7 ARTICLE 18. BUREAU FOR CHILD SUPPORT ENFORCEMENT.

8 §48-18-126. Review and adjustment of child support orders.

9 (a) Either parent or, if there has been an assignment of 11 for Child Support Enforcement ~~shall have the right to~~ may request 12 an administrative review of the child support award in the 13 following circumstances:

14 (1) Where the request for review is received thirty-six months 15 or more after the date of the entry of the order or from the 16 completion of the previous administrative review, whichever is 17 later, the Bureau for Child Support Enforcement shall conduct a 18 review to determine whether the amount of the child support award 19 in ~~such~~ the order varies from the amount of child support that 20 would be awarded at the time of the review pursuant to the 21 guidelines for child support awards contained in article ~~13-101, et~~ 22 ~~seq.~~ thirteen of this chapter. If the amount of the child support

1 child support guidelines, the Bureau for Child Support Enforcement 2 shall file with the family court a motion for modification of the 3 child support order. If the amount of the child support award
4 under the existing order differs by less than ~~ten~~ fifteen percent
5 from the amount that would be awarded in accordance with the child
6 support guidelines, the Bureau for Child Support Enforcement may,

10 (2) Where the request for review of a child support award is 11 received less than thirty-six months after the date of the entry of 12 the order or from the completion of the previous administrative 13 review, the Bureau for Child Support Enforcement shall undertake a 14 review of the case only where it is alleged that there has been a 15 substantial change in circumstances. If the Bureau for Child
16 Support Enforcement determines that there has been a substantial 17 change in circumstances and if it is in the best interests of the 18 child, the bureau shall file with the family court a motion for 19 modification of the child support order in accordance with the 20 guidelines for child support awards contained in article ~~13-101, et~~ 21 ~~seq. 7~~ thirteen of this chapter.

2 for Child Support Enforcement shall give each parent at least 3 thirty days' notice before commencing any review and shall further

5 the review, whether of a proposal to move for modification or of a 6 proposal that there should be no change.

7 (c) When the result of the review is a proposal to move for 8 modification of the child support order, each parent shall be given 9 thirty days' notice of the hearing on the motion, the notice to be 10 directed to the last known address of each party by first-class
11 mail. When the result of the review is a proposal that there be no 12 change, any parent disagreeing with that proposal may, within 13 thirty days of the notice of the results of the review, file with 14 the court a motion for modification setting forth in full the 15 grounds ~~therefor~~ for the modification.

16 (d) For the purposes of this section, a "substantial change in 17 circumstances" includes, but is not limited to, a changed financial 18 condition, a temporary or permanent change in physical custody of 19 the child which the court has not ordered, increased need of the 20 child or other financial conditions. "Changed financial 21 conditions" means increases or decreases in the resources available
22 to either party from any source. Changed financial conditions 23 includes, but is not limited to, the application for or receipt of 24 any form of public assistance payments, unemployment compensation

1 and workers' compensation or a fifteen percent or more variance
2 from the amount of the existing order and the amount of child
3 support that would be awarded according to the child support 4 guidelines.
