[Passed March 7, 2018; in effect from passage]

1 AN ACT to amend and reenact §27-5-1 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating 2 generally to mental hygiene proceedings; eliminating requirement that new mental 3 hygiene commissioners undergo a minimum of three days training in mental hygiene 4 areas; removing requirement that training program include training in manifestations of 5 mental illness and addiction; and authorizing the Supreme Court to establish curricula for 6 mental hygiene commissioners and those magistrates designated by the chief judge of a 7 judicial circuit to hold probable cause and emergency detention hearings involving 8 involuntary hospitalization.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 5. INVOLUNTARY HOSPITALIZATION.

§27-5-1. Appointment of mental hygiene commissioner; duties of mental hygiene commissioner; duties of prosecuting attorney; duties of sheriff; duties of Supreme Court of Appeals; use of certified municipal law-enforcement officers.

1 (a) Appointment of mental hygiene commissioners. — The chief judge in each judicial 2 circuit of this state shall appoint a competent attorney and may, if necessary, appoint additional 3 attorneys to serve as mental hygiene commissioners to preside over involuntary hospitalization
4 hearings. Mental hygiene commissioners shall be persons of good moral character and of 5 standing in their profession and they shall, before assuming the duties of such commissioner, 6 take the oath required of other special commissioners as provided in §6-1-1 et seq. of this code.

7 All persons newly appointed to serve as mental hygiene commissioners shall attend and 8 complete an orientation course, within one year of their appointment, consisting of training
9 provided annually by the Supreme Court of Appeals. In addition, existing mental hygiene 10 commissioners and any magistrates designated by the chief judge of a judicial circuit to hold 11 probable cause and emergency detention hearings involving involuntary hospitalization shall 12 attend and complete a course provided by the Supreme Court of Appeals. Persons attending such 13 courses outside the county of their residence shall be reimbursed out of the budget of the 14 Supreme Court - General Judicial for reasonable expenses incurred. The Supreme Court of 15 Appeals shall establish curricula and rules for such courses, including rules providing for the 16 reimbursement of reasonable expenses as authorized herein.

17 (b) Duties of mental hygiene commissioners. —

18 (1) Mental hygiene commissioners may sign and issue summonses for the attendance, at 19 any hearing held pursuant to §27-5-4 of this code, of the individual sought to be committed; may 20 sign and issue subpoenas for witnesses, including subpoenas duces tecum; may place any 21 witness under oath; may elicit testimony from applicants, respondents, and witnesses regarding 22 factual issues raised in the petition; and may make findings of fact on evidence and may make 23 conclusions of law, but such findings and conclusions shall not be binding on the circuit court. All 24 mental hygiene commissioners shall be reasonably compensated at a uniform rate determined 25 by the Supreme Court of Appeals. Mental hygiene commissioners shall submit all requests for 26 compensation to the administrative director of the courts for payment. Mental hygiene 27 commissioners shall discharge their duties and hold their offices at the pleasure of the chief judge 28 of the judicial circuit in which he or she is appointed and may be removed at any time by such 29 chief judge. It shall be the duty of a mental hygiene commissioner to conduct orderly inquiries into 30 the mental health of the individual sought to be committed concerning the advisability of 31 committing the individual to a mental health facility. The mental hygiene commissioner shall 32 safeguard, at all times, the rights and interests of the individual as well as the interests of the 33 state. The mental hygiene commissioner shall make a written report of his or her findings to the 34 circuit court. In any proceedings before any court of record as set forth in this article, the court of 35 record shall appoint an interpreter for any individual who is deaf or cannot speak or who speaks 36 a foreign language and who may be subject to involuntary commitment to a mental health facility.

37 (2) A mental hygiene commissioner appointed by the circuit court of one county or multiple 38 county circuits may serve in such capacity in a jurisdiction other than that of his or her original 39 appointment if such be agreed upon by the terms of a cooperative agreement between the circuit

40 courts and county commissions of two or more counties entered into to provide prompt resolution 41 of mental hygiene matters during noncourt hours or on nonjudicial days.

42 (c) Duties of prosecuting attorney. — It shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney or one 43 of his or her assistants to represent the applicants in all final commitment proceedings filed
44 pursuant to the provisions of this article. The prosecuting attorney may appear in any proceeding 45 held pursuant to the provisions of this article if he or she deems it to be in the public interest.

46 (d) Duties of sheriff. — Upon written order of the circuit court, mental hygiene 47 commissioner, or magistrate in the county where the individual formally accused of being mentally 48 ill or addicted is a resident or is found, the sheriff of that county shall take said individual into 49 custody and transport him or her to and from the place of hearing and the mental health facility.
50 The sheriff shall also maintain custody and control of the accused individual during the period of 51 time in which the individual is waiting for the involuntary commitment hearing to be convened and 52 while such hearing is being conducted: Provided, That an individual who is a resident of a state
53 other than West Virginia shall, upon a finding of probable cause, be transferred to his or her state 54 of residence for treatment pursuant to §27-5-4(p) of this code: Provided, however, That where an 55 individual is a resident of West Virginia but not a resident of the county in which he or she is found 56 and there is a finding of probable cause, the county in which the hearing is held may seek 57 reimbursement from the county of residence for reasonable costs incurred by the county attendant
58 to the mental hygiene proceeding. Notwithstanding any provision of this code to the contrary, 59 sheriffs may enter into cooperative agreements with sheriffs of one or more other counties, with 60 the concurrence of their respective circuit courts and county commissions, whereby transportation 61 and security responsibilities for hearings held pursuant to the provisions of this article during 62 noncourt hours or on nonjudicial days may be shared in order to facilitate prompt hearings and to 63 effectuate transportation of persons found in need of treatment.

64 (e) Duty of sheriff upon presentment to mental health care facility. — When a person is 65 brought to a mental health care facility for purposes of evaluation for commitment under this

66 article, if he or she is violent or combative, the sheriff or his or her designee shall maintain custody 67 of the person in the facility until the evaluation is completed, or the county commission shall 68 reimburse the mental health care facility at a reasonable rate for security services provided by the 69 mental health care facility for the period of time the person is at the hospital prior to the 70 determination of mental competence or incompetence.

71 (f) Duties of Supreme Court of Appeals. — The Supreme Court of Appeals shall provide 72 uniform petition, procedure, and order forms which shall be used in all involuntary hospitalization
73 proceedings brought in this state.
