COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE

FOR

Senate Bill No. 460

(SENATORS LAIRD, WILLIAMS, D. FACEMIRE
AND FANNING, original sponsors)

[Passed March 10, 2011; in effect ninety days from passage.]

AN ACT to amend and reenact §15-10-3 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended; to amend and reenact §19-1A-4 of said code; and to amend and reenact §20-7-1 of said code, all relating to clarifying that Division of Forestry natural resources police officers are under the control and direction of the Director of the Division of Forestry; permitting the director to enter into memorandums of understanding with other law-enforcement agencies; and clarifying the duties of the director.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That §15-10-3 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be amended and reenacted; that §19-1A-4 of said code be amended and reenacted; and that §20-7-1 of said code be amended and reenacted, all to read as follows:

ARTICLE 10. COOPERATION BETWEEN LAW-ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES.

§15-10-3. Definitions.

1 For purposes of this article only, and unless a different 2 meaning plainly is required:

3 (1) “Criminal justice enforcement personnel” means those 4 persons within the state criminal justice system who are 5 actually employed as members of the State Police, members
6 of the Division of Protective Services, natural resources
7 police officers, chiefs of police and police of incorporated 8 municipalities, and county sheriffs and their deputies, and 9 whose primary duties are the investigation of crime and the 10 apprehension of criminals.

11 (2) “Head of a law-enforcement agency” means the 12 Superintendent of the State Police, the Director of the 13 Division of Protective Services, the chief natural resources 14 police officer of the Division of Natural Resources, a chief of 15 police of an incorporated municipality, a county sheriff or 16 the Director of the Division of Forestry.

17 (3) “State or local law-enforcement officer” means any 18 duly authorized member of a law-enforcement agency who 19 is authorized to maintain public peace and order, prevent 20 and detect crime, make arrests and enforce the laws of the 21 state or any county or municipality thereof, other than 22 parking ordinances, and includes persons employed as 23 campus police officers at state institutions of higher educa-
24 tion in accordance with the provisions of section five, article 25 four, chapter eighteen-b of this code, although those institu-26 tions may not be considered law-enforcement agencies. The 27 term includes persons employed as rangers by the Hat-28 field-McCoy Regional Recreation Authority in accordance 29 with the provisions of section six, article fourteen, chapter 30 twenty of this code, although the authority is not a 31 law-enforcement agency.

32 (4) “Head of campus police” means the superintendent or 33 administrative head of state or local law-enforcement 34 officers employed as campus police officers at state institu-
35 tions of higher education in accordance with the provisions 36 of section five, article four, chapter eighteen-b of this code.

37 (5) “Head of the rangers of the Hatfield-McCoy Regional 38 Recreation Authority” means the superintendent or adminis-
39 trative head of state or local law-enforcement officers 40 employed as rangers by the Hatfield-McCoy Regional 41 Recreation Authority in accordance with the provisions of 42 section six, article fourteen, chapter twenty of this code.

ARTICLE 1A. DIVISION OF FORESTRY.

§19-1A-4. Additional duties of the Director of the Division of Forestry generally.

1 (a) The director shall:

2 (1) Develop, promote and advance the growth of the forest
3 products industries of this state;

4 (2) Cooperate with educational institutions, development 5 agencies, and private and public organizations to promote 6 the expansion of the forest products industries of this state 7 in local and global markets;

8 (3) Conduct research on marketing and developing forest 9 products and forest products industries; conserving, manag-
10 ing, and utilizing the state’s forest land and its multiple uses; 11 and improving the forestry knowledge and practices of 12 private landowners.

13 (4) Compile its findings and recommendations, and dissem-
14 inate the results of its research to the public, the forest 15 products industry, the Governor and the Legislature.

16 (b) The director has the power to carry out and effectuate 17 the purposes of this article, article one-b of this chapter, and 18 article three of chapter twenty of this code, including the 19 power to:

20 (1) Accept and use gifts, donations or contributions from 21 individuals, organizations or corporations, and to acquire by 22 gift, lease or purchase real estate.

23 (2) Establish law enforcement practices and procedures to 24 address the law enforcement requirements of the division; 25 and

26 (3) To promulgate rules and regulations, subject to the 27 provisions of chapter twenty-nine-a of this code.

ARTICLE 7. LAW ENFORCEMENT, MOTORBOATING, LITTER.

PART I. LAW ENFORCEMENT, PROCEDURES AND PENALTIES.

§20-7-1. Chief natural resources police officer; natural resources police officers; special and emergency natural resources police officers; subsistence allowance; expenses.

