fuel and Motor Vehicle Revenue

52. Revenue from gasoline and other motor fuel excise and license taxation, motor vehicle registration and license taxes, and all other revenue derived from motor vehicles or motor fuels shall after the deduction of statutory refunds and cost of administration and collection authorized by legislative appropriation, be appropriated and used solely for construction, reconstruction, repair and maintenance of public highways, and also the payment of the interest and principal on all road bonds heretofore issued or which may be hereafter issued for the construction, reconstruction or improvement of public highways, and the payment of obligations incurred in the construction, reconstruction, repair and maintenance of public highways.

Forestry

53. The Legislature may by general law define and classify forest lands and provide for cooperation by contract between the State and the owner in the planting, protection, and harvesting thereof. Forest lands embraced in any such contract may be exempted from all taxation or be taxed in such manner, including the imposition of a severance tax or charge as trees are harvested, as the Legislature may from time to time provide. But any tax measured by valuation shall not exceed the aggregate rates authorized by section one of article ten of this Constitution.

[This section was proposed by House Joint Resolution No. 7, (Acts, Regular Session, 1945, p. 640) and ratified at the General Election November 5, 1946. Vote on the amendment: For ratification, 179,150; Against ratification, 148,104; Majority, 31,046.]

Certification of Election Returns—Contests

3. The returns of every election for the above-named officers shall be sealed up and transmitted by the returning officers to the Secretary of State, directed to "the Speaker of the House of Delegates", who shall, immediately after the organization of the House, and before proceeding to business, open and publish the same, in the presence of a majority of each house of the Legislature, which shall for that purpose assemble in the Hall of the House of Delegates. The person having the highest number of votes for either of said offices, shall be declared duly elected thereto; but if two or more have an equal and the highest number of votes for the same office, the Legislature shall, by joint vote, choose one of such persons for said office. Contested elections for the office of Governor shall be determined by both houses of the Legislature by joint vote in such manner as may be prescribed by law.

[The amendment of this section was proposed by Joint Resolution of February 15, 1901 (Acts 1901, p. 460), and ratified at the general election in 1902. The effect of the amendment was to strike out the following at the end of the original section: "The Secretary of State shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall continue in office, unless sooner removed, until the expiration of the official term of the Governor by whom he shall have been appointed." For the vote on the adoption of the amendment, see note following section 2.]

Eligibility

4. None of the executive officers mentioned in this article shall hold any other office during the term of his service. The Governor shall not be eligible to said office for the four years next succeeding the term for which he was elected.

[The amendment of this section was proposed by joint resolution of February 15, 1901, Acts 1901, p. 460, and adopted at the next election. The section prior to being amended, read as follows: "Neither the Governor, State Superintendent of Free Schools, Auditor, Treasurer, nor Attorney General, shall hold any other office during the term of his service. The Governor shall be ineligible to said office for the four years next succeeding the term for which he was elected." For the vote on the adoption of the amendment, see note following section 2.]

Chief Executive—Powers

5. The chief executive power shall be vested in the Governor, who shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed.

Governor's Message

6. The Governor shall at the commencement of each session, give to the Legislature information by message, of the condition of the State, and shall recommend such measures as he shall deem expedient. He shall accompany his message with a statement of all money received and paid out by him from any funds, subject to his order, with vouchers therefor; and at the commencement of each regular session, present estimates of the amount of money required by taxation for all purposes.

Extraordinary Legislative Sessions

7. The Governor may on extraordinary occasions convene at his own instance, the Legislature; but when so convened it shall enter upon no business except that stated in the proclamation by which it was called together.

Governor to Nominate Certain Officers

8. The Governor shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate (a majority of all the Senators elected concurring by yeas and nays), appoint all officers whose offices are established by this Constitution, or shall be created by law, and whose appointment or election is not otherwise provided for; and no such officer shall be appointed or elected by the Legislature.

Recess Vacancies—How Filled

9. In case of a vacancy, during the recess of the Senate, in any office which is not elective, the Governor shall, by appointment, fill such vacancy, until the next meeting of the Senate, when he shall make a nomination for such office and the person so nominated, when confirmed by the Senate, (a majority of all the Senators elected concurring by yeas and nays) shall hold his office during the remainder of the term, and until his successor shall be appointed and qualified. No person, after being rejected by the Senate, shall be again nominated for the same office, during the same session, unless at the request of the Senate; nor shall such person be appointed to the same office during the recess of the Senate.

Governor's Power of Removal

10. The Governor shall have power to remove any officer whom he may appoint in case of incompetency, neglect of duty, gross immorality, or malfeasance in office; and he may declare his office vacant and fill the same as herein provided in other cases of vacancy.

Executive May Remit Fines and Forfeitures

11. The Governor shall have power to remit fines and penalties in such cases and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law; to commute capital punishment and, except where the prosecution has been carried on by the House of Delegates, to grant reprieves and pardons after conviction; but he shall communicate to the Legislature at each session the particulars of every case of fine or penalty remitted, or punishment commuted and of reprieve or pardon granted, with his reasons therefor.

Governor Commander-in-Chief of Military Forces

12. The Governor shall be commander-in-chief of the military forces of the State (except when they shall be called into the service of the United States), and may call out the same to execute the laws, suppress insurrection and repel invasion.

Official Bond of State Officers

13. When any State officer has executed his official bond, the Governor shall, for such causes and in such manner as the Legislature may direct, require of such officer reasonable additional security; and if the security is not given as required, his office shall be declared vacant, in such manner as may be provided by law.

How Bills Become Laws

14. Every bill passed by the Legislature shall, before it becomes a law, be presented to the Governor. If he approves, he shall sign it, and thereupon it shall become a law; but if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to the house in which it originated, which house shall enter the objections at large upon its journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If, after such consideration, a majority of the members elected to that house agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections to the other house, by which it shall likewise, be reconsidered, and if approved by a majority of the members elected to that house, it shall become a law, notwithstanding the objections of the Governor. But in all such cases, the vote of each house shall be determined by yeas and nays to be entered on the journal. Any bill which shall not be returned by the Governor within five days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, shall be a law, in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the Legislature shall, by their adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall be filed with his objections in the office of the Secretary of State, within five days after such adjournment, or become a law.

Respecting Appropriations of Monies

15. Every bill passed by the Legislature making appropriations of money, embracing distinct items, shall before it becomes a law, be presented to the Governor, if he disapproves the bill, or any item of appropriation therein contained, he shall communicate such disapproval with his reasons therefor to the house in which the bill originated; but all items not disapproved shall have the force and effect of law according to the original provisions of the bill. Any item or items so disapproved shall be void, unless re-passed by a majority of each house according to the rules and limitations prescribed in the preceding section in reference to other bills.

Vacancy in Governorship, How Filled

16. In case of the death, conviction or impeachment, failure to qualify, resignation, or other disability of the Governor, the President of the Senate shall act as Governor until the vacancy is filled, or the disability removed; and if the President of the Senate, for any of the above named causes, shall become incapable of performing the duties of Governor, the same shall devolve upon the Speaker of the House of Delegates; and in all other cases where there is no one to act as Governor, one shall be chosen by joint vote of the Legislature. Whenever a vacancy shall occur in the office of Governor before the first three years of the term shall have expired, a new election for Governor shall take place to fill the vacancy.

Vacancies in Other Executive Departments

17. If the office of Secretary of State, Auditor, Treasurer, Commissioner of Agriculture or Attorney General shall become vacant by death, resignation, or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the Governor to fill the same by appointment, and the appointee shall hold his office until his successor shall be elected and qualified in such manner as may be prescribed by law. The subordinate officers of the executive department and the officers of all public institutions of the State shall keep an account of all monies received or disbursed by them, respectively, from all sources, and for every service performed, and make a semi-annual report thereof to the Governor under oath or affirmation; and any officer who shall wilfully make a false report shall be deemed guilty of perjury.

[This section originally read as follows: "If the office of Auditor, Treasurer, State Superintendent of Free Schools, or Attorney General, shall become vacant by death, resignation, or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the Governor to fill the same by appointment, and the appointee shall hold his office until his successor shall be elected and qualified in such manner as may be provided by law. The subordinate officers of the executive department and the officers of all public institutions of the State shall keep an account of all monies received or disbursed by them respectively, from all sources, and for every service performed, and make a semi-annual report thereof to the Governor under oath or affirmation, and any officer who shall wilfully make a false report shall be deemed guilty of perjury."

In the first amendment of this section, proposed by House Joint Resolution No. 5 (Acts, Regular Session, 1901, p. 460) and ratified at the general election 1902, the only change in the original section was the insertion of the words "Secretary of State" in the first line, and by substitution of the word "prescribed" for the word "provided" in the eighth line.

WEST VIRGINIA INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL FOR BOYS

Grafton

Superintendent: William T. Flanagan. Assistant Superintendent: Chas. N. Taylor. Business Manager: H. E. Ferrell. Enrollment: 277.

The West Virginia Industrial School for Boys is located at Pruntytown, three miles west of Grafton on U. S. Route 50. It was established by an Act of the Legislature in 1889 and formally opened July 21, 1891. In addition to the principal buildings, which are located on the main campus consisting of approximately 55 acres, the school owns and operates a farm of approximately 1,900 acres on which are located a considerable number of farm buildings. The boys work on the farm during the farming season at which time emphasis is placed on the training value of such a program, directed toward improving work habits and maintaining discipline standards. For use at the School a dairy herd of registered cows is maintained on the farm and the milk is pasteurized and homogenized in the modern plant of the institution.

The school now has a vocational rehabilitation training program consisting of six certified vocational instructors for full time vocational instruction in the fields of industrial arts, auto mechanics, welding, electricity, vocational agriculture and sheet metal. As funds become available, this highly important phase of the program is to be expanded. In addition to this, there are training units in shoe repairing and baking. The school also maintains the following units in which the boys receive a certain amount of training. Painting, plumbing, printing, laundering, woodwork, canning, auto mechanics and carpentry. The academic school is operated on approved state standards and contains grades one through ten. In compliance with the state law, those under sixteen years of age are required to attend academic school for a term of nine months each year. A well planned recreation and physical education program operates under the supervision of competent men. Football, basketball (indoor and outdoor), baseball, softball, volleyball and horseshoe pitching form the backbone of this program.

A Social Service Department classifies each boy upon his reception, presents him for parole and/or discharge at the proper time and maintains liaison between County and State Authorities. In most instances, the boys are placed in cottages according to their age or size or both. An Honor System has been established as a stimulant to good behavior and achievement for the boys and it is working well. A Drum and Bugle Corps, consisting of approximately 40 boys, is in operation and appears at many parades and festivals throughout the year, and there is now an active Boy Scout Troop. A full-time Chaplain, especially trained for this work, offers classes in religious education in the academic school and holds weekly religious services for the boys, and carries on a program of counseling and guidance.

The Andrew S. Rowan Memorial Home for aged men and women was established by an act of the Legislature in 1945 and opened to guests July 1, of the same year.

This Institution is located at Sweet Springs, Monroe County, in the heart of the Blue Grass Section, on State Route No. 3 midway between Union and White Sulphur Springs.

There are many historical facts and traditions connected with the buildings and grounds. The oldest and largest building was completed in 1833 and is of the Thomas Jefferson design and named in his honor. A ninety-six bed annexation to this building has recently been completed in 1958. There are six hundred ninety acres including two hundred twenty-five of farm, and pasture lands and approximately thirty buildings. The dormitory used for men has undergone quite extensive repairs and alterations. A sprinkler system has been installed in the buildings even though some of the buildings are already fire proof. An excellent herd of registered Holstein cows is kept on the farm which supplies the guests with a bountiful supply of milk. The milk plant is one of the best to be found in this county.

