I, Henry S. Walker, secretary of state of the state of West Virginia, hereby certify that an agreement duly acknowledged and accompanied by the proper affidavits, has been this day delivered to me, which agreement is in the words and figures following:

The undersigned agree to become a corporation by the name of Elk River Boom and Lumber Company, for the purpose of constructing and maintaining a boom or booms with or without piers, dam or dams, in and across Elk river and its tributaries, at or near and above the mouth of Holly river, in the county of Braxton, and state of West Virginia, and in connection with said boom so erected for the purpose of stopping and securing boats, rafts, logs, saw-logs, timber, lumber, railroad ties, staves, wood, shingles and all other kinds of timber or lumber, to erect other booms and shear booms allowed by law, and for the purpose of exercising and enjoying all the rights and powers and privileges granted and conferred by law upon corporations formed for the purpose of constructing booms, &c., and especially in regard to acquiring lands, building saw mills, piers and wharves, manufacturing and selling lumber of all kinds, in building and constructing and maintaining tram railways and dams and all other work necessary and proper for such corporations as now is authorized by law.

The proposed corporation is to commence on the day and date of the certificate of incorporation hereof by the secretary of state, and continue for fifty years, until December 25th, 1939.

Which corporation shall keep its principal office or place of business at Philadelphia, in the county of Philadelphia, and state of Pennsylvania, and is to expire on the twenty-fifth day of December, nineteen hundred and thirty-nine. And for the purpose of forming said corporation, we have subscribed the sum of five hundred dollars to the capital thereof, and have paid in on said subscriptions the sum of fifty dollars, and desire the privilege of increasing the said capital, by the sale of additional shares from time to time, as allowed by law in such cases.

The capital so subscribed is divided into five shares of one hundred dollars each, and the par value of said shares is one hundred dollars each, and are held by the undersigned respectively as follows, that is to say: By

J. W. Turner, Philadelphia, Penn., one share.

Jacob Shapley, Philadelphia, Penn., one share.

H. H. Bellas, Germantown, Penn., one share.

A. A. Benkert, Morton, Del. county, Penn., one share.

Wm. S. Divine, Devon, Penn., one share.

The capital to be hereafter sold is to be divided into shares of like amount.

Given under our hands, this 23rd day of December, 1889.

JACOB SHAPLEY,
J. W. TURNER,
H. H. BELLAS,
A. A. BENKERT,
WM. S. DIVINE.

Wherefore, the corporators named in the said agreement, and who have signed the same, and their successors and assigns, are hereby declared to be from this date until the twenty-fifth day of December, nineteen hundred and thirty-nine, a corporation by the name and for the purposes set forth in said agreement.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the said [G. S.] state, at the city of Charleston, this twenty-third day of January, eighteen hundred and ninety.

THE WEST VIRGINIA TERMINAL RAILWAY COMPANY.

DOMESTIC.

I, Henry S. Walker, secretary of state of the state of West Virginia, do hereby certify that articles of incorporation, duly signed and acknowledged, have this day been recorded in my office, which articles of incorporation are in the words and figures following:

We, whose names are hereto subscribed, desiring to become a corporation for the purpose of constructing and operating a railroad in the state of West Virginia, do hereby adopt these articles of incorporation for that purpose:

First—The name of the corporation shall be The West Virginia Terminal Railway Company.

Second—The railroad which this corporation proposes to build, will commence at or near a point in the village of Benwood in the county of Marshall, and state of West Virginia, which point is on the line of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company's railroad, about four hundred feet north of the intersection of the line of the last mentioned railroad, which runs through the village of Benwood, with the line of the tracks on Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Bridge, which crosses the Ohio River immediately below the said village of Benwood, in the county of Marshall, and run thence by the most practicable route to a point at or near the place where the railroad of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company crosses by an arch culvert a ravine running through the farm of Mrs. Shepherd McMechen, in the county of Marshall, crossing and intersecting at two places along such route, the railroad of the Ohio Valley Railroad Company, and intersecting at the said two points above named, the said railroad of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company and connecting with the same. The corporation proposes also to construct along and near its said line, such switches, turnouts, side-tracks, depots, machine shops, round houses and other things as may be necessary or proper in carrying out the purposes of its incorporation, which are, among other things, the providing and supplying of terminal facilities, by switching, transferring and exchanging their cars and locomotives, and otherwise, for such other railroad companies as have railroads in the vicinity of said railroad so proposed to be built by this company as aforesaid, at such places as to be able to avail themselves of such facilities.

Third—The principal business office of this corporation will be at Wheeling, in the county of Ohio, in the state of West Virginia.

Fourth—This corporation shall continue perpetually.

Fifth—The capital stock of this company shall be five hundred thousand dollars, divided into shares of one hundred dollars each.

Sixth—The names and places of residence of the persons forming this corporation, and the number of shares of stock subscribed by each, are as follows:

Greason D. Gillelen, of Wheeling, West Virginia, one share.

Wm. H. Jamison, of Wheeling, West Virginia, one share.

THE UNITED PURCHASERS' DISCOUNT COMPANY.

FOREIGN.

I, Henry S. Walker, secretary of state of the state of West Virginia, hereby certify that an agreement duly acknowledged and accompanied by the proper affidavits, has been this day delivered to me, which agreement is in the words and figures following:

The undersigned agree to become a corporation under the laws of the state of West Virginia, by the name of The United Purchasers' Discount Company, for the following purposes, to-wit:

1st. To carry on business in the United States or elsewhere as commission merchants or merchants to buy, sell, manipulate and deal (wholesale and retail) in merchandise, goods, wares, food products, and commodities of every sort, kind or description, and to carry on any other business, whether manufacturing or otherwise which can be conveniently carried on with any of the company's objects.

2nd. To open stores, offices or agencies throughout the United States or elsewhere, or to allow or cause the legal estate and interest in any properties or business acquired, established or carried on by the company to remain or be vested in the name of, or carried on by any other company formed or to be formed, and either upon trust for, or of agents or nominees of this company or upon any other terms or conditions which the directors may think for the benefit of this company, and to manage the affairs, or take over and carry on the business of any such other company formed or to be formed, and to exercise all or any of the powers of any such company, or of holders of shares or stock or securities thereof, and to receive and to distribute as profits, the dividends and interest on such shares, stock or securities.

3rd. To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any persons or company, carrying on any kind of business which this company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purpose of the company.

4th. To enter into partnership, or into any arrangement for-sharing profits, union of interests, reciprocal concessions, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on, or about to carry on any business which this company is authorized to carry on, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this company.

5th. To purchase, take or lease, or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire, any real or personal property and any rights or privileges which the company may think necessary or convenient, with reference to any of these objects and capable of being profitably dealt with in connection with any of the company's property or rights for the time being, and in particular buildings and lands, licenses, concessions, patents, trade marks, machinery, rolling stock, plant and stock in trade, and to erect and construct such buildings as may be required for this company.

