

H. B. 2307

(By Delegate Manchin)

[Introduced January 12, 2011; referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.]

10 A BILL to amend and reenact §23-5-16 of the Code of West Virginia,
11 1931, as amended, relating to workers' compensation claimant
12 attorney fees.

13 Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

14 That §23-5-16 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended,
15 be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

16 ARTICLE 5. REVIEW.

17 §23-5-16. Fees of attorney for claimant; unlawful charging or 18 receiving of attorney fees.

19 No attorney's fee in excess of twenty percent of any award
20 granted shall be charged or received by an attorney for a claimant 21 or dependent. In no case shall the fee received by the attorney of 22 such claimant or dependent be in excess of twenty percent of the 23 benefits to be paid during a period of two hundred eight weeks.

1 The interest on disability or dependent benefits as provided for in 2 this chapter shall not be considered as part of the award in 3 determining any such attorney's fee. However, any contract entered 4 into in excess of twenty percent of the benefits to be paid during 5 a period of two hundred eight weeks, as herein provided, shall be 6 unlawful and unenforceable as contrary to the public policy of this 7 state and any fee charged or received by an attorney in violation 8 thereof shall be deemed an unlawful practice and render the 9 attorney subject to disciplinary action.

10 (a) An attorney's fee for benefits secured on behalf of a 11 claimant in excess of twenty percent of the first $50,000 of the 12 amount of the benefits secured, fifteen percent of the next $50,000 13 of the amount of the benefits secured, and ten percent of the 14 remaining amount of the benefits secured, may not be charged or 15 received by an attorney for a claimant or dependent. If there is 16 a lump-sum settlement, including settlement of indemnity or medical 17 benefits or both, an attorney's fee may not be in excess of the 18 amount permitted by this section.

19 (b) If a claimant successfully prevails in any proceedings 20 relating to a denial of medical benefits brought before the 21 Insurance Commission as a result of utilization review, 22 arbitration, or mediation, or proceedings, or both, relating to 23 denial of medical benefits before the Office of Judges, Board of 24 Review, or court, there shall additionally be taxed against the

1 commission, successor to the commission, other private carrier or 2 self-insured employer, whichever is applicable, the reasonable
3 costs and reasonable hourly attorney fees of the claimant.
4 Following the successful resolution of the denial in favor of the 5 claimant, a fee petition shall be submitted by the claimant's 6 attorney to the Insurance Commission, arbitrator, mediator, the 7 Office of Judges, the Board of Review, or court, whichever enters a 8 final decision on the issue, which shall enter an order within 9 thirty days awarding reasonable attorney fees and reasonable costs 10 of the claimant to be paid by the commission, successor to the 11 commission, other private carrier or self-insured employer which 12 shall be paid as directed. In determining the reasonableness of 13 the attorney fees, the Insurance Commission, arbitrator, mediator, 14 Office of Judges, Board of Review, or court shall consider the 15 experience of the attorney, the complexity of the issue, the hours
16 expended, and the contingent nature of the fee.

17 (c) In cases in which the claimant is responsible for the 18 payment of his or her own attorney's fees, these fees are a lien 19 upon compensation payable to the claimant, notwithstanding the 20 provisions of section eighteen, article four of this chapter.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to change the way fees are awarded to attorney's in workers' compensation claims.

Strike-throughs indicate language that would be stricken from the present law, and underscoring indicates new language that would be added.