Guests are admitted through the Department of Public Assistance, Voluntary pay or by transfer from other State Institutions and must have attained the age of sixty-five years.

BARBOURSVILLE STATE HOSPITAL

Barboursville

Superintendent: (Vacancy). Physicians: Dr. Rogelio G. Pena, M.D., Milda Sprogis, M.D., Raymond H. Curry, M.D., and W. D. Bourn, M.D. Business Manager: John Queen. Number of Patients: 368.

The Barboursville State Hospital, located at Barboursville, Cabell County, and reached by U. S. Route 60, was opened January 20, 1942. The hospital was originally called Barboursville Unit of Weston State Hospital. The 1947 Legislature changed the name to Barboursville Unit of Huntington State Hospital, and the 1949 Legislature, established it as Barboursville State Hospital. The State in 1941 purchased 23.76 acres of land and the two buildings which were formerly used as dormitories for Morris Harvey College, and patients were moved into the hospital as soon as each section was reconditioned and equipped. On August 1, 1942, the hospital had a population of 270 patients, its capacity at that time. Additional space has been provided through renovation of one of the buildings until the hospital had facilities for 315 patients. The 1947 Legislature made an appropriation for an Administration Building and a Storage Building. These two buildings have been completed and are now in use. The 1949 Legislature made an additional appropriation for construction of a modern laundry building and for renovation of the old buildings, and upon completion of the renovation and the additional space provided by the removal of the administrative offices from one of the dormitories to the new Administration Building, it has a capacity of 368 beds.

The 1957 Legislature appropriated $100,000 for construction and furnishing of a Male Employees Dormitory. In 1964 this building was converted into a Patients' Self Government Ward.

BERKELEY SPRINGS SANITARIUMBerkeley Springs

Superintendent: Henry C. Lawyer.

Berkeley Springs Sanitarium is located in the City of Berkeley Springs. It offers baths and swimming pools which utilize the warm and medicinal waters of Berkeley Springs. Histories of colonists mentioned the qualities of the water as early as 1736, and prior to that, American Indians, who were subject to rheumatism knew of its medicinal qualities and called it the "healing waters." It was the first health and pleasure resort in the colonies. The temperature of the spring water is 74.3 degrees and is invariable, and is helpful in the treatment of rheumatism, gout, diabetes, and skin diseases. The springs have been expanded to include a modern open air swimming pool with modern dressing facilities and sunbathing, and an additional new bath house which has Roman Baths and all other types of baths for year-round use. The new bath house also has a solarium or sun deck, which is modern and meets present day requirements. The sanitarium has no facilities for housing patients, but for those who visit Berkeley Springs for baths, there are adequate hotel and boarding house facilities.

At no time in the more than two hundred and twenty-five years of resort history, which included patronage of George Washington and Lord Fairfax, were the famous springs so well equipped to treat patients or accommodate the vacationist, as they are today.

DENMAR STATE HOSPITALBeard

Superintendent: Andrew Cserny, M.D. Business Manager: Lee W. Ruckman. Patients: 150. Female 92. Male 58.

Denmar State Hospital, formerly known as Denmar Sanitarium, is located approximately 15 miles south of Marlinton, 5 miles off U. S. Route 219 in Pocahontas County, was established by an act of the Legislature in 1957, for the chronically ill. Care and treatment is available to any person, a resident of the State of West Virginia, who first is a patient in any institution other than a penal institution, and second, any person having been approved by the commissioner of Public Institutions.

The hospital is healthfully situated on an 185-acre tract of land at about 2,200 feet above sea level on an eminence overlooking the Greenbrier River in the Allegheny Mountains.

FAIRMONT EMERGENCY HOSPITAL(Surgical)*Fairmont

Superintendent: Philip Johnson, M.D., F.A.C.S., F.I.C.S., F.I.M.A. Business Manager: Ernest Berle. Patients: 68.

Fairmont Emergency Hospital was established in 1899 for the purpose of treating persons injured in their usual occupations. The hospital accepts surgical and maternity pay cases and is the surgical clinic for the Industrial School for Boys at Pruntytown, the Industrial School for Girls at Salem, the West Virginia Training School at St. Marys, the Children's Home at Elkins, the Medium Security Prison at Huttonsville, the Spencer State Hospital at Spencer, the Weston State Hospital at Weston, the Barboursville State Hospital at Barboursville, the Forestry Camp at Davis, Lakin State Hospital at Lakin and from the West Virginia Penitentiary at Moundsville. No charge whatsoever is made for these cases. The work of the current year at regular hospital prices represents more than the total cost of the operation of the institution. The purpose of the institution at present is rapid service surgical rehabilitation.

HOPEMONT STATE HOSPITALHopemont

Superintendent: Hilton D. Rocha, M.D. Business Manager: John A. Riffle.
Capacity: 322.

Hopemont State Hospital on a 600-acre tract of land, formerly known as Hope-mont Sanitarium, is located at Hopemont, near Terra Alta, in Preston County and was founded in 1913 as a tuberculosis hospital. In 1965 legislation was enacted to change the name of the hospital and convert it to an institution for the chronically ill, aged, and infirm.

The institution consists of four fireproof hospital units under one roof. Also, Conley Hospital, a separate unit, is used to hospitalize tuberculous prisoners under maximum security regulations. Other units of the hospital consist of residences, nurses' home, main dining hall, post office and laundry.

A registered Holstein herd is maintained to provide pasteurized and homogenized milk for the institution, and a piggery provides pork.

Children with tuberculosis will be admitted for the next two years in two isolated hospital units with a 50-bed capacity and adjoining classrooms. A qualified full-time teacher is provided by the Board of Education to teach children in the school rooms or at the bedside. Grade and high school courses are given.

HUNTINGTON STATE HOSPITAL(Mental)*Huntington

Superintendent: Gaston DeLemos, M.D. Business Manager: Julius C. Fry.
Total number of patients: 1100.

Huntington State Hospital, located in the City of Huntington, was established in 1897 by an act of the Legislature as a Home for Incurables. The name of the institution was changed in 1901 to the West Virginia Asylum and in 1916 to Huntington State Hospital.

The Hospital is devoted to the treatment of mental illness. The Hospital receives both voluntary and legally committed patients, and the prevailing types of treatment are administered. Those charged with minor law violations from the districts served by this Hospital are studied psychiatrically for the Courts.

The physical plant includes ward buildings for patients, two of these being original buildings, an administration building; one building used for quarters for employees (one of these being the original administration building), residence for the superintendent; three residences for physicians a short distance from the hospital grounds; power house; laundry; building for occupational therapy and recreation; main kitchen; shops for maintenance in the basement of one ward building. Medical-surgical services for the Hospital were recently transferred to one of the new ward buildings as part of a general move to house all bed and non-ambulatory patients in fire-resistant buildings.

An in-resident Psychiatric affiliation program has been finished for student nurses. We now have students from several hospitals affiliated here. A Psychiatric Nurses' program is also being conducted for student nurses from Marshall University.

Vocational Rehabilitation Division has a program established at Huntington State Hospital for the retraining of those who have been mentally ill.

A Hospital Farm, consisting of 698 acres plus other leased lands, is located on the Guyandotte River a mile southeast of Barboursville, and is served by State Route 10. The farm is devoted to providing pork and milk to the hospital. A registered herd of Holstein milk cows is maintained.

LAKIN STATE HOSPITAL(Mental)*Lakin

Superintendent: R. E. Walden, M.D. Business Manager: Lenzy G. Austin. Number of patients: 502.

Lakin State Hospital was founded by an act of the Legislature in 1919 and was opened in 1926 for the reception and treatment of Negroes suffering from mental and nervous disorders; however, the staff and patient population have been integrated since 1954. Presently, the institution is the district hospital for Mason, Jackson, Wood and Putnam counties.

The physical lay-out of Lakin State Hospital on the immediate grounds consists of the following: Building A and Building B, both three story brick structures which houses male and female patients respectively. The Treatment Center for Emotionally Disturbed Children is located in Building C, which also has administrative office areas, laboratory and X-ray unit, and central supply. Recently constructed is a new building which houses the kitchen, dining area for patients, offices for ancillary personnel, library, canteen, conference room, etc. In addition, there are, on the immediate hospital grounds, five frame reconditioned structures in which certain allied functions of the hospital such as laundry, recreation, and work shops are conducted.

In 1957 the former Boys' Industrial School was acquired by Lakin State Hospital. The main building and the dwelling houses have been converted into apartments for employees, farm and mechanical shops. The spacious gymnasium now being renovated is used for both patient therapy and employee recreational activities. The Lakin Post Office is also located on these grounds.

The hospital is a member of the Mental Hospital Institute of the American Psychiatric Association and in 1952 received its gold medal for achievement—which is a national award. For eleven years, a Psychiatric Aide of the Year was cited for excellency in the care of mentally ill patients. This, too, was a national recognition by the American Psychiatric Association, until its discontinuance in 1963.

A rehabilitation center is located on the hospital grounds in what was formerly the male employees' dormitory. In this building are the remedial and special education classrooms, beauty parlor, homemaking unit, manual arts shop and offices for related personnel.

Most of the accepted methods of diagnosis and treatment are utilized including clinical observation, social service, psychological testing, neurological and electroencephalography as indicated, occupational therapy, music therapy, recreational therapy, psychotherapy, educational therapy, and vocational rehabilitation, in addition to full utilization of the tranquilizing drugs, in an effort to maintain the institution as a treatment hospital rather than an institution for custodial care.

PINECREST SANITARIUM(Tuberculosis)*Beckley

Superintendent: H. S. Edwards, M.D. Business Manager: Roy J. Virden.

Pinecrest Sanitarium, located in Raleigh County at Beckley, was authorized by an act of the Legislature in 1927 and formally opened March 18, 1930. At that time the sanitarium was known as Rutherford Sanitarium but at the session of the 1934 Legislature was changed to Pinecrest Sanitarium.

Pinecrest Sanitarium is located just outside the city limits of Beckley on Federal Routes 19-21 and State Highways 3-41 with thirty-minute bus service connecting with the city and the Atlantic Greyhound bus lines, also with the C. & O. Railway in Beckley and Prince.

The sanitarium has a fifty-acre campus, and a 250-acre farm, which is modernly equipped for farming, and a dairy herd of 95 Holstein cows supplying milk for the institution, also a large number of hogs supply pork and pork products, all consumed by the institution. Pinecrest Sanitarium is composed of four modern fireproof units all connected under one roof, with 621 beds for patients, a modern fireproof nurses' home, five modern dwellings for staff physicians, seven cottages for employees, a central heating plant, dairy barn, hog barn, laundry and numerous outside buildings.

Patients admitted to Pinecrest Sanitarium are assigned to individual physicians who carry out therapeutic procedures that are recommended by the entire staff. In this manner, the patient is given the benefit of consultation by the entire medical staff. The Pinecrest staff is composed of a Superintendent, Assistant Superintendent, Thoracic Surgeon, six full-time physicians, two X-ray technicians and two laboratory technicians, with ample office employees.

The ambulatory patients have the privilege of being entertained in the modern auditorium by moving pictures and plays produced by local talent. The Sanitarium is modern in every respect, with the most modern equipment available for the treatment of tuberculosis, both surgical and medical. A recreational director and trained medical social workers are employed full-time. The Sanitarium has the services of a full-time Chaplain and assistant.

SPENCER STATE HOSPITAL

(Mental)

Spencer

Superintendent: E. A. Litsinger, M.D. Business Manager: Victor N. Goldberg.

The Spencer State Hospital is located in the city of Spencer, Roane County. It was authorized by an act of the Legislature in May 1887 and formally opened in 1893.

