The 78th Legislature of West Virginia - 2007

Under the provisions of the West Virginia Constitution, the Legislature is the lawmaking branch of state government. Legislators are elected by the people to serve as their representative voice in government.

The West Virginia Legislature is a citizen legislature -- meaning the members are not full-time legislators, but ordinary citizens who hold other jobs when the Legislature is not meeting.

Because the Legislature is comprised of two bodies, the Senate and the House of Delegates, it is called "bicameral."

The Legislative Oath of Office

"I do solemnly swear that I will support the Constitution of the State of West Virginia, and faithfully discharge the duties of Senator (or Delegate) according to the best of my ability. I will not accept nor receive, directly nor indirectly, any money or other valuable thing from any corporation, company or person for any vote or influence I may give or withhold, as Senator (or Delegate) on any bill, resolution or appropriation, or for any act I may do or perform as Senator (or Delegate)."

The West Virginia State Senate

Representing 17 senatorial districts, the Senate is comprised of 34 members. Senators serve four-year terms with half of those seats up for election every two years.

To be eligible for election to the Senate, a person must be a United States citizen, at least 25-years-old, a resident of the state for at least five years and a resident of his or her district or county for at least one year.

Senate President - Lieutenant Governor

The presiding officer of the Senate is the "President." He or she is formally elected by the membership of the Senate at the beginning of the first legislative session following a general election.

The authority of the President includes the oversight and management of all legislative activities within the Senate.

In addition to duties as the presiding officer of the Senate, the President also is the state's Lieutenant Governor and assumes the duties of the office of Governor in the event a vacancy should occur in that office.

The West Virginia House of Delegates

The House of Delegates is composed of 100 members from 58 delegate districts throughout the state. Delegates serve two-year terms with all of the seats in the House up for election every two years.

To be eligible for election to the House, a person must be a United States citizen, be eligible to vote, and be a resident of his or her district or county for at least one year.

The Speaker of the House of Delegates

The presiding officer of the House is the "Speaker." He or she is formally elected by the membership of the House at the beginning of the first legislative session following a general election.

The authority of the Speaker includes the oversight and management of all legislative activities within the House of Delegates.

In addition to duties as the presiding officer of the House, the Speaker is the third ranking constitutional officer and is third in line of succession to the office of Governor.
