THE AMERICAN FLAG

The Flag of the United States has 13 horizontal stripes-7 red and 6 white-the red and white stripes alternating, and a union which consists of white stars of five points on a blue field placed in the upper quarter next to the staff and extending to the lower edge of the fourth red stripe from the top. The number of stars is the same as the number of States in the Union. The canton or union now contains 50 stars. On the admission of a State into the Union, a star will be added to the union of the Flag and such addition will take effect on the 4th day of July next succeeding such admission.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

STATE FLAG

Before the design of the present State Flag was officially adopted by the Legislature on March 7, 1929, by Senate Joint Resolution No. 18, West Virginia had been represented by several flags which had proved impractical.

Prominently displayed on the pure white field of today's flag and emblazoned in proper colors is a Coat of Arms, the lower half of which is wreathed by Rhododendron. Across the top, lettered on a ribbon, is the constitutional designation-"State of West Virginia". The white field is bordered on four sides by a strip of blue, and for parade purposes all but the staff side are to be trimmed with gold fringe.

GREAT SEAL OF WEST VIRGINIA

The Great Seal of West Virginia, which also is the Coat of Arms, was adopted by the Legislature on September 26, 1863, and symbolizes the principal pursuits and resources of West Virginia. Described briefly, the obverse side of the Seal bears the legend, "State of West Virginia", together with the motto, "Montani Semper Liberi" (Mountaineers Are Always Free); a farmer stands to the right and a miner to the left of a large ivy-draped rock bearing the date of the state's admission to the Union, in front of the rock are two hunters' rifles upon which rests a Phrygian Cap, or "Cap of Liberty".

The reverse side of the Seal is not in common use today. It was intended to be employed when the Seal was attached to documents by ribbons and suspended in the manner of a medal.

Joseph H. Diss Debar, of Doddridge County, designed the State Seal in 1863 at the request of the first West Virginia Legislature.

STATE SONGS

"THE WEST VIRGINIA HILLS", "THIS IS MY WEST VIRGINIA" and "WEST VIRGINIA, MY HOME SWEET HOME" were designated as the official State Songs of West Virginia, each ranking equally with the others in official status, by House Concurrent Resolution No. 19, adopted by the Legislature on February 28, 1963.

OFFICIAL COLORS

OLD GOLD and BLUE were designated as Official State colors by Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 20, adopted by the Legislature on March 8, 1963.

STATE DAY

"West Virginia Day"

On January 1, 1863, President Abraham Lincoln approved the Statehood Bill for West Virginia on the condition that it would gradually abolish slavery. West Virginia was proclaimed a State on April 20, 1863, with the bill becoming effective sixty days later on June 20, 1863.

"West Virginia Day" became a legal holiday by Chapter 59, Acts of the Legislature, Regular Session, 1927. (Code 2-2-1)

STATE TREE

The Sugar Maple or ACER SACCHARUM, as it is known scientifically, was made West Virginia's official tree by House Concurrent Resolution No. 12, adopted by the Legislature on March 7, 1949, authorizing a vote by pupils of public schools and civic organizations. It produces an excellent wood for furniture as well as maple syrup. A single tree is 70 to 120 feet high and produces two to three pounds of sugar when "sugared off"; has a five-lobed leaf and produces a small wing-shaped pod.

STATE BIRD

The Cardinal or RICHMONDENA CARDINALIS, as it is known scientifically, was made West Virginia's official bird by House Concurrent Resolution No. 12, adopted by the Legislature on March 7, 1949, authorizing a vote by pupils of public schools and civic organizations. The male of the species is a rich scarlet with a mask and shading of black, while the young birds and females are a less brilliant color. The adult bird measures approximately eight inches long. It can be found from New York State to the Gulf of Mexico and as far west as Oklahoma.

STATE FLOWER

The RHODODENDRON MAXIMUM or "Big Laurel" was made the official State Flower of West Virginia by House Joint Resolution No. 19, adopted by the Legislature on January 29, 1903, following a recommendation by the Governor and a vote by the pupils of public schools. It is a shrub of the heath family and may be recognized by its large evergreen leaves and delicate pale pink or white bloom, mottled with either red or yellow flecks.