The hospital proper is located on a tract of land comprised of 180 acres, a portion of which is devoted to a large dairy farm which provides a constant supply of fresh milk for the hospital. The farm also supports a large number of hogs which supplies pork and pork products for the use of the institution. An additional 295 acres is located about two miles from the hospital in an area known as Trotter Lake and it serves as a recreational area for the patients as well as a water shed for a dam that impounds approximately 25,000,000 gallons of water.

The hospital's bed capacity is 1,030 and the population averages around 1,000 patients. The hospital staff is composed of seven physicians, all of whom have had at least five years experience and special training courses in psychiatry. There is a very active and well trained social service department and an active nursing staff which includes six registered nurses and two practical nurses. The hospital also provides dental treatment and has a modern high speed dental unit. The physically ill are treated in a separate medical department with the newest methods available. Electrocardiogram, laboratory and modern X-ray unit helps in the treatment and diagnoses of these patients.

The Spencer State Hospital adopted the open door policy and at the present time 76% of our patients reside on open wards. There are no mechanical restraints employed at the hospital. All forms of psychiatric treatment, such as psychotherapy, electro-convulsive therapy, chemotherapy and an active occupational and recreational therapies are utilized at the hospital. A new program, a class in remotivation for patients, has been in effect for a year which has added a great deal to the hospital's therapeutic success.

The hospital serves eight counties (Pleasants, Wirt, Calhoun, Roane, Clay, Kanawha, Fayette and Boone) which have a total population of approximately 400,000. In addition to the legally committed patients, the hospital also admits persons who make a voluntary application for admission.

The hospital is indebted to volunteer groups made up of citizens from Roane County and the City of Spencer, who have greatly assisted in the expansion of the Occupational Therapy and Recreational Programs.

In January 1964, a special program was initiated at this institution which incorporates the concept of group orientation in a comprehensive intensive alcohol treatment unit. A trained team consisting of members representing all disciplines, at all levels, from a psychiatrist who is the director and active participant, to and including psychiatric aides, constitutes the therapeutic community principle with regard to the leadership personnel. The patient becomes a member of a group, each of whom interact freely on a very personal basis with one another, which helps to develop interpersonal skills in meaningful communication. This unit is the first of its kind to operate in the State of West Virginia. Since January, 1965, this unit has been strengthened by additional personnel provided by funds supplied by a Federal Hospital Improvement Project Grant amounting to over $350,000.00 over a four year period.

The application of above mentioned principles of social psychiatry to an overall treatment program throughout the hospital because of the eminent success with alcoholics is now envisioned. An adaptation to this approach was developed for regressed patients three months ago. A similar program for emotionally disturbed children and most of our patients at the time of admission is being activated. Our chief purpose being shorter stay in hospital, more intensive treatment, prevention of regression, further upgrading of patients and ultimate reduction of overcrowding.

WELCH EMERGENCY HOSPITAL(Surgical)*Welch

Superintendent: Jorge, Ribeiro, M.D. Financial Secretary: James R. Moore.

Welch Emergency Hospital, located in the City of Welch, was established in 1899, on a three-acre tract given to the state by J. J. Sperry for this purpose. Its particular service was to the miners in that region, but now takes care of a large part of the charity cases of Southern West Virginia. The patient load has increased, the average daily census now being 116 patients.

There has been extensive remodeling of kitchen and three dining rooms, X-ray, and laboratory. The hospital now has an obstetrical room fully equipped, (690 deliveries last year); 17,752 patients were treated in the out-patient department which maintains a 97 per cent occupancy.

WESTON STATE HOSPITAL(Mental)*Weston

Superintendent: Cornelia B. Wilbur, M.D. Business Manager: Charles L. Lamb. Patients: 2,245.

The Weston State Hospital is located in the City of Weston. It is the oldest state institution in West Virginia, authorized on March 22, 1858, by an act of the Virginia Assembly. There was considerable delay in the construction of the hospital due to the Civil War, and the first patients were received on October 22, 1864. The hospital has grown from an initial capacity of 35 patients to 2,325.

The hospital is maintained and equipped to provide adequate treatment for all types of mental and nervous illness, both voluntarily and court committed; in addition, all mentally ill tubercular patients in the entire state are cared for in a specially constructed building. A surgical section has been added whereby all types of tubercular surgery are provided. In addition, a modern specially constructed building has been erected to take care of all criminally insane in the State. A 107-bed neuropsychiatric clinic building is in operation and the hospital is equipped to provide various types of treatment, including psychotherapy, occupational and recreational therapies and electro-shock therapy. The facilities consist of laboratory, X-ray, social services and psychology departments. A personnel building has been constructed and two other buildings constructed to house patients which replace old buildings which have outlived their usefulness. The staff includes a chiroprapist, beautician and barber. On May 20, 1955, a section of the male wards was designated as the West Virginia Soldiers' Home and is administered by the medical hospital staff, all war veterans being admitted here for treatment.

A registered herd of Holstein cows is maintained, thus providing the hospital with an adequate supply of high grade milk, processed in a modern, pasteurized plant fully approved by the State Board of Health. A coal mine at the Western end of the farm operated by the Hospital furnishes coal for the four boilers in the power plant which supplies the heating, hot water and steam requirements for the Institution.

The building and outlying farms occupy some 600 acres of land in Lewis County. The hospital grounds are large and spacious with many shade trees and provide excellent recreational facilities for the patients.

WEST VIRGINIA REHABILITATION CENTER AND WORKSHOP*Institute

William G. Winchell, Superintendent.

The West Virginia Rehabilitation Center was acquired by the State Division of Vocational Rehabilitation on July 1, 1955, to assist in the rehabilitation of severely handicapped persons through an integrated program of medical, vocational, social, psychological, and evaluation services under competent leadership.

The Center, which is administered and operated by personnel of the State Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, is an integral part of the agency's statewide program of services for the handicapped. Application for admission to this facility is made through the Division's 55 field counselors who operate out of 23 field office locations scattered throughout the state. Admission is generally restricted to severely disabled clients or to those individuals who have a commination of disabling conditions which makes the rehabilitation process difficult or impossible outside a center setting.

Located just 3.5 miles west of Charleston on State Route 25, the Center at Institute has experienced rapid growth since it was first opened to 55 blind clients in 1955. As a multiple-disability facility—equipped and staffed to serve all types of disabilities—it now has a combined resident and out-patient capacity of more than 450.

A recent $1.2 million expansion program elevated the Center to a level where it is now regarded to be one of the best state-operated facilities of its type in the United States. A new Basic Rehabilitation Services Building and a State Sheltered Workshop for the Blind and Severely Disabled have made it possible to provide quality rehabilitation services to hundreds of severely disabled West Virginians who could not be helped in the past.

Although the Center has many characteristics of other facilities involved in the recovery of an individual from disease and injury—or in his adjustment to a mental handicap—it is the only institution in West Virginia which provides a full combination of medical, psycho-social, and vocational services. Because of this, its benefits are in sharp demand and vital to the successful rehabilitation of many individuals having such disabilities as broken backs, blindness, amputations, cerebral palsy, mental illness, mental retardation, strokes, severe heart disability, and speech and hearing difficulties.

As focal point for the Division's statewide case-service program, the Center is a means of bringing all elements of the rehabilitative process to bear on the problems of disability in a single, concerted effort. Within the new Basic Rehabilitation Services Building, psychologists, psychiatrists, social workers, vocational counselors, teachers, therapists, nurses, and physicians are all assembled under the same roof, enabling each member of the "team" to contribute the special skills of his discipline toward "total treatment" of the severely disabled client.

Services currently being offered at the Center may be grouped under four broad classifications—vocational evaluation, rehabilitation treatment, vocational training, and sheltered workshop services.

Vocational evaluation involves an intensive study of the individual to help the client set for himself realistic vocational goals. Rehabilitation treatment provides a full range of medical services—including physical and occupational therapy, special diets, surgery, and medications—to restore the handicapped individual to his optimum level of functioning. Vocational training is offered in 19 occupational fields as a means of preparing the disabled client to accept gainful employment following his release from the Center. Sheltered workshop services are provided for those who cannot work in competitive employment. With sheltered employment available, these individuals can work under close supervision filling industrial contracts while developing new work skills, new habits, and job tolerance.

Facilities at the Center include a 60-bed nursing unit, a speech and hearing unit, a cardiac work classification unit, a small medical laboratory, a brace and limb shop, an optical aids clinic, dormitory accommodations, a 270-seat cafeteria, recreation facilities, a work evaluation unit, physical and occupational therapy sections, a sheltered workshop, training areas in 19 occupational fields, library facilities, and staff training and staff conference rooms.

These facilities are housed in nine fire-proof brick buildings situated on a 35-acre tract of level land.

REHABILITATION HOUSES

Huntington

The West Virginia Division of Vocational Rehabilitation operates two Rehabilitation Houses in a quiet residential section of Huntington for the benefit of discharged mental patients. The homes are intended to ease the abrupt transition between the state mental institution and the patient's home community.

Both the Rehabilitation House for Men and the Rehabilitation House for Women were established in 1960 as part of a state-federal research and demonstration project. At the conclusion of the three-year project period, the homes had proven so successful that they were included as permanent facilities within the agency's statewide program of services for the mentally handicapped. Between 1960 and 1963 (the project period), a total of 90 patients received services from the two homes. Only 14 of this number later had to be readmitted to a state mental institution.

Only patients who have previously been treated at a state mental institution are eligible to receive services from the two homes. For this reason, the homes are often referred to as "Half-Way" Houses, since they play a vital role in bridging the traumatic gap between years of confinement in a mental hospital ward to a normal, useful life in the community. And while many discharged patients may not require the services of a Rehabilitation House, the homes are especially beneficial to those individuals whose family or home environment might jeopardize their recovery.

Both houses are three-story brick homes—nicely furnished with attractive surroundings. The House for Women can accommodate twelve residents and two houseparents. The House for Men has a capacity of 15, including houseparents.

All of the patients who are sent to the houses are assigned household duties and are encouraged to accept gainful employment within the community. Some are engaged in full-time employment while the others may do spot labor or subcontract work.

Each home has a house mother and father. Home cooked meals and an active recreation program, both within the houses and the community, help to make life pleasant for the former patients. All are on self-medication and are visited once each week by a physician from Huntington State Hospital.

Vocational training or re-training is provided to those residents who show a need for it. This may be offered through the State Rehabilitation Center at Institute, local trade schools, business colleges, or through local business firms which are willing to provide on-the-job instruction.

Successful job placement of the Rehabilitation House resident is the ultimate goal of all rehabilitation efforts. This is probably the biggest step for the ex-patient in his return to community living.

U. S. ARMY ENGINEER DISTRICT, HUNTINGTON CORPS OF ENGINEERS

502 Eighth Street, Huntington, West Virginia 25721

Congress has delegated to the Corps of Engineers responsibility for the development, construction, operation and maintenance of navigation facilities, flood control structures, and related improvements.

The Civil Works Program of the Corps of Engineers is divided on the basis of watershed drainage areas. The Ohio River drainage basin includes all of West Virginia except the eastern Panhandle, which is in the Potomac River Basin. The Huntington District of the Ohio River Division encompasses that part of the Ohio River Basin in West Virginia downstream from New Martinsville in Wetzel County. The Pittsburgh District encompasses the upstream remainder of the Ohio River Basin including the Basin of the Monongahela River. The Potomac River Basin is included in the Baltimore District of the North Atlantic Division.

Responsibility for military construction in the entire State of West Virginia rests with the U.S. Army Engineer District, Louisville, Kentucky, Corps of Engineers.

