2022 REGULAR SESSION

Introduced

House Bill 4814

BY DELEGATES WALKER AND YOUNG

[Introduced February 15, 2022; Referred to the Committee on Education]

1 A BILL to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new article,
2 designated §18-21A-1, all related to creating a state youth advisory council.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 21A. YOUTH ADVISORY COUNCIL.

§18-21A-1. Youth advisory council.

1 There shall be a youth advisory council which shall advise and consult with the state Board
2 of Education on matters including, but not limited to, issues important to the youth of West Virginia.
3 The youth advisory council shall be composed of 20 members appointed by the state
4 Superintendent of Schools with a mission of improving the quality of life for young people within
5 West Virginia, encouraging civic engagement with elected representatives, state agencies, and
6 the Governor, and bridging the gap between the communities and public servants including, but
7 not limited to, first responders. The youth advisory council may consult on issues that include
8 communication skills training, exploration of potential barriers to education, and institutional
9 policies that are sensitive to the needs of youth from culturally and linguistically diverse
10 backgrounds.

11 The time and place of all meetings and agenda items must be publicly announced and 12 available to the public upon request at least 10 days prior to the meeting, and meetings must be 13 open to the public. Official minutes must be kept of all council meetings and shall be made
14 available to the public upon request.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to create a youth advisory council to advise and consult with the state Board of Education.
