Introduced

House Bill 4999

By Delegates Kirby, Steele, Brooks, Young, and C.

Pritt

[Introduced January 22, 2024; Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary]

1 A BILL to amend and reenact §57-3-3 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating to
 2 expanding the exception to spousal testimonial privilege to include cases of offenses
 3 committed against the grandchildren of either spouse.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 3. COMPETENCY OF WITNESSES.

§57-3-3. Testimony of husband and wife in criminal cases.

1 In criminal cases husband and wife shall be allowed, and, subject to the rules of evidence
 2 governing other witnesses, may be compelled to testify in behalf of each other, but neither shall be
 3 compelled, nor, without the consent of the other, allowed to be called as a witness against the 4 other except in the case of a prosecution for an offense committed by one against the other, or
 5 against the child, grandchild, father, mother, sister or brother of either of them. The failure of either
 6 husband or wife to testify, however, shall create no presumption against the accused, nor be the 7 subject of any comment before the court or jury by anyone.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to expand the exception to spousal testimonial privilege to include cases of offenses committed against the grandchildren of either spouse