6th. To pay for any property or business or service rendered in shares (to be treated as wholly or partly paid up), or other securities of the company, or in money, or by means of both.

7th. To sell, lease, let on hire, improve, manage, develop, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any of the property and rights of the company.

8th. To sell the undertaking of the company or any part thereof, for such consideration as the company may think fit.

9th. To promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property, rights and liabilities of the company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this company.

10th. To invest, lend or otherwise deal with the moneys of the company not immediately required upon such securities or without security, and in such manner as may from time to time be determined.

11th. To borrow or raise money upon loan for the purpose of the company, and to issue bonds (to be repaid or otherwise) or mortgages and other instruments for securing the repayment thereof, with or without charge, upon all or any of the property of the company or its uncalled capital and upon such terms as to privily or otherwise as the company shall see fit.

12th. To remunerate any person, agent or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing any shares, stocks, securities, certificates of membership of the company, or in relation to the establishment of the company.

13th. To enter into contracts with manufacturers, wholesale and retail firms or corporations throughout the United States or elsewhere, to insure a percentage reduction of all goods, wares, merchandise, purchased by subscribers or members of this company for such members and for a partial benefit to this company, or wholly for this company.

14th. To solicit and acquire membership to this company, and to charge a fee for certificates of membership in this company.

15th. To issue such certificates of membership in this company, which, when presented at any house, store, shop or institution with whom this company may have contracts, will entitle the member to a fixed or fluctuating or graduated discount on all purchases and likewise entitle this company to receive from such place of purchase a certain percentage on all purchases thus made by a member of this company.

16th. To agree to declare a dividend at the expiration of five years, or such term of years as determined by the Board of Directors, to all members of this company who have remained faithful to this company and observed all the rules and conditions imposed on membership during such time equal to a given per cent. to be voted by the Board of Directors on all purchases they, the said members, may be credited as having made on the books of the company, with such stores, shops, &c., with which the company may have contracts or may conduct themselves.

17th. To agree to declare a dividend at the expiration of five years or such term of years as determined by the Board of Directors to all such houses, stores, shops, institutions, &c., with which this company may have contracts, provided always that said houses, stores, shops, institutions, &c., have faithfully lived up to their contracts with this company.

18th. To organize a committee of representative and influential men whose function shall be to receive such money as the Board of Directors in this company may from time to time see fit to place in their possession.

And it shall be the duty of this committee to loan the same on such securities, mortgages or notes, or make such investments of the same in real estate, improved or not improved, or in various enterprises, patents, &c., or otherwise throughout the United States and elsewhere as in their judgment will be for the best interest of this company and to report to the Board of Directors at stated intervals as to the nature, character and kind of investment they have made of such moneys intrusted to them, and as to the amount of interest such moneys have acquired by such loans and investments, &c., they have made of the same, and as to the actual amount of moneys they have received and so loaned, invested or otherwise dealt with.

19th. To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them, or which may be conveniently carried on and done in connection therewith, or which may be calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or render profitable any business or property of this company.

Which corporation shall keep its principal office or place of business at the city of New York, with branch offices at such other places in the United States as the Board of Directors may designate, and is to expire on the first day of February, 1940. And for the purpose of forming the said corporation, we have subscribed the sum of ten thousand dollars to the capital thereof, and have paid in on said subscriptions the sum of one thousand dollars, and desire the privilege of increasing the said capital, by the sale of additional shares fromtime to time, to one hundred thousand dollars in all.

The capital so subscribed is divided into shares of ten dollars each, which are held by the undersigned respectively as follows, that is to say:

HENRY S. WALKER,
Secretary of State.

PENNSYLVANIA REFRIGERATING CAR COMPANY.

FOREIGN.

I, Henry S. Walker, secretary of state of the state of West Virginia, hereby certify that an agreement duly acknowledged and accompanied by the proper affidavits, has been this day delivered to me, which agreement is in the words and figures following:

The undersigned agree to become a corporation by the name of the Pennsylvania Refrigerating Car Company, for the following purposes, to wit: To make, contract for the manufacture or purchase of, buy, use, sell, lease, rent, mortgage, or otherwise deal in, all chemical, mechanical or other apparatus, property, machinery, implements or chemicals, or any or all of them, for refrigerating, ice-making, producing artificial cold or decrease of temperature, or any artificial temperature, or any other article or articles connected therewith or incident thereto, or any or all of them.

To acquire by purchase, assignment or otherwise, letters patent of the United States, and other countries, and territorial and other rights, and licenses which may be of value or advantage in the carrying out of the above mentioned business, and to dispose of the same by sale, license, assignment or otherwise.

To acquire and hold by purchase, lease or otherwise, lands, tenements and hereditaments in the states and territories of the United States, or any other place or places where any part of the business of this corporation may be carried on, said lands to be applied to the proper and advantageous use of this corporation, to the amount allowed by law, and to use, improve, manage, lease, mortgage or otherwise encumber any or all of said lands, tenements, hereditaments and real property of every description and tenure, and to dispose of any or all thereof when no longer needed for the use of this corporation in the prosecution of its business.

To develop such lands and property in such manner as the board of directors of this corporation may deem proper and advantageous to the aforesaid corporation, and to erect warehouses, factories, stores and other buildings thereon, and other works and conveniences necessary and proper for the use of this corporation.

To carry on the business of transportation of perishable produce, and the preservation in transit and during storage of all kinds of merchandise, foods, provisions and other articles which are liable to injury from heat or cold or sudden changes of temperature.

To manufacture and deal in cars and all such other agencies, mechanisms and appliances incident to or connected with the business for which this corporation is formed, and to lease or hire the same to others, and to engage in any business or enterprise in connection with the general purposes of this corporation, as may be deemed advantageous or proper by the board of directors.

To buy, sell or otherwise deal in any or all commodities and materials, and carry on any particular business or undertaking, the carrying on of which may be deemed to be conducive to the development of such corporation.

To borrow and raise money for the purposes of the corporation's business.

To secure the payment thereof in such manner as in the judgment of the board of directors may be deemed most advantageous to the successful carrying on of the business of this corporation, and, if necessary, to mortgage or otherwise pledge all or any part of the property of this corporation, including its undertakings and franchises to be a corporation, and to issue and deposit any securities which the company has power to issue, and by way of mortgage or otherwise secure the same in a less amount than the nominal amount of said security, and also by way of security for the performance of any contract or obligation of the company.

To receive and hold stocks, bonds, or securities of any company or corporation, municipal or private, as security for any loans made by the company, or in payment or as security for any property, licenses or rights sold or leased to it.

To become carriers by land or water for the purposes aforesaid, on its own behalf or on behalf of others, and to do any and all acts incident thereto or connected therewith.

