AN ACT to amend and reenact §48-3-103 and §48-3-105 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, all relating to domestic relations law generally; clarifying that conviction of an offense punishable by incarceration for one year or more prior to the marriage and without the knowledge of the other party constitutes a basis for voiding a marriage; clarifying that a party to a marriage who was unaware at the time of the marriage that his or her spouse had previously been convicted of an offense punishable by incarceration for one year or more may not institute an annulment action if he or she cohabited with that spouse after becoming aware of the conviction; clarifying grounds for voiding marriages; and modifying and removing certain language related to voiding of marriages.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That §48-3-103 and §48-3-105 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be amended and reenacted, all to read as follows:

ARTICLE 3. PROPERTY, RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES OF MARRIED WOMEN; HUSBAND AND WIFE.

AMERICAN LEGAL SYSTEM
STATE OF TEXAS

§48-3-103. Voidable marriages.

1           The following marriages are voidable and are void from 2           the time they are so declared by a judgment order of nullity:

3           (1) Marriages that are prohibited by law on account of
4           either of the parties having a wife or husband of a prior 5           marriage, when the prior marriage has not been terminated by 6           divorce, annulment or death;

7           (2) Marriages that are prohibited by law on account of
8           consanguinity or affinity between the parties;

9           (3) Marriages solemnized when either of the parties:

10          (A) Was mentally incompetent;

11          (B) Was afflicted with a sexually transmitted disease;

12          (C) Was incapable, because of natural or incurable
13          impotency of the body, of entering into the marriage state;

14          (D) Was under the age of consent; or

15          (E) Had been, prior to the marriage and without the 16          knowledge of the other party, convicted of a crime
17          punishable by imprisonment in excess of one year under the 18          applicable law of this state, another state or the United States;

19          (4) Marriages solemnized when, at the time of the 20          marriage, the wife, without the knowledge of the husband,
21          was with child by some person other than the husband.

§48-3-105. What persons may not institute annulment action.

1           An action for annulling a marriage may not be instituted:

2           (a) Where the cause is the natural or incurable impotency
3 of body of either of the parties to enter the marriage state, by
4 the party who had knowledge of such incapacity at the time
5 of marriage;

6           (b) Where the cause is fraud, force or coercion, by the 7 party who was guilty of such fraud, force or coercion, nor by 8 the injured party if, after knowledge of the facts, he or she
9 has by acts or conduct confirmed such marriage;

10          (c) Where the cause is affliction with a sexually 11 transmitted disease existing at the time of marriage, by the 12 party who was so afflicted if such party has subsequent to the 13 marriage become cured of such disease, nor by the person
14 who was not so afflicted if he or she after the curing of the 15 afflicted person has by acts or conduct confirmed the 16 marriage;

17          (d) Where the cause is the nonage of either of the parties,
18 by the party who was capable of consenting, nor by the party
19 not so capable if he or she has by acts or conduct confirmed
20 the marriage after arriving at the age of consent; or

21          (e) Where the cause is lack of consent on the part of 22 either of the parties, by the party consenting or bringing
23 about the marriage;

24          (f) Where the cause is that either of the parties has been
25 convicted of a crime punishable by imprisonment in excess
26 of one year under the applicable law of this state, another
27 state or the United States prior to marriage, by the other party

28 if, after knowledge of such fact, he or she has cohabited with 29 the party so convicted; or

30 (g) Where the cause is that the wife was at the time of 31 marriage with child by some person other than the husband,
32 by the husband, if after knowledge of the fact he has 33 cohabited with the wife.