Extension of the Ohio River navigation system in West Virginia presently includes three high lift dams on the Kanawha River and four navigation structures on the Monongahela River. Operation of the navigation structures on Little Kanawha and Big Sandy Rivers for commercial navigation has been discontinued. Navigation is not a feature of the Potomac River located in West Virginia.

Improvement of the navigation facilities includes construction of modern high lift structures to replace existing obsolete dams. On the Ohio River four of these structures are complete. Greenup Locks and Dam, Greenup, Kentucky replaced

Locks and Dams, 27 and 28 in West Virginia, 29 and 30 in Kentucky. New Cumberland Locks and Dams, New Cumberland, West Virginia, replaced Locks and Dams, 7, 8 and 9 in West Virginia. Others completed are Markland L. & D., Markland, Ind.; and Capt. Anthony Meldahl L. & D., Chilo, Ohio. Other navigation structures now under construction on the Ohio River in West Virginia are: Pike Island Locks and Dam, Wheeling, West Virginia, which will replace existing Locks and Dams 10 and 11; Belleville Locks and Dam, Belleville, West Virginia, which will replace Locks and Dams 18, 19 and 20; and Racine Locks and Dam, Letart, West Virginia, which will replace existing Locks and Dams 21, 22 and 23. West Virginia will benefit from the construction of these modern navigation improvements on the Ohio River.

Modernization of the obsolescent Monongahela River navigation structures in the upper reaches of the waterway is also currently in progress. Hildebrand Lock and Dam and modification of Dam 8 have been completed. Those navigation structures now under construction on the Monongahela River are: Opekiska Lock and Dam, which will replace existing Locks and Dams 14 and 15 and Maxwell Locks and Dam, which, when integrated with reconstruction of Dam 4, will replace Locks and Dams 5 and 6.

Flood control reservoirs within the State constructed by the Corps of Engineers are Bluestone Reservoir on New River, near Hinton; Sutton Reservoir on Elk River near Sutton; and Tygart Reservoir on Tygart River near Grafton. Summersville Dam and Reservoir on Gauley River is under construction. Others are authorized by Congress and will be constructed as funds are appropriated.

Local protection projects completed by the Corps of Engineers in West Virginia are located at Parkersburg, Point Pleasant, Huntington, Ceredo-Kenova, Ridgeley, W. Va.-Cumberland, Md. (one project) and Elkins, and Williamson. Channel improvement projects have been completed on Brush Creek at Princeton, West Virginia, and on Meadow River at East Rainelle. Several completed snagging and clearing channel improvement projects have reduced or alleviated flood damage along the smaller tributaries of the main rivers within the State.

UNITED STATES MARINE CORPS

United States Marine Corps activities in West Virginia include two organized reserve companies with a total authorized strength of 204 officers and men, and a regular Marine Corps recruiting station in South Charleston with sub-Offices located in six major West Virginia cities; Bristol, Virginia and Pikeville, Kentucky.

All of the state's present Marine reserve units were organized during and after the Korean conflict. There were two Marine Reserve companies in the state prior to Korea. Both were activated after hostilities broke out there in June 1950.

Each reserve unit has a staff of regular Marine officers and enlisted men to instruct, support and advise. This staff is called the Inspector-Instructor staff.

Marine reserve units are an active part in any community. They are always ready for parades, color guards, funeral details, and other civic functions where military personnel can be of service.

The annual "Toys for Tots" campaign is one of the proudest achievements of each Reserve unit. The Marine reserves collect, repair and distribute toys to thousands of children in West Virginia, and the total for the nation last year was in excess of 5,000,000 toys.

FEDERAL REFORMATORY FOR WOMENAlderson

Warden: Gladys V. Bowman
Associate Warden (Treatment): Virginia McLaughlin
Associate Warden (Business): Earl Saunders
Superintendent of Industries: Marjorie Porterfield

The Federal Reformatory for Women is situated in the foothills of the Allegheny Mountains in Summers and Monroe Counties. It was established by Act of Congress June 7, 1924, and the buildings and grounds have a value in excess of $2,000,000. It was designed to take care of all women Federal sentenced prisoners in the United States and the insular possessions and has a capacity of 600. There are fifteen buildings housing inmates, two separate housing units for youth and juvenile offenders, a hospital, administration building, a garment factory, laundry, vocational shops building, school building, chapel and auditorium, storehouse, and shops. The Enabling Act specified that each inmate should be given training that would fit her to be self-supporting on her return to society, and the entire program of the institution is based upon this plan for rehabilitation. An intelligent and sincere attempt is made to supplant the old-time theory of punishment with a program geared to changing attitude and creating new and constructive goals. Classification and casework are highly developed to provide for adequate training within the institution and proper placement in jobs after release.

GOVERNOR'S COMMITTEE

On Employment of the Handicapped

Office of Executive Secretary, Room 615, State Office Building

112 California Avenue, Charleston 25305

The Governor Committee is affiliated with the President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped, and promotes programs in the interest of handicapped persons seeking employment opportunities within the state.

Federal, State and private agencies, whose activities are coordinated in serving handicapped persons and disabled veterans, cooperate fully in effecting programs such as "National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week." High School Research Contests (pertaining to the handicapped); Award of Merit and Outstanding Service; Physician's awards; Handicapped Employer Awards; high school poster contests; and community planning for handicapped groups.

Participating actively are the following agencies: Veterans Administration, Department of Veterans Affairs, organized labor, Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, Department Employment Security, State Executive Department, veterans organizations, and the Veterans Employment Service.

The Committee Chairman serves at the will and pleasure of the Governor. Individual members recommended by local community committees are either reappointed or newly appointed each year by the Chief Executive.

Members of the West Virginia Committee represent Federal, State and Municipal government, industry, labor, civic, veterans, fraternal, medical, ministerial, women, and other groups throughout the state.

The committee is a non-dues paying organization and at times when finances are necessary for contest prizes the required amounts are secured from generous employers who have been responsible for so many successful programs.

Congress has determined that the first full week in each October shall be observed as "National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week" throughout the Nation. This week's observance is intended to be a reminder to those employers who remain reluctant in employing handicapped workers. National, state and local media of press, radio and television have carried the message of the handicapped in an excellent coverage of the various programs.

RANDOLPH

Randolph County was formed from Harrison in 1787 and included all of the present county of Tucker, all of Barbour east of the river, all of Upshur east of Buckhannon River, and a considerable portion of Pocahontas and Webster. It lost territory in 1821 when Pocahontas was formed; again in 1843 when Barbour came into existence, and in 1851 it gave up some of its territory to Upshur and five years later 350 square miles were cut off to form Tucker; and in 1860 Webster took a strip; and after all of these losses Randolph still is the largest county in the State. It was named for Edmund Jennings Randolph, Governor of Virginia 1786-1788. The white man's home on the waters of the Monongahela, within West Virginia, was first planted in Randolph. In this county occurred the first Indian massacre in the State. From that beginning, the county has been an historical center down to the present.

Kumbrabow State Forest and part of the Monongahela National Forest are located in this county.

Fossil Tree Park, in which are found large numbers of fossilized trees, is located a short distance west of Elkins. Southeast of Huttonsville, on White Mountain (elevation over 4,000 feet), the federal forces maintained the highest fortified camp in the War Between the States.

Salem—Harrison County

(Magisterial District: Tenmile).

It was originally New Salem, so named because the settlers who established the town came in a body from Salem, New Jersey. They arrived in the spring of 1792. Two years later, in 1794, it was incorporated.

The first civilized habitation on the land now occupied by the City of Salem was a hunter's camp established by Nicholas Carpenter in 1785 who used it for a hunting and trapping center. He also used it for a sort of crude hotel for himself and his men who drove cattle from Clarksburg to the Ohio River at Marietta which was the nearest market.

Samuel Fitz Randolph purchased the property on which the village was founded in 1790. Mr. Randolph had started with a caravan of pioneer settlers from Salem, New Jersey, who crossed the mountains in 1789 and made their first stop at Woodbridgetown, Pennsylvania. Mr. Randolph, a number of Davises, some Maxsons, and others came on to what is now Salem, after a two and one-half year trek from the sea coast.

Salem was the first settlement of Seventh Day Baptists west of the mountains. It is now the home of Salem College, founded in 1888, and the Industrial Home for Girls established in 1898. Glass has been a major industry. The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad and the George Washington highway and state highway route No. 23 pass through it. It is the birthplace of United States Senator Jennings Randolph and the great writer, Granville Davison Hall, author of Daughter of the Elm, The Rending of Virginia, and many other historical books.

Wheeling—Ohio County

(Magisterial Districts: Center, Clay,
Madison, Union, Washington, Webster, Richland, Ritchie and Triadelphia).

County seat. Settled in 1769 by Ebenezer Zane and followers. Name derived from Indian word, "Wheelin," which name was used for years prior to the Zane settlement to designate the creek which bisects the city. In 1793
the existence of Wheeling as a town became evident when Zane divided the settlement into lots, but Wheeling was not incorporated as a town until 1806
by the General Assembly of Virginia.

Although the peace treaty with the Indians was still in effect when Zane settled here, he and his followers immediately built a fort, which they called "Fort Henry." Here was fought in September, 1782, the last battle of the American Revolution. It was during this siege that the famous legend of Betty Zane was established, when she braved a storm of gunfire to carry powder from the Zane cabin to the fort.

Wheeling was the state's capital until 1870 and again from 1875 to 1880 when the government was moved to Charleston.

THE AMERICAN FLAG

DESCRIPTION OF THE FLAG

The Flag of the United States of America has 13 horizontal stripes—7 red and 6 white—the red and white stripes alternating, and a union which consists of white stars of five points on a blue field placed in the upper quarter next to the staff and extending to the lower edge of the fourth red stripe from the top. The number of stars is the same as the number of States in the Union. The canton or union now contains 50 stars. On the admission of a State into the Union a star will be added to the union of the Flag, and such addition will take effect on the 4th day of July next succeeding such admission.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

STATE FLAG

Before the design of the present State Flag was officially adopted by the Legislature on March 7, 1929, West Virginia had been represented by several flags which had proved impractical.

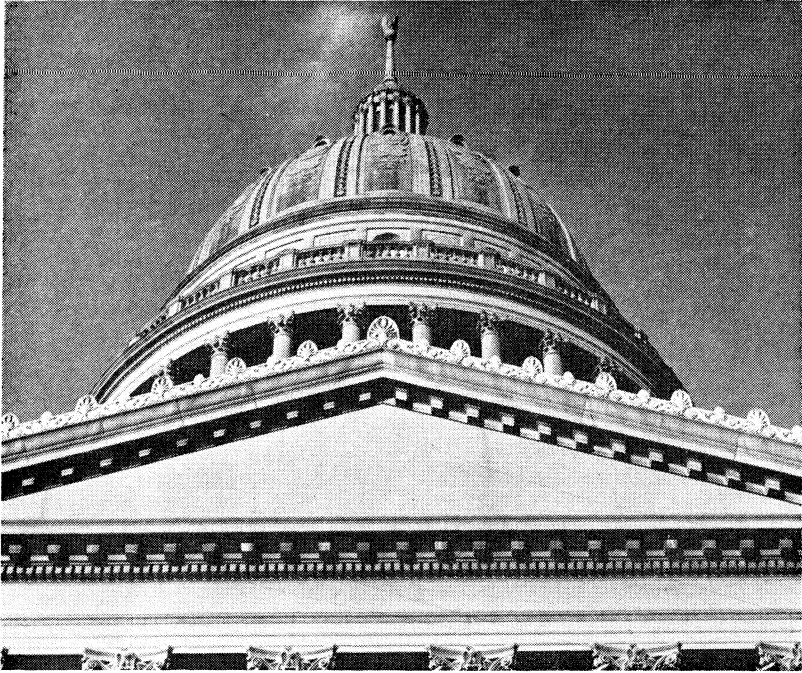

Prominently displayed on the pure white field of today's flag and emblazoned in proper colors is the Coat of Arms, the lower half of which is wreathed by Rhododendron. Across the top, lettered on a ribbon, is the constitutional designation—"State of West Virginia." The white field is bordered on four sides by a strip of blue, and for parade purposes all but the staff side are to be trimmed with gold fringe.