The company shall keep its principal office or place of business in Philadelphia, county of Philadelphia, state of Pennsylvania and such other place as the law requires, and shall expire on the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine. And for the purpose of forming such company we have subscribed the sum of five hundred ($500) dollars to the capital thereof, and have paid in on said subscription the sum of one hundred ($100) dollars, and desire the privilege of increasing the said capital, by the sale of additional shares from time to time, to the sum of one million dollars.

The capital so subscribed is divided into five shares of one hundred dollars each, which are held by the undersigned respectively as follows, that is to say:

T. E. Patrick, Richmond, Va., one share.

H. A. Alexander, New York, N. Y., one share.

James T. Boothroyd, New York, N. Y., one share.

James E. Degnan, Newark, N. J., one share.

C. C. Palmer, Rahway, N. J., one share.

The capital to be hereafter sold is to be divided into shares of like amount.

DEBENTURE GUARANTEE AND ASSURANCE COMPANY OF GREAT BRITAIN AND AMERICA.

FOREIGN.

I, Wm. A. Ohley, secretary of state of the state of West Virginia, hereby certify that an agreement duly acknowledged and accompanied by the proper affidavits, has been this day delivered to me, which agreement is in the words and figures following:

Know all men by these presents: That

The undersigned agree to become a corporation by the name of the "Debenture Guarantee and Assurance Company of Great Britain and America," for the following purposes:

(a) Of doing general contract work and promoting the construction and maintenance of railways, gas and other public works, and

and as incidental to such purpose, of organizing and incorporating undertakings with such objects, and buying and selling the stock, bonds and securities of such corporations, as agents, trustees or owners.

(b) To buy and sell the stocks, bonds, certificates, and other obligations of government, dominions, sovereignties, provinces, states, counties, cities, townships, districts and other municipal corporations, or public authorities.

(c) To act as agents or trustees for joint stock and other companies, corporations, states, municipalities, or public authorities, whether domiciled in the United States or elsewhere, in the issue of their shares, stock, bonds, debentures and debenture stock, and in the making of loans upon the security thereof, either to private persons or public companies.

(d) To borrow and raise money by the issue or sale of bonds, mortgages, pledges, debentures or debenture stock of the company, or in any other manner, using the proceeds in the transaction of the legitimate business of the company.

(e) To make advances upon, hold in trust, buy, sell, or otherwise acquire or dispose of, on commission or otherwise, goods, merchandise, and any of the securities or investments of the kind hereinbefore specified or referred to, and to act as agent for any of the above or like purposes.

(f) To act as agent for the payment, transmission and collection of money, and securities, for an interest upon money, and the management of property, and to transact, agency, financial, exchange, and other monetary business and like operations of every kind, or any nature or description.

(g) To take, make, execute, enter into, commence, carry on, prosecute and defend all steps, contracts, agreements, negotiations, legal and other proceedings, compromises, arrangements and claims; and to do all other acts, matters and things, which shall at any time appear conducive, advantageous or expedient for the protection of the company, as holders of or interested in the securities and investments for the time being of the company, or for obtaining the payment of the moneys payable thereon.

(h) To all acts necessary for the carrying on in any foreign country or colony any act of the company necessary or expedient to be there carried on.

(i) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid, either alone or in conjunction with any other company, corporation or person, and that either by amalgamation or otherwise.

(j) To pay the charges and expenses preliminary and incidental to the promotion, formation, establishment, and registration of the company, and to remunerate any person or persons for services rendered or to be rendered in relation to the formation or establishment of the company, or placing any shares in or securities of the company.

(k) And for any other purpose or conveniences useful to the public for which a firm or co-partnership might be lawfully formed in this state.

Which corporation shall keep its principal office or place of business in the city of Chicago, in the county of Cook, and state of Illinois, and is to expire on the first day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and forty. And for the purpose of forming the said corporation, we have subscribed the sum of one thousand dollars, and have paid on said subscription the sum of one thousand dollars, and desire the privilege of increasing the said capital, by the sale of additional shares from time to time, to five million dollars in all.

I, Wm. A. Ohley, secretary of state of the state of West Virginia, hereby certify that an agreement duly acknowledged and accompanied by the proper affidavits, has been this day delivered to me, which agreement is in the words and figures following:

Agreement for the incorporation of the Philadelphia Bond and Investment Company:

The undersigned agree to become a corporation by the name of the Philadelphia Bond and Investment Company, for the purpose of issuing and selling bonds upon monthly instalments and payable from redemption and reserve funds made up from the appropriation of a certain part of the instalments paid in according to tables which insure perfect equity to both large and small investors, the advantages of the association being to encourage and assist persons of moderate means to systematic saving and by advantageous co-operation to realize larger profits than they could do by investing in savings banks or building associations

Which corporation shall keep its principal office or place of business at Philadelphia, in the county of Philadelphia, and is to expire on the thirty-first day of December, 1930. And for the purpose of forming the said corporation we have subscribed the sum of ten thousand dollars to the capital thereof, and have paid in on said subscriptions the sum of one thousand dollars, and desire the privilege of increasing the said capital by the sale of additional shares from time to time, to $100,000 in all.

The capital so subscribed is divided into shares of ten dollars each, which are held by the undersigned respectively as follows, that is to say:

Gideon W. Marsh, Philadelphia, two hundred shares, $2,000.

S. S. Garwood, Philadelphia, two hundred shares, $2,000.

Charles Lawrence, Philadelphia, two hundred shares, $2,000.

John Beardsley, Philadelphia, two hundred shares, $2,000.

Wm. B. Wood, Philadelphia, two hundred shares, $2,000.

And the capital to be hereafter sold is to be divided into shares of the like amount.

Given under our hands, this twenty-first day of April, 1890.

GIDEON W. MARSH,
S. S. GARWOOD,
CHAS. LAWRENCE,
JOHN BARDSLEY,
WM. B. WOOD.

Wherefore, the corpoptors named in the said agreement, and who have signed the same, and their successors and assigns, are hereby declared to be from this date until the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred and thirty, a corporation by the name and for the purposes set forth in said agreement.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the said [G. S.] state, at the city of Charleston, this twelfth day of May, eighteen hundred and ninety.

NEW YORK, HARPER'S FERRY AND SOUTHERN RAIL-ROAD COMPANY.

DOMESTIC.

I, Wm. A. Ohley, secretary of state of the state of West Virginia, do hereby certify that articles of incorporation duly signed and acknowledged have this day been recorded in my office, which articles of incorporation are in the words and figures following:

We, whose names are hereto subscribed, desiring to become a corporation for the purpose of constructing and operating a railroad in the state of West Virginia, do hereby adopt these articles of incorporation for that purpose:

First—The name of the corporation shall be the New York, Harper's Ferry and Southern Railroad Company.

