level courses without loss of retirement annuity or benefits.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That §18-7A-13a of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

ARTICLE 7A. STATE TEACHERS RETIREMENT SYSTEM.

§18-7A-13a. Resumption of service by retired teachers.

(a) For the purpose of this section, reemployment of a former or retired teacher as a teacher shall in no way impair the teacher's eligibility for a prior service pension or any other benefit provided by this article.

(b) Retired teachers who qualified for an annuity because of

1 age or service may not receive prior service allowance from the 2 retirement board when employed as a teacher and when regularly 3 employed by the State of West Virginia. The payment of the 4 allowance shall be discontinued on the first day of the month
5 within which such employment begins and shall be resumed on the 6 first day of the month succeeding the month within which such

10 governmental service and thereafter according to the option 11 selected by the teacher upon first retirement.

12 (c) Retired teachers who qualified for an annuity because of 13 disability shall receive no further retirement payments if the 14 retirement board finds that the disability of the teacher no longer
15 exists; payment shall be discontinued on the first day of the month
16 within which the finding is made. If the retired teacher returns 17 to service as a teacher, he or she shall contribute to the 18 Teachers' Accumulation Fund as a member of the system. His or her

20 his or her disability retirement. His or her accumulated 21 contributions which were transferred to the benefit fund upon his 22 or her retirement shall be returned to his or her individual
23 account in the Teachers' Accumulation Fund, minus retirement

1 payments received which were not supported by such contributions
2 and interest. Upon subsequent retirement, he or she shall receive 3 credit for all of his or her contributory experience, anything to 4 the contrary in this article notwithstanding.

5 (d) Notwithstanding any provision of this code to the 6 contrary, a person who retires under the system provided by this 7 article may subsequently become employed on either a full-time 8 basis, part-time basis or contract basis by any institution of 9 higher education without any loss of retirement annuity or 10 retirement benefits: ~~if the person's retirement commences between~~

15 (e) The retirement board is herewith authorized to require of 17 necessary to effectuate the provisions of this section.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to permit retired public school teachers to teach college level courses without loss of retirement benefits.