GREAT SEAL OF WEST VIRGINIA

The Great Seal of West Virginia, which also is the Coat of Arms, symbolizes the principal pursuits and resources of West Virginia. Described briefly, the obverse side of the Seal bears the legend, "State of West Virginia," together with the motto, "Montani Semper Liberi" (Mountaineers Are Always Free); a farmer stands to the right and a miner to the left of a large ivy-draped rock bearing the date of the state's admission to the Union; in front of the rock are two hunter's rifles upon which rests a Phrygian Cap, or "Cap of Liberty."

The reverse side of the Seal is not in common use today. It was intended to be employed when the Seal was attached to documents by ribbons and suspended in the manner of a medal.

Joseph H. Diss Debar, of Doddridge County, designed the State Seal in 1863 at the request of the first West Virginia Legislature.

STATE CAPITOL

West Virginia's Capitol Building, one of the world's beautiful examples of Italian Renaissance architecture, stands on the north bank of the historic Great Kanawha River in the capital city of Charleston. Exterior height of building from ground floor to top of Eagle, which surmounts the dome, is 293 feet 1 inch—5 feet, 7½ inches taller than National Capitol.

Completed in 1932 at a cost of nearly $10,000,000, the building was designed by Cass Gilbert, an architect of international prominence.

The huge U-shaped structure consists of a main unit and two wings which are situated on 16 acres of ground. Unlike the exterior of Indiana buff limestone, the interior is laid with Imperial Danby Vermont marble.

In the rotunda is a two-ton crystal chandelier which has 15,000 candle power. It is suspended 180 feet above the floor by a gold chain 54 feet long. It contains 6,500 imported rock crystals. Sparkling chandeliers in the House and Senate chambers are made of 10,000 separate pieces of imported rock crystal.

A specially-prepared paint, "Governor's Blue," covers the walls of the outer reception room of the governor's suite, the show room of the Capitol. A light Turquoise rug, 27'x72'x2" and weighing 1,996 pounds, carpets the floor.

Directly beneath the executive suite is the State Museum containing numerous exhibits to illustrate the history, science and social conditions of early West Virginia.

STATE BIRD

Resplendent in his plumage of scarlet, the Cardinal was made West Virginia's official bird by concurrent resolution of the 1949 legislature. The male of the species is a rich scarlet with a mask and shading of black, while the young and female are somewhat less brilliant. The cardinal measures approximately eight inches in length and ranges from New York State to the Gulf States and as far West as Oklahoma. His scientific name is Richmondena cardinalis cardinalis.

STATE FLOWER

The Rhododendron maximum, or "big laurel," was designated the official floral emblem of the Mountain State at the suggestion of Governor Albert Blakeslee White on January 23, 1903. It is a shrub of the heath family, and is distinctive for its large evergreen leaves and delicately impressive pale pink or white bloom, mottled with either red or yellow flecks. The big laurel is a mountaineer through and through, preferring as it does the upland climate of the Appalachian and Allegheny ranges.

STATE TREE

The Sugar Maple, or Acer saccharum as it is known scientifically, abounds in West Virginia and was made West Virginia's official tree by concurrent resolution of the 1949 Legislature. It produces an excellent wood for furniture construction, lighter and stronger than oak. West Virginia Sugar Maples also produce much of the maple syrup for which Vermont is famous. A single tree is 70-120 feet high and produces two to three pounds of sugar when "sugared off." It has a five-lobed leaf and produces a small wing-shaped seed pod.

STATE ANIMAL

The Black Bear . . . Euarctos americanus actually, he is strongly tinted with brown. His habitat in West Virginia has been reduced to approximately 12 counties in the Eastern Mountain Region, though he still roams freely through 36 states and Canada. Either one or two cubs (rarely three) are born at a time, weighing about eight ounces each. The adult reaches an average maximum weight of 250 pounds, though they have been known to attain 650 pounds.

WEST VIRGINIA'S INDEPENDENCE HALL

By DELF NORONA—CURATOR

With the completion in the early 1850s of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad to the Ohio River, Wheeling being its Western terminus, the city enjoyed an unprecedented boom. By the time of the outbreak of the Civil War Wheeling was in some respects the second city in Virginia.

The need for new buildings was apparent, including the desirability for one to house various Federal agencies in the city under one roof. A building was erected by the government known as the customhouse and post office, completed in 1858.

This imposing structure on the corner of Market and John streets (the latter now Fourteenth Street) was located between the railroad station and the point where the National Road (now U. S. Route 40) spans the Ohio river over the famous Suspension Bridge.

A. W. Campbell, editor of the Wheeling Intelligencer, was one of Abraham Lincoln's chief supporters from Virginia during the election campaign of 1860. Following Lincoln's election he was rewarded by appointment as Wheeling's postmaster, the post office occupying the ground floor of the Federal building.

In April, 1861, when delegates to a convention in session at Richmond voted to join the Confederacy, most of its members from Northwestern Virginia returned immediately to their homes, in wrath and indignation against Secession.

Plans had already been made by various political leaders "seceding from a secession" as to their course of action, and a hastily called convention of about 430 persons from various counties met at Washington Hall in Wheeling, just a couple of blocks north of the Federal building, in the middle of May, 1861. A three-day convention or mass-meeting was held—many of its delegates having been chosen rather irregularly—with much talk but little really accomplished other than to register indignation against Secession and to set the wheels in motion for a second convention the next month, to which delegates were to be selected in a more regular manner.

The June Convention, as it is known, convened at Washington Hall, attended by about a hundred delegates representing fourteen counties. Two days later, through the influence of postmaster Campbell and other Union leaders, the Convention was given permission to use the United States courtroom in the customhouse and post office building, and additional rooms were made available as needed.

One of the first acts of the Convention in this building was the preparation of a document with the title A Declaration of the People of Virginia. It was adopted and signed a week later. By a curious coincidence the Declaration was adopted by a vote of 56 for, with none against, and attention was called to the auspicious fact that there had been 56 signers to the Declaration of Independence of the United States.

However, during the convention the document was referred to simply as the Declaration, but in the course of time it has been spoken of either as West Virginia's Bill of Rights or as West Virginia's Declaration of Independence. The Declaration was signed on June 20, 1861; another coincidence being that this was exactly two years before West Virginia achieved statehood.

The Declaration, among other things, demanded a reorganization of the state government, all of the officers of which had cast their lot with the Confederacy. The Convention adopted an ordinance for the reorganization of the state government, variously known as the Reorganized or as the Restored government of Virginia. Francis H. Peirpoint was elected as governor of the Restored Government of Virginia.

The Assembly of the Restored Government met in the United States courtroom on the third floor of the building. Rooms on the second floor were assigned to the officers of the new state government loyal to the Union.

Provision was made for forming a new state out of Virginia, and in February of 1862 the name West Virginia was selected for the new state.

A constitutional convention to adopt a constitution for West Virginia likewise held its sessions in the courtroom, which from 1861 to June 20, 1863, had the distinction of being the capitol of the government of Virginia loyal to the Union.

When West Virginia finally achieved statehood on June 20, 1863, with Arthur I. Boreman as governor, Linsley Institute building in Wheeling was selected for the capitol of West Virginia. Peirpoint's Restored government then moved to Alexandria, Va., and no longer exercised jurisdiction over soil now West Virginia.

After June 20, 1863, the customhouse building was used exclusively as the Federal building, its chief offices being the post office on the first floor and the United States district court on the third floor.

Many interesting stories can be told about the building: Many invaluable historic documents are even to this day contained in the cornerstone of the building; a large safe on the second floor with the date 1852, still in working order, was used by the collector of customs but during the War it was turned over for use by the Army paymaster. During the early days of the War a quantity of gunpowder was stored in the basement much to the consternation of the district judge. The building immediately south of the Federal building was used as a military prison, chiefly for the incarceration of civilian prisoners and was frequently called Lincoln's bastille.

Unpaved streets, muddy drinking water, saloons, places of ill-repute, barking dogs which disturbed occupants of the building, clouds of dust in dry weather and mud everywhere in wet, should be noted in reconstructing the life of the people at that time. In mitigation, however, conditions then were as bad or even worse in the National capital city of Washington, D. C.

In about 1870 various architectural changes were made to the building and over the years a section was added facing Fourteenth Street, an additional story added, and the building modernized with the installation of a circular staircase around an elevator.

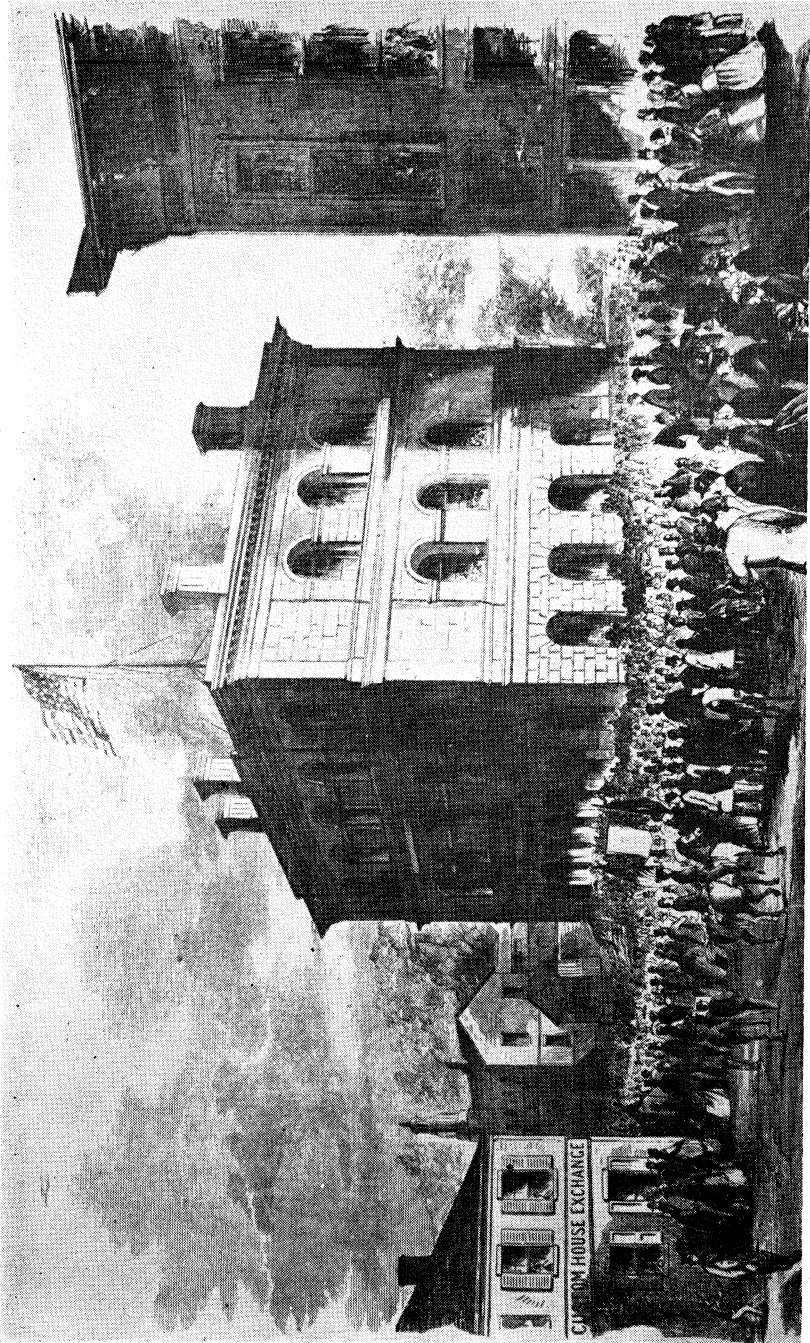

Immediately after the Civil War and for several decades any number of participants in the stirring events of 1861-1863 no doubt had nostalgic recollections as to the appearance of and the particular uses made of various rooms in the building, what furniture was used and how arranged while it was the capitol of the loyal Virginia government. But, one by one the Makers of West Virginia gradually crossed the Great Divide from whence there is no return. With their lips silenced forever, we must now depend on what records can be found to recreate the appearance of the birthplace of West Virginia.

