

WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE

2017 REGULAR SESSION

Introduced

House Bill 2658

BY DELEGATES MARCUM, PHILLIPS, HICKS, DEAN, CRISS,

MCGEEHAN, EVANS, A., ROWAN, LEWIS, FOLK AND

HAMILTON

[Introduced February 22, 2017; Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.]

1 A BILL to repeal §48-1-210 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended; to amend said code
 2 by adding thereto four new sections, designated §48-1-239a, §48-1-239b, §48-1-239c,
 3 and §48-1-239d; to amend and reenact §48-9-102, §48-9-203, §48-9-204, §48-9-206,
 4 §48-9-207, §48-9-209, §48-9-403 and §48-9-601 of said code; to amend said code by 5 adding thereto anew section designated §48-9-204a; and to amend said code by adding 6 thereto a new section, designated §48-13-502a, all relating to establishing that shared
 7 legal and physical custody of a child in cases of divorce is presumed to be in the best
 8 interests of the child.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

1 That §48-1-210 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be repealed; that said
 2 code be amended by adding thereto four new sections, designated §48-1-239a, §48-1-239b, §48-
 3 1-239c and §48-1-239d; that §48-9-102, §48-9-203, §48-9-204, §48-9-206, §48-9-207, §48-9-4 209, §48-9-403 and §48-9-601 of said code be amended and reenacted; that said code be 5 amended by adding thereto a new section, designate §48-9-204a; and that said code be amended
 6 by adding thereto a new section, designated §48-13-502a, all to read as follows:

ARTICLE 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS; DEFINITIONS.

§48-1-239a. Shared legal custody defined.

1 “Shared legal custody” means a continued mutual responsibility and involvement by both 2 parents in major decisions regarding the child’s welfare including matters of education, medical 3 care and emotional, moral and religious development.

§48-1-239b. Shared physical custody defined.

1 “Shared physical custody” means a child has periods of residing with, and being under the 2 supervision of, each parent: Provided, That physical custody shall be shared by the parents in 3 such a way as to assure a child frequent and continued contact with both parents.

§48-1-239c. Sole legal custody defined.

1 “Sole legal custody” means one parent has the right and responsibility to make major

2 decisions regarding the child’s welfare including matters of education, medical care and emotional
3 moral and religious development.

§48-1-239d. Sole physical custody defined.

1 “Sole physical custody” means a child resides with and is under the supervision of one
2 parent, subject to reasonable visitation by the other parent, unless the court determines that such 3 visitation would not be in the best interest of the child.

ARTICLE 9. ALLOCATION OF CUSTODIAL RESPONSIBILITY AND DECISION-MAKING RESPONSIBILITY OF CHILDREN.

§48-9-102. Objectives; best interests of the child.

1 (a) The primary objective of this article is to serve the child's best interests, by facilitating:

2 (1) Stability of the child;

3 (2) Rebuttable presumption that shared custody is in the best interest of the child;

4 ~~(2)~~ (3) Parental planning and agreement about the child's custodial arrangements and 5 upbringing;

6 ~~(3)~~ (4) Continuity of existing parent-child attachments;

7 ~~(4)~~ (5) Meaningful contact between a child and each parent;

8 ~~(5)~~ (6) Caretaking relationships by adults who love the child, know how to provide for the 9 child's needs, and who place a high priority on doing so;

10 ~~(6)~~ (7) Security from exposure to physical or emotional harm; and

11 ~~(7)~~ (8) Expeditious, predictable decision-making and avoidance of prolonged uncertainty
12 respecting arrangements for the child's care and control.

13 (b) A secondary objective of article is to achieve fairness between the parents.

PART 2. PARENTING PLANS.

§48-9-203. Proposed temporary parenting plan; temporary order; amendment; vacation of order.

1 (a) A parent seeking a temporary order relating to parenting shall file and serve a proposed
2 temporary parenting plan by motion. The other parent, if contesting the proposed temporary
3 parenting plan, shall file and serve a responsive proposed parenting plan. Either parent may move
4 to have a proposed temporary parenting plan entered as part of a temporary order. The parents
5 may enter an agreed temporary parenting plan at any time as part of a temporary order. The 6 proposed temporary parenting plan may be supported by relevant evidence and shall be verified
7 and shall state at a minimum the following:

8 (1) The name, address and length of residence with the person or persons with whom the 9 child has lived for the preceding twelve months;

10 ~~(2) The performance by each parent during the last twelve months of the parenting~~
11 ~~functions relating to the daily needs of the child;~~

12 ~~(3)~~ (2) The parents' work and child-care schedules for the preceding twelve months;

13 ~~(4)~~ (3) The parents' current work and child-care schedules; and

14 ~~(5)~~ (4) Any of the circumstances set forth in section 9-209 that are likely to pose a serious 15 risk to the child and that warrant limitation on the award to a parent of temporary residence or 16 time with the child pending entry of a permanent parenting plan.

