[Originating in the Committee on the Judiciary;

A BILL to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new section, designated §15-10-6, relating to clarifying that duly authorized officers of the United States, the District of Columbia or other states have legal custody of their prisoners while they are in West Virginia.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be amended by adding thereto a new section, designated §15-10-6, to read as follows:

ARTICLE 10. COOPERATION BETWEEN LAW-ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES.

§15-10-6. Transportation of out-of-state prisoners; authority of foreign law-enforcement officers.

1 (a) Duly authorized law-enforcement officers of the 2 United States, the District of Columbia and other states or 3 political subdivisions thereof who are transporting prisoners
4 through this state, delivering prisoners to this state or taking
5 custody of a person in this state for transport to another
6 jurisdiction are deemed to have lawful custody of said
7 prisoner while in this state.

8 (b) Given that duly authorized officers of other
9 jurisdictions often have a need to travel through or to this 10 state with prisoners for short durations of time, such as for 11 medical treatment, the purpose of this section is to clarify the 12 authority and jurisdiction of those officers of the United 13 States, the District of Columbia and other states while having 14 custody of a prisoner during the time they are in West
15 Virginia.