In the early part of the present century, with the need for larger quarters for a Federal building, a new structure was erected two blocks north, and the abandoned building sold to private interests, this after a half century's use by the United States government. For years it was known as the Conservative Life building.

By the time still another fifty years had passed, few people were aware in Wheeling that right in their midst was West Virginia's birthplace. Even the then owner of the building had not the slightest inkling as to the role it had played in the formation of the Mountain State.

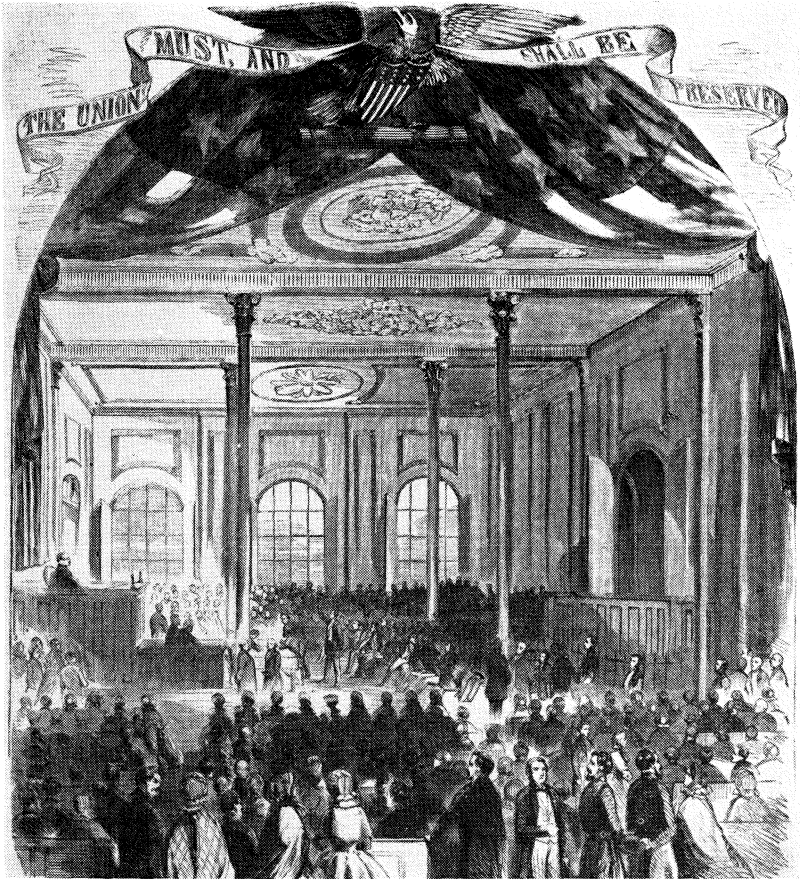

Since acquisition by private interests, various portions of the building have been occupied at one time or other by insurance companies, business college, dancing school, opticians, liquor store, restaurant, barber shop, night club, in addition to one and two-room general business offices.

With the approach of the West Virginia Centennial, the writer appeared before the Centennial Commission in January, 1958, and pointed out that the building was the birthplace of the state and suggested that as a Centennial project it be acquired by the state as a historic shrine. Later he suggested that it be named West Virginia Independence Hall. We also suggested that as part of the Centennial celebration a special unofficial meeting of the West Virginia legislature be held in Wheeling.

THE CUSTOM HOUSE AT WHEELING, VA.

Such a special meeting was duly held on the second floor of the building on April 20, 1963, the 100th anniversary of the date when Lincoln issued his proclamation that West Virginia would become a state sixty days hence. Governor W. W. Barron reiterated and recommended at that time that the building be acquired by the state.

CONSTITUENT CONVENTION OF VIRGINIA, ASSEMBLED IN THE CUSTOM-HOUSE AT WHEELING, OHIO CO., JUNE, 1861.

Contemporary illustration of the June, 1861, Convention in session in the United States District Courtroom on the third floor of West Virginia Independence Hall. It is planned to restore this room to its original condition for use chiefly for meetings of cultural groups.

Due primarily to Governor Barron's interest and at his request the West Virginia Legislature appropriated the necessary funds for its purchase and the building was acquired from its then owner in May of 1964.

A group of citizens from the Wheeling area, operating as the West Virginia Independence Hall Foundation, Inc., has been set up to restore and to operate the now very much battered up building, composed of the following: Rabbi Martin Siegel, President; Delf Norona, Vice-President and curator; E. Douglas McKay, secretary; Miss Virginia Ebeling, treasurer; Senator Chester R. Hubbard, Dr. James C. Hazlett, and Messrs. Wm. M. Hall, Kent B. Hall, Warren F. Morris, C. W. Gutskey, and Martin Rody.

Within six weeks after acquisition by the state an historical exhibit was set up on the second floor of the building dealing with the Formation of West Virginia, and the research and museum committee has proposed that the exhibits when complete will "tell the story" of:

(a) The formation of West Virginia, with stress on events during the years 1861 to 1863; and

(b) the history of the building itself.

The building, now renamed West Virginia Independence Hall, was formally turned over by Governor Barron to the Foundation for operation at a ceremony on June 20, 1964.

Fortunately, the original specifications for the construction of the building and also copies of plans for the building as it was originally built and alterations made in 1870 have been found by the museum committee.

It is proposed to devote the first floor to illustrations, photographs, objects, maps, and accounts of various sections of West Virginia as they were during the period when the building was the state capitol, as well as exhibits showing its use as a customhouse and post office.

The second floor will feature the Governor's office, as well as items pertaining to the formation of West Virginia, using the room once occupied by the inspector of hulls and boilers for an appropriate river exhibit.

The third floor, the United States courtroom, which was used for sessions of the conventions and the assembly of the Restored Government, will be restored to its original condition, based on the contemporary drawing, illustrated here, of the June, 1861, convention in session. The offices on that floor of the district judge, library, clerk's and marshal's offices, will be furnished appropriately with furniture of the period. Exhibits illustrating famous cases tried in the building will also be shown.

Throughout the building, paintings or murals, enlarged photographs and portraits will be used for wall decorations.

Expert technical advice has also been freely given. All that now remains is the Go Ahead based on the acquisition of necessary funds.

In one of our history-minded Eastern states it took about fifty years from the time of acquisition of an important Eighteenth Century historic building before funds were acquired for putting it into satisfactory condition as a public shrine.

It certainly is hoped that in the case of West Virginia Independence Hall this will be accomplished in a very much shorter period of time.

THE WEST VIRGINIA HISTORIC COMMISSION'S PROGRAM

By Dr. Charles P. Harper, Chairman

The West Virginia Historic Commission was authorized by the Legislature on March 2, 1961, by the passage of Senate Bill 123 and made effective ninety days from passage. It was introduced in the Senate by Senator Lyle Smith, of Huntington, and in the House by William McCoy, Jr., Delegate from Pendleton County.

The law reads in part—"West Virginia being richly endowed in historic achievement," the purpose of the Commission is to "erect and preserve adequate markers along its roads and highways pointing out to future generations the important role played by our State in the dynamic development of our country."

The Commission consists of five members, appointed by the Governor for four year terms, and the Director of Archives and History who is ex-officio Secretary and Treasurer. All five were confirmed by the Senate, June 6, 1961, and Dr. Harper was elected chairman at the first meeting. The only changes in the Commission personnel has been the appointment of Mr. Ross B. Johnston to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. Roy Bird Cook, and the appointment of Mr. C. V. Feller to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Johnston. The other members are: Miss Cecile R. Goodall, Mr. Ervin S. Queen, Dr. Eugene E. Hutton, Jr., and Dr. James L. Hupp, Director of the Department of Archives and History, Secretary-Treasurer. The present members were reappointed by Governor Hulett C. Smith for another four year term ending May 31, 1969.

The Commission and the State Road Commission, which erects the markers, agreed that, if possible, they should be placed in roadside parks or "overlooks" located on or near the historic, prehistoric, scenic, or geological site where tourists could park their cars, read the marker and visit the site.

The West Virginia Historic Commission has approved and ordered three hundred and eighty highway markers of the same size and design as those placed during the Depression of the 1930's. Ninety-four of these are replacements of the old broken or missing markers erected by the West Virginia Commission on Historic and Scenic Markers, and three by the present Historic Commission. The remaining two hundred and eighty-three markers are placed on or near unmarked sites which are of state-wide interest. Fifty-nine of these were sponsored by private organizations or individuals as their contribution to the West Virginia Centennial celebration. They paid for the plaques, and the West Virginia Historic Commission, in cooperation with the West Virginia State Road Commission, orders and erects the markers.

The fifty-two geological markers, sponsored by the West Virginia Oil and Natural Gas Association, are located in twenty-two of the fifty-five counties. The other seven sponsored markers are: CAMPBELL CEMETERY, sponsored by Bethany College, in Bethany; GENERAL ECHOLS, by the United Daughters of the Confederacy, in Union; "LOCUST HILL," by the Jefferson County Historical Society, near Charles Town; MORGAN'S CHAPEL, by Leota and Eliza Morgan, descendants of Morgan Morgan, in Bunker Hill; FORT PICKENS-ENGAGEMENTS OF CO. A., by the Shamrock Home Demonstration Club, at Duffy, Lewis County; "BORDER GRAYS," by the United Daughters of the Confederacy, in Point Pleasant; and SMOKE HOLE CAVE, by interested Pendletonians, in the Smoke Hole.

The ninety-three county-county line markers include thirty replacements of broken or missing markers. The rest are on primary roads which never had markers at the county lines. The thirty-three state-state line markers also include ten replacements of broken or missing markers erected during the Great Depression. There are two or more at the state line of each State bordering on

West Virginia. They have a West Virginia inscription which the old state-state line markers do not have, only the West Virginia County inscription and that of the adjoining State. The new inscription reads:

WEST VIRGINIA
(Name of County)

"The Mountain State"—western part of the Commonwealth of Virginia until June 20, 1863. Settled by the Germans and Scotch-Irish. It became a line of defense between the English and French during the French and Indian War, 1754-1763.

West Virginia Historic Commission, 1964 or 1965

The one hundred and seventy-seven historic markers include fifty-three replacements of broken or missing markers. The historic sites include forty-two Indian and early settlements, five Revolutionary War, thirty the War between the States, two the War of 1812, one the Spanish American War, four United States population centers in what is now West Virginia, one the West Virginia geographical center, four on the Mason Dixon Line, six at George Washington's tracts of land. Twelve markers have also been placed at the two State universities and State Colleges, and ten at State institutions and hospitals. The two State Capitol markers, one on Kanawha Boulevard, the other at the Capitol gardens on Washington Street, and the Executive Mansion marker on the Boulevard, are new.