STATE ANIMAL

The BLACK BEAR or URSUS AMERICANUS was selected as the official State Animal of West Virginia by a poll of students, teachers and sportsmen conducted by the Department of Natural Resources in 1954-55 and officially adopted by the Legislature, Regular Session, 1973, by House Concurrent Resolution No. 6. It is the only species of bear found in the State. While commonly referred to as the "black bear" its coloring is actually deeply tinted with brown. Its habitat in the State is primarily in the eastern mountain region. A litter usually consists of one or two cubs, rarely three, each weighing about eight ounces at birth. The adult reaches an average maximum weight of 250 pounds.

STATE FISH

The BROOK TROUT was designated the State Fish by House Concurrent Resolution No. 6, adopted during the Regular Session, 1973, following a poll of sportsmen who favored the Brook Trout. The Brook Trout is a native West Virginia species.

STATE FRUIT

The GOLDEN DELICIOUS APPLE was designated as the official State Fruit by Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 7, adopted by the Legislature on February 20, 1995. This apple variety was discovered by Anderson Mullins in Clay County, West Virginia, in 1905. The plain apple had been previously designated as the official State Fruit by House Concurrent Resolution No. 56, adopted March 7, 1972.

STATE BUTTERFLY

The MONARCH BUTTERFLY was declared the official butterfly of West Virginia by Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 11, adopted by the Legislature on March 1, 1995.

STATE SOIL

The official State Soil was declared to be MONONGAHELA SILT LOAM by Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 5, adopted by the Legislature on April 2, 1997.

STATE INSECT

The HONEY BEE was declared the official insect of West Virginia by Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 9, adopted by the Legislature on March 7,2002.

STATE GEM

The WEST VIRGINIA FOSSIL CORAL (the mineral Chalcedony) was designated the official state gem by House Concurrent Resolution No. 39, adopted by the Legislature on March 10, 1990.

STATE LOCOMOTIVE

The Cass Scenic Railroad's SHAY No. 5 steam locomotive was designated the official state locomotive of West Virginia by Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 34, adopted by the Legislature on March 11, 2004.

STATE REPTILE

The TIMBER RATTLESNAKE was designated the official state reptile by Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 29, adopted by the Legislature March 8, 2008.

STATE FOSSIL

The MEGALONYX JEFFERSONII was designated the official state fossil by Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 29, adopted by the Legislature March 8, 2008.

Roughly a million acres of the National Forest System's Monongahela National Forest System lands are in West Virginia, and lie within 400 miles of an estimated 96,000,000 people. An approximate 1.3 million visitors come to the Monongahela National Forest each year.

The national importance of the recreation resource of the Monongahela has been recognized through the designation of the Spruce Knob – Seneca Rocks National Recreation Area, the first such area in the Forest Service, National Scenic Byway status for the Highland Scenic Highway, and eight Wilderness Areas.

The Monongahela National Forest was established in 1920. Located in the north central highlands of West Virginia, the Monongahela straddles the highest ridges in the State. Elevation ranges from just under 1000' to 4863' above sea level. Variations in terrain and precipitation have created one of the most ecologically diverse national forests in the country.

Forest Caves have been closed in an effort to prevent spread of deadly disease affecting thousands of bats in the northeast. See Order No. 21-104.

National Forest acreage, by county, is:

County	Acres Monongahela N.F.	*Total National Forest Acres

^{*}Total National Forest acres include portions of the George Washington and Jefferson National Forests in Hampshire, Hardy, Monroe and Pendleton counties. All other counties listed contain only Monongahela National Forest acres.

GEORGE WASHINGTON AND JEFFERSON NATIONAL FORESTS

www.fs.usda.gov/main/gwj/

U. S. Forest Service 5162 Valleypointe Parkway Roanoke, VA 24019-3050

The George Washington and Jefferson National Forests stretch along the ruggedly beautiful Appalachian Mountains, extending from one end of Virginia to the other and even crossing into parts of West Virginia and Kentucky. Whether you are driving a back-country road, enjoying glorious fall colors, using binoculars to spot colorful neo-tropical birds, or savoring the peacefulness of wilderness, remember that national forests are special places.

