10	A BILL to amend and reenact $61-8B-10$ of the Code of West Virginia,
11	1931, as amended, relating to imposition of sexual intercourse
12	or sexual intrusion on incarcerated persons; sexual abuse by
13	employees of the Division of Corrections, Division of Juvenile
14	Services and the Regional Jail and Correctional Facility
15	Authority on incarcerated persons; penalties.
16	Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:
17	That §61-8B-10 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended,
18	be amended and reenacted to read as follows:
19	ARTICLE 8B. SEXUAL OFFENSES.
20	§61-8B-10. Imposition of sexual intercourse or sexual intrusion on
21	incarcerated persons; penalties.
22	(a) Notwithstanding any other section of this article, any
23	person employed by the Division of Corrections, any person working at a correctional facility managed by the Commissioner of

1 Corrections pursuant to contract or as an employee of a state 2 agency, any person working at a correctional facility managed by 3 the Division of Juvenile Services pursuant to contract or as an 4 employee of a state agency, any person employed by a jail or by the 5 Regional Jail and Correctional Facility Authority, any person 6 working at a facility managed by the Regional Jail and Correctional 7 Facility Authority or a jail or any person employed by, or acting 8 pursuant to, the authority of any sheriff, county commission or 9 court to ensure compliance with the provisions of article eleven-b, 10 chapter sixty-two of this code who engages in sexual intercourse, 11 or sexual intrusion or sexual contact with a person who is 12 incarcerated in this state is guilty of a felony and, upon 13 conviction thereof, shall be confined in a state correctional 14 facility under the control of the Commissioner of Corrections for 15 not less than one nor more than five years or fined not more than 16 5,000.

17 (b) Notwithstanding any other section of this article, any 18 person employed by the Division of Corrections as a parole officer 19 or by the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals as an adult or 20 juvenile probation officer who engages in sexual intercourse, or 21 sexual intrusion or sexual contact with a person said parole 22 officer or probation officer is charged as part of his or her 23 employment with supervising, is guilty of a felony and, upon 24 conviction thereof, shall be confined in a state correctional

1 facility under the control of the Commissioner of Corrections for 2 not less than one nor more than five years or fined not more than 3 $5,000, or both.

4 (c) The term "incarcerated in this state" for purposes of this 5 section includes in addition to its usual meaning, offenders 6 serving a sentence under the provisions of article eleven-b, 7 chapter sixty-two of this code.

8 (d) "Lack of consent" as defined in section two of this 9 article is not an element to an offense charged under this section 10 and consent is not a defense to a charged offense under this 11 section.

12 (e) For purposes of this section, "sexual contact" has the 13 same meaning as is given within this article: Provided, That a 14 properly administered pat-down, strip search or other security 15 related task that may involve touching, either directly or through 16 clothing, of the breasts, buttocks, anus or any part of the sex 17 organs of another person as part of such search or security measure 18 is not an offense under this section.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to provide that any employee of the Division of Corrections, the Division of Juvenile Services and the Regional Jail and Correctional Facility Authority who engages in sexual intercourse, sexual intrusion or sexual contact with an inmate is guilty of a felony and shall be confined for not less than one year nor more than five years or fined not more than $5,000. The bill further provides that for the purposes of this section, properly administered pat-downs, strip searches or other security measures do not constitute sexual contact.