1 (a) The division's law-enforcement policies, practices and 2 programs are under the immediate supervision and direction 3 of the division law-enforcement officer selected by the 4 director and designated as chief natural resources police 5 officer as provided in section thirteen, article one of this 6 chapter.

7 (b) Under the supervision of the director, the chief natural 8 resources police officer shall organize, develop and maintain 9 law-enforcement practices, means and methods geared, 10 timed and adjustable to seasonal, emergency and other needs 11 and requirements of the division's comprehensive natural 12 resources program. All division personnel detailed and 13 assigned to law-enforcement duties and services under this 14 section shall be known and designated as natural resources 15 police officers and are under the immediate supervision and 16 direction of the chief natural resources police officer except 17 as otherwise provided. All natural resources police officers 18 shall be trained, equipped and conditioned for duty and 19 services wherever and whenever required by division 20 law-enforcement needs.

21 (c) The chief natural resources police officer, acting under 22 supervision of the director, is authorized to select and

23 appoint emergency natural resources police officers for a 24 limited period for effective enforcement of the provisions of 25 this chapter when considered necessary because of emer-
26 gency or other unusual circumstances. The emergency 27 natural resources police officers shall be selected from 28 qualified civil service personnel of the division, except in 29 emergency situations and circumstances when the director
30 may designate officers, without regard to civil service
31 requirements and qualifications, to meet law-enforcement 32 needs. Emergency natural resources police officers shall 33 exercise all powers and duties prescribed in section four of 34 this article for full-time salaried natural resources police 35 officers except the provisions of subdivision (8) of said
36 section.

37 (d) The chief natural resources police officer, acting under 38 supervision of the director, is also authorized to select and 39 appoint as special natural resources police officers any 40 full-time civil service employee who is assigned to, and has 41 direct responsibility for management of, an area owned, 42 leased or under the control of the division and who has 43 satisfactorily completed a course of training established and 44 administered by the chief natural resources police officer, 45 when the action is considered necessary because of 46 law-enforcement needs. The powers and duties of a special 47 natural resources police officer, appointed under this 48 provision, is the same within his or her assigned area as 49 prescribed for full-time salaried natural resources police
50 officers. The jurisdiction of the person appointed as a special 51 natural resources police officer, under this provision, shall be 52 limited to the division area or areas to which he or she is 53 assigned and directly manages.

54 (e) The Director of the Division of Forestry is authorized to 55 appoint and revoke Division of Forestry special natural 56 resources police officers who are full-time civil service 57 personnel who have satisfactorily completed a course of 58 training as required by the Director of the Division of 59 Forestry. The jurisdiction, powers and duties of Division of 60 Forestry special natural resources police officers are set forth

61 by the Director of the Division of Forestry pursuant to article 62 three of this chapter, and articles one-a and one-b, chapter 63 nineteen of this code.

64 (f) The chief natural resources police officer, with the 65 approval of the director, has the power and authority to 66 revoke any appointment of an emergency natural resources
67 police officer or of a special natural resources police officer 68 at any time.

69 (g) Natural resources police officers are subject to seasonal 70 or other assignment and detail to duty whenever and wher-71 ever required by the functions, services and needs of the 72 division.

73 (h) The chief natural resources police officer shall desig-
74 nate the area of primary residence of each natural resources 75 police officer, including himself or herself. Since the area of 76 business activity of the division is actually anywhere within 77 the territorial confines of the State of West Virginia, actual 78 expenses incurred shall be paid whenever the duties are 79 performed outside the area of primary assignment and still 80 within the state.

81 (i) Natural resources police officers shall receive, in 82 addition to their base pay salary, a minimum monthly 83 subsistence allowance for their required telephone service, 84 dry cleaning or required uniforms, and meal expenses while 85 performing their regular duties in their area of primary 86 assignment in the amount of $130 each month. This subsis-
87 tence allowance does not apply to special or emergency 88 natural resources police officers appointed under this 89 section.

90 (j) After June 30, 2010, all those full time law-enforcement 91 officers employed by the Division of Natural Resources as 92 conservation officers shall be titled and known as natural 93 resources police officers. Wherever used in this code the term 94 "conservation officer," or its plural, means "natural re-95 sources police officer," or its plural, respectively.

96 (k) Notwithstanding any provision of this code to the 97 contrary, the provisions of subdivision six, subsection c, 98 section twelve, article twenty-one, chapter eleven of this 99 code are inapplicable to pensions of natural resources police
100 officers paid through the Public Employees Retirement 101 System.

The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
