

WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE

2020 REGULAR SESSION

Introduced

Senate Bill 513

BY SENATORS JEFFRIES, BALDWIN, CLINE, LINDSAY,

IHLENFELD, AND WOELFEL

[Introduced January 16, 2020; referred to the Committee on the Judiciary]

1 A BILL to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new article,
2 designated §46A-6O-1, §46A-6O-2, §46A-6O-3, §46A-6O-4, §46A-6O-5, and §46A-6O-6,
3 all relating to automatic purchase renewal offers and continuous service offers; stating
4 legislative intent; defining terms; setting notice and disclosure requirements for automatic
5 purchase renewal offers and continuous service offers; providing that a business may not 6 charge the consumer for an automatic renewal or continuous services without first 7 obtaining the consumer's affirmative consent; providing acknowledgement requirements;
8 providing that a business shall disclose how to cancel the automatic renewal or continuous
9 service before the consumer pays if the offer includes a free gift or trial; providing that a 10 business shall provide certain mechanism for cancellation of the automatic renewal or 11 continuous offer in the acknowledgement; requiring a business to provide contact 12 information to the consumer; providing means for terminating the automatic renewal or 13 continuous service offer online; providing notice requirements in the case of material
14 changes in the terms of the automatic renewal or continuous service; providing that a 15 business shall provide to the consumer a reminder of the recurring charge and information 16 on how the consumer may cancel at least 30 days prior to the charge in the case of 17 automatic renewal or continuous service offers of certain frequency; providing a period of 18 application; providing that goods, wares, merchandise, or products shall be deemed an 19 unconditional gift to the consumer when the business sends any goods, wares,
20 merchandise, or products to a consumer without first obtaining the consumer's affirmative
21 consent under a continuous service agreement or automatic renewal of a purchase;
22 providing a civil cause of action; providing statutory penalties; providing that no action may 23 be brought until written notice is provided by the consumer, or his or her representative,
24 to the business; providing written notice requirements; providing mailing requirements;
25 providing the business an opportunity to cure the alleged violation; providing for expiration 26 of the cure offer and cure period; providing a period for the business to remit payment, if

27 any, as specified in the accepted cure offer; providing that a claim may be brought for 28 failure of the business to timely effect the accepted cure offer; providing that the written 29 notice is a jurisdictional prerequisite to bringing a cause of action; providing the court
 30 discretion to award plaintiff costs of the action, including reasonable attorney’s fees;
 31 providing that plaintiff is not entitled to costs and attorney’s fees under certain 32 circumstances; providing a statute of limitations; providing that the statute of limitations
 33 shall be tolled; and stating exemptions.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 60. AUTOMATIC PURCHASE RENEWALS.

§46A-60-1. Legislative intent.

1 It is the intent of the Legislature to end the practice of ongoing charging of consumer credit
 2 or debit cards or third-party payment accounts without the consumer’s explicit consent for ongoing
 3 shipments of a product or ongoing deliveries of service.

§46A-60-2. Definitions.

1 As used in this article:

2 “Automatic renewal” means a plan or arrangement in which a paid subscription or 3 purchasing agreement is automatically renewed at the end of a definite term for a subsequent 4 term.

5 “Automatic renewal offer terms” means the following clear and conspicuous disclosures:

6 (1) That the subscription or purchasing agreement shall continue until the consumer
 7 cancels.

8 (2) The description of the cancellation policy that applies to the offer.

9 (3) The recurring charges that shall be charged to the consumer’s credit or debit card or 10 payment account with a third party as part of the automatic renewal plan or arrangement, and that 11 the amount of the charge may change, and the amount to which the charge shall change, if known.

12 (4) The length of the automatic renewal term or that the service is continuous, unless the 13 length of the term is chosen by the consumer.

14 (5) The minimum purchase obligation, if any.

15 “Clear and conspicuous” or “clearly and conspicuously” means in larger type than the 16 surrounding text, or in contrasting type, font, or color to the surrounding text of the same size, or 17 set off from the surrounding text of the same size by symbols or other marks, in a manner that 18 clearly calls attention to the language. In the case of an audio disclosure, “clear and conspicuous”
19 and “clearly and conspicuously” means in a volume and cadence sufficient to be readily audible
20 and understandable.

21 “Consumer” means any individual who seeks or acquires, by purchase or lease, any 22 goods, services, money, or credit for personal, family, or household purposes.

23 “Continuous service” means a plan or arrangement in which a subscription or purchasing 24 agreement continues until the consumer cancels the service.

§46A-60-3. Automatic renewal or continuous service offers; prohibited activities; cancellation mechanism; notice of material change in terms; application of requirements.

1 (a) It is unlawful for any business that makes an automatic renewal offer or continuous
2 service offer to a consumer in this state to do any of the following:

3 (1) Fail to present the automatic renewal offer terms or continuous service offer terms in 4 a clear and conspicuous manner before the subscription or purchasing agreement is fulfilled and
5 in visual proximity, or in the case of an offer conveyed by voice, in temporal proximity, to the 6 request for consent to the offer: Provided, That if the offer also includes a free gift or trial, the offer
7 shall include a clear and conspicuous explanation of the price that shall be charged after the trial
8 ends or the manner in which the subscription or purchasing agreement pricing shall change upon 9 conclusion of the trial.

10 (2) Charge the consumer’s credit or debit card, or the consumer’s account with a third
11 party, for an automatic renewal or continuous service without first obtaining the consumer’s

12 affirmative consent to the agreement containing the automatic renewal offer terms or continuous 13 service offer terms, including the terms of an automatic renewal offer or continuous service offer
14 that is made at a promotional or discounted price for a limited period of time.