Second—The railroad which this corporation proposes to build will commence at a point upon the boundary line between the states of Virginia and West Virginia, on or near the Shenandoah River, in the county of Jefferson, West Virginia, upon the boundary line of the county of Clarke in the state of Virginia, and run thence by the most practicable route to a point on the boundary line between the states of Virginia and West Virginia on the north western boundary line of Loudoun county, Virginia, passing through the said county of Jefferson, with a branch road to the town of Charlestown in said county by the most practicable route, to connect at Charlestown with the Shenandoah Valley and Baltimore & Ohio Railroads. Said road to cross the Shenandoah River at a point above its mouth, the most practicable for bridging, and then to run down the Shenandoah River on the eastern side thereof, or along the western side of the Blue Ridge Mountains near to their western base and as near the Shenandoah River as is practicable, to a point at or near the mouth of the Shenandoah River in said county of Jefferson, and thence down the Potomac River on the south side thereof or along the edge of the Blue Ridge Mountains as near as practicable to the Potomac River through the gap in said mountains, through which the said Potomac River passes opposite the town of Harper's Ferry and below the mouth of the Shenandoah River to the said terminal point of said railroad on said boundary line between the states of Virginia and West Virginia on said northwestern boundary line of Loudoun county, Virginia, the said point being on or near the Potomac River; the said railroad when completed is to run along the southern bank of the Potomac River in Loudoun county, Virginia, or along the sides of the mountains or river hills as near the said southern bank of said Potomac River as practicable, to such point east of the Blue Ridge Mountains as that from this point it will be most practicable to bridge the Potomac River and extend the said railroad by the most practicable route to the city of Frederick, in the state of Maryland. This extension of said railroad to be made with the consent of the states of Virginia and Maryland, and by the consent of the state of Virginia a branch of said railroad is to be made in Loudoun county, Virginia, connecting the said extension by the most practicable route with the Washington, Ohio and Western Railroad; by the like consent of the state of Virginia, this railroad is to be extended from the point at which it crosses the Jefferson and Clarke line through the counties of Clarke and Warren by way of Front Royal and Chesters Gap in the Blue Ridge Mountains, to Washington, in the county of Rappahannock, thence through the counties of Culpeper, Madison and Orange to the town of Gordonsville.

Third—The principal business office of this corporation shall be at Charlestown, in the county of Jefferson, in the state of West Virginia.

Fourth—This corporation shall continue perpetually.

Fifth—The capital stock of this company shall be one million dollars to be divided into shares of fifty dollars each.

Sixth—The names and places of residence of the persons forming this corporation and the number of shares of stock subscribed by each, are as follows:

A. W. McDonald, Berryville, Clarke county, Virginia, one share.

A. Moore, Jr., Berryville, Clarke county, Va., one share.

Frank Beckwith, Charlestown, Jefferson county, West Va., one share.

R. P. Chew, Charlestown, Jefferson county, West Va., one share.

Forest W. Brown, Charlestown, Jefferson county, West Va., one share.

T. C. Green, Charlestown, Jefferson county, West Va., one share.

B. C. Washinton, Charlestown, Jefferson county, West Va., one share.

John T. Colston, Charlestown, Jefferson county, West Va., one shares.

Given under our hands, this 6th day of May, 1890.

A. W. McDONALD,
A. MOORE, JR.,
FORREST W. BROWN,
R. P. CHEW,
B. C. WASHINGTON,
FRANK BECKWITH,
T. C. GREEN,
JOHN T. COLSTON.

Wherefore, the incorporators named in said articles of incorporation and who have signed the same, and their successors and assigns, are hereby declared to be a corporation by the name, for the purpose and for the length of time set forth in said articles of incorporation.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the said [G. S.] state, at the seat of government thereof, this fourteenth day of May, eighteen hundred and ninety.

AMERICAN PRESERVERS COMPANY.—INCREASING CAPITAL.

FOREIGN.

I, Wm A. Ohley, secretary of state of the state of West Virginia, do hereby certify that C. A. Max Wiehle, President of the American Preservers Company, a corporation created under the laws of the state of West Virginia, has certified to me under his signature and the corporate seal of said corporation, that at a meeting of the stockholders held in pursuance of law at Pittsburg, Pa., on the 10th day of May, 1890, at which meeting all the stock of the company was represented by holders thereof in person or by proxy, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the number of shares of the capital stock of this company may be increased by the sale of additional shares from time to time, to five million dollars in all; that the capital to be hereafter sold shall be divided into shares of the like amount as those heretofore issued, to-wit: one hundred dollars each."

Wherefore, I do declare said increase of capital stock as set forth in the foregoing resolution to be authorized by law.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the said state, [G. S.] at the city of Charleston, this 27th day of May, eighteen hundred and ninety.

WM. A. OHLEY,

STANDARD COAL AND FUEL COMPANY.

FOREIGN.

I, Wm. A. Ohley, secretary of state of the state of West Virginia, hereby certify that an agreement duly acknowledged and accompanied by the proper affidavits, has been this day delivered to me, which agreement is in the words and figures following:

Articles of Agreement of the Standard Coal and Fuel Company.

The undersigned agree to become a corporation under the laws of the State of West Virginia, by the name of the Standard Coal and Fuel Company, and the following are our articles of agreement:

ARTICLE FIRST.

The purposes of said corporation are to mine and reduce coal and other minerals, including the treatment of coal by chemical and mechanical processes for fuel, and the manufacture of chemicals and machinery for such and similar processes; also to acquire, lease, operate and deal in mining and manufacturing properties, and in patent rights affecting the same and the processes above mentioned; and to carry on the business generally of dealing in the products of such operations; to own, manage and dispose of any real or personal property essential or convenient therefor; and, generally, to do all things necessary or incident thereto.

ARTICLE SECOND.

The said corporation shall keep its office and principal place of business at Boston, in the county of Suffolk and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and is to expire on the fifteenth day of May, in the year nineteen hundred and forty (A. D., 1940.)

ARTICLE THIRD.

For the purpose of forming the said corporation, we have subscribed the sum of ten thousand dollars to the capital stock, and have paid in on said subscription the sum of one thousand dollars, and desire the privilege of increasing the said capital by the sale of additional shares, from time to time, to five million dollars.

The capital so subscribed is divided into shares of twenty ($20) dollars each, which are held by the undersigned, respectively as follows, that is to say:

- James P. Cook, Salem, Mass., one hundred shares.
- Levi R. Greene, Cambridge, Mass., one hundred shares.
- Charles Howard, Providence, R. I., one hundred shares.
- Walter H. Trumbull, Salem, Mass., one hundred shares.
- James R. Powers, Boston, Mass., one hundred shares.

And the capital to be hereafter sold is to be divided into shares of the like amount.

Given under our hands this fifteenth day of May, A. D., 1890.

