

WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE

2022 REGULAR SESSION

Introduced

House Bill 4640

BY DELEGATES HANSEN, FLEISCHAUER, WALKER,

WILLIAMS, AND DOYLE

[Introduced February 11, 2022; Referred to the Committee on Energy and Manufacturing then the Judiciary]

1 A BILL to amend and reenact the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a
 2 new section, designated §22-1-4, relating to requiring disclosure of the lawful activity that
 3 is the basis of a permit application with the Department of Environmental Protection; and
 4 providing exceptions thereto.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 1. DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION.

§22-1-4. Disclosure of purpose for permitted activity.

1 The Legislature finds that when an industrial, manufacturing, or other activity necessitates
 2 a permit pursuant to this chapter, that the public and residents in the proximity of that activity have
 3 a right to know the nature and purpose of the permitted activity, and that the entity applying for a
 4 permit shall disclose the lawful purpose of the activity with sufficient specificity to put the public
 5 on notice of the proposed activities that will occur at the permit location. The Director of the 6 Department of Environmental Protection shall require for a permit pursuant to this provisions of 7 this chapter, disclosure of this information as part of the permit application: Provided, That the
 8 provisions of this section may not require disclosure of trade secrets or other propriety information
 9 by the applicant.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to require the purpose of any activity permitted by the Department of Environmental Protection to allow public disclosure of activities at a permitted location.

Strike-throughs indicate language that would be stricken from a heading or the present law, and underscoring indicates new language that would be added.
