

WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE

2019 REGULAR SESSION

Introduced

House Bill 2753

BY DELEGATE WILSON AND BIBBY

[Introduced January 30, 2019; Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.]

1 A BILL to amend and reenact §3-5-23 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating 2 to permitting stand-in candidates for gubernatorial and presidential contests.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 5. PRIMARY ELECTIONS AND NOMINATING PROCEDURES.

§3-5-23. Certificate nominations; requirements and control; penalties.

1 (a) Groups of citizens having no party organization may nominate candidates who are not 2 already candidates in the primary election for public office otherwise than by conventions or 3 primary elections. In that case, the candidate or candidates, jointly or severally, shall file a 4 nomination certificate in accordance with the provisions of this section and the provisions of §3-5 5-24 of this code.

6 (b) The person or persons soliciting or canvassing signatures of duly qualified voters on 7 the certificate or certificates, may solicit or canvass duly registered voters residing within the 8 county, district, or other political division represented by the office sought, but must first obtain 9 from the clerk of the county commission credentials which must be exhibited to each voter 10 canvassed or solicited, which credentials may be in the following form or effect:

11 State of West Virginia, County of, ss:

12 This certifies that the holder of this credential is hereby authorized to solicit and canvass 13 duly registered voters residing in (here place the county, district or other political 14 division represented by the office sought) to sign a certificate purporting to nominate 15 (here place name of candidate heading list on certificate) for the office of 16 and others, at the general election to be held on, 20.....

17 Given under my hand and the seal of my office this day of, 18 20.....

20 Clerk, county commission of County.

21 The clerk of each county commission, upon proper application made as herein provided,

22 shall issue such credentials and shall keep a record thereof.

23 (c) The certificate shall be personally signed by duly registered voters, in their own proper 24 handwriting or by their marks duly witnessed, who must be residents within the county, district, or 25 other political division represented by the office sought wherein the canvass or solicitation is made 26 by the person or persons duly authorized. The signatures need not all be on one certificate. The 27 number of signatures shall be equal to not less than one percent of the entire vote cast at the last 28 preceding general election for the office in the state, district, county, or other political division for 29 which the nomination is to be made, but in no event shall the number be less than 25. The number 30 of signatures shall be equal to not less than one percent of the entire vote cast at the last 31 preceding general election for any statewide, congressional, or presidential candidate, but in no 32 event shall the number be less than 25. Where two or more nominations may be made for the 33 same office, the total of the votes cast at the last preceding general election for the candidates 34 receiving the highest number of votes on each ticket for the office shall constitute the entire vote.
35 A signature on a certificate may not be counted unless it be that of a duly registered voter of the 36 county, district, or other political division represented by the office sought wherein the certificate 37 was presented.

38 (d) The certificates shall state the name and residence of each of the candidates; that he 39 or she is legally qualified to hold the office; that the subscribers are legally qualified and duly 40 registered as voters and desire to have the candidates placed on the ballot; and may designate, 41 by not more than five words, a brief name of the party which the candidates represent and may 42 adopt a device or emblem to be printed on the official ballot. Stand-in candidates will be permitted 43 for gubernatorial and presidential contests. All candidates nominated by the signing of the 44 certificates shall have their names placed on the official ballot as candidates, as if otherwise 45 nominated under the provisions of this chapter.

46 The Secretary of State shall prescribe the form and content of the nomination certificates 47 to be used for soliciting signatures.

48 Offices to be filled by the voters of more than one county shall use separate petition forms 49 for the signatures of qualified voters for each county.

50 Notwithstanding any other provision of this code to the contrary, a duly registered voter 51 may sign the certificate provided in this section and may vote for candidates of his or her choosing 52 in the corresponding primary election.

53 (e) The Secretary of State, or the clerk of the county commission, as the case may be, 54 may investigate the validity of the certificates and the signatures thereon. If, upon investigation,
55 there is doubt as to the legitimacy and the validity of certificate, the Secretary of State may ask
56 the Attorney General of the state, or the clerk of the county commission may ask the prosecuting
57 attorney of the county, to institute a quo warranto proceeding against the nominee by certificate 58 to determine his or her right to the nomination to public office and upon request being made, the 59 Attorney General or prosecuting attorney shall institute the quo warranto proceeding. The clerk of 60 the county commission shall, at the request of the Secretary of State or the clerk of the circuit
61 court, compare the information from any certificate to the county voter registration records in order 62 to assist in determining the validity of any certificates.

63 (f) For the purposes of this section, any person who, at the time of the filing of the 64 nomination certificate or certificates, is registered and affiliated with a recognized political party 65 as defined in §3-1-8 of this code may not become a candidate for political office by virtue of the 66 nomination-certificate process as set forth in this section.

67 (g) For the purposes of this section, any person who was a candidate for nomination by a 68 recognized political party as defined in §3-1-8 of this code may not, after failing to win the 69 nomination of his or her political party, become a candidate for the same political office by virtue 70 of the nomination-certificate process as set forth in this section.

71 (h) In addition to penalties prescribed elsewhere for violation of this chapter, any person 72 violating the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be 73 fined not more than $1,000, or confined in jail not more than one year, or both fined and confined:

- 74 Provided, That a criminal penalty may not be imposed upon anyone who signs a nomination 75 certificate and votes in the primary election held after the date the certificate was signed.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to permit stand-in candidates for gubernatorial and presidential contests.
