

WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE

2023 REGULAR SESSION

Introduced

Senate Bill 172

FISCAL NOTE

By Senator Trump

[Introduced January 13, 2023; referred to the Committee on the Judiciary; and then to the Committee on Finance]

1 A BILL to amend and reenact §62-12-12 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating 2 generally to the board of parole; increasing the number of members on the board from nine 3 to 12; establishing qualifications for members appointed after July 1, 2023; and removing 4 the party affiliation limitation.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 12. PROBATION AND PAROLE.

§62-12-12. Parole Board generally.

1 (a) The West Virginia Parole Board is continued as part of the Division of Corrections and 2 Rehabilitation. The board shall consist of ~~nine~~ 12 members, each of whom shall have been a
 3 resident of this state for at least five consecutive years prior to his or her appointment. No more 4 than ~~five~~ six of the board members may at any one time belong to the same political party. ~~except~~ 5 ~~as provided in subsection (b) of this section~~ The board shall be appointed by the Governor, by and 6 with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall serve at the will and pleasure of the Governor.

7 (b) The Governor shall appoint one of the ~~nine~~ 12 members to serve as chairperson at the 8 Governor's will and pleasure. In addition to all other powers, duties, and responsibilities granted 9 and assigned to the chairperson by law and rule, the chairperson has the following powers and 10 duties:

11 (1) To provide for the management of facilities and personnel of the board;

12 (2) To supervise the administration and operation of the board;

13 (3) To delegate the powers and duties of his or her office to the vice chairperson or other 14 members of the board, who shall act under the direction of the chairperson and for whose acts he 15 or she is responsible: Provided, That if the position of chairperson becomes vacant by death, 16 resignation, or otherwise, the vice chairperson shall assume all the powers and duties of the 17 chairperson until such time as a new chairperson is appointed pursuant to the provisions of this 18 subsection;

19 (4) To employ one full-time administrative employee, who shall be a classified exempt

20 employee; and

21 (5) To exercise all other powers and perform all other duties necessary and proper in 22 carrying out his or her responsibilities as chairperson.

23 (c) The board, from its membership, shall elect a vice chairperson, at least once every 24 year, to serve as ~~chair~~ chairperson in the absence of a chairperson. In the absence of, or at the 25 direction of, the chairperson, the vice chairperson may exercise the powers and duties of the 26 chairperson. The vice chairperson shall, while performing the duties and responsibilities of the 27 chairperson, have all of the statutorily authorized power and duties of the chairperson.

28 (d) Members of the board shall have at least an undergraduate degree from an accredited 29 college or university or at least five years of actual experience in the fields of corrections, law 30 enforcement, sociology, law, education, psychology, social work, or medicine, or a combination
31 thereof, and shall be otherwise competent to perform the duties of his or her office: Provided, That 32 at least three members initially appointed after July 1, 2021, shall have five or more years
33 experience in the fields of mental health, social work, or inmate reentry services: Provided,
34 however, That members appointed to the board pursuant to the amendments to this section 35 enacted during the regular session of the Legislature, 2023, shall have at least an undergraduate 36 degree and five or more years of experience in the fields of medicine, psychiatry, psychology, 37 education, the practice of law, social work, mental health, or corrections. All members currently 38 serving on the board shall continue the terms they are currently serving, unless otherwise 39 removed. The members shall be appointed for overlapping terms of six years. Members are 40 eligible for reappointment. The members of the board shall devote their full time and attention to 41 their board duties.

42 (e) The Governor may, if he or she is informed that a vacancy is imminent, appoint a 43 member to fill the imminent vacancy prior to it becoming vacant: Provided, That the new member 44 may be appointed no more than 30 days prior to the vacancy occurring and only for purposes of 45 training. He or she may not assume the powers and duties of the position until the vacancy has 46 actually occurred.

47 (f) The Governor may appoint no more than five persons to a list of substitute board 48 members. Substitute board members shall meet the qualifications set forth in subsection (d) of this 49 section. The persons on the list shall be used in a rotating fashion. If a full-time board member is 50 unable to serve, a substitute board member may serve in his or her place. These substitute board 51 members shall have the same powers and duties of the full-time board members while acting as a 52 substitute and shall serve at the will and pleasure of the Governor. These members shall be 53 reimbursed for expenses and paid a per diem rate set by the secretary.

54 (g) The Division of Corrections and Rehabilitation shall provide administrative and other 55 services to the board as the board requires. Expenses of the board shall be included within the 56 annual budget of the Division of Corrections and Rehabilitation: Provided, That the salaries of the 57 members appointed pursuant to subsection (b) of this section are to be included in a separate 58 budget for the Parole Board.

59 (h) Notwithstanding any provision of this code to the contrary, meetings of the Parole Board
60 are not subject to the provisions of §6-9A-1 et seq. of this code: Provided, That hearings before 61 the Parole Board shall be open to the public.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to add additional members to the West Virginia Parole Board.