17 (b) At the hearing, the court shall enter a temporary parenting order incorporating a 18 temporary parenting plan which includes:

19 (1) A schedule for the child's time with each parent when appropriate;

20 (2) Designation of a temporary residence for the child;

21 (3) Allocation of decision-making authority, if any. Absent allocation of decision-making 22 authority consistent with section two hundred seven of this article, neither party shall make any 23 decision for the child other than those relating to day-to-day or emergency care of the child, which 24 shall be made by the party who is present with the child;

25 (4) Provisions for temporary support for the child; and 26 (5) Restraining orders, if applicable.

27 (c) A parent may make a motion for an order to show cause and the court may enter a 28 temporary order, including a temporary parenting plan, upon a showing of necessity.

29 (d) A parent may move for amendment of a temporary parenting plan, and the court may 30 order amendment to the temporary parenting plan, if the amendment conforms to the limitations 31 of section 9-209 and is in the best interest of the child.

§48-9-204. Criteria for temporary parenting plan.

1 (a) After considering the proposed temporary parenting plan filed pursuant to section 9-2 203 and other relevant evidence presented, the court shall make a temporary parenting plan that
3 is in the best interest of the child. The court shall consider granting shared physical and shared
4 legal custody in cases where the parents do not agree to shared custody. If the court does not
5 grant shared custody under this subsection, the court shall cite clear and convincing evidence 6 that shared custody is unreasonable and not in the best interest of the child to the extent that the 7 legal custodial relationship between the child and a parent should be severed. ~~In making this~~ 8 ~~determination the court shall give particular consideration to:~~

9 ~~(1) Which parent has taken greater responsibility during the last twelve months for~~ 10 ~~performing caretaking functions relating to the daily needs of the child; and~~

11 ~~(2) Which parenting arrangements will cause the least disruption to the child's emotional~~ 12 ~~stability while the action is pending~~

13 (b) The factors used to determine residential provisions in the permanent parenting plan.

14 (c) Upon credible evidence of one or more of the circumstances set forth in subsection 9-
15 209(a), the court shall issue a temporary order limiting or denying access to the child as required 16 by that section, in order to protect the child or the other party, pending adjudication of the 17 underlying facts.

18 (d) Expedited procedures shall be instituted to facilitate the prompt issuance of a parenting
19 plan.

§48-9-204a. Model parenting schedules.

1 The Supreme Court of Appeals shall adopt advisory model parenting schedules for use in 2 determining schedules which most effectively promote the best interests of the child or children.
3 Such schedules shall reflect the differing needs of the child based upon age. Schedules shall be 4 adjusted for each child as it grows older and its needs and ability to adjust to its circumstances
5 change including expanded parenting time for the parent who initially spends less time with the 6 child.

§48-9-206. Allocation of custodial responsibility.

1 (a) Unless otherwise resolved by agreement of the parents under section 9-201 or unless 2 manifestly harmful to the child, the court shall allocate custodial responsibility ~~so that the~~
3 ~~proportion of custodial time the child spends with each parent approximates the proportion of time~~
4 ~~each parent spent performing caretaking functions for the child prior to the parents' separation or,~~
5 ~~if the parents never lived together, before the filing of the action, except to the extent required~~
6 ~~under section 9-209 or necessary to achieve any of the following objectives~~ based upon a 7 rebuttable presumption that shared custody is in the best interest of the child or children, except 8 in instances where a judicial officer has found by a preponderance of the evidence of neglect or 9 abuse. If the court denies the request for shared physical custody, the determination shall be 10 accompanied by specific findings of fact and conclusions of law that the awarding of shared 11 physical custody is not in the best interests of the child. The court must document clear and 12 convincing evidence that it would endanger the child's physical, mental or emotional health.

13 (1) To permit the child to have a relationship with each parent who has performed a 14 reasonable share of parenting functions;

15 (2) To accommodate the firm and reasonable preferences of a child who is fourteen years
16 of age or older, and with regard to a child under fourteen years of age, but sufficiently matured 17 that he or she can intelligently express a voluntary preference for one parent, to give that 18 preference such weight as circumstances warrant;

19 (3) To keep siblings together when the court finds that doing so is necessary to their

20 welfare;

21 (4) To protect the child's welfare when, under an otherwise appropriate allocation, the child 22 would be harmed because of a gross disparity in the quality of the emotional attachments between 23 each parent and the child or in each parent's demonstrated ability or availability to meet a child's 24 needs;

25 (5) To take into account any prior agreement of the parents that, under the circumstances 26 as a whole including the reasonable expectations of the parents in the interest of the child, would 27 be appropriate to consider;

28 (6) To avoid an allocation of custodial responsibility that would be extremely impractical
29 or that would interfere substantially with the child's need for stability in light of economic, physical 30 or other circumstances, including the distance between the parents' residences, the cost and 31 difficulty of transporting the child, the parents' and child's daily schedules, and the ability of the 32 parents to cooperate in the arrangement;

33 (7) To apply the principles set forth in 9-403(d) of this article if one parent relocates or 34 proposes to relocate at a distance that will impair the ability of a parent to exercise the amount of 35 custodial responsibility that would otherwise be ordered under this section; and 36 (8) To consider the stage of a child's development.

37 (b) In determining the proportion of caretaking functions each parent previously performed 38 for the child, ~~under subsection (a) of this section~~ the court shall not consider the divisions of 39 functions arising from temporary arrangements after separation, whether those arrangements are 40 consensual or by court order. The court may take into account information relating to the 41 temporary arrangements in determining other issues under this section.

42 (c) If the court is unable to allocate custodial responsibility under subsection (a) of this 43 section because the allocation under that subsection would be manifestly harmful to the child, or 44 because there is no history of past performance of caretaking functions, as in the case of a
45 newborn, ~~or because the history does not establish a pattern of caretaking sufficiently dispositive~~

46 ~~of the issues of the case~~ the court shall allocate custodial responsibility based on the child's best 47 interest, taking into account the factors in considerations that are set forth in this section and in 48 section two hundred nine and 9-403(d) of this article. ~~and preserving to the extent possible this~~
 49 ~~section's priority on the share of past caretaking functions each parent performed~~

50 (d) In determining how to schedule the custodial time allocated to each parent, the court 51 shall take account of the economic, physical and other practical circumstances such as those 52 listed in subdivision (6), subsection (a) of this section. The court shall also consider the willingness 53 and ability of each parent to facilitate and encourage a close and continuing relationship between 54 the other parent and the child.

§48-9-207. Allocation of significant decision-making responsibility.

1 (a) Unless otherwise resolved by agreement of the parents under section 9-201, the court
 2 shall allocate responsibility for making significant life decisions on behalf of the child, including 3 the child's education and health care, to one parent or to two parents jointly, in accordance with 4 the child's best interest, in light of:

5 (1) The court shall presume that the maximum involvement and cooperation of both 6 parents regarding the physical, mental, moral, and emotional well-being of their child is in the best
 7 interest of the child. This shall be accomplished, to the extent feasible, through the ordering of 8 shared physical and legal custody;

9 ~~(1)~~ (2) The allocation of custodial responsibility under section 9-206 of this article;

10 ~~(2)~~ (3) The level of each parent's participation in past decision-making on behalf of the 11 child;

12 ~~(3)~~ (4) The wishes of the parents;

13 ~~(4)~~ (5) The level of ability and cooperation the parents have demonstrated in decision-
 14 making on behalf of the child;

15 ~~(5)~~ (6) Prior agreements of the parties; and 16 ~~(6)~~ (7) The existence of any limiting factors, as set forth in section 9-209 of this article.

17 (b) If each of the child's legal parents has been exercising a reasonable share of parenting
18 functions for the child, the court shall presume that an allocation of decision-making responsibility
19 to both parents jointly is in the child's best interests. The presumption is overcome if there is a 20 history of domestic abuse, or by a showing that joint allocation of decision-making responsibility 21 is not in the child's best interest.

22 (c) Unless otherwise provided or agreed by the parents, each parent who is exercising 23 custodial responsibility shall be given sole responsibility for day-to-day decisions for the child, 24 while the child is in that parent's care and control, including emergency decisions affecting the 25 health and safety of the child.

§48-9-209. Parenting plan; limiting factors.

1 (a) If either of the parents so requests, or upon receipt of credible information thereof, the 2 court shall determine whether a parent who would otherwise be allocated responsibility under a
3 parenting plan:

4 (1) Has abused, neglected or abandoned a child, as defined by state law;

5 (2) Has sexually assaulted or sexually abused a child as those terms are defined in articles
6 eight-b and eight-d, chapter sixty-one of this code;

7 (3) Has committed domestic violence, as defined in section 27-202;

8 (4) Has ~~interfered persistently with the other parent's access to the child~~ persistently 9 violated, interfered with, impaired or impeded the rights of a parent or a child with respect to the 10 exercise of shared or sole custodial authority, residence, visitation or other contact with the child, 11 except in the case of actions taken for the purpose of protecting the safety of the child or the 12 interfering parent or another family member, pending adjudication of the facts underlying that 13 belief; or

14 (5) Has made one or more fraudulent reports of domestic violence or child abuse:
15 Provided, That a person's withdrawal of or failure to pursue a report of domestic violence or child 16 support shall not alone be sufficient to consider that report fraudulent.

17 (b) If a parent is found to have engaged in any activity specified by subsection (a) of this 18 section, the court shall impose limits that are reasonably calculated to protect the child or child's 19 parent from harm. The limitations that the court shall consider include, but are not limited to:

20 (1) An adjustment of the custodial responsibility of the parents, including but not limited to:

21 (A) Increased parenting time with the child to make up for any parenting time the other 22 parent lost as a result of the proscribed activity;

23 (B) An additional allocation of parenting time in order to repair any adverse effect upon 24 the relationship between the child and the other parent resulting from the proscribed activity; or

25 (C) The allocation of exclusive custodial responsibility to one of them;

26 (2) Supervision of the custodial time between a parent and the child;

27 (3) Exchange of the child between parents through an intermediary, or in a protected
28 setting;

29 (4) Restraints on the parent from communication with or proximity to the other parent or 30 the child;

31 (5) A requirement that the parent abstain from possession or consumption of alcohol or 32 nonprescribed drugs while exercising custodial responsibility and in the twenty-four hour period
33 immediately preceding such exercise;

34 (6) Denial of overnight custodial responsibility;

35 (7) Restrictions on the presence of specific persons while the parent is with the child;

36 (8) A requirement that the parent post a bond to secure return of the child following a 37 period in which the parent is exercising custodial responsibility or to secure other performance
38 required by the court;

39 (9) A requirement that the parent complete a program of intervention for perpetrators of 40 domestic violence, for drug or alcohol abuse, or a program designed to correct another factor; or

41 (10) Any other constraints or conditions that the court deems necessary to provide for the 42 safety of the child, a child's parent or any person whose safety immediately affects the child's 43 welfare.

44 (c) If a parent is found to have engaged in any activity specified in subsection (a) of this 45 section, the court may not allocate custodial responsibility or decision-making responsibility to 46 that parent without making special written findings that the child and other parent can be 47 adequately protected from harm by such limits as it may impose under subsection (b) of this 48 section. The parent found to have engaged in the behavior specified in subsection (a) of this 49 section has the burden of proving that an allocation of custodial responsibility or decision-making 50 responsibility to that parent will not endanger the child or the other parent.

51 (d) If the court determines, based on the investigation described in part three of this article 52 or other evidence presented to it, that an accusation of child abuse or neglect, or domestic 53 violence made during a child custody proceeding is false and the parent making the accusation 54 knew it to be false at the time the accusation was made, the court may order reimbursement to 55 be paid by the person making the accusations of costs resulting from defending against the 56 accusations. Such reimbursement may not exceed the actual reasonable costs incurred by the 57 accused party as a result of defending against the accusation and reasonable attorney's fees 58 incurred.

59 (e) (1) A parent who believes he or she is the subject of activities by the other parent
60 described in subdivision (5) of subsection (a), may move the court pursuant to subdivision (4), 61 subsection (b), section one hundred and one, article five, chapter forty-nine of this code for the 62 Department of Health and Human Resources to disclose whether the other parent was the source 63 of the allegation and, if so, whether the department found the report to be:

64 (A) Substantiated;

65 (B) Unsubstantiated;

66 (C) Inconclusive; or

67 (D) Still under investigation.

68 (2) If the court grants a motion pursuant to this subsection, disclosure by the Department
69 of Health and Human Resources shall be in camera. The court may disclose to the parties 70 information received from the department only if it has reason to believe a parent knowingly 71 made a false report.

PART 4. MODIFICATION OF PARENTING PLAN.

§48-9-403. Relocation of a parent.

1 (a) The relocation of a parent constitutes a substantial change in the circumstances under
2 subsection 9-401(a) of the child only when it significantly impairs either parent's ability to exercise
3 responsibilities that the parent has been exercising.

4 (b) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, a parent who has responsibility under a 5 parenting plan who changes, or intends to change, residences for more than ninety days must 6 give a minimum of sixty days' advance notice, or the most notice practicable under the 7 circumstances, to any other parent with responsibility under the same parenting plan. Notice shall 8 include:

9 (1) The relocation date;

10 (2) The address of the intended new residence;

11 (3) The specific reasons for the proposed relocation;

12 (4) A proposal for how custodial responsibility shall be modified, in light of the intended 13 move; and

14 (5) Information for the other parent as to how he or she may respond to the proposed 15 relocation or modification of custodial responsibility.

16 Failure to comply with the notice requirements of this section without good cause may be 17 a factor in the determination of whether the relocation is in good faith under subsection (d) of this 18 section and is a basis for an award of reasonable expenses and reasonable attorney's fees to 19 another parent that are attributable to such failure.

20 The Supreme Court of Appeals shall make available through the offices of the circuit clerks

21 and the secretary-clerks of the family courts a form notice that complies with the provisions of this 22 subsection. The Supreme Court of Appeals shall promulgate procedural rules that provide for an 23 expedited hearing process to resolve issues arising from a relocation or proposed relocation.

24 (c) When changed circumstances are shown under subsection (a) of this section, the court
25 shall, if practical, revise the parenting plan so as to both accommodate the relocation and maintain 26 the same proportion of custodial responsibility being exercised by each of the parents. In making 27 such revision, the court may consider the additional costs that a relocation imposes upon the 28 respective parties for transportation and communication, and may equitably allocate such costs
29 between the parties.

30 (d) When the relocation constituting changed circumstances under subsection (a) of this 31 section renders it impractical to maintain the same proportion of custodial responsibility as that 32 being exercised by each parent, the court shall modify the parenting plan in accordance with the 33 child's best interests and in accordance with the following principles:

34 (1) A parent who has been exercising a significant majority of the custodial responsibility 35 for the child should be allowed to relocate with the child so long as that parent shows that the 36 relocation is in good faith for a legitimate purpose and to a location that is reasonable in light of 37 the purpose. The percentage of custodial responsibility that constitutes a significant majority of 38 custodial responsibility is seventy percent or more. A relocation is for a legitimate purpose if it is 39 to be close to significant family or other support networks, for significant health reasons, to protect 40 the safety of the child or another member of the child's household from significant risk of harm, to 41 pursue a significant employment or educational opportunity or to be with one's spouse who is 42 established, or who is pursuing a significant employment or educational opportunity, in another 43 location. The relocating parent has the burden of proving of the legitimacy of any other purpose.
44 A move with a legitimate purpose is reasonable unless its purpose is shown to be substantially 45 achievable without moving or by moving to a location that is substantially less disruptive of the 46 other parent's relationship to the child.

47 (2) If a relocation of the parent is in good faith for legitimate purpose and to a location that 48 is reasonable in light of the purpose and if neither has been exercising a significant majority of 49 custodial responsibility for the child, the court shall reallocate custodial responsibility based on 50 the best interest of the child, taking into account all relevant factors including the effects of the 51 relocation on the child.

52 (3) If a parent does not establish that the purpose for that parent's relocation is in good
53 faith for a legitimate purpose into a location that is reasonable in light of the purpose, the court 54 may modify the parenting plan in accordance with the child's best interests and the effects of the 55 relocation on the child. Among the modifications the court may consider is a reallocation of primary 56 custodial responsibility, effective if and when the relocation occurs, but such a reallocation shall 57 not be ordered if the relocating parent demonstrates that the child's best interests would be served 58 by the relocation.

59 (4) The court shall attempt to minimize impairment to a parent-child relationship caused 60 by a parent's relocation through alternative arrangements for the exercise of custodial 61 responsibility appropriate to the parents' resources and circumstances and the developmental 62 level of the child.

