

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

At Charleston

A PROCLAMATION

By the Governor

I, JOE MANCHIN III, GOVERNOR of the State of West Virginia, by virtue of the authority conferred upon me by Section 7, Article VII of the Constitution of West Virginia, do hereby state and proclaim that the Legislature, in the Extraordinary Session commencing the fifteenth day of July, two thousand ten, in its chambers in the State Capitol, City of Charleston, consider the following amendment to the first item of business stated in my first proclamation of the fifteenth day of July, two thousand ten:

FIRST: Legislation relating to vacancies in the office of United States Senator; requiring the State to pay costs incurred in connection with a special election to fill the unexpired term of a United States Senator; authorizing the Governor to fill vacancies in the United States Senate by appointment; specifying when an election is required to fill the unexpired term of a United States Senator; setting forth procedures for the nomination of candidates for an election to fill the unexpired term of a United States Senator; specifying requirements for a proclamation of election to fill the unexpired term of a United States Senator; providing that the Secretary of State may modify dates, deadlines, or procedures where necessary to conduct an election to fill the unexpired term of a United States Senator; and providing an effective date for the legislation that includes at least any vacancy existing as of July 1, 2010.

FURTHERMORE, I, JOE MANCHIN III, GOVERNOR of the State of West Virginia, by virtue of the authority conferred upon me by Section 7, Article VII of the Constitution of West Virginia, do hereby state and proclaim that the Legislature, in the Extraordinary Session commencing the fifteenth day of July, two thousand ten, in its chambers in the State Capitol, City of Charleston, consider, in addition to the items of business stated and proclaimed in my two proclamations of the fifteenth day of July, two thousand ten, the following additional items of business:

FOURTH: Legislation relating to health and developmental screening of students in the public schools; and requiring a comprehensive health screening for students entering public school for the first time in this state, students entering third grade, students entering sixth grade, and students entering ninth grade.

FIFTH: Legislation relating to improving school performance; setting forth requirements for improving school performance; requiring plans for early warnings and interventions; adopting a performance-based model for evaluating school performance; revising standards and criteria; authorizing certain actions of the State Board of Education related to improving school performance; and creating the Education Opportunity Zone 180 program.

SIXTH: Legislation relating to school committees; and authorizing the reorganization of certain committees into collaborative teams.

SEVENTH: Legislation relating to the training and certification of certain professional personnel in the public schools; authorizing alternative training and certification programs for certain professional personnel; and setting forth program requirements.

EIGHTH: Legislation relating to the evaluation of professional personnel in the public schools; and requiring annual evaluations.

NINTH: Legislation relating to a pilot project authorizing additional compensation for certain professional personnel in the public schools; and authorizing a pilot project for a special community development school pilot program.

TENTH: Legislation relating to establishing pilot projects for alternative schools or other placements at elementary school and middle school levels; and requiring uniform standards and definitions for disruptive behavior and alternative placement.

ELEVENTH: Legislation relating to extending the application period for counties to apply for the pilot program for military and overseas voters for the 2010 general election.

TWELFTH: Legislation relating to the sunset of provisions relating to family court appeals.

THIRTEENTH: Legislation relating to the sunset of provisions authorizing Marshall University and West Virginia University to invest certain funds.

FOURTEENTH: Certain ceremonial and memorial resolutions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

DONE at the Capitol in the City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this seventeenth day of July, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Ten, and in the One Hundred Forty-Eighth year of the State.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Earl Raymunt".

GOVERNOR

By the Governor

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Natalie E. Bennett".

SECRETARY OF STATE