The George Washington National Forest in west central Virginia and the Jefferson National Forest in southwest Virginia were administratively combined in 1995 to form the George Washington and Jefferson National Forests. The two national forests contain nearly 1.8 million acres; one of the largest blocks of public land in the eastern United States. The forests include 1,664,110 acres in Virginia, 123,629 acres in West Virginia, and 961 acres in Kentucky. The forest headquarters is the Forest Supervisor's Office in Roanoke, Virginia. The forests include the Mount Rogers National Recreation Area and seven Ranger Districts.

The forests are primarily Appalachian hardwood and mixed pine-hardwood forest types located within the Blue Ridge, Central Ridge and Valley, Allegheny, and Cumberland Plateau provinces. The forests are home to:

- 40 species of trees,
- 2,000 species of shrubs and herbaceous plants,
- 78 species of amphibians and reptiles,
- 200 species of birds,
- 60 species of mammals,
- 2,340 miles of perennial streams,
- 100 species of freshwater fishes and mussels,
- 53 federally-listed Threatened or Endangered animal and plant species.

The forests are managed for multiple uses and provide many products and benefits. Developed recreation opportunities are offered at over 200 sites on the forests (including campgrounds, picnic areas and boat launches), along with nearly 2,200 miles of trails, and 1,700 miles of open roads. Elevations range from 5,729 feet at Mount Rogers to 515 feet along the South Fork of the Shenandoah River. Highlights include:

- 325 miles of the Appalachian National Scenic Trail,
- 12 National Recreation Trails totaling 143 miles,
- the 140,000-acre Mount Rogers National Recreation Area,
- 3 National Scenic Areas,
- 3 National Forest Scenic Byways,
- nearly 3 million annual recreation visits,
- 23 Wildernesses,
- 700,000 acres of lands actively managed for the production of timber and wood products,

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE

COLLECTION OF REVENUE by MAJOR SOURCE

PERSONAL INCOME TAX

The West Virginia Personal Income Tax Act (West Virginia Code, Chapter 11, Article 21) was first enacted by the 1961 Regular Session of the Legislature on February 10, 1961, and signed by the Governor on February 14, 1961.

Description of the Tax: The West Virginia Income Tax Act imposes a personal income tax on the taxable income of all residents, and resident estates and trust, irrespective of income derived from West Virginia source. Corporations and partnerships are not subject to the West Virginia Personal Income Tax Act. However, the pass-through income of partnerships, small business corporations and limited liability companies to individuals is subject to tax. A trust or other unincorporated organization which by reason of its activities is exempt from Federal Income Tax is also exempt from West Virginia Personal Income Tax.

The West Virginia Income Tax is tied closely to the Federal Personal Income Tax with conformity legislation enacted annually to match changes in Federal Code. The calculation of the West Virginia personal income tax begins with federal adjusted gross income as reported on the federal income tax return.

West Virginia adjusted gross income is determined by application of various State modifications increasing or decreasing federal adjusted gross income. Modifications include, among others, decreasing adjustments for interest from U.S. savings bonds and an $8,000 income exclusion for those age 65 and older. Individuals with federal adjusted gross income below $10,000 ($5,000 for married filing separate taxpayers) may exclude up to 100% of earned income from tax.

West Virginia taxable income is determined by subtraction of a value related to personal exemption allowances from West Virginia adjusted gross income. Taxpayers are generally allowed a $2,000 personal exemption for each personal exemption claimed for federal income tax purposes. The exemption for an estate or trust is $600. Persons claimed as dependents on another's return are allowed a $500 exemption.

Personal Income Tax rates are graduated from 3.0% to 6.5%. Two rate schedules are provided: one for joint returns, individuals, heads of household, estate and trusts; and one for married taxpayers filing separate returns. Taxpayers with income at or below 100% of the annual federal poverty income guideline based upon household size are exempt from payment of State personal income tax through a family tax credit program.