JAMES P. COOK,
LEVI R. GREENE,
JAMES R. POWERS,
CHARLES HOWARD,
WALTER H. TUMBULL.

Wherefore, the corporators named in said agreement and who have signed the same, and their successors and assigns, are hereby declared to be from this date until the fifteenth day of May, nineteen hundred and forty, a corporation by the name and for the purposes set forth in said agreement.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the said state, [G. S.] at the city of Charleston, this twenty-eighth day of May, eighteen hundred and ninety.

I, Wm. A. Ohley, secretary of state of the state of West Virginia, hereby certify that an agreement duly acknowledged and accompanied by the proper affidavits, has been this day delivered to me, which agreement is in the words and figures following:

I. The undersigned agree to become a corporation under the laws of the state of West Virginia, by the name of "The National Smokeless Powder Manufacturing Company."

II. The purposes for which the said company is organized, are the manufacturing of high explosives, smokeless powder, gun powder, and improved gun powder, upon the process of manufacturing the same, invented and discovered by Col. John F. Alexander, of Washington, D. C.; also to secure by purchase or otherwise, any other process for the manufacture of high explosives, smokeless powder, gun powder, and improved gun powder, that the said company may be able to obtain; also to sell the high explosives, smokeless powder, gun powder, and improved gun powder, manufactured by said company, and other varieties of explosive substances, such as detonators, fulminates, and electrical fuses, manufactured by said company, under the process of said Alexander, or otherwise; also to sell and dispose of the right to manufacture and sell the high explosives, smokeless powder, gun powder, and improved gun powder that may be manufactured under the process invented and discovered by the said Alexander, whenever the said process shall be protected by letters patent issued to said Alexander, either in the United States or elsewhere.

III. That the said company shall keep its principal office or place of business in the city, county and state, of New York, at a place to be designated, when the said company shall have elected its officers, and commenced the business for which it is organized and chartered.

IV. The said corporation is organized and chartered to continue for the period of fifty years, and is to expire on the twentieth day of June, A. D., 1940.

V. For the purpose of forming the said corporation we have subscribed the sum of five thousand dollars to the capital stock thereof, and have paid in on said subscriptions ten per cent. thereof, amounting to the sum of five hundred dollars; and additional subscriptions to, and sale of stock of said corporation will be made, between the date of granting a charter to said company, and the date fixed by the undersigned for the election of its officers, until the sum of seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars shall be subscribed to the capital stock of said corporation, which said sum shall be the capital stock of said corporation, until otherwise provided. The said capital stock shall be divided into seven thousand five hundred shares, and the par value of said shares shall be one hundred dollars.

VI. The capital stock so subscribed by the undersigned is divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, and are held by us, respectively, as follows, to wit:

THE GOLD HILL MINING COMPANY.

FOREIGN.

I, Wm. A. Ohley, secretary of state of the state of West Virginia, hereby certify that an agreement duly acknowledged and accompanied by the proper affidavits, has been this day delivered to me, which agreement is in the words and figures following:

Incorporation of The Gold Hill Mining Company.

We the undersigned agree to become a corporation by the name of The Gold Hill Mining Company, for the purpose of purchasing, operating, managing and working mines in the state of California and elsewhere, to work the same, extract ore therefrom, gold, silver or other metal, and to do all and everything that may be necessary to be done in mining and milling and working ores, turning the same into bullion, or sell the same, with the mines and property of the company. To erect tenement houses on the mining lands of the company to be used and managed for the use, interest and benefit of the company in such way and manner as may seem best and most desirable.

Which corporation shall have its principal office to transact its business in the city of New York, and state of New York, and have a branch office in which also to transact business in the city of Nevada, or at the mines of the company near said city, in the state of California, where the mines and property now owned by the said corporators and others are located. Said corporation to expire on the 20th day of June, 1930. And for the purpose of forming the said corporation, the undersigned have subscribed to the capital stock thereof paying therefor in valuable mining property the sum and amount of $85,000, and have paid in for the use and ownership of said company in valuable mines and mining property the sum and value of $85,000.

The capital stock of said corporation shall be $800,000, to be divided into 160,000 shares, of the par value of $5.00 per share, with the privilege of increasing the capital stock by the purchase of mines and mining property, or otherwise paying therefor by issuing stock of the said corporation or company for the same to the amount of $1,500,000, and the stock to be issued by the said corporation for such mines and mining property now or hereafter to be full paid up stock, at the par value of $5.00 per share, and is to be non-assessable.

It is the intention of each corporator and subscriber herein named, and the formation and incorporation of this company is intended to be, and is in pursuance of and in accordance with the laws of the state of West Virginia (Code, ch. 53 and sec. 24, as amended by Acts of 1882, ch. 6,) allowing a company or corporation to purchase mines and mining property for the use and benefit of said corporation, and pay therefor in stock of said company.

NATIONAL GAS INVESTMENT COMPANY.

FOREIGN.

I, Wm. A. Ohley, secretary of state of the state of West Virginia, hereby certify that an agreement duly acknowledged and accompanied by the proper affidavits, has been this day delivered to me, which agreement is in the words and figures following:

This is to certify that we, J. Floyd King, Edward R. Ames, Thomas S. Johnson, Lloyd C. Spoul and Mulford W. Hayward, do hereby agree to become a corporation, and do hereby associate ourselves into a company under and by virtue of the statutes of the state of West Virginia relating to the formation of corporations and joint stock companies, for the purposes hereinafter mentioned, and to that end we do by this our certificate set forth:

First. That the name which we have assumed to designate said company, and to be used in its business and dealings, is "National Gas Investment Company."

Second. That the purposes of said corporation and the kind of business to be carried on by it are as follows:

Manufacturing, generating, dealing in, furnishing and supplying electricity, gas, light, heat and power, and also the carrying on of any and all other business in any wise appertaining to or connected with the manufacturing, generating, distributing and furnishing of electricity and gas, for heat, power, light and signal purposes, including the transaction of any and all business in which electricity and gas, artificial or natural, is now or hereafter may be useful or utilized.

And also all matters incidental or necessary to the distribution of light, heat and power, or the means by which light, heat and power are or may hereafter be produced, conducted or utilized.

And also the manufacture, production, sale and supply of all and every kind of light, heat and power in every way, manner and by every means not prohibited by the laws of the state of West Virginia to corporations organized under the laws of the state, including the owning, acquiring, leasing, buying, selling, operating, licensing and introducing any and all patents, improvements and articles for producing, utilizing and transmitting gas, electricity, light, heat or power

And also the manufacturing, selling and dealing in any and all the articles or appliances used in or which may be required or deemed advisable for or in connection with the manufacture, distribution or utilization of the foregoing or any wise appertaining thereto or connected therewith.

