

1 United States Constitution must govern and control, as recognized
2 in section one, article one of the West Virginia Constitution and 3 Article VI, Section 2 of the United States Constitution.

4 (b) The United States Constitution, as interpreted by the 5 United States Supreme Court and other federal courts, requires
6 congressional districts to be apportioned so as to achieve strict 7 equality of population with deviations therefrom being permissible
8 only when justified by, and necessary to achieve, rational state
9 policies. The Legislature has worked diligently to achieve
10 mathematical equality assuring that each person's vote is equal.
11 Doing so required dividing some counties and moving others between 12 districts. However, the changes were minimized as much as possible 13 while still meeting the population equality mandated by the United 14 States Constitution.

15 (c) The West Virginia Constitution requires districts to be 16 compact and formed of contiguous counties. The Legislature finds 17 that the three congressional districts are a compact division of 18 the state given its irregular features, mountain ranges, rivers and 19 two distinct panhandles.

20 (d) The Legislature finds that, in an effort to adhere as 21 closely as possible to all of the provisions of the United States
22 Constitution and the West Virginia Constitution, the Legislature, 23 in dividing the state into congressional districts, as described 24 and constituted in subsection (e) of this section, has:

1 (1) Adhered to the equality of population concept of one
2 person one vote;

3 (2) Made the congressional districts as compact as possible,
4 consistent with the equality of population concept;

5 (3) Formed the districts of "contiguous counties";

6 (4) Deviated from the long-established state policy regarding 7 keeping contiguous counties whole by crossing county lines only to 8 the extent necessary to achieve equality of population and 9 compactness, as required by constitutional law; and

10 (5) Also taken into account in crossing county lines, to the 11 extent feasible, the community of interests of the people involved.

12 (e) The number of members to which the state is entitled in 13 the House of Representative of the Congress of the United States 14 are apportioned among the counties of the state, arranged into 15 three congressional districts, numbered as follows:

16 (1) The First District consists of:
