6 law permits the transfer to be perfected cannot acquire an interest in the asset that is superior to 7 the interest of the transferee; and

8 (2) With respect to an asset that is not real property or that is a fixture, when the transfer 9 is so far perfected that a creditor on a simple contract cannot acquire a judicial lien otherwise than 10 under this article that is superior to the interest of the transferee;

11 (b) If applicable law permits the transfer to be perfected as provided in subdivision (a) of 12 this subsection and the transfer is not so perfected before the commencement of an action for 13 relief under this article, the transfer is considered made immediately before the commencement

16 (a) of this subsection, the transfer is made when it becomes effective between the debtor and the 17 transferee; and

19 an obligation is incurred.

14 transfer, subject to adjustment as the equities may require.

15 (d) Notwithstanding voidability of a transfer or an obligation under this article, a good-faith
16 transferee or obligee is entitled, to the extent of the value given the debtor for the transfer or

23 (1) Termination of a lease upon default by the debtor when the termination is pursuant to 24 the lease and applicable law; or

25 (2) Enforcement of a security interest in compliance with §46-9-1 et seq. of this code.

26 (f) A transfer is not voidable under §40-1A-5(b) of this code:

27 (1) To the extent the insider gave new value to or for the benefit of the debtor after the 28 transfer was made unless the new value was secured by a valid lien;

29 (2) If made in the ordinary course of business or financial affairs of the debtor and the 30 insider; or

31 (3) If made pursuant to a good-faith effort to rehabilitate the debtor and the transfer
32 secured present value given for that purpose as well as an antecedent debt of the debtor.

33 (g) The following rules determine the burden of proving matters referred to in this section:

34 (1) A party that seeks to invoke subsection (a), (d), (e) or (f) of this section has the burden
35 of proving the applicability of that subsection.

38 (3) The transferee has the burden of proving the applicability to the transferee of 39 subdivision (1) or (2), subsection (b) of this section.

40 (4) A party that seeks adjustment under subsection (c) of this section has the burden of 41 proving the adjustment.

42 (h) The standard of proof required to establish matters referred to in this section is