And also the doing of any and all other things, and the carrying on of any and all other business operations which may be necessary and advisable in connection therewith, and which are or may be authorized by the laws of the state of West Virginia. Excepting always and excluding from the foregoing provisions, and each and every one thereof, such matters as are prohibited by law to corporations formed under this act.

Third. That said corporation shall keep its principal office or place of business at the city of New York, in the county of New York, and state of New York.

Fourth. The period at which the said company shall terminate and expire is the 15th day of July, 1940.

Fifth. And for the purpose of forming the said corporation, we have subscribed the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) to the capital thereof, and have paid in on the said subscription the sum of fifty dollars, and desire the privilege of increasing the said capital by the sale of additional shares from time to time, to five million dollars ($5,000,000) in all.

The capital so subscribed is divided into shares of one hundred dollars ($100) each, which are held by the undersigned respectively, as follows, that is to say:

- J. Floyd King, New York, N. Y., one share.
- Edward R. Ames, Brooklyn, N. Y., one share.
- Thomas S. Johnson, Brooklyn, N. Y., one share.
- Lloyd C. Sproul, New York, N. Y., one share.
- Mulford W. Hayward, New York, N. Y., one share.

And the capital to be hereafter sold is to be divided into shares of the like amount.

Given under our hands, this seventeenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

JOHN FLOYD KING,
LLOYD C. SPROUL,
EDW. R. AMES,
THOMAS S. JOHNSON,
MULFORD W. HAYWARD.

Wherefore, the corporators named in the said agreement, and who have signed the same, and their successors and assigns, are hereby declared to be from this date until the fifteenth day of July, nineteen hundred and forty, a corporation by the name and for the purposes set forth in said agreement.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the said [G. S.] state, at the city of Charleston, this twenty-first day of July, eighteen hundred and ninety.

WM. A. OHLEY,

WM. A. OHLEY,
Secretary of State.

THE DEWING BOOM AND IMPROVEMENT COMPANY.

DOMESTIC.

I, Wm. A. Ohley, secretary of state of the state of West Virginia, hereby certify that an agreement duly acknowledged and accompanied by the proper affidavits, has been this day delivered to me, which agreement is in the words and figures following:

First—The undersigned agree to become a corporation by the name of "The Dewing Boom and Improvement Company."

Second—The proposed corporation is organized for the purpose of constructing and maintaining a boom or booms, with or without piers or splash dams, or both, across Cheat river, and the Shavers Fork of Cheat river, in the counties of Randolph, Tucker and Preston, in the state of West Virginia, and for the purpose of improving Cheat river and the "Shavers Fork" of Cheat river, by blasting and removing rock, cutting brush, making fills and doing such other things as may be necessary to make said river and the "Shavers Fork" of said river navigable for logs, in the counties of Randolph, Tucker and Preston, and for the purpose of constructing, maintaining and operating saw mills; for the manufacture of logs into lumber, and for the purpose of buying, leasing and holding such lands as may be necessary to accomplish the objects of this corporation.

This corporation will construct and maintain such booms or splash dams, or both, in Cheat river and the "Shavers Fork" of Cheat river, in either or all of the counties of Randolph, Tucker and Preston, to-wit: in the county of Randolph at or within two miles of the place where the "Staunton and Parkersburgh" turnpike crosses the Shavers Fork of Cheat river at or within two miles of the "Big Falls," on said Shavers Fork of Cheat river; at or within two miles of the place where "Fishing Hawk" creek empties into Shavers Fork of Cheat river; at or within two miles of the place where the Pond Lick Run empties into the Shavers Fork of Cheat river; at or within two miles of "Allenders Mill," on Shavers Fork of Cheat river.

And in the county of Tucker, at or within two miles of the place where "Haddix Creek" empties into the Shavers Fork of Cheat river, at or within two miles of the place where the Shavers Fork of Cheat river empties into Cheat river, about one mile below the town of Parsons, and at or near the place where the Horse Shoe Run empties into Cheat river; or at any one or more, or at all of said described places, we will establish and maintain the proposed booms or splash dams, or both booms and splash dams, and will remove rocks, brush and all obstructions in said river or the Shavers Fork thereof, and do any or all things necessary to make said Cheat river and the Shavers Fork of Cheat river navigable for logs from the place where the county line, between the counties of Randolph and Pocahontas crosses the Shavers Fork of Cheat river, down through the counties of Randolph and Tucker to where the Shavers Fork unites with the Black Fork and form Cheat river; and down said Cheat river, through the counties of Tucker and Preston to the county line between the counties of Preston and Monongalia, at the place where said line crosses said Cheat river.

Third—This corporation will establish and keep its principal office at Beverly, in the county of Randolph, and state of West Virginia, with branch offices at such other places as may be necessary for the transaction of the business of said corporation.

Fourth—The said corporation will begin business on the first day of September, 1890, and will continue thereafter until the first day of September, 1920.

Fifth—The amount of capital stock of said corporation is $500.00, divided into shares of the par value each of $100.00, of which said capital stock the sum of $500.00 has been paid in by the stockholders. And said corporation reserves the privilege of increasing the capital stock hereof, to the sum of $100,000.00 by the issuing and selling of additional shares thereof from time to time, as it may become necessary.

Sixth—The names and place of residence of the several persons forming this corporation, and the number of shares subscribed by each, and hereby subscribed for, are as follows:

W. S. Dewing, Kalamazoo, Michigan, one share.

Charles A. Dewing, Kalamazoo, Michigan, one share.

James H. Dewing, Kalamazoo, Michigan, one share.

Jane A. Dewing, Kalamazoo, Michigan, one share.

James H. Mills, Kalamazoo, Michigan, one share.

And that the whole of said stock, or the sum of $500.00, has been paid in by said stockholders.

Given under our hands, this first day of July, 1890.

W. S. DEWING,
CHARLES A. DEWING,
JAMES H. DEWING,
JANE A. DEWING,
J. H. MILL.

Wherefore, the corporators named in the said agreement, and who have signed the same, and their successors and assigns, are hereby declared to be from this date until the first day of September, nineteen hundred and twenty, a corporation by the name and for the purposes set forth in said agreement.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the said state, [G. S.] at the city of Charleston, this twenty-eighth day of August, eighteen hundred and ninety.

WM. A. OHLEY,

accompanied by the proper affidavits, has been this day delivered to me, which agreement is in the words and figures following:

The undersigned agree to become a corporation by the name of Pan-American Banking and Trust Company, for the purpose of establishing, conducting and maintaining in the principal cities of the United States, and in the Republic of Mexico and elsewhere, an institution for the following purposes:

To receive deposits of money, stocks, bonds, mortgages, deeds, wills and other securities, and other kinds of valuable personal property and evidences thereof, from any state, body politic, municipal or other corporation, association or person for the safekeeping thereof, and for this purpose to own real estate and construct buildings and fire, burglar proof rooms, vaults, safes and boxes, for the deposit and safekeeping of papers, securities, plate, jewels and other valuable personal property, and for renting the use of the same.

