2025 REGULAR SESSION

Introduced

House Bill 2925

By Delegates Chiarelli, Heckert, McCormick,
Shamblin, Ferrell, Criss, Hornby, Rohrbach, Ridenour, and Maynor

[Introduced February 24, 2025; referred to the Committee on the Judiciary]

1 A BILL to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new section,
2 designated §61-6-26, relating to unlawful panhandling and solicitation; exempting fire
3 departments; and providing misdemeanor penalties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 6. CRIMES AGAINST THE PEACE.

§61-6-26. Unlawful panhandling and solicitation; fraudulent solicitation prohibited.

1 (a) For purposes of this section, "panhandling" means any solicitation made in person
2 requesting an immediate donation of money. The purchase of an item for an amount far exceeding
3 its value, under circumstances where a reasonable person would understand that the purchase is,
4 in substance, considered a donation.

1 (b) No person may panhandle:

2 (1) At a bus stop or train stop;

3 (2) In a public transportation vehicle or facility;

4 (3) In a vehicle on the street;

5 (4) On private property, unless the panhandler has written permission from the owner or 6 occupant of the private property; or

7 (5) On any street, sidewalk, public right-of-way or public property by:

8 (A) Blocking the path of the person being asked for a donation;

9 (B) Following a person who walks away from the panhandler; or

10 (C) Making any statement, gesture, or other communication by which the panhandler
11 knowingly causes another to believe that the panhandler will cause physical harm to the person or 12 property of the other person.

13 (c) Upon a first offense, a person violating the provisions of this section is guilty of a
14 misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be fined $100. Upon a second or subsequent violation
15 of the provisions of this section, a person is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be 16 fined not less than $250 nor more than $1,000.

- 17 (d) A bona fide fire department is exempt from the provisions of §61-6-26(b) of this code 18 when soliciting donations to support its operation.

NOTE: The purpose of this bill is to make certain acts of panhandling and solicitation unlawful. The bill exempts fire departments. The bill provides misdemeanor penalties.
