[ Introduced February 21, 2017; Referred to the Committee on Roads and Transportation then Finance.]

INTRODUCED H.B. 2017R2499

A BILL to amend and reenact §17B-2-12 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating to extending the expiration of driver's licenses for active military members' spouses; permitting the spouse to renew his or her license from wherever they are located and need not be in person; and authorizing rule making.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That §17B-2-12 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

ARTICLE 2. ISSUANCE OF LICENSE, EXPIRATION AND RENEWAL.

§17B-2-12. Expiration of licenses.

- (a) Except as provided in subsection subsections (b) and (c) of this section, every driver's license expires eight years from the date of its issuance.
- (b)(1) Every driver's license issued to a person who has attained his or her twenty-first birthday expires on the licensee's birthday. The commissioner may modify the expiration date of any license as necessary to effectuate the transition from the five-year renewal cycle to an eight-year renewal cycle as he or she considers necessary.
- (2) Every driver's license issued to a person who has not attained his or her twenty-first birthday expires thirty days after the licensee's twenty-first birthday, except as provided in section three-a of this article.
- (3) The driver's license of any person in the Armed Forces member of United States Armed Forces and that of his or her spouse expires six months after the date on which the person member is separated from active duty in the Armed Forces under honorable circumstances. Additionally, the member's spouse does not have to renew his or her license in person, it may be renewed wherever he or she may be located. The commissioner shall propose rules for legislative approval in accordance with article three, chapter twenty-nine-a of the code to implement this subsection.
