1 A BILL to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new section,
 2 designated §11-21-10b, relating to establishing a tax credit against West Virginia personal 3 income tax liability tax credit for student loan payments; providing for definitions;
 4 establishing the tax credit; providing for the tax credit be claimed by the taxpayer the year
 5 of graduation; providing the tax credit may be claimed for nine tax years after graduation;
 6 providing that any year the tax credit is not claimed is forfeited; establishing certain 7 conditions for the taxpayer to claim the credit; and permitting the Tax Commissioner to 8 require forms, filings or other such methods to claim the tax credit.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 21. PERSONAL INCOME TAX.

§11-21-10b. College Graduate Tax Credit.

1 (a) Definitions. – For the purposes of this section;:

2 “Graduate” means a graduate of a qualified institution of higher learning who has been 3 awarded a baccalaureate degree, a graduate degree, or a professional degree by the qualified 4 institution of higher learning.

5 “Qualified education expense” means the cost of tuition and fees, room and board, books
 6 and necessary supplies and equipment directly related to the court of education pursued at a 7 qualified institution of higher learning.

8 “Qualified institution of higher learning” means an institution that instructs students and 9 awards baccalaureate degrees, graduate degrees, or professional degrees and which holds
 10 accreditation by an accrediting agency or association determined by the United States Secretary
 11 of Education, under 20 U.S.C. §1099b to be a reliable authority for accreditation.

12 “Qualified student loan” means a loan taken out in the name of the taxpayer claiming the 13 credit authorized by this section and used solely to pay qualified education expenses for education 14 resulting in the award of a baccalaureate degree, graduate degree, or professional degree by a 15 qualified institution of higher learning.

16 (b) A credit shall be allowed against the tax imposed by this article equal to the amount of 17 principal and interest paid by graduates of qualified institutions of higher learning for repayment 18 of qualified student loans used to pay for qualified education expenses incurred to attend qualified
19 institutions of higher learning. This credit is available for taxpayers graduating on or after January 20 1, 2021, and is applied in the year of graduation from a qualified institution of higher learning and 21 for the next succeeding nine tax years following graduation from a qualified institution of higher 22 learning. The annual tax credit authorized by this section is equal to the lesser of one tenth of the 23 principal amount of the graduate's qualified student loans plus interest paid in the tax year or the 24 amount of principal and interest paid during the tax year but may not exceed the taxpayer's 25 personal income tax liability as calculated under the provisions of this article for the tax year for 26 which the credit is claimed. Any annual credit remaining after application of the credit in any tax 27 year may not be carried-over to another succeeding tax year nor carried-back to a prior tax year
28 but is forfeited. Only qualified student loans used to obtain a baccalaureate degree, a graduate 29 degree, or a professional degree from a qualified institution of higher learning are eligible for the 30 credit allowed by this section. Only qualified student loans with interest liability of $600 or more
31 annually are eligible for the credit allowed by this section. Only the individual graduate is eligible 32 for the credit allowed by this section.

33 (c) For purposes of administering the provisions of this section, Internal Revenue Service 34 Form 1098E shall be used to provide the necessary information relating to the identity of the 35 graduate claiming the credit and the qualified student loan interest among. The Tax Commissioner 36 may prescribe such other forms, schedules, returns, or filings as the Tax Commissioner may 37 consider appropriate for claims of this credit.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to provide a tax credit against West Virginia personal income tax liability in the amount of payments made on student loans; providing the credit may be used in the graduation year; providing for a maximum term of nine years to claim the credit after the year of graduation; establishing definitions; and establishing the Tax Commissioner to require forms, schedules, returns, or filings to claim the credit.
