Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 60. AUTOMATIC PURCHASE RENEWALS.

§46A-60-1. Legislative intent.

1 It is the intent of the Legislature to end the practice of ongoing charging of consumer credit
2 or debit cards or third-party payment accounts without the consumer's explicit consent for ongoing
3 shipments of a product or ongoing deliveries of service.

§46A-60-2. Definitions.

1 As used in this article:

2 "Automatic renewal" means a plan or arrangement in which a paid subscription or 3 purchasing agreement is automatically renewed at the end of a definite term for a specified period
4 of more than one month.

5 "Automatic renewal offer terms" means the following clear and conspicuous disclosures:

6 (1) That the subscription or purchasing agreement shall continue until the consumer
7 cancels.

8 (2) The description of the cancellation policy that applies to the offer.

9 (3) The recurring charges that shall be charged to the consumer's credit or debit card or 10 payment account with a third party as part of the automatic renewal plan or arrangement, and that 11 the amount of the charge may change, and the amount to which the charge shall change, if known.

12 (4) The length of the automatic renewal term or that the service is continuous, unless the

13 length of the term is chosen by the consumer; and 14 (5) The minimum purchase obligation, if any.

15 “Clear and conspicuous” or “clearly and conspicuously” means in larger type than the 16 surrounding text, or in contrasting type, font, or color to the surrounding text of the same size, or 17 set off from the surrounding text of the same size by symbols or other marks, in a manner that 18 clearly calls attention to the language. In the case of an audio disclosure, “clear and conspicuous”
19 and “clearly and conspicuously” means in a volume and cadence sufficient to be readily audible
20 and understandable.

21 “Consumer” means any individual who seeks or acquires, by purchase or lease, any 22 goods, services, money, or credit for personal, family, or household purposes.

23 “Continuous service” means a plan or arrangement in which a subscription or purchasing 24 agreement continues until the consumer cancels the service.

§46A-60-3. Automatic renewal or continuous service offers; prohibited activities; cancellation mechanism; notice of material change in terms; application of requirements.

1 (a) It is unlawful for any business that makes an automatic renewal offer or continuous
2 service offer to a consumer in this state to do any of the following:

3 (1) Fail to present the automatic renewal offer terms or continuous service offer terms in 4 a clear and conspicuous manner before the subscription or purchasing agreement is fulfilled and
5 in visual proximity, or in the case of an offer conveyed by voice, in temporal proximity, to the 6 request for consent to the offer: Provided, That if the offer also includes a free gift or trial, the offer
7 shall include a clear and conspicuous explanation of the price that shall be charged after the trial
8 ends or the manner in which the subscription or purchasing agreement pricing shall change upon 9 conclusion of the trial.

10 (2) Charge the consumer’s credit or debit card, or the consumer’s account with a third
11 party, for an automatic renewal or continuous service without first obtaining the consumer’s

12 affirmative consent to the agreement containing the automatic renewal offer terms or continuous
13 service offer terms, including the terms of an automatic renewal offer or continuous service offer
14 that is made at a promotional or discounted price for a limited period of time.

15 (3) Fail to provide an acknowledgment that includes the automatic renewal offer terms or 16 continuous service offer terms, cancellation policy, and information regarding how to cancel in a
17 manner that is capable of being retained by the consumer: Provided, That if the automatic renewal
18 offer or continuous service offer includes a free gift or trial, the business shall also disclose in the 19 acknowledgment how to cancel and allow the consumer to cancel the automatic renewal or 20 continuous service before the consumer pays for the goods or services.

21 (b) A business that makes an automatic renewal offer or continuous service offer shall 22 provide a toll-free telephone number, electronic mail address, a postal address if the seller directly 23 bills the consumer, or it shall provide another mechanism for cancellation that shall be described 24 in the acknowledgment specified in subdivision (3), subsection (a) of this section.

25 (c) In addition to the requirements of subsection (b) of this section, a consumer who 26 accepts an automatic renewal or continuous service offer online may terminate the automatic
27 renewal or continuous service exclusively online, which may include a termination email formatted 28 and provided by the business that a consumer can send to the business without additional 29 information.

30 (d) If there is a material change in the terms of the automatic renewal or continuous service
31 that has been accepted by a consumer in this state, the business shall provide the consumer with 32 a clear and conspicuous notice of the material change and provide information regarding how to 33 cancel in a manner that is capable of being retained by the consumer.

34 (e) If there is an automatic renewal or continuous service offer that charges once a year
35 or less frequently, the business shall provide to the consumer a reminder of the recurring charge
36 and information on how the consumer may cancel at least 30 days prior to the charge.

