Executive Communications

The Clerk then presented communications from His Excellency, the Governor, advising that on March 5, 2015, he had approved Enr. Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 187, Enr. Senate Bill No. 238, Enr. Senate Bill No. 382, Enr. Senate Bill No. 398 and Enr. Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 2002.

Senator Cole (Mr. President) laid before the Senate the following communication from His Excellency, the Governor, which was read by the Clerk:

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
CHARLESTON

March 5, 2015

The Honorable William P. Cole III
President, West Virginia Senate
State Capitol
Charleston, West Virginia

Dear President Cole:

Pursuant to the provisions of section fourteen, article VII of the Constitution of West Virginia, I hereby disapprove and return Enrolled Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 6 on technical grounds.

The bill's enacting clause on page 2 contains two fatal errors. First, the enacting clause provides that the bill repeals W. Va. Code §55-7B-1, which it does not. Rather, the bill amends §55-7B-1. Second, the enacting clause fails to reference the bill's amendment of §55-7B-10.

If the Legislature chooses to repair the enacting clause, it also may consider revising some aspects of the bill's title on page 1. For instance, the phrase "providing rebuttable presumptions and evidentiary requirements related to admission of certain government, health care provider or health care facility information" arguably is vague. Greater clarity could be provided by revising the phrase to read, "providing rebuttable presumptions and evidentiary requirements relating to state and federal reports, disciplinary actions, accreditation reports, assessments, and staffing." See, e. g., §55-7B-7a, page 11.

The title's description of the bill's amendment to §55-7B-8(d) also may be inadequate. The phrase "clarifying amounts of medical professional liability insurance coverage that must exist to receive noneconomic damages limitations" could be added to the title to better explain the "aggregate" amendment to §55-7B-8(d). See, e. g., §55-7B-8(d), pages 12-13.

Finally, the title's reference to "providing definitions" may not sufficiently describe the many revisions reflected in §55-7B-2 of the bill, which significantly expand the scope of the Medical Professional Liability Act. See §55-7B-2, pages 5-9.

Sincerely,

Earl Ray Tomblin,
Governor.

Senator Carmichael moved that in accordance with Section 14, Article VII of the Constitution of the State of West Virginia, the Senate proceed to reconsider

Enr. Com. Sub. for Senate Bill No. 6, Relating to medical professional liability.

Heretofore disapproved and returned by His Excellency, the Governor, with his objections.

The question being on the adoption of Senator Carmichael's motion that the Senate reconsider Enrolled Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 6, the same was put and prevailed.

On motion of Senator Trump, the following amendments to the bill were reported by the Clerk, considered simultaneously, and adopted:

By striking out the enacting section and inserting in lieu thereof a new enacting section, to read as follows:

That §55-7B-1, §55-7B-2, §55-7B-7, §55-7B-8, §55-7B-9, §55-7B-9a, §55-7B-9c, §55-7B-10 and §55-7B-11 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be amended and reenacted; and that said code be amended by adding thereto two new sections, designated §55-7B-7a and §55-7B-9d, all to read as follows:

And,

By striking out the title and substituting therefor a new title, to read as follows:

Enr. Com. Sub. for Senate Bill No. 6—An Act to amend and reenact §55-7B-1, §55-7B-2, §55-7B-7, §55-7B-8, §55-7B-9, §55-7B-9a, §55-7B-9c, §55-7B-10 and §55-7B-11 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended; and to amend said code by adding thereto two new sections, designated §55-7B-7a and §55-7B-9d, all relating to medical professional liability generally; providing additional legislative findings and purposes related to medical professional liability; modifying definitions; amending existing definitions of “health care”, “health care facility”, “health care provider” and “medical professional liability” and creating a new definition for “related entity” all of which expand the scope of the Medical Professional Liability Act; modifying the qualifications for the competency of experts who testify in medical professional liability actions; providing rebuttable presumptions and evidentiary requirements relating to state and federal reports, disciplinary actions, accreditation reports, assessments and staffing; modifying the maximum amount of recovery for, and availability of, noneconomic damages; clarifying amounts of medical professional liability insurance coverage that must exist to receive noneconomic damages limitations; clarifying that a health care provider is not vicariously liable unless the alleged agent does not maintain certain insurance; clarifying eligibility for, and application of, emergency medical services caps; providing a methodology for determining the amount of trauma care caps to account for inflation; providing certain limitations of verdicts for past medical expenses of the plaintiff; establishing effective date; and providing for severability.