63 (5) If the parents are exercising a basic shared parenting schedule and all of their children
64 are under six years of age, the court shall consider this a factor against the approval of the 65 relocation of the custodial parent unless the relocation has been agreed to by both parties.

66 (e) In determining the proportion of caretaking functions each parent previously performed 67 for the child under the parenting plan before relocation, the court may not consider a division of 68 functions arising from any arrangements made after a relocation but before a modification hearing
69 on the issues related to relocation.

70 (f) In determining the effect of the relocation or proposed relocation on a child, any 71 interviewing or questioning of the child shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of 72 rule 17 of the rules of practice and procedure for family law as promulgated by the Supreme Court

73 of Appeals.

PART 6. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

§48-9-601. ~~Access to a child's records~~ Parental Rights.

1 (a)(1) Each parent has the right to full and equal access to a child's educational records
2 absent a court order to the contrary. Neither parent may veto the access requested by the other
3 parent. Educational records are academic, attendance and disciplinary records of public and 4 private schools in all grades kindergarten through twelve and any form of alternative school.
5 Educational records are any and all school records concerning the child that would otherwise be 6 properly released to the primary custodial parent, including, but not limited to, report cards and 7 progress reports, attendance records, disciplinary reports, results of the child's performance on 8 standardized tests and statewide tests and information on the performance of the school that the 9 child attends on standardized statewide tests; curriculum materials of the class or classes in which 10 the child is enrolled; names of the appropriate school personnel to contact if problems arise with 11 the child; information concerning the academic performance standards, proficiencies, or skills the 12 child is expected to accomplish; school rules, attendance policies, dress codes and procedures 13 for visiting the school; and information about any psychological testing the school does involving 14 the child.

15 (2) In addition to the right to receive school records, the nonresidential parent has the right
16 to participate as a member of a parent advisory committee or any other organization comprised 17 of parents of children at the school that the child attends.

18 (3) The nonresidential parent or noncustodial parent has the right to question anything in 19 the child's record that the parent feels is inaccurate or misleading or is an invasion of privacy and 20 to receive a response from the school.

21 (4) Each parent has a right to arrange appointments for parent-teacher conferences
22 absent a court order to the contrary. Neither parent can be compelled against their will to exercise 23 this right by attending conferences jointly with the other parent.

24 (b)(1) Each parent has the right to full and equal access to a child's medical records absent
25 a court order to the contrary. Neither parent may veto the access requested by the other parent.
26 If necessary, either parent is required to authorize medical providers to release to the other parent 27 copies of any and all information concerning medical care provided to the child which would 28 otherwise be properly released to either parent.

29 (2) If the child is in the actual physical custody of one parent, that parent is required to 30 promptly inform the other parent of any illness of the child which requires medical attention.

31 (3) Each parent is required to consult with the other parent prior to any elective surgery 32 being performed on the child, and in the event emergency medical procedures are undertaken for 33 the child which require the parental consent of either parent, if time permits, the other parent shall 34 be consulted, or if time does not permit such consultation, the other parent shall be promptly
35 informed of the emergency medical procedures: Provided, That nothing contained herein alters
36 or amends the law of this state as it otherwise pertains to physicians or health care facilities
37 obtaining parental consent prior to providing medical care or performing medical procedures.

38 (c) (1) Each parent has full and equal access to a child's juvenile court records, process
39 and pleadings, absent a court order to the contrary. Neither parent may veto any access 40 requested by the other parent. Juvenile court records are limited to those records which are 41 normally available to a parent of a child who is a subject of the juvenile justice system.

42 (2) Each parent has the right to be notified by the other party if the minor child is the victim
43 of an alleged crime, including the name of the investigating law-enforcement officer or agency.
44 There is no duty to notify if the party to be notified is the alleged perpetrator.

45 (d) Each parent has the right to reasonable access and telephone or other electronic 46 contact with the minor children, which shall be defined in the parenting plan.

ARTICLE 13. GUIDELINES FOR CHILD SUPPORT AWARDS.

§48-13-502a. Revision of child support calculations to include consideration of total parenting time.

- 1 In the worksheet found in section five hundred two of this article, the designated category
- 2 overnights with each parent shall be adjusted to include consideration of total parenting time
- 3 rather than just overnights.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to establish that shared legal and physical custody of a child in cases of divorce is presumed to be in the best interests of the child.

Strike-throughs indicate language that would be stricken from a heading or the present law and underscoring indicates new language that would be added.
