 4 with a public issue, which includes:

5 (1) The right of free speech by communicating, or conduct furthering communication, in a

8 right to petition, or right of association as defined in §51-12-2(a) of this code, the court shall grant
9 the motion to dismiss unless the party bringing the action states with particularity the 10 circumstances giving rise to the claim and shows by a preponderance of the evidence a probability
11 of prevailing on the merits.

12 (2) Notwithstanding subdivision (1) of this subsection, the court shall grant the motion to 13 dismiss if the moving party establishes each element of a valid defense to the claim.

14 (3) In its determination, the court shall consider pleadings and supporting and opposing 15 affidavits stating the facts upon which the liability or defense is based.

16 (4) The court shall rule on a special motion to dismiss as soon as possible, but no later
17 than 30 days after hearing the motion. If the court does not rule on a motion to dismiss within this 18 period, the motion is considered to have been denied by operation of law.

19 (c) An order granting or denying a special motion to dismiss is appealable.

§51-12-4. Recovery of attorneys' fees and costs; sanctions.

1 (a) If the court orders dismissal of a legal action under this article, the court shall award to
2 the moving party costs and reasonable attorney's fees, including those incurred on the motion.

2 adjudged to be unconstitutional or invalid, that determination does not affect the continuing validity
3 of the remaining provisions of this article.
