

WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE

2023 REGULAR SESSION

Introduced

House Bill 2173

By Delegate Mallow

[Introduced January 11, 2023; Referred to the Committee on Political Subdivisions then Finance]

1 A BILL to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new section,
 2 designated §11-5-16, relating to limiting the assessed value of antique or classic vehicles;
 3 and providing a justification requirement for any increase by the county tax assessor which
 4 must be presented to the vehicle owner before any increase may take effect.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 5. ASSESSMENT OF PERSONAL PROPERTY.

§11-5-16. Limits for increasing the assessed value of antique or classic vehicles.

1 There shall hereinafter be a limit to the amount that a county tax assessor may increase on
 2 the assessed valuation of an individual’s antique or classic car, for purposes of annual personal
 3 property taxes from one taxable year to the next. In order to increase the assessed value of an
 4 antique or classic vehicle, the county assessor’s office must justify that increase in order for it to be
 5 valid. This justification may be done with some sort of correlation to inflation, to the cost-of-living
 6 index, or to the actual proven increased activity in the antique/classic car market. However, any 7 increase of an assessed valuation of an antique or classic vehicle may not be random, or simply
 8 based on projections of revenue that a county may need for that year. This justification must be 9 described in writing and presented to the owner of the antique or classic vehicle before such an 10 increase may take effect.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to require county tax assessor to have a justification for increasing the valuation of an antique or classic vehicle.

Strike-throughs indicate language that would be stricken from a heading or the present law and underscoring indicates new language that would be added.