

H. B. 2060

(By Delegate Fragale)
[Introduced January 12, 2011; referred to the Committee on Education then the Judiciary.]

FISCAL NOTE

A BILL to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new section, designated §18A-2-15, relating to requiring all schools to post and make available to the public the schedules of teachers and staff; and providing a penalty for not having the schedules available by the second week of the school year.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be amended by adding thereto a new section, designated §18A-2-15, to read as follows:

ARTICLE 2. SCHOOL PERSONNEL.

§18A-2-15. School personnel schedules open to public; penalty.

(a) All schools shall post and make available to the public a complete listing of the schedule for every teacher and staff personnel for that school. Copies shall be posted and made readily

1 available in the school's office by the second week of the school
2 year and freely distributed to staff and to the public without
3 having to comply with the state's Freedom of Information Act.

4 (b) If by the second week of the school year, a school fails
5 to post and make available to the public the teacher and staff
6 personnel schedules as provided in this section, both the principal 7 of the school and the county superintendent of that school shall be 8 fined $500.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to require every school to post and make available to the public the schedule for every teacher and staff personnel for each school, and if a school fails to do so, the principal of that school and the county superintendent of that school shall be fined $500 each.

§18A-2-15 is new; therefore, it has been completely underscored.