The question now being on the passage of the bill, disapproved by the Governor and amended by the Senate.

On the passage of the bill, the yeas were: Blair, Boley, Boso, Carmichael, Ferns, Gaunch, D. Hall, M. Hall, Karnes, Kessler, Kirkendoll, Laird, Leonhardt, Maynard, Mullins, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Stollings, Sypolt, Takubo, Trump, Unger, Williams, Woelfel, Yost and Cole (Mr. President)—28.

The nays were: Beach, Facemire, Romano and Snyder—4.

Absent: Miller and Walters—2.

So, a majority of all the members elected to the Senate having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Enr. Com. Sub. for S. B. No. 6) passed with its title, as amended, as a result of the objections of the Governor.

Senator Carmichael moved that the bill take effect from passage.

On this question, the yeas were: Blair, Boley, Boso, Carmichael, Ferns, Gaunch, D. Hall, M. Hall, Karnes, Kessler, Kirkendoll, Laird, Leonhardt, Maynard, Mullins, Nohe, Palumbo, Plymale, Prezioso, Stollings, Sypolt, Takubo, Trump, Unger, Williams, Woelfel, Yost and Cole (Mr. President)—28.

The nays were: Beach, Facemire, Romano and Snyder—4.

Absent: Miller and Walters—2.

So, two thirds of all the members elected to the Senate having voted in the affirmative, the President declared the bill (Enr. Com. Sub. for S. B. No. 6) takes effect from passage.

Ordered, That The Clerk communicate to the House of Delegates the action of the Senate and request concurrence therein.

Senator Cole (Mr. President) then laid before the Senate the following communication from His Excellency, the Governor, which was read by the Clerk:

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
CHARLESTON

March 2, 2015

The Honorable Tim Armstead
Speaker, West Virginia House of Delegates
State Capitol
Charleston, West Virginia

Dear President Cole:

Pursuant to the provisions of section fourteen, Article VII of the Constitution of West Virginia, I hereby disapprove and return Enrolled Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 2568. I am advised the bill is unconstitutional under controlling precedent of the Supreme Court of the United States because it prohibits the termination of certain pregnancies prior to viability. See Planned Parenthood of Southeastern Pennsylvania v. Casey, 505 U. S. 833, 879 (1992) (holding a state “may not prohibit any woman from making the ultimate decision to terminate her pregnancy before viability”); see also Isaacson v. Horne, 716 F.3d 1213 (9th Cir. 2013), cert. denied, 134 S. Ct. 905 (Jan. 13, 2014) (declaring Arizona’s fetal pain statute unconstitutional; statute prohibited the termination of pregnancy at twenty weeks gestation, before the fetus is viable).

Sincerely,

Earl Ray Tomblin,
Governor.

Senators D. Hall, M. Hall, Kirkendoll, Snyder and Stollings offered the following resolution:

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 57—Requesting the Joint Committee on Government and Finance study issue of regulation of public utilities by political subdivisions of the State of West Virginia.

Whereas, Municipalities and county commissions possess certain powers to enact, administer and enforce ordinances; and

Whereas, Such powers possessed by municipalities and county commissions are intended to be used in order to serve the public interest and welfare of their respective citizens and respond to their citizens; and

Whereas, Public utilities provide vital services and products to the public as a whole, not constrained by the boundaries of political subdivisions of the state; and

Whereas, The nature of public utility services and products are to serve the general welfare, need and public good of the state; and

Whereas, Public utilities in West Virginia are governed by various federal and state agencies, including, but not limited to, the United States Environmental Protection Agency, the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, the West Virginia Department of Environmental Protection and the West Virginia Public Service Commission; and

Whereas, Regulation of public utilities at the local level can conflict with and, indeed, frustrate, confuse and confound the operations, service and products provided to the public by such public utilities; and

Whereas, The cost of regulatory compliance at any level is ultimately borne by the ratepayers and customers of the public utilities; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That the Joint Committee on Government and Finance is hereby requested to study issue of regulation of public utilities by political subdivisions of the State of West Virginia; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the Joint Committee on Government and Finance report to the regular session of the Legislature, 2016, on its findings, conclusions and recommendations, together with drafts of any legislation necessary to effectuate its recommendations; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the expenses necessary to conduct this study, to prepare a report and to draft necessary legislation be paid from legislative appropriations to the Joint Committee on Government and Finance.

