

H. B. 2411

(By Delegates Hamilton, Skinner and Storch, Guthrie, Moye,
L. Phillips, Longstreth, Romine, Azinger, Lynch and Canterbury)

[Introduced January 27, 2015; referred to the Committee on the Judiciary then Finance.]

A BILL to amend and reenact §3-1A-6 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating to authorizing the Secretary of State to prosecute election violations.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That §3-1A-6 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

ARTICLE 1A. STATE ELECTION COMMISSION AND SECRETARY OF STATE.

§3-1A-6. Powers and duties of Secretary of State; exercise of powers by appointees.

(a) The Secretary of State shall be the chief election official of the state. Except for those rules required by the provisions of section five of this article to be promulgated by the commission, the Secretary of State shall have the authority, after consultation with the State Election Commission, of which he or she is a member, to make, amend and rescind such orders and to promulgate legislative rules, in accordance with the provisions of chapter twenty-nine-a of this code, as may be necessary to standardize and make effective the provisions of this chapter. All election officials, county commissions, clerks of county commissions, clerks of circuit courts, boards of ballot commissioners, election commissioners and poll clerks shall abide by any orders that may be issued

1 and any legislative rules that may be promulgated by the Secretary of State and the commission.

2 (b) The Secretary of State also shall have authority to require collection and report of
3 statistical information and to require other reports by county commissions, clerks of county
4 commissions and clerks of circuit courts.

5 (c) The Secretary of State shall also advise with election officials; furnish to the election
6 officials a sufficient number of indexed copies of the current election laws of West Virginia and the 7 administrative orders and rules issued or promulgated thereunder; investigate the administration of 8 election laws, frauds and irregularities in any registration or election; report violations of election
9 laws to the appropriate prosecuting officials; and prepare an annual report.

10 (d) The Secretary of State shall also have the power to administer oaths and affirmations,
11 issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses, issue subpoena duces tecum to compel the 12 production of books, papers, records, registration records and other evidence and fix the time and 13 place for hearing any matters relating to the administration and enforcement of this chapter, or the 14 rules promulgated by the State Election Commission or by the Secretary of State as the chief election
15 official of the state. In case of disobedience to a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum, he or she may 16 invoke the aid of any circuit court in requiring the attendance, evidence and testimony of witnesses
17 and the production of papers, books, records, registration records and other evidence.

18 (e) (1) The Secretary of State shall also have the power, after consultation with the Secretary
19 of the Department of Military Affairs and Public Safety, to implement emergency procedures and 20 rules to ensure that all eligible voters have the opportunity to cast a valid ballot and to uphold the 21 integrity of an election in the event of natural disaster as declared by the Governor of this state,
22 terrorist attack, war or general emergency, if any of which occur during or immediately preceding

1 an election.

2 (2) For purposes of this subsection, a "general emergency" means circumstances preventing
3 the casting of ballots in one or more voting precincts. The chief judge of the circuit court of the 4 county where the casting of ballots is being prevented must declare by order that a general
5 emergency exists.”

6 (f) The Secretary of State is authorized to prosecute elections violations.

7 ~~(g)~~ (g) All powers and duties vested in the Secretary of State pursuant to this article may be
8 exercised by appointees of the Secretary of State at his or her discretion, but the Secretary of State
9 shall be responsible for their acts.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to authorize the Secretary of State to prosecute elections violations.

Strike-throughs indicate language that would be stricken from the present law, and underscoring indicates new language that would be added.