To act as the fiscal, or transfer, or other agent or attorney in fact of any state, municipality, body politic, association or person, and in such capacity to receive and disburse money, and transfer, register and countersign certificates of stock, bonds, or other evidence of indebtedness; to purchase and sell stocks, bonds and other personal property on commission, and to do a general brokerage business; to buy and sell bills of exchange, emit letters of credit, and to take, accept and execute all legal trusts and commissions, in regard to the purchase, holding, management, sale and disposition of any estate or property, real or personal, and the rents, issues and profits thereof.

To act as agents for any and all persons, firms or companies for the purpose of loaning or investing money upon real estate or other securities, or for the payment of such loans, and to do any other lawful business which may be granted or confided to it by any person, association, corporation, municipality or other legal authority. To charge such rents, fees or commissions as may be agreed upon, or in absence of any agreement, such as are just; and to loan funds belonging to the company, or entrusted to it on personal or real estate security; to discount notes and bills of exchange, and receive interest in advance; to receive funds or money on deposit, and give certificates therefor.

For manufacturing all articles of merchandise or traffic, and constructing buildings for the same, and for mining, shipping and transporting minerals, and smelting and reducing the same, and buying, selling and leasing mineral or other lands as authorized by the laws of the state of West Virginia, together with all appliances and machinery used for any of said purposes.

For buying, breeding, pasturing and dealing in cattle, horses and other live stock, and the buying, owning, selling and leasing water rights, range rights, mill rights, and other rights, franchises and privileges whatsoever; the buying, and leasing and operating ranches and farms, not in conflict with the laws of the state of West Virginia, the killing, curing, refrigerating and transporting the product of live stock.

The construction of railroads, bridges, buildings and other public or private improvements, and the manufacturing, selling and dealing in machinery, appliances and materials used in the same. The building, owning, leasing and using motive power, cars, barges, boats and other means of transportation of passengers or property by water, rail or other means of carriage; and the furnishing of motive power for manufacturing and commercial purposes, together with all elevators, docks, piers and convenient structures for carrying on commerce.

To carry on the business, of life, fire, marine, accident, steam boiler and plate glass insurance; the guaranty of title to real and personal property, and the guaranty of fidelity and solvency of individuals, and to become security on the bonds of public or private officers, agents or clerks, holding positions of trust or confidence.

To conduct the business of a mercantile agency and obtain reports as to the financial standing of corporations, firms and individuals.

For constructing and maintaining lines of magnetic telegraph, telephone, lines of piping or tubing for the transportation of oils or other fluids, and carrying on the business properly pertaining to such improvements.

For establishing hotels and springs companies, gas works, electric light plants, water works, building and loan associations, and transacting the business properly pertaining thereto.

For establishing agricultural and industrial societies and in conducting their business to do nothing contrary to the laws of the state of West Virginia.

Which corporation shall keep its principal office or place of business at Kansas City, in the county of Jackson, and state of Missouri, and its principal branch office in the City of Mexico, Republic of Mexico, with such other branches as may be established from time to time elsewhere, and is to expire on the third day of September, 1940. And for the purpose of forming the said corporation, we have subscribed the sum of one hundred thousand dollars to the capital thereof, and have paid in on said subscriptions the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, and desire the privilege of increasing the said capital, by the sale of additional shares from time to time, to five million ($5,000,000.00) dollars in all.

The capital so subscribed is divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, which are held by the undersigned respectively, as follows, that is to say: By

ELKINS HOTEL COMPANY.

DOMESTIC.

I, Wm. A. Ohley, secretary of state of the state of West Virginia, hereby certify that an agreement duly acknowledged and accompanied by the proper affidavits, has been this day delivered to me, which agreement is in the words and figures following:

The undersigned agree to become a corporation by the name of "Elkins Hotel Company," for the purpose of building a hotel in the town of Elkins, in Randolph county, W. Va., and leasing or operating the same; and making other improvements connected therewith.

Which corporation shall keep its principal office or place of business at Elkins, in the county of Randolph, and state of West Virginia, and is to expire on the first day of January, 1940. And for the purpose of forming the said corporation, we have subscribed the sum of ten thousand ($10,000.00) dollars to the capital thereof, and have paid in on said subscriptions the sum of two thousand ($2,000.00) dollars, and desire the privilege of increasing the said capital, by the sale of additional shares from time to time, to thirty thousand ($30,000.00) dollars in all.

The capital so subscribed is divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, which are held by the undersigned respectively, as follows; that is to say: By

H. G. Davis, Piedmont, W. Va., twenty-four shares.

S. B. Elkins, Elkins, W. Va., twenty-five shares.

R. C. Kerens, St. Louis, Mo., twenty-five shares.

T. B. Davis, Keyser, W. Va., twenty-five shares.

W. J. Armstrong, Elkins, W. Va., one share.

And the capital to be hereafter sold is to be divided into shares of the like amount.

Given under our hands, this 11th day of August, 1890.

H. G. DAVIS,

S. B. ELKINS,

R. C. KERENS,

T. B. DAVIS,

W. J. ARMSTRONG.

Wherefore, the corporators named in the said agreement, and who have signed the same, and their successors and assigns, are hereby declared to be from this date until the first day of January, nineteen hundred and forty, a corporation by the name and for the purposes set forth in said agreement.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the said state [G. S.] at the city of Charleston, this eleventh day of September, eighteen hundred and ninety.

WM. A. OHLEY,
Secretary of State.

THE NORTH AMERICAN MINING COMPANY.

FOREIGN.

Amendment to Charter.

I, Wm. A. Ohley, secretary of state of the state of West Virginia, hereby certify that a resolution and new agreement, adopted at a meeting of the stockholders of the North American Mining Company, and signed and acknowledged by a majority of the stockholders of said company holding a majority of the stock thereof, have been certified to me by David T. Alger, president of the said company, under the corporate seal thereof, which resolution and new agreement are in the words and figures following:

Resolved, That whereas.

We, the undersigned, did associate ourselves, on the 24th day of June, 1890, for the formation of a corporation under the name and style of the North American Mining Company, in accordance with the statutes of the state of West Virginia, the agreement of incorporation of which company was in due form of law filed in said state as attested by the certificate of the secretary of state of West Virginia, dated the 27th day of June, 1890, and desiring now for the more perfect execution of the objects of such company, to amend the said agreement of incorporation as provided in the statutes of said state, we, composing a majority of the stockholders holding a majority of the stock of said company, do now resolve:

I. The name and style of the said corporation shall continue to be the North American Mining Company.

II. The business of said company is to be conducted at the city of New York, in the State of New York, in the United States of America, and at Hidalgo del Paral, in the State of Chihuahua, in the Republic of Mexico, and also at such other places or localities in the United States of America or in the Republic of Mexico or elsewhere, as the interests of the company may from time to time demand.

