Introduced

House Bill 2867

BY DELEGATES MARTIN, SUMMERS, RILEY, CRISS AND

BURKHAMMER

[Introduced March 03, 2021; Referred to the Committee on Agriculture and Natural Resources
then Finance]

1 A BILL to amend and reenact §20-1-16 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended relating
 2 to the Natural Resources Commission; providing for the composition and membership of 3 the commission; providing criteria and qualifications for the appointment of 4 commissioners; and providing for reimbursement of expenses for commissioners.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 1. ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATION.

§20-1-16. Natural resources commission -- Generally.

1 (a) The natural resources commission, created and established by provisions of section
 2 three of this ~~article~~ code, shall be a public benefit corporation and as such may sue and be sued,
 3 plead and be impleaded, contract and be contracted with, and have and use a common seal. It
 4 shall be a commission advisory to the director and to the ~~department~~ division of natural resources.
 5 ~~The commission shall be composed of seven members, known as commissioners, one from each~~
 6 ~~congressional district and the remainder from the state at large, appointed by the Governor, by~~
 7 ~~and with the advice and consent of the Senate. Their terms of office shall begin on July 1, and~~
 8 ~~shall be for a period of seven years, except that the Governor in making the initial appointments~~
 9 ~~shall designate and define their respective terms of office so that the term of one member of the~~ 10 ~~commission will expire each year. As initial appointments expire, all subsequent appointments~~
 11 ~~shall be for terms of seven years or for the unexpired term of a member who may have died,~~
 12 ~~resigned or become disqualified~~ The commission shall be composed of seven members, known 13 as commissioners, one from each division of natural resources district and the remainder from 14 the state at large and shall be appointed to provide the broadest geographic distribution possible
 15 so that each commissioner shall attend the division sectional meetings established in §20-1-7(6)
 16 of this code within his or her respective district.

17 (b) The Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint the seven
 18 members for the following terms beginning July 1, 2021:

19 (1) Three for a term of four years;

20 (2) Two for a term of three years; and

21 (3) Two for a term of two year.

22 (4) Successors to appointed members whose terms expire shall be appointed for terms of 23 four years. Any commissioner whose term as expired serves until his or her successor has been 24 appointed. An appointed commissioner may not serve more than two consecutive terms.
25 Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term. Appointment to fill a vacancy shall not be 26 considered as one of two full terms. Any commissioner who has served two or more consecutive 27 terms immediately preceding the effective date of this section shall not be excluded from 28 consideration for initial appointment under this section.

29 (c) The members of the commission shall be citizens and residents of the state, selected
30 with special reference to their training and experience in relation to the principal activities required
31 of the commission, and for their ability and fitness to perform their duties within the purposes of 32 this chapter and shall be selected with special emphasis on his or her interest in the conservation
33 of the natural resources of the state. No member of the commission shall be a candidate for or 34 hold any public office other than that of member of the commission; nor shall he or she be a 35 member of any committee of a political party. In case a member becomes a candidate for or 36 accepts appointment to any public office or political party committee, his or her office as member
37 of the commission shall be immediately vacated. The director of the division of natural resources
38 may submit recommendations to the Governor for the appointment of the commissioners.

39 (d) Commissioners are not entitled to compensation for services performed for the 40 commission, but may be reimbursed by the division of natural resources for actual and necessary
41 expenses incurred for each day in which he or she is engaged in the discharge of official duties, 42 the actual expenses not to exceed the amount paid similar reimbursement to members of the 43 Legislature.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to establish the Natural Resources Commission appointment criteria and qualifications, and to allow for reimbursement of expenses related to discharge of official duties.
