Senate Bill 470

BY SENATORS OJEDA, BALDWIN, BEACH, JEFFRIES,

PALUMBO, STOLLINGS AND WOELFEL

[Introduced February 2, 2018; Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary]

1 A BILL to amend and reenact §61-6-21 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating
 2 to prohibiting civil rights violations based on gender identity or sexual orientation; criminal
 3 penalties; when evidence of constitutionally protected speech or associations is not 4 admissible in criminal prosecutions; exceptions; providing for sentencing alternatives for 5 persons convicted of violations; and designating amendments to this section as the Justice
 6 Through Grace in Communities Act.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 6. CRIMES AGAINST THE PEACE.

§61-6-21. Prohibiting violations of an individual's civil rights; penalties; when evidence not admissible; sentencing alternatives; Justice Through Grace in Communities Act.

1 (a) All persons within the boundaries of the State of West Virginia have the right to be free
 2 from any violence, or intimidation by threat of violence, committed against their persons or 3 property because of their race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, political affiliation, sex,
 4 gender identity, or sexual orientation.

5 (b) If any person does by force or threat of force, willfully injure, intimidate or interfere with,
 6 or attempt to injure, intimidate or interfere with, or oppress or threaten any other person in the 7 free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege secured to him or her by the Constitution or 8 laws of the State of West Virginia or by the Constitution or laws of the United States, ~~because of~~

 16 willfully injure, oppress, threaten, or intimidate or interfere with any citizen ~~because of such other~~

17 intentionally selected due to that other person's race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin,
18 political affiliation, or sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation in the free exercise or enjoyment
19 of any right or privilege secured to him or her by the Constitution or laws of the State of West
20 Virginia or by the Constitution or laws of the United States, and in willful furtherance thereof to 21 assemble with one or more persons for the purpose of teaching any technique or means capable 22 of causing property damage, bodily injury or death when such person or persons intend to employ
23 such techniques or means to violate this section, each such person ~~shall be~~ is guilty of a felony 24 and, upon conviction, shall be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned in a state correctional 25 facility not more than 10 years, or both fined and imprisoned: Provided, That an adjudication under 26 subsection (h) of this section is an appropriate alternative sentencing.

27 (d) The fact that a person committed a felony or misdemeanor, or attempted to commit a 28 felony, ~~because of the~~ and intentionally selected the victim due to victim's actual or perceived 29 race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, political affiliation, or sex, gender identity, or sexual 30 orientation shall be considered a circumstance in aggravation of any crime in imposing sentence.

31 (e) Nothing contained in this section makes unlawful the teaching of any technique in self-32 defense.

33 (f) Nothing in this section shall be construed so as to make it unlawful nor to prohibit nor,
34 in any manner, to impede or to interfere with any person in conducting labor union or labor union
35 organizing activities.

36 (g) In any prosecution under this section, evidence of constitutionally protected speech or 37 associations is not admissible in the prosecution of the charge, unless the speech or associations 38 are:

39 (1) Specifically related to the crime charged; and

40 (2) Probative of intent to target a specific victim or to commit a specific crime, as defined 41 in subsections (a), (b), (c), and (d) of this section.

42 (h) A person convicted under this section shall be considered for deferred adjudication

43 under §61-11-22a of this code, and alternative sentencing including, but not limited to, community
44 corrections programming under §62-11C-1 et seq. of this code.

45 (i) The judge or magistrate shall determine if alternative sentencing is appropriate by 46 considering the following factors:

47 (1) Whether appropriate community corrections programs exist in the county or 48 municipality with jurisdiction; and

49 (2) Whether a community corrections program provides an opportunity for the harm to be 50 remediated, or for the victim or convicted to be reintegrated into the community.

51 (j) The amendments to this section shall be known as the “Justice Through Grace in 52 Communities Act”.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to prohibit civil rights violations based on gender identity, or sexual orientation. The bill provides that evidence of constitutionally protected speech or associations is not admissible in criminal prosecutions except in certain situations. The bill provides for sentencing alternatives for persons convicted of violations. And, the amendments to this section are to be known as the “Justice Through Grace in Communities Act”.
