[Introduced February 12, 2025; referred to the Committee on Education then the Judiciary]

1 A BILL to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new article,
 2 designated §16-11A-1, relating to prohibiting those listed on the state sex offender
 3 database from attending public school activities and events; and requiring parent teacher
 4 conferences for those persons to be conducted off school grounds.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 11A. PROHIBITION OF SEX OFFENDERS AT SCHOOL SPONSORED EVENTS.

§16-11A-1. Prohibiting those listed on the state sex offender database from public school activities and events.

1 (a) No person having been found guilty of crimes sufficient to be placed on the state sex
 2 offender's database shall be permitted to attend any public school function or attend or participate
 3 in public school or athletic events in any capacity, regardless of participation by offender's own 4 children.

5 (1) A first violation of this statute shall be a misdemeanor upon first violation, punishable by 6 not more than six months imprisonment; and

7 (2) A second or any other subsequent violation shall constitute a felony punishable by one 8 to five years imprisonment.

9 (b) In the event that a parent teacher conference is required to be conducted with a parent
 10 or guardian who is listed on the sex offender database, that conference must be conducted off
 11 school property, and shall instead be conducted in the county courthouse, local police department 12 office, or the sheriff's office.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to prohibit those listed on the state sex offender database from attending public school activities and events. The bill also requires parent teacher conferences for those persons to be conducted off school grounds.