The eleven markers placed at prehistoric sites include replacement of FOSSIL TREE PARK marker near Elkins. The other sites are: Indian Mounds in Moundsville, Camden Park, Huntington, Romney, near Elkwater, South Charleston, Dunbar, May Moore Mound in Mason county, and Oak Mound at Clarksburg; Indian Camp in Boone county; Indian Village and Excavations at Buffalo; and Indian Village-Indian Walls near Montgomery.

The eleven scenic markers include the replacement of the following missing markers: PROSPECT PEAK in Morgan county, CRANBERRY GLADES in Pocahontas county, and GRANDVIEW in Raleigh county. The new ones are: SALT PETER CAVES in Monroe county, CRAGS-CAVERNS, SENECA ROCKS, SMOKE HOLE CAVE, SMOKE HOLE and SPRUCE KNOB in Pendleton county, SMOKE HOLE in Grant county, and "CRUPPERNECK BEND" in Nicholas county.

The first marker furnished by the West Virginia Historic Commission and erected by the West Virginia State Road Commission was dedicated on the second anniversary of the passage of the legislation authorizing the Commission, March 2, 1963. It was the OLD TOLL HOUSE marker on the Old James River and Kanawha Turnpike in front of the restored old Toll House in Barboursville, Cabell county. The dedication was sponsored by the Barboursville Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Other markers were dedicated by local civic, historical, archeological and patriotic organizations as part of their Centennial celebrations, usually on the anniversary of the event.

The Commission's program for this fiscal year calls for the replacement of the remaining broken or missing markers and the erection of others of state-wide interest. It also includes the publication of a marker booklet similar to the one published in 1937 by the State Road Commission. The booklet would include the three hundred and eighty markers erected from 1963 to 1965, and the remaining several hundred placed during the Depression, making a total of over seven hundred.

The following attached list gives the number of each kind of markers by counties which were sponsored (plaques purchased) by the West Virginia Historic Commission and private organizations and individuals, and erected by the State Road Commission. The ninety-four replacement of the old broken or missing markers are indicated by the number or numbers enclosed. The three new markers broken beyond repair which have been replaced are: TROUT ROCK FORT in Pendleton county, JOB'S TEMPLE in Gilmer county, and MARSHALL UNIVERSITY in Huntington.

DRIVER IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM

(Point System)

West Virginia's Driver Improvement Program, as administered by the Department of Motor Vehicles, is designed to eliminate the chronically careless driver from the state's highway system.

Under the program, "points" are assigned to those convicted of various moving traffic violations. Conviction notices are forwarded to the Department of Motor Vehicles, which maintains each individual's driving record and statistics.

An operator receiving a total of 6 points is sent a warning letter by the Department, outlining the need for more careful driving. Individuals reaching the 9 to 12 point level are required to appear before a Department Reviewing Officer, at which time the most serious cases are subject to suspension of their operator's privileges.

MUSEUM

STOREHOUSE OF TREASURES

(By Dr. James L. Hupp, State Historian and Archivist)

Soon after the close of the Civil War, thoughtful West Virginians foresaw the necessity of collecting and protecting the annals and artifacts of the newborn "Mountain State."

So in 1869 an organization known as The West Virginia Historical Society was organized to preserve for posterity the history of early and more recent times. After 14 annual meetings, the last in 1884, the society ceased to exist. Many people who remembered the original society and the good it had accomplished sought to bring it back to life. Another society was formed but it, too, soon followed its predecessor into oblivion.

But persistent historians prevailed, and in 1890 still another society was organized. Its work continued until the establishment of the West Virginia Department of Archives and History by an act of the State Legislature in 1905. As an official agency of government, the new department became heir and caretaker of various properties previously purchased with state funds.

Thus was born the State Museum to house this collection of artifacts, relics, curios, documents, archeological and geological specimens.

Public interest in the museum was aroused immediately, and numerous contributions began to pour in, adding to the already unique collection. Today the museum is a storehouse of historic treasures that is visited by thousands of people. It is located downstairs from the main rotunda in the West Virginia Capitol and is open every day in the year except Christmas from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Saturday, and from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Sunday.

There is no charge for admission and a curator is on duty at all times.

If they desire, visitors may spend the day browsing among the assortment of interesting material portraying not only the life of the pioneer and more modern mountaineer but also the prehistoric people who preceded them to what is now West Virginia.

On display are prehistoric artifacts dating back to the Paleo Indians (early hunters) who frequented the "Mountain State" as early as 8000 B. C. Other artifacts on exhibit have been classified by state archeologists as having belonged to the following cultures: Archaic Hunters and Gatherers, 6000 B.C. to 1000 B.C.; Adena Mound Builders, 1000 B.C. to 1 A.D.; Hopewellian Mound Builders, A.D. 1 to 1000; Fort Ancient Village Farmers, A.D. 1000 to 1700; and Historic Indians, A.D. 1700 to 1800.

Evidence that Daniel Boone is the best known and most popular of West Virginia's early pioneers is substantiated by the number of visitors who ask about the "Daniel Boone Collection." Since this famed hunter is generally associated with the early history of Kentucky, it is a surprise to many people to learn that his cabin was located along the Kanawha River just six miles above Charleston and that he was a resident of this valley for 12 years and represented Kanawha County in the Virginia Assembly of 1791. In this collection there is a survey of 10 acres of Crooked Creek dated June 14, 1791, written and signed by Boone, together with his gun, powder horn, game record, and beaver traps.

Another popular pioneer who gained considerable prestige for his reputation as an Indian fighter was Lewis Wetzel. The rifle used by him from 1777 to 1794 is an object of much interest to visitors.

Among the many museum pieces that attract attention are the following: the replica of the Blennerhassett Mansion, a palatial home built in 1799 by Harman and Margaret Blennerhassett, said to be the scene of the Burr Conspiracy; a model of the steamboat built by James Rumsey, thought by many to be the first steamboat to be invented; the Beckley Table on which the Declaration of Independence was signed; the Confederate Flag that covered Jefferson Davis' casket at his burial in Richmond; the 35-star American Flag (West Virginia was the 35th state to enter the Union) that was flown at Gettysburg when President Abraham Lincoln made his famous address; a section from the largest white oak tree in the world; the bronze triptych of the West Virginia State Seal that was installed in 1903 on the Cruiser West Virginia—renamed the Huntington in 1922 when the Battleship West Virginia was commissioned; and two large bells from the Battleship West Virginia, "The Pride of the Fleet," which was raised and repaired after having been sunk at Pearl Harbor. This mighty dreadnought then went on to help win World War II; a replica of James Rumsey's steamboat, said by some to be the first boat propelled by steam; a section from the Mingo Oak, the largest tree of its kind; a scale model of a modern natural gas extraction plant; and a model of a once-famous streamlined steam locomotive.

These are but some of the highlights—just a sampling to whet the appetite of anyone planning a visit to the West Virginia State Museum. Tourists by the thousands are also delightfully surprised to discover this vacation bonus on their visits to the West Virginia Capitol in Charleston.

Children and adults with a thirst for knowledge are amazed at the large collection of artifacts, relics, curios, historic documents, and ancient archeological and geological specimens in the West Virginia State Museum. On display for everyone to see—for free—are interesting exhibits.

Forest Service

Monongahela National Forest

Headquarters: Elkins

Monongahela National Forest was proclaimed by President Woodrow Wilson on April 28, 1920, under the Weeks Law. This law of 1911 provides for the cooperation by states with the United States, and the protection of watersheds of navigable streams. In West Virginia, the national forest was established for flood protection in the Ohio and Potomac River valleys. It is one of a system of about 150 national forests and the only national forest wholly in West Virginia. The Clark-McNary Act of June 7, 1924, broadened the objectives to provide for reforestation and production of timber. The Multiple Use Act of June 12, 1960, provides that National Forests shall be managed for outdoor recreation, range, timber, watershed, hunting and fishing.

The public forest is dedicated to the protection, development, and management of all its resources for the greatest good to the greatest number.

Within the proclaimed boundary there are 1,641,993 acres of which 806,321 acres are owned by the United States. Directly in charge of the national forest is the Forest Supervisor. In the national forest are six ranger districts, each in charge of a district ranger.

Counties in the National Forest and their current acreage in National Forest ownership are:

Grant	14,134	Pocahontas	277,074
Greenbrier	99,348	Preston	3,891
Nicholas	23,434	Randolph	170,454
Pendleton	60,260	Tucker	92,999
		Webster	64,727

The public forest is administered in cooperation with several conservation agencies, including the West Virginia Department of Natural Resources. Twenty-five per cent of receipts from the sale of timber and other products and use fees is returned to the nine national forest counties for schools (80%) and roads (20%).

FISHING STREAMS AND SPECIES

For the benefit of anglers who desire information relative to stocked fishing streams and nearest towns in which hotel accommodations can be found, the following list has been prepared. Numerous other streams and tributaries other than these listed have received substantial stockings of fish. These, however, are the largest, most important and probably the most capable of supporting extra heavy angling pressure. It must be understood that the order in which they are listed does not indicate the number of fish placed in the stream or the anglers chances of catching fish. Fishing in any of these streams does not necessarily indicate that the Conservation Commission promises the limit of fish to each fisherman. This is intended merely as a guide.

ANALYSIS OF RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES

DENZIL L. GAINER, STATE AUDITOR

Section 1—Summary

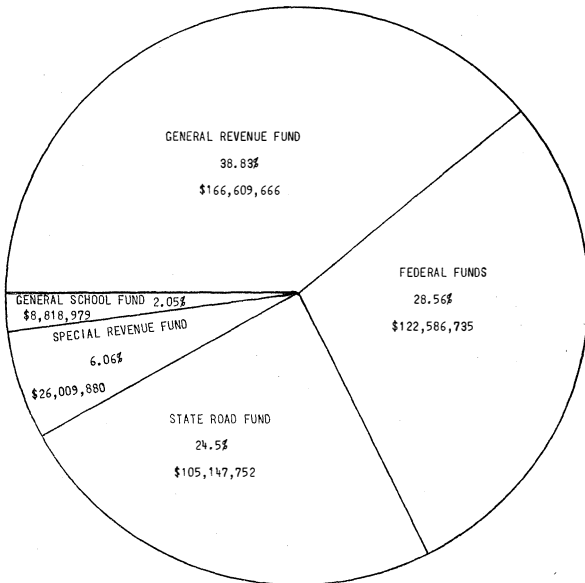

Revenues collected for the operation of state government are deposited into various funds as provided by statute and the constitution. Many of these funds are dedicated for specific purposes and are carried in separate accounts and expended only for the purposes authorized by law. These include the General School Fund, State Road Fund, Federal Funds, and various other designated as Special Revenue Funds. Approximately 61 per cent of all revenues collected during the 1964-65 fiscal year are within this group of dedicated funds. All revenues not dedicated for specific purposes are deposited into the General Revenue Fund from which the Legislature makes appropriations for the operation of the various departments, schools and institutions.

Total revenues collected for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1965, amount to 429.2 million dollars as compared to 356.4 million for the previous fiscal year, an increase of some 72.8 million dollars. This is summarized as follows:

COLLECTION OF BUSINESS AND OCCUPATION TAX AND PRIVILEGE TAX ON CERTAIN CARRIER CORPORATIONS (TRANSPORTATION PRIVILEGE TAX)

The Business and Occupation Tax, Chapter 11, Article 13, West Virginia Code of 1931, as amended, is a tax levied for the privilege of engaging in business in West Virginia. The tax is measured by the application of rates against values of products, gross proceeds of sales, or gross income according to the classification of the business activity in which the taxpayer is engaged. Despite the commonly applied erroneous name, "Gross Sales Tax", it is not a sales tax. Neither is it a transaction tax in the sense that once it is paid on a particular article or service or activity it need not again be paid. It is not, strictly speaking, an income tax, although in most instances, the gross income is the measure of the tax. Under the production and manufacturing classifications the measure of the tax is the value of the article produced or manufactured as shown by the gross proceeds derived from the sale thereof, provided the proceeds of sale are indicative of the true value of the article. If more than one person engages in a single activity or transaction, as in the case of the contractor and sub-contractor, each must pay a tax measured by his entire income regardless of the tax paid by the other.