15 (3) Fail to provide an acknowledgment that includes the automatic renewal offer terms or 16 continuous service offer terms, cancellation policy, and information regarding how to cancel in a
17 manner that is capable of being retained by the consumer: Provided, That if the automatic renewal
18 offer or continuous service offer includes a free gift or trial, the business shall also disclose in the 19 acknowledgment how to cancel and allow the consumer to cancel the automatic renewal or 20 continuous service before the consumer pays for the goods or services.

21 (b) A business that makes an automatic renewal offer or continuous service offer shall 22 provide a toll-free telephone number, electronic mail address, a postal address if the seller directly 23 bills the consumer, or it shall provide another mechanism for cancellation that shall be described 24 in the acknowledgment specified in §46A-6O-3(a)(3) of this code.

25 (c) In addition to the requirements of §46A-6O-3(b) of this code, a consumer who accepts 26 an automatic renewal or continuous service offer online shall be allowed to terminate the 27 automatic renewal or continuous service exclusively online, which may include a termination email 28 formatted and provided by the business that a consumer can send to the business without 29 additional information.

30 (d) If there is a material change in the terms of the automatic renewal or continuous service
31 that has been accepted by a consumer in this state, the business shall provide the consumer with 32 a clear and conspicuous notice of the material change and provide information regarding how to 33 cancel in a manner that is capable of being retained by the consumer.

34 (e) If there is an automatic renewal or continuous service offer that charges once a year
35 or less frequently, the business shall provide to the consumer a reminder of the recurring charge
36 and information on how the consumer may cancel at least 30 days prior to the charge.

37 (f) The requirements of this article shall apply only prior to the completion of the initial

38 order for the automatic renewal or continuous service, except as follows:

39 (1) The requirement in §46A-6O-3(a)(3) of this code may be fulfilled after completion of 40 the initial order.

41 (2) The requirement in §46A-6O-3(d) of this code shall be fulfilled prior to implementation 42 of the material change.

§46A-6O-4. Goods sent without affirmative consent as unconditional gifts.

1 If a business sends any goods, wares, merchandise, or products to a consumer, under a 2 continuous service agreement or automatic renewal of a purchase, without first obtaining the 3 consumer's affirmative consent as described in this article, the goods, wares, merchandise, or 4 products shall, for all purposes, be considered an unconditional gift to the consumer, who may 5 use or dispose of the same in any manner he or she sees fit without any obligation on the 6 consumer's part to the business, including, but not limited to, bearing the cost of, or responsibility
7 for, shipping any goods, wares, merchandise, or products to the business.

§46A-6O-5. Civil action permitted.

1 (a) If a business violates the provisions of this article, the consumer has a cause of action
2 to recover actual damages and, in addition, a right to recover from the business a penalty in an
3 amount of $1,000 per violation: Provided, That no action may be brought pursuant to this section
4 until the consumer, or a representative of the consumer, has notified the business of the alleged
5 violation and the factual basis for the violation, in writing and by certified mail, return receipt
6 requested, to the business' registered agent identified by it at the office of the West Virginia
7 Secretary of State or, if not registered with the West Virginia Secretary of State, then to its principal 8 place of business.

9 (b) The business has 10 days from receipt of the notice of the alleged violation by its agent
10 or at its principal place of business to make a cure offer, which shall be provided to the consumer's 11 counsel or, if unrepresented, to the consumer by certified mail, return receipt requested.

12 (c) The consumer has 10 days from receipt of the cure offer to accept the cure offer or it

13 is considered refused and withdrawn. If a cure offer is accepted, unless otherwise agreed to by 14 the parties, the business has seven days to remit payment, if any, as specified in the cure offer.
15 Nothing in this section prevents a consumer that has accepted a cure offer from bringing an action
16 under this section against a business for failing to timely effect the cure offer.

17 (d) The written notice required under §46A-6O-5(a) of this code is a jurisdictional
18 prerequisite to any action brought under this section for claims accruing on or after the effective 19 date of this section.

20 (e) The court in any action brought under this section may, if any judgment is awarded to 21 the plaintiff, assess costs of the action, including reasonable attorneys' fees against the 22 defendant: Provided, That the plaintiff may not be awarded costs and attorneys' fees if the plaintiff
23 rejected the business' cure offer and judgment is awarded to the plaintiff in an amount not more 24 than 105 percent of the amount offered in the cure offer.

25 (f) No action may be brought under this section more than two years after the date upon 26 which the violation occurred: Provided, That any applicable statute of limitations is tolled for a 20-
27 day period beginning the day the business or its agent receives the notice of the alleged violation
28 under §46A-6O-5(a) of this code, or for the period the effectuation of the cure offer is being 29 performed, whichever is longer.

§46A-6O-6. Exemptions.

1 The following are exempt from the requirements of this article:

2 (1) Any service provided by a business or its affiliate where either the business or its
3 affiliate is doing business pursuant to a franchise issued by a political subdivision of the state or 4 a license, franchise, certificate, or other authorization issued by the Public Service Commission;

5 (2) Any service provided by a business or its affiliate where either the business or its
6 affiliate is licensed or regulated by the Public Service Commission, the Federal Communications
7 Commission, or the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission;

8 (3) Any entity regulated by the Insurance Commission; and

- 9            (4) A bank, bank holding company, or the subsidiary or affiliate of either, or a credit union 10 or other financial institution, licensed under state or federal law.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to protect consumers against businesses using automatic purchase renewals without consent.

Strike-throughs indicate language that would be stricken from a heading or the present law and underscoring indicates new language that would be added.