Introduced

Senate Bill 668

By Senator Takubo

[Introduced February 6, 2024; referred to the Committee on Health and Human Resources]

1 A BILL to amend and reenact §60A-10-4 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating 2 to increasing the amount of ephedrine, pseudoephedrine, or phenylpropanolamine a 3 person may purchase annually.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 10. METHAMPHETAMINE LABORATORY ERADICATION ACT.

§60A-10-4. Purchase, receipt, acquisition and possession of substances to be used as precursor to manufacture of methamphetamine or another controlled substance; offenses; exceptions; penalties.

1 (a) A pharmacy may not sell, transfer or dispense to the same person, and a person may 2 not purchase more than three and six-tenths grams per day, more than seven and two-tenths 3 grams in a 30-day period or more than ~~forty-eight~~ 61 and two tenth grams annually of ephedrine,
 4 pseudoephedrine or phenylpropanolamine without a prescription. The limits shall apply to the total 5 amount of ephedrine, pseudoephedrine and phenylpropanolamine contained in the products, and 6 not the overall weight of the products.

7 (1) Any person who or knowingly purchases, receives or otherwise possesses more than 8 seven and two-tenths grams in a 30-day period of ephedrine, pseudoephedrine or 9 phenylpropanolamine in any form without a prescription is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon 10 conviction, shall be confined in a jail for not more than one year, fined not more than $1,000, or 11 both fined and confined.

12 (2) Any pharmacy, wholesaler or other entity operating the retail establishment which sells, 13 transfers or dispenses a product in violation of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon 14 conviction, shall be fined not more than $1,000 for the first offense, or more than $10,000 for each 15 subsequent offense.

16 (b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a)(1) of this section, any person 17 convicted of a second or subsequent violation of the provisions of said subdivision or a statute or 18 ordinance of the United States or another state which contains the same essential elements is

19 guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, shall be imprisoned in a state correctional facility for not 20 less than one nor more than five years, fined not more than $25,000, or both imprisoned and fined.

21 (c) The provisions of subsection (a) of this section shall not apply to:

22 (1) Products dispensed pursuant to a valid prescription;

23 (2) Drug products which are for pediatric use primarily intended for administration to 24 children under the age of 12;

25 (3) Drug products containing ephedrine, pseudoephedrine or phenylpropanolamine, their 26 salts or optical isomers or salts of optical isomers or other designated precursor which have been 27 determined by the Board of Pharmacy to be in a form which is not feasible for being used for the 28 manufacture of methamphetamine; or

29 (4) Persons lawfully possessing drug products in their capacities as distributors, 30 wholesalers, manufacturers, pharmacists, pharmacy interns, pharmacy technicians, or health 31 care professionals.

32 (d) Notwithstanding any provision of this code to the contrary, any person who knowingly 33 possesses any amount of ephedrine, pseudoephedrine, phenylpropanolamine or other 34 designated precursor with the intent to use it in the manufacture of methamphetamine or who 35 knowingly possesses a substance containing ephedrine, pseudoephedrine or 36 phenylpropanolamine or their salts, optical isomers or salts of optical isomers in a state or form 37 which is, or has been altered or converted from the state or form in which these chemicals are, or 38 were, commercially distributed is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, shall be imprisoned in a 39 state correctional facility for not less than two nor more than 10 years, fined not more than 40 $25,000, or both imprisoned and fined.

41 (e) (1) Any pharmacy, wholesaler, manufacturer or distributor of drug products containing 42 ephedrine, pseudoephedrine, phenylpropanolamine, their salts or optical isomers or salts of 43 optical isomers or other designated precursor shall obtain a registration annually from the State
44 Board of Pharmacy as described in §60A-10-6 of this code. Any such pharmacy, wholesaler,

45 manufacturer or distributor shall keep complete records of all sales and transactions as provided in 46 section eight of this article. The records shall be gathered and maintained pursuant to legislative 47 rule promulgated by the Board of Pharmacy.

48 (2) Any drug products possessed without a registration as provided in this section are 49 subject to forfeiture upon conviction for a violation of this section.

50 (3) In addition to any administrative penalties provided by law, any violation of this 51 subsection is a misdemeanor, punishable upon conviction by a fine in an amount not more than 52 $10,000.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to increase the amount of ephedrine, pseudoephedrine or phenylpropanolamine a person may purchase annually.