37 (f) The requirements of this article apply only prior to the completion of the initial order for

38 the automatic renewal or continuous service, except as follows:

39 (1) The requirement in subdivision (3), subsection (a) of this section of this code may be 40 fulfilled after completion of the initial order; and

41 (2) The requirement in subsection (d) of this section shall be fulfilled prior to 42 implementation of the material change.

§46A-6O-4. Goods sent without affirmative consent as unconditional gifts.

1 If a business sends any goods, wares, merchandise, or products to a consumer, under a 2 continuous service agreement or automatic renewal of a purchase, without first obtaining the 3 consumer's affirmative consent as described in this article, the goods, wares, merchandise, or 4 products shall, for all purposes, be considered an unconditional gift to the consumer, who may 5 use or dispose of the gift in any manner he or she sees fit without any obligation on the consumer's
6 part to the business, including, but not limited to, bearing the cost of, or responsibility for, shipping
7 any goods, wares, merchandise, or products to the business.

§46A-6O-5. Civil action permitted.

1 (a) Any violation of §46A-6O-3 of this code shall be an unfair act or deceptive practice:
2 Provided, That: (i) An action may not be brought pursuant to this section until the consumer, or a
3 representative of the consumer, has notified the business of the alleged violation and the factual
4 basis for the violation, in writing and by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the business'
5 registered agent identified by it at the office of the West Virginia Secretary of State or, if not 6 registered with the West Virginia Secretary of State, then to its principal place of business; (ii) the 7 business has made a cure offer within 30 days from receipt of the notice of the alleged violation
8 by its agent or at its principal place of business and the cure offer has been provided to the 9 consumer's counsel or, if unrepresented, to the consumer by certified mail, return receipt
10 requested; and (iii) the consumer accepted or refused the cure offer within 20 days of receipt:
11 Provided, however, That cure offers not accepted within 20 days of receipt shall be considered
12 refused and withdrawn. If a cure offer is accepted, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties, the 13 business has 20 days to remit payment, if any, as specified in the cure offer. Nothing in this section

14 prevents a consumer that has accepted a cure offer from bringing an action under this section 15 against a business for failing to timely effect the cure offer.

16 (b) Any person who engages, has engaged, or proposes to engage in unfair competition
17 is liable for a civil penalty not to exceed $1,000 for each violation, which shall be assessed and 18 recovered in a civil action brought in the name of the people of the State of West Virginia by the 19 Attorney General in any court of competent jurisdiction. The court shall impose a civil penalty for 20 each violation of this chapter. In assessing the amount of the civil penalty, the court shall consider 21 any one or more of the relevant circumstances presented by any of the parties to the case,
22 including: The nature and seriousness of the misconduct, the number of violations as to that 23 consumer, the persistence of the misconduct, the length of time over which the misconduct 24 occurred, the willfulness of the defendant's misconduct, and the defendant's good faith efforts in 25 resolving the dispute.

26 (c) A state court may not issue an order granting certification of a class action seeking 27 monetary, injunctive, or other relief under this section.

28 (d) The court in any action brought under this section may, if any judgment is awarded to 29 the plaintiff, assess costs of the action, including reasonable attorney's fees, against the 30 defendant: Provided, That the plaintiff may not be awarded costs and attorney's fees if the plaintiff
31 rejected the business' cure offer and judgment is awarded to the plaintiff in an amount not more 32 than 105 percent of the amount offered in the cure offer.

33 (e) An action may not be brought under this section more than two years after the date
34 upon which the violation occurred: Provided, That any applicable statute of limitations is tolled for 35 a 20-day period beginning the day the business or its agent receives the notice of the alleged 36 violation under §46A-6O-5(a) of this code, or for the period the effectuation of the cure offer is 37 being performed, whichever is longer.

§46A-6O-6. Exemptions.

1 The following are exempt from the requirements of this article:

2 (1) Any service provided by a business or its affiliate where either the business or its
3 affiliate is doing business pursuant to a franchise issued by a political subdivision of the state or 4 a license, franchise, certificate, or other authorization issued by the Public Service Commission;

5 (2) Any service provided by a business or its affiliate where either the business or its
6 affiliate is licensed or regulated by the Public Service Commission, the Federal Communications
7 Commission, or the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission;

8 (3) Any entity regulated by the Insurance Commission;

9 (4) A bank, bank holding company, or the subsidiary or affiliate of either, or a credit union 10 or other financial institution, licensed under state or federal law; and 12 unearned amounts provided to the consumer upon cancellation.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to protect consumers against businesses using automatic purchase renewals without consent.
