Senator Carmichael offered the following resolution:

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 28—Requesting the Joint Committee on Government and Finance study the magistrate court cost collection process and make recommendations to improve same.

Whereas, Various state agencies and counties rely on the receipt of funds generated by magistrate court costs; and

Whereas, The failure to collect magistrate court costs and fees has a negative effect, particularly on the bond repayment for the Regional Jail and Correctional Facility Authority; and

Whereas, Methods of enforcing collection of delinquent costs owed to the magistrate court funds have improved; and

Whereas, It would be beneficial to West Virginia, the Regional Jail and Correctional Facility Authority and the various county governments if the collection of delinquent magistrate court costs were improved; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That the Joint Committee on Government and Finance is hereby requested to study the magistrate court cost collection process and make recommendations to improve same; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the Joint Committee on Government and Finance report to the regular session of the Legislature, 2016, on its findings, conclusions and recommendations, together with drafts of any rules or legislation necessary to effectuate its recommendations, including drafts of naming criteria; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the expenses necessary to conduct this study, to prepare a report and to draft necessary legislation be paid from legislative appropriations to the Joint Committee on Government and Finance.

Which, under the rules, lies over one day.

Senators Williams, Prezioso, Beach, Sypolt, Kessler, Leonhardt, Plymale, D. Hall, Unger, Nohe, Stollings, Snyder, Yost and Laird offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 29—Designating February 13, 2015, as West Virginia University and West Virginia University Extension Service Day and recognizing the contributions that West Virginia University, West Virginia University Extension Service and its 4-H Youth Development program make to the State of West Virginia.

Whereas, West Virginia University is the state's first and largest land-grant university, which is dedicated to serving the citizens of West Virginia; and

Whereas, In 1915, the world's first 4-H camp, "Camp Good Luck", was held in Randolph County and later evolved to include county, state, national and international camping opportunities for youth across the globe; and

Whereas, West Virginia University Extension Service's 4-H Youth Development program, the state's largest youth organization, now gives more than eighty thousand West Virginia youth the opportunity to expand their horizons through hands-on educational activities and allows them to acquire new skills through innovative technology; and

Whereas, The West Virginia University Extension Service, the primary outreach arm of West Virginia University, is the "front porch" of West Virginia University with an office in each of the state's 55 counties and has been providing trusted traditions and progressive solutions for the State of West Virginia for more than one hundred years; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate:

That the Senate hereby designates February 13, 2015, as West Virginia University and West Virginia University Extension Service Day and recognizes the contributions that West Virginia University, West Virginia University Extension Service and its 4-H Youth Development program make to the State of West Virginia; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the Clerk is hereby directed to forward a copy of this resolution to the President of West Virginia University,

E. Gordon Gee, and to the West Virginia University Extension Service.

At the request of Senator Williams, unanimous consent being granted, the resolution was taken up for immediate consideration, reference to a committee dispensed with, and adopted.