Which, under the rules, lies over one day.

At the request of Senator Carmichael, and by unanimous consent, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

Senator Takubo, from the Committee on Economic Development, submitted the following report, which was received:

Your Committee on Economic Development has had under consideration

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 58 (originating in the Committee on Economic Development)—Requesting the Joint Committee on Government and Finance study need and feasibility of the state creating a cost-effective and portable group retirement savings program for small businesses and their employees, including comparing costs of establishing the program with currently available private sector financial and retirement security opportunities for small businesses.

Whereas, An employer with less than 50 employees is considered a small business; and

Whereas, Seventy percent of small businesses in West Virginia do not offer employer-sponsored retirement plans to their employees; and

Whereas, More than one half of the employees of small businesses do not have access to an employer-sponsored payroll deduction retirement savings plan; and

Whereas, Without an employer-sponsored retirement plan, there is a concern that workers will not have enough money to cover living expenses upon retirement; and

Whereas, Social Security plays a key role in providing retirement security for workers in West Virginia, but it should not be the sole source of retirement income; and

Whereas, If a significant portion of retirees rely only on Social Security for income, then there would be a growing demand for taxpayer-supported services which would increase costs for the state; and

Whereas, In addition to Social Security benefits, access to a retirement savings program would be beneficial to an employee's retirement; and

Whereas, It is preferable to enable an individual to have his or her own retirement plan rather than being forced to depend on taxpayer-supported programs and services; and

Whereas, Currently, there are commercial employer-sponsored retirement plans that are available to help workers accumulate retirement savings and improve their retirement security, but small business employers feel these plans are too expensive; and

Whereas, Small business employers think the state of West Virginia should do more to encourage workers to save for retirement by enacting legislation that gives small business employers in West Virginia the option of creating a retirement savings plan; and

Whereas, Illinois recently enacted legislation that created a retirement savings program for its citizens to save money for their retirement, and 30 other states are considering such a program, including California, Oregon, Minnesota, Connecticut and Maryland, which are conducting formal studies to ascertain a retirement savings program that will best assist their citizens to build a more secure retirement; and

Whereas, In West Virginia, a retirement savings program for small businesses would offer an opportunity for small business employers to establish a basic retirement savings option for employees which would provide workers a simple way to save for retirement which would result in fewer West Virginians relying on taxpayer-supported services, saving taxpayer dollars; and

Whereas, There is a need to determine if any potential state retirement savings program would be less expensive and not in direct competition with those employee and employer portable retirement programs already offered by banks, financial institutions, insurance brokers and private insurers; and

Whereas, A complete fiscal analysis is needed to determine the financial implications of a state retirement savings program, including the start-up costs, the compliance costs, legal implications to the state and its small businesses, costs of investment, actuarial compliance with federal securities laws and comparing the cost of a potential state-sponsored retirement savings program to the cost of existing private sector alternatives; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That the Joint Committee on Government and Finance is hereby requested to study need and feasibility of the state creating a cost-effective and portable group retirement savings program for small businesses and their employees, including comparing costs of establishing the program with currently available private sector financial and retirement security opportunities for small businesses; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the Joint Committee on Government and Finance report to the regular session of the Legislature, 2016, on its findings, conclusions and recommendations, together with drafts of any legislation to effectuate its recommendations; and, be it

Further Resolved, That the expenses necessary to conduct this study, to prepare a report and to draft necessary legislation be paid from legislative appropriations to the Joint Committee on Government and Finance.

And reports the same back with the recommendation that it be adopted.

Respectfully submitted,

Tom Takubo,
Chair.