Current personal income tax rates are as follows:

- 3.0% on the first $10,000 ($5,000 for married separate MFS) of taxable income
- 4.0% on taxable income between $10.000 and $25.000 ($5.000-$12.500 MFS)
- 4.5% on taxable income between $25,000 and $40,000 ($12,500-$20,000 MFS)
- 6.0% on taxable income between $40,000 and $60,000 ($20,000-$30,000 MFS)
- 6.5% on taxable income in excess of $60,000 ($30,000 MFS)

CONSUMERS SALES AND SERVICE AND USE TAX

The Consumer Sales and Service and Use Tax, Chapter 11, Articles 15, 15A and 15B, West Virginia Code of 1931, as amended, is a general sales tax that applies to all sales and leases of tangible personal property and the furnishing of certain services consummated within West Virginia for use, consumption or any other purpose. Services rendered by an employee to his employer, services furnished by public service businesses and professional or personal services are exempt. Most rentals, excluding those of real estate, are taxable as though they were sales. The measure of the tax is based upon the total sales price of all articles and services purchased during a particular transaction with the rate of tax being derived from rounding methodology. For sales of food and food ingredients intended for human consumption (exclusive of prepared food, food sold in a heated state, or food sold with eating utensils) the value of the sale is multiplied by one percent between July 1, 2012 and June 30, 2013. On or after July 1, 2013, the sale of food and food ingredients is anticipated to be fully exempt from sales tax. For all other sales, the six-percent tax rate is multiplied by price and rounded to the nearest cent based upon the third place decimal value. Third place decimal values of five or more are rounded up, and values equal to four or less are rounded down. No tax applies to sales of eight cents or less.

Local municipal governments may generally levy an additional one percent local sales tax on the same tax base as the State sales tax in lieu of a local municipal occupation tax. The local tax is collected by the State Tax Commissioner along with the State tax. Three municipal governments, Huntington, Rupert and Williamstown, currently impose a local sales tax.

The law provides that the vendor shall collect the tax due from the purchaser at the time of sale and that the purchaser shall pay such tax unless the purchaser presents to the vendor a properly executed certificate of exemption or a direct pay permit number. Consumer Sales and Service and Use Tax are to be paid by ultimate consumers; sellers collect the tax and remit their collections to the Tax Department.

There are a number of exemptions from the Consumer Sales and Service and Use Tax.

Major exemptions include:

- Sales for resale;
- Sales of prescription drugs;
- Sales of motor vehicles subject to the alternative 5% Motor Vehicle Sales Tax in Section 11-15-3c
 of the West Virginia Code;
- Sales of goods purchased with food stamps or WIC vouchers;
- Sales to governments;
- Sales to churches;
- Sales of goods and services directly used in the businesses of agriculture, manufacturing, natural resource production, transportation, transmission, communication, or public utility services; and,
- Sales of contracting services, professional services, personal services and services of businesses subject to regulation by the State Public Service Commission.

CORPORATION NET INCOME TAX AND BUSINESS FRANCHISE TAX

West Virginia imposes two general business taxes, the Corporation Net Income Tax (Chapter 11, Article 24, West Virginia Code of 1931, as amended) and the Business Franchise Tax (Chapter 11, Article 23, West Virginia Code of 1931, as amended).

The Corporation Net Income Tax is generally imposed on the allocated and apportioned federal taxable income of corporations doing business within the State with various State specific adjustments. The tax rate is 7.0 percent in 2013 and 6.5 percent in 2014. Corporations engaged in unitary business activities are required to file a combined report of income and apportionment for their separate members.

The Business Franchise Tax is a tax levied on corporations and partnerships for the privilege of engaging in business in West Virginia. The measure of the tax is the greater of 0.20percent of capital (net equity) apportioned to the State or $50. This tax is being phased-out over a couple years. The tax rate is 0.10 percent in 2014 and the tax is fully repealed beginning in 2015.
