

1 shall cooperate with the bureau or with the out-of-state agency in 2 the location of parents who have abandoned and deserted children
3 and shall provide the bureau or the out-of-state agency with all 4 available pertinent information concerning the location, income and 5 property of those parents.

6 (b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the 7 contrary, any entity conducting business in this state or 8 incorporated under the laws of this state shall, upon certification
9 by the bureau or any out-of-state agency administering a program
10 under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act that the information is 11 needed to locate a parent for the purpose of collecting or 12 distributing child support, provide the bureau or the out-of-state
13 agency with the following information about the parent: Full name, 14 social security number, date of birth, home address, wages and 15 number of dependents listed for income tax purposes: Provided,
16 That no entity may provide any information obtained in the course
17 of providing legal services, medical treatment or medical services.

18 (c) (1) The Bureau for Child Support enforcement shall have 19 access, subject to safeguards on privacy and information security, 20 and to the nonliability of entities that afford such access under 21 this subdivision, to information contained in the following
22 records, including automated access, in the case of records
23 maintained in automated databases:

24 (A) Records of other state and local government agencies,

1 including, but not limited to:

2 (i) Vital statistics, including records of marriage, birth and 3 divorce;

4 (ii) State and local tax and revenue records, including
5 information on residence address, employer, income and assets;

6 (iii) Records concerning real and titled personal property;

7 (iv) Records of occupational and professional licenses and 8 records concerning the ownership and control of corporations,
9 partnerships and other business entities;

10 (v) Employment security records;

11 (vi) Records of agencies administering public assistance
12 programs;

13 (vii) Records of the Division of Motor Vehicles; and 14 (viii) Corrections records.

15 (B) Certain records held by private entities with respect to 16 individuals who owe or are owed support or certain individuals
17 against, or with respect to, whom a support obligation is sought, 18 consisting of:

19 (i) The names and addresses of such individuals and the names
20 and addresses of the employers of such individuals, as appearing in 21 the customer records of public utilities, ~~and~~ cable television
22 companies, telephone companies, and cellular telephone companies,
23 pursuant to an administrative subpoena authorized by section one 24 hundred twenty-three, article eighteen of this chapter; and

1           (ii) Information, including information on assets and 2 liabilities, on such individuals held by financial institutions.

3           (2) Out-of-state agencies administering programs under Title
4 IV-D of the Social Security Act shall, without the need for any 5 court order, have the authority to access records in this state by 6 making a request through the Bureau for Child Support enforcement.

7           (d) All federal and state agencies conducting activities under 8 Title IV-D of the Social Security Act shall have access to any 9 system used by this state to locate an individual for purposes
10 relating to motor vehicles or law enforcement.

11           (e) Out-of-state agencies administering programs under Title
12 IV-D of the Social Security Act shall have the authority and right
13 to access and use, for the purpose of establishing or enforcing a
14 support order, the state law-enforcement and motor vehicle
15 databases.

16           (f) The Bureau for Child Support enforcement and out-of-state
17 agencies administering programs under Title IV-D of the Social 18 Security Act shall have the authority and right to access and use, 19 for the purpose of establishing or enforcing a support order,
20 interstate networks that state law-enforcement agencies and motor 21 vehicle agencies subscribe to or participate in, such as the 22 national law-enforcement telecommunications system (NLETS) and the 23 American association of motor vehicle administrators (AAMVA)
24 networks.

1           (g) No state, county or municipal agency or licensing board 2 required to release information pursuant to the provisions of this
3 section to the Bureau for Child Support enforcement or to any out-
4 of-state agency administering programs under Title IV-D of the 5 Social Security Act may require the Bureau for Child Support
6 enforcement or any out-of-state agency to obtain a court order
7 prior to the release of the information.

8           (h) Any information received pursuant to the provisions of 9 this section is subject to the confidentiality provisions set forth
10 in section 18-131 of this chapter.

Note: The purpose of this bill is to require telephone companies and cellular telephone companies to provide the names, address, and telephone numbers of its customers to the Bureau for Child Support Enforcement for purposes of establishing paternity, establishing or modifying support orders, for enforcing support orders or for distributing support.

Strike-throughs indicate language that would be stricken from the present law, underscoring indicates language that would be added.