III. The objects for which said company is formed are as follows:

To acquire, hold and manage coal, iron, timber and oil properties and rights, operating the same and dealing in other products; mining silver, gold and other ores, and working and manufacturing the same in any and all of the various branches, forms, articles and things for which they are or may be used or employed, using any processes; hydraulic or otherwise; for obtaining the ores and smelting, stamping or other means for abstracting the metal therefrom; mining coal, iron, silver, gold, fire clay, and vending the same, developing and working minerals, chemicals, timber, wood, rock, grain, oil and other products of land and soil, as shall by said company be deemed advisable, and transporting and vending the same; owning, leasing and employing machinery, tools and appliances relating to or essential, or convenient to the carrying on the above mentioned purposes; or owning or dealing in any patent rights pertaining to the same; licensing others thereunder if desirable; owning, navigating and running towboats and barges, or other conveyances in connection with its business, purchasing and holding coal, iron, timber and other mineral lands, in fee simple or otherwise, with power to lease and use the same for any and all purposes not prohibited by law; doing a general merchandise and all other things not prohibited by law, that may be regarded by said company as essential, necessary, incidental or auxiliary to the proper management of the above mentioned business; or to the complete use and enjoyment of such real estate as may be owned or possessed by said company; and generally to do and perform any or all of the matters aforesaid, and all other acts or things, which in the judgment of this company, may be requisite for its purposes, or incidental thereto, either alone or in conjunction with any other corporation or person, and that by amalgamation or otherwise.

IV. The said company shall maintain in the state of West Virginia an agent empowered to represent it before the general and local authorities, tribunals and courts of that state, and with such special powers as are required by the law of that state.

V. The total amount of the capital stock of the said company shall be two million five hundred thousand ($2,500,000) dollars, which shall be divided into 100,000 shares of $25.00 each, and which shall be issued at such times and in such amounts as the stockholders of the company shall determine, and such stock, or any portion thereof, may be lawfully issued as full paid stock, for cash or to the amount of the value of property, rights or interests, and shall be non assessable. And the said total amount of two millions five hundred thousand ($2,500,000) dollars of capital stock may by proper deliberation of the stockholders be increased to such lawful sum as the operations of the company may in the future demand.

VI. The said company shall from time to time establish such by-laws for the government and administration of the same as it may deem necessary or advisable, and the directors of the said company to be chosen pursuant to such by-laws, shall be vested with the sole, exclusive and absolute management and control of the company, its property, business and affairs, except as otherwise provided by law, and said directors shall have full power and authority to do any and all of the acts and things specified or contemplated in this instrument of association.

VII. The duration of the said company shall be, as provided in the original certificate of incorporation thereof, until the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and forty.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands, this 8th day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

WM. A. OHLEY,
Secretary of State

POTOMAC, BLACKWATER AND GREENBRIER VALLEY
 RAILROAD COMPANY.

DOMESTIC.

I, Wm. A. Ohley, secretary of state of the state of West Virginia, do hereby certify that articles of incorporation duly signed and acknowledged have this day been recorded in my office, which articles of incorporation are in the words and figures following:

We, whose names are hereto subscribed, desiring to become a corporation for the purpose of constructing and operating a railroad in the state of West Virginia, do hereby adopt these articles of incorporation for that purpose:

First—The name of the corporation shall be the Potomac, Blackwater and Greenbrier Valley Railroad Company.

Second—The railroad which this corporation proposes to build will commence at or near the town of Romney, in Hampshire county, and run thence by the most practicable route southerly through Hampshire county, along the South Branch of the Potomac river to the town of Petersburg, in Grant county; or the said railroad will commence at a point on the Potomac river, opposite the city of Cumberland, in Maryland, or nearly at said point, and run thence by the most practicable route along the Valley of Patterson's creek, through Mineral and Grant counties, southerly to the town of Petersburg aforesaid, at the junction of the North Fork of the South Branch of the Potomac river, with said South Branch of the Potomac river, or by portions of said two routes as shall be found most advantageous upon survey. From the said town of Petersburg the said railroad will run by the most practicable route along the said North Fork of the South Branch of the Potomac river, through Grant and Pendleton counties, to a point on the dividing line between Pendleton and Pocahontas counties, or as near said dividing line as may be practicable, and at or near the northeastern corner formed by the junction of the boundaries of Randolph, Pendleton and Pocahontas counties; from which said point the northwestern branch of the main line of said railroad will run into and through Randolph county, by the most practicable route along the Dry Fork or other tributary of Cheat river, to the town of Bretz, in Tucker county, on the Big Blackwater river. From the aforesaid point at or near the junction of the boundaries of Randolph, Pendleton and Pocahontas counties, the southern branch of the main line of said railroad will run by the most practicable route to the headwaters of the Greenbrier river, in Pocahontas county, and thence along the valley of said Greenbrier river, southerly through Pocahontas and Greenbrier counties, by the most practicable route to a point at or near White Sulphur Springs, in said Greenbrier county; and from a point at or near Marlin's Bottom, or other convenient central point in Pocahontas county, an eastern branch of the main line will run by the most practicable route to the Virginia state line. This corporation also proposes to construct branches and lateral railroads along the Cheat river, and the tributaries thereof; along the tributaries of the South Branch of the Potomac, and of the North Fork thereof; and along the various branches and tributaries of the Greenbrier river as shall be found most advantageous and feasible, upon survey.

Third—The principal business of this corporation will be located at New York City, in the state of New York.

Fourth—This corporation shall continue perpetually.

Fifth—The capital stock of this company shall be two million dollars, divided into shares of one hundred dollars each.

Sixth—The names and places of residence of the persons forming this corporation, and the number of shares subscribed for by each, are as follows:

Sydney H. Shadbolt, New York City, ten shares.

Ralph Bainbridge, New York City, ten shares.

Thomas B. Jones, New York City, ten shares.

Alex. McBean, New York City, ten shares.

John M. Waddle, New York City, ten shares.

In testimony whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and affixed our seals, this eighth day of October, A. D., one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

SYDNEY H. SHADBOLT, [Seal]

RALPH BAINBRIDGE, [Seal]

THOMAS B. JONES, [Seal]

ALEX. McBEAN, [Seal]

JOHN M. WADDLE, [Seal]

Wherefore, the corporators named in said articles of incorporation, and who signed the same, and their successors and assigns, are hereby declared to be a corporation by the name, for the purpose and for the length of time set forth in said articles of incorporation.

[G. S.] Given under my hand and the great seal of the said state, at the seat of government thereof, this eleventh day of October, eighteen hundred and ninety.

WM. A. OHLEY,

DEBENTURE GUARANTEE AND ASSURANCE COMPANY
OF GREAT BRITAIN