1 A BILL to amend and reenact §44-2-1 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating to
 2 changing the maximum amount a County Clerk can charge to settle an estate and
 3 removing reference to Fiduciary Commissioner.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 2. PROOF AND ALLOWANCE OF CLAIMS AGAINST ESTATES OF DECEDENTS.

§44-2-1. Reference of decedents' estates; proceedings thereon.

1 (a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, upon the return of the
 2 appraisalment by the personal representative to the county clerk, the estate of his or her decedent,
 3 by order of the county commission, must be referred to a fiduciary commissioner for proof and
 4 determination of debts and claims, establishment of their priority, determination of the amount of 5 the respective shares of the legatees and distributes, and any other matter necessary for the 6 settlement of the estate: ~~Provided, That in counties where there are two or more commissioners,~~
 7 ~~the estates of decedents must be referred to the commissioners in rotation, so there may be an~~
 8 ~~equal division of the work. Notwithstanding any other provision of this code to the contrary, a~~
 9 ~~fiduciary commissioner may not charge to the estate a fee greater than $300 and expenses for the~~ 10 ~~settlement of an estate, except upon: (i) Approval of the personal representative; or (ii) a~~
 11 ~~determination by the county commission that the fee is based upon the actual time spent and~~
 12 ~~actual services rendered pursuant to a schedule of fees or rate of compensation for fiduciary~~
 13 ~~commissioners promulgated by the commission in accordance with the provisions of §59-1-9 of~~
 14 ~~this code~~ Provided, That, should an unpaid creditor file a claim against the estate, the personal
 15 representative has 20 days after the date of the filing of a claim to reject the claim and if rejected,
 16 the fiduciary commissioner shall take up the matter of the claim, but if no rejection is made, the 17 claim shall be deemed valid.

18 (b) If the personal representative delivers to the clerk an appraisalment of the assets of the

19 estate showing their value to be $200,000 or less, exclusive of real estate specifically devised and
20 nonprobate assets, or if it appears to the clerk that there is only one beneficiary of the probate
21 estate and that the beneficiary is competent at law, the clerk shall record the appraisalment without 22 reference to a fiduciary commissioner. ~~If an unpaid creditor files a claim against the estate, the~~
23 ~~personal representative has 20 days after the date of the filing of a claim against the estate of the~~ 24 ~~decedent to approve or reject the claim before the estate is referred to a fiduciary commissioner. If~~
25 ~~the personal representative approves all claims as filed, then no reference may be made~~
26 Provided, That for any such estate, should an unpaid creditor file a claim against the estate, the 27 personal representative has 20 days after the date of the filing of a claim to reject the claim and if 28 rejected, reference to a fiduciary commissioner shall be made, but if no rejection is made, the 29 claim shall be deemed valid and no reference to a fiduciary commissioner may be made.

30 (c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this code to the contrary, for any estate upon 31 which reference to a fiduciary commissioner is made, a fiduciary commissioner may not charge to 32 the estate a fee greater than $500 and expenses for the settlement of an estate, except upon: (i)
33 Approval of the personal representative; or (ii) a determination by the county commission that the 34 fee is based upon the actual time spent and actual services rendered pursuant to a schedule of 35 fees or rate of compensation for fiduciary commissioners promulgated by the commission in 36 accordance with the provisions of §59-1-9 of this code.

37 (d) In counties where there are two or more commissioners, the estates of decedents
38 referred to a fiduciary commissioner, must be referred to the commissioners in rotation, so there
39 may be an equal division of the work.

40 (e)(e) The personal representative shall, within a reasonable time after the date of 41 recordation of the appraisalment: (i) File a waiver of final settlement in accordance with the 42 provisions of §44-2-29 of this code; or (ii) make a report to the clerk of his or her receipts,
43 disbursements, and distribution and submit an affidavit stating that all claims against the estate for 44 expenses of administration, taxes, and debts of the decedent have been paid in full. Upon receipt

45 of the waiver of final settlement or report, the clerk shall record the waiver or report and mail copies
46 to each beneficiary and creditor by first-class mail, postage prepaid. The clerk shall retain the 47 report for 10 days to allow any beneficiary or creditor to appear before the county commission to 48 request reference to a fiduciary commissioner. The clerk shall collect a fee of $10 for recording and 49 mailing the waiver of final settlement or report.

50 ~~(d)~~(f) If no request or objection is made to the clerk or to the county commission, the county
51 commission may confirm the report of the personal representative, and the personal 52 representative and his or her surety shall be discharged; but if an objection or request is made, the 53 county commission may confirm and record the accounting or may refer the estate to its fiduciary
54 commissioners: Provided, ~~That the personal representative has 20 days after the date of the filing~~
55 ~~of a claim against the estate of the decedent to approve or reject the claim before the estate is~~
56 ~~referred to a fiduciary commissioner, and if all claims are approved as filed, then no reference may~~
57 ~~be made~~ For any estate referred to a fiduciary commissioner pursuant to this subsection, the 58 fiduciary fees and costs provided for under subsection (c) of this section shall be assessed as 59 costs against any requestor or objector who does not substantially prevail on its claim 60 proportionately according to the number of claimants not substantially prevailing.

61 ~~(e)~~(g) For purposes of this section, the term beneficiary means a person designated in a
62 will to receive real or personal property.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to change the maximum amount a County Clerk can charge to settle an estate and removing reference to Fiduciary Commissioner.
