H. R. 15 — “Designating March 2, 2016 as ‘Self Injury Awareness Day’.”

Whereas, Self-injury, also called self-harm, self-inflicted violence, or self-mutilation, is a coping mechanism used by an estimated 1% of the U.S. population; and

Whereas, Self-injury is seldom talked about and often misunderstood, leading to those who self-injure being treated unfairly or insensitively by police, doctors, therapists and emergency personnel; and

Whereas Self-injurers, despite public perceptions, are generally not psychotic and present little danger to others; and

Whereas, Effective treatments for self-harm do exist, although many professionals may not be aware of them; and

Whereas, Raising professional and public awareness of the facts about self-injury will help dispel the fears, myths and taboos that surround the subject and that make it difficult for people who self-injure to obtain effective help; therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Delegates:

That the House of Delegates hereby designates, March 2, 2016, as “Self Injury Awareness Day”, and hereby urges all citizens and professionals to increase their awareness of the truths about self-injury, thus allowing people who self-injure to receive fair and sensitive treatment; and, be it Further Resolved, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates, forward a certified copy of this resolution to the Governor and the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Resources.

A message from the Senate, by

The Clerk of the Senate, announced the adoption by the Senate and requested the concurrence of the House of Delegates in the adoption of the following concurrent resolution, which was read by its title and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary then Rules:

S. C. R. 10 — “Urging Congress call a convention of the states, under the authority reserved to the states in Article V of the United States Constitution, limited to proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States that impose fiscal restraints on the federal government, limit the power and jurisdiction of the federal government and limit the terms of office for its officials and for members of Congress.”

Whereas, Article IV, Section 4 of the Constitution of the United States guarantees to every state a republican form of government which gives each state equal standing when calling for an amendments convention. Article V of the Constitution of the United States reserves to the several states the right to call for a convention for the purpose of amending the United States Constitution when Congress or the courts or both Congress and the courts refuse to address an egregious wrong suffered by the people; and

Whereas, The states alone have the authority to “limit” the agenda and authority of a convention. The states alone can call for a “Single Issue” convention by agreeing among themselves the purpose, terms, conditions, duration and agenda for the convention. Congress does not have the authority to define a “Single Issue” convention. The authority of Congress, under Article V of the United States Constitution, empowers it to convene a convention as called for and defined by the several states; and

Whereas, The founders of our constitution empowered state legislators to be guardians of liberty against future abuses of power by the federal government which has created a crushing national debt through improper and imprudent spending; and

Whereas, The federal government has invaded the legitimate roles of the states through the manipulative process of federal mandates, most of which are unfunded to a great extent, and the federal government has ceased to live under a proper interpretation of the Constitution of the United States; and

Whereas, It is the solemn duty of the states to protect the liberty of our people—particularly for the generations to come—by proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States through a Convention of the States under Article V for the purpose of restraining these and related abuses of power; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That the Legislature hereby urges Congress call a convention of the states, under the authority reserved to the states in Article V of the United States Constitution, limited to proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States that impose fiscal restraints on the federal government, limit the power and jurisdiction of the federal government and limit the terms of office for its officials and for members of Congress; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the State of West Virginia hereby applies to Congress, under the provisions of Article V of the Constitution of the United States, for the calling of a convention of the states limited to proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States that impose fiscal restraints on the federal government, limit the power and jurisdiction of the federal government and limit the terms of office for its officials and for members of Congress and absolutely no other business will be authorized at this convention; and, be it

Further Resolved, That this application constitutes a continuing application in accordance with Article V of the Constitution of the United States until the legislatures of at least two thirds of the several states have made applications on the same subject; and, be it Further Resolved, That the Clerk of the Senate is hereby directed to forward a copy of this resolution and application to the President and Secretary of the United States Senate, to the Speaker and Clerk of the United States House of Representatives, to the members of West Virginia's congressional delegation and to the presiding officers of each of the legislative houses in the several states requesting their cooperation.

A message from the Senate, by

The Clerk of the Senate, announced the adoption by the Senate and requested the concurrence of the House of Delegates in the adoption of the following concurrent resolution, which was read by its title and referred to the Committee on Rules:

Com. Sub. for S. C. R. 33 — “Requesting the West Virginia Infrastructure and Jobs Development Council (IJDC) to study and report on the issue of consolidation, regarding public water and sewer utilities.”

Whereas, The Legislature is concerned that over five hundred municipal and public service district water and sewer utilities are providing service to customers. The capital cost associated with the repair or replacement of existing infrastructure that serves current customers and the construction of upgrades to existing facilities or new facilities to serve new customers is far greater than available public funding sources and the ability of the utilities to raise money from existing rate-payers; and

Whereas, In its 1994 regular session, the Legislature created the West Virginia Infrastructure and Jobs Development Council in article fifteen-a, chapter thirty-one of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended. Among other things, section four of the 1994 legislation requires the IJDC to develop guidelines for evaluating requests by project sponsors for funding assistance that include “the degree to which the project or infrastructure project encourages effective and efficient consolidation of water or sewage treatment systems consistent with the comprehensive plan developed pursuant to section six of the legislation.” Section six of the 1994 legislation contains subsection (c) which states that “the council shall study the viability of the consolidation of public service districts throughout the state” and report their findings and conclusions on or before January 16, 1995, to the Governor, Speaker of the House and President of the Senate; and

Whereas, Section six (b) of the 1994 act requires an assessment of water and sewer infrastructure to be filed by IJDC every three years which includes, among other things, an assessment to identify “obstacles, issues and problems which prevent or inhibit development of adequate infrastructure throughout the state, including financial, governmental, physical, or geographical factors and make recommendations as the council considers appropriate regarding the obstacles, issues or problems identified.” In reviewing proposed projects, the IJDC consolidation committee, upon the request of another IJDC committee or the council itself, will review the project and determine the potential for consolidation; and

Whereas, The Legislature believes that potential economies of scale and efficiencies in providing public water and sewer service could be realized through consolidation, regional planning and cooperation between municipal and county governments; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That the West Virginia Infrastructure and Jobs Development Council study and report on the issue of consolidation, regarding public water and sewer utilities; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the Legislature hereby requests that the IJDC refer every proposed public water and sewer project to its consolidation committee to consider the issues related to potential consolidation or other measures that could result in efficiencies and more productive use of public moneys for new treatment facilities or replacement of facilities, or major expansion of service, or any proposed within close proximity to other existing treatment, collection, and/or distribution facilities; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the IJDC submit a report to the Legislature at the beginning of its 2017 regular session that identifies the potential for consolidation; the IJDC’s treatment of that issue through its funding decisions; the problems that exist with the issue, including barriers that may impede cooperation between municipalities and public service districts in obtaining the desired result of providing quality water and sewer service to the residents of West Virginia at the lowest possible cost.

At the request of Delegate Cowles and by unanimous consent, the House of Delegates returned to the Third Order of Business for the purpose of receiving committee reports.
