

WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE

2018 REGULAR SESSION

Introduced

Senate Bill 291

FISCAL NOTE

BY SENATOR SMITH

[Introduced January 16, 2018; Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary; and then to the Committee on Finance]

1 A BILL to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new article,
 2 designated §49-9-1, relating to transferring child welfare enforcement responsibilities to
 3 the West Virginia State Police; transferring employees, funds and property of the 4 Department of Health and Human Resources to the West Virginia State Police; providing
 5 that the transferred employees remain in the Civil Service System, continue to participate
 6 in Public Employees Retirement System Insurance and continue to be covered by the 7 Public Employees Insurance Act; and requiring rulemaking.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 9. ENFORCEMENT.

§49-9-1. Enforcement transferred to West Virginia State Police; employees; funds and property; rulemaking.

1 (a) No later than January 1, 2019, all enforcement responsibilities and requirements to
 2 enforce the provisions of this chapter that are currently performed by the Department of Health
 3 and Human Resources and its employees shall be transferred to the West Virginia State Police
 4 and its members.

5 (b) No later than January 1, 2019, all employees of the Department of Health and Human
 6 Resources whose responsibility it is to enforce the provisions of this chapter shall be transferred
 7 to the West Virginia State Police and become its employees.

8 (c) No later than January 1, 2019, the funds and all property, both real and personal, used
 9 by the Department of Health and Human Resources used to enforce the provisions of this chapter
 10 shall be transferred to the West Virginia State Police.

11 (d) All employees transferred pursuant to subsection (b) of this section shall remain in the 12 Civil Service System, continue to participate in Public Employees Retirement System Insurance
 13 and continue to be covered by the Public Employees Insurance Act.

14 (e) The West Virginia State Police and the Department of Health and Human Resources
 15 shall propose rules for legislative approval in accordance with §29A-3-1 et seq. of this code to 16 implement this article.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to transfer child welfare enforcement responsibilities to the West Virginia State Police. The bill transfers employees, funds and property of the Department of Health and Human Resources to the West Virginia State Police. The bill provides that the transferred employees remain in the Civil Service System, continue to participate in Public Employees Retirement System Insurance and continue to be covered by the Public Employees Insurance Act. The bill requires rulemaking.