The Privilege Tax on Certain Carrier Corporations, commonly and hereafter referred to as the Transportation Privilege Tax, Chapter 11, Article 12A, West Virginia Code of 1931, as amended, is a tax for the privilege of engaging in business in West Virginia levied on railroad corporations, steamboats, steamships or other floating property, motor vehicle carriers, railroad car corporations, telephone and telegraph corporations and airline corporations.

With the exception of railroad corporations, the tax is measured by the application of rates against gross income from all business beginning and ending within the State of West Virginia, and in addition by the application of rates to a percentage of total net income, such percentage being determined as provided by Section 5 of the law. The tax on railroad corporations is measured by the application of rates to the value of the total property, tangible and intangible, in this State as determined by the Board of Public Works for the purposes of the general property tax, and in addition by the application of rates to a percentage of total net income.

Activities subject to the Transportation Privilege Tax are not subject to Business and Occupation Tax.

The revenue collected by virtue of these two tax laws is deposited to the credit of the general revenue fund of the State and constitute the largest single source of the State's general revenue raised by so called "indirect" taxation.

The business classifications under the Business and Occupation Tax Law are as follows:

A. Production of Coal and Other Natural Resource Products. The tax is measured by the value of the articles mined or produced as shown by the gross proceeds derived from the sale thereof by the producer, the rates being applied against the value of the entire production in West Virginia, regardless of the place of sale or the fact that deliveries are made to points outside the State.

Coal	$1.35 per $100.00
Sand, gravel, or other mineral products not quarried or mined; oil, blast furnace slag	$3.95 per $100.00
Natural gas (exemptions include deduction of $5,000 annually)	$7.85 per $100.00
Limestone or sandstone quarried or mined; and timber	$2.00 per $100.00
Other natural resource products	$2.60 per $100.00

B. Manufacturing, Compounding or Preparing for Sale. The tax is measured by the value of the articles manufactured, compounded or prepared for sale in West Virginia, as shown by the gross proceeds derived from the sale thereof by the manufacturer or person compounding or preparing the same. The rate, 40 cents on each $100.00 value, applies against the value of the entire production in West Virginia, regardless of the place of the sale or the fact that deliveries are made to points outside the State.

C. (1) Business of Selling Tangible Property at Retail. There is levied a tax of 50 cents on each $100.00 of gross income, as defined by the statute, for this type of business.

(2) Business of Selling Tangible Property at Wholesale. There is levied a tax of 25 cents on each $100.00 of gross income, as defined by the statute, for this type of business.

D. Public Service or Utility Business. The tax rates set forth hereinbelow are levied on the gross income of the following businesses:

Street Interurban and Electric Railways	$1.30 per $100.00
Electric Light and Power Companies (sales) and demand charges, domestic purposes and commercial lighting	$5.20 per $100.00
Water Companies	$4.00 per $100.00
Electric Light and Power Companies (all other sales and demand charges):	$3.90 per $100.00
Natural Gas Companies: Toll Bridges	$3.90 per $100.00
Other Public Utilities—(Except telegraph and telephone companies, railways and other transportation companies)	$2.60 per $100.00

E. Contracting. There is levied a tax of $2.60 on each $100.00 of gross income, as defined by the statute, for this type of business.

G. Amusement. There is levied a tax of 65 cents on each $100.00 of gross income, as defined by the statute, for this type of business.

H. Service Business or Calling Not Otherwise Specifically Taxed. There is levied a tax of $1.05 on each $100.00 of gross income, as defined by the statute, for this type of business.

I. Business of Furnishing Property for Hire. There is levied a tax of $1.05 on each $100.00 of gross income, as defined by the statute, for this type of business.

J. Small Loan and Industrial Loan. There is levied a tax of $1.05 on each $100.00 of gross income, as defined by the statute, for this type of business.

An annual exemption of $50.00 is provided under the Business and Occupation Tax Law for each person, as defined by the statute, engaged in business in the state.

The business classifications under the Transportation Privilege Tax Law are as follows:

A. Motor Vehicle Carriers, Railroad Car Corporations, Express Corporations or Companies. $1.50 on each $100.00 of gross intrastate income, and $1.50 on each $100.00 of pro-rated (to determine part derived from West Virginia business) net income from all business.

B. (1) Telephone Corporations. $2.75 on each $100.00 of gross intrastate income and $2.75 on each $100.00 of pro-rated (to determine part derived from West Virginia business) net income from all business.

(2) Telegraph Corporations. $5.00 on each $100.00 of gross intrastate income and $5.00 on each $100.00 of pro-rated (to determine part derived from West Virginia business) net income from all business.

C. Pipe Line Corporations. $1.50 on each $100.00 of gross intrastate income (effective July 1, 1953—prior to that date $3.50) and $3.50 on each $100.00 of pro-rated (to determine part derived from West Virginia business) net income from all business.

D. Airline Corporations and Operation of Steamboat or Other Watercraft. $3.00 on each $100.00 of gross intrastate income and $3.00 on each $100.00 of pro-rated (to determine part derived from West Virginia business) net income from all business.

E. Railroad Corporations. 50 cents on each $100.00 of assessed value of all property within the State of West Virginia, and $4.00 on each $100.00 of pro-rated (to determine part derived from West Virginia business) net income from all business.

To the normal rates imposed by Article 12-A there is added, in all cases, a surtax of 30 per cent of the normal tax.

An annual exemption of $50.00 and an additional credit of five per cent of the tax due after the deduction of said exemption is provided under the Transportation Privilege Tax Law for persons engaged in business in the state.

Authorized agents of municipalities having a Gross Sales Tax Ordinance are permitted to inspect and make copies of returns filed with the State Tax Commissioner upon the written request of the Mayors of such municipalities.

PERSONAL INCOME TAX

The West Virginia Personal Income Tax Act (W. Va. Code, ch. 11, art. 21) was enacted by the 1961 regular session of the legislature on February 10, 1961, and signed by the Governor on February 14, 1961. The provisions of the Act applied to all taxable years ending on or after December 31, 1961, including that part which elapsed prior to the effective date of the Act. The Act was applied to taxable years beginning prior to and ending in the year 1961, but the tax imposed for any such year was on a prorated basis.

Description of Tax: The West Virginia Income Tax Act imposes a personal income tax on the taxable income of all resident individuals, and resident estates and trusts, irrespective of where such income is earned. Nonresident individuals, estates and trusts are taxed only upon income derived from West Virginia sources. Corporations and partnerships are not subject to the West Virginia income tax. A trust or other unincorporated organization which by reason of its activities is exempt from federal income tax is also exempt from West Virginia income tax.

The nature of the Act was to adopt for West Virginia personal income tax the provisions of the federal income tax laws relating to the determination of income. As adopted, it can be stated that the West Virginia Income Tax Act is a conformity statute. The same general concepts of income, gain, loss and deduction are employed in the West Virginia Act as are employed in the federal income tax law. The method used to make reference to the federal law is general in scope. With the exception of several rather technical modifications, West Virginia adjusted gross income is federal adjusted gross income. Amendments made to the federal income tax law which affect income, gain, loss and deduction are reflected in the West Virginia income tax law by periodic legislative enactments. The conformity with the federal income tax law was adopted to simplify preparation of state income tax returns, to improve enforcement of the state income tax through better use of information obtained from federal income tax audits, and to aid interpretation of the state tax law through increased use of federal judicial and administrative determinations and precedents.

Deductions. An individual, resident or nonresident, may use the West Virginia standard deduction on his state return, regardless of whether he used the standard deduction or claimed itemized deductions on his federal return. The West Virginia standard deduction of an individual is ten (10) percent of his West Virginia adjusted gross income or $1,000, whichever is less. A resident or nonresident individual may elect to use itemized deductions in computing his West Virginia taxable income only if he claimed itemized deductions for the same year on his federal return. Itemized deductions for residents are the same as federal deductions, with the exception of two modifications; nonresidents' deductions must be attributed to or connected with West Virginia sources.

Personal Exemptions. An individual, resident or nonresident, is allowed an exemption of $600.00 for each exemption to which he is entitled for the taxable year for federal income tax purposes. A husband and wife who file joint federal but separate West Virginia returns may each claim only the exemptions to which he or she would have been entitled if separate federal returns had been filed. The exemption for an estate or trust is $600.00.

Rate of Tax. For all taxable years or portions thereof ending prior to January 1, 1963, the West Virginia income tax rate was six (6) per centum of the federal income tax which would have been imposed on an identical amount of federal taxable income. For taxable years or portions thereof beginning on or after January 1, 1963, the West Virginia income tax rate, which is equally applicable to individuals, estates and trusts, is a graduated rate which begins at 1.2% of West Virginia taxable income. The maximum rate is 5.5% of the West Virginia taxable income. The West Virginia Income Tax Act provides only two rate schedules; one for joint returns and surviving spouses, and one for individuals and heads of household.

Credits Against Tax. The West Virginia Income Tax Act provides credits against the personal income tax for: (1) business and occupation tax imposed against the taxpayer; (2) transportation privilege tax imposed against the taxpayer; (3) West Virginia income tax withheld from the individual's wages or salary; (4) estimated income tax payments made by the individual; (5) income taxes paid by residents to other states; and (6) income taxes paid by nonresidents to their state of residence. No federal credits are allowed against the West Virginia income tax.

WEST VIRGINIA DEPARTMENT OF WELFARE FOOD STAMP PROGRAM

The Food Stamp Program in West Virginia has been in operation in McDowell County since May, 1961, and in Logan, Mingo and Wayne Counties since November of 1962. In late 1965, the program—designed to assure disadvantaged households in economically depressed areas of a nutritional diet—was expanded into seven additional counties—Boone, Clay, Fayette, Kanawha, Lincoln, Raleigh and Webster. The program is a joint undertaking of the United States Department of Agriculture and the West Virginia Department of Welfare. Households in economic need, who do not receive welfare, as well as those who receive a grant of assistance are eligible to participate. Eligible households purchase food stamp coupons in accordance to their monthly income and the number of persons in the household and are provided a sufficient amount of bonus or free coupons to insure the household nutritional meals. For example, a six member household with a net monthly income of $165.00 would pay $68.00 in cash and would receive free or bonus coupons in the amount of $40.00 making a total of $108.00 the household has to spend for foods of their choice.

The program contributes to the household's dignity and self-respect with its provision for participation according to income. The household can use the money formerly spent for food for recreation, clothing and other necessities. The program not only increases the buying power of participating households but also benefits the retail grocer and the wholesale merchant as well by the use of the bonus or free coupons. The food stamp coupons, redeemable at retail stores designated by the United States Department of Agriculture, have meant significant boosts for the economy in the various counties where the program is in operation. The Food Stamp Program is considered superior to that involving the direct distribution of federal donated foods for a number of reasons. The most important reason being that it provides the household with an adequate diet and help in accordance to need.

The administrative cost, largely borne by the state, is offset by the consumer's sales tax paid on the bonus coupons issued within the counties. The Department of Welfare anticipates expansion of the Food Stamp Program within the next fiscal year. At the present time, the Department has approved for expansion into seven counties.

The following statistics reflect the average number of households participating in the Food Stamp Program for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1965, in Logan, Mingo, McDowell and Wayne Counties.
