A BILL to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new section, designated §3-8-2c, relating to funding for state executive party headquarters; defining terms; allowing funds to be raised; providing for allowable uses of the funds and prohibitions; setting certain fundraising limits; requiring reports; and requiring legislative rules.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be amended by adding thereto a new section, designated §3-8-2c, to read as follows:

ARTICLE 8. REGULATION AND CONTROL OF ELECTIONS.

§3-8-2c. Party headquarters committee; detailed accounts and verified financial statements; funding for headquarters; limitations; reporting requirements.

1       (a) For purposes of this section:

2       (1) “Contribution” means monetary donations and in-
3 kind contributions of materials or supplies, but does not 4 include volunteer personal services.

5       (2) “Party headquarters” means a physical structure or 6 structures that is the physical location of the office of a state 7 executive committee of a political party.

8       (3) “Party headquarters committee” includes any person,
9 organization or group of persons soliciting or receiving 10 contributions for the purpose of funding the rental, purchase,
11 construction or financing of the rental, purchase or construc-
12 tion of a party headquarters, and for the utilities, mainte-
13 nance, furniture, fixtures and equipment for the party
14 headquarters.

15       (b) A political party may establish a party headquarters
16 committee to solicit or receive contributions consistent with 17 this section.

18       (c) Funds raised towards a party headquarters may only 19   be used for a state political party's party headquarters. The 20   funds may not be used for satellite offices, other facilities, 21   signage or any electioneering activities.

22       (d) Any party headquarters committee soliciting or 23   receiving contributions for the funding of all or any part of 24   a party headquarters that receives an individual or corporate 25   contribution in excess of $250 shall file and retain detailed 26   records of the contribution.

27       (e) No person or corporation may contribute more than 28   $10,000 for any party headquarters.

29       (f) No party headquarters committee may receive 30   contributions or expend contributions for the purpose of 31   funding the rental, purchase, construction or financing of a
32   state executive committee headquarters in excess of $1
33   million.

34       (g) Any party headquarters committee, financial agent or 35   any person or officer acting on behalf of the committee
36   which is subject to the provisions of this section shall file a 37   verified financial statement with the Secretary of State on a 38   form prescribed by the State Election Commission within 39   ninety days of any contribution in excess of $250 or expendi-

40 ture of funds. The Secretary of State shall file and retain the 41 statements as public records for not less than six years.

42 (h) The financial statement shall contain information
43 required by the provisions of this section relating to any 44 contribution in excess of $250. In addition to any other 45 information required by the State Election Commission, the 46 report of contributions required by the provisions of this 47 section shall include the methodology of the fundraising, the 48 nature of any expenditures made and the names, addresses
49 and amounts paid to any person.

50 (i) Amounts received by a party headquarters committee
51 may be contributed to any educational, cultural or charitable 52 organization.

53 (j) The Secretary of State shall propose rules for legisla-
54 tive approval in accordance with the provisions of article 55 three, chapter twenty-nine-a of this code to effectuate the 56 provisions of this section.

(NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to allow a party headquarters committee to raise funds for a party headquarters for a state executive committee for a political party.

This section is new; therefore, strike-throughs and underscoring have been omitted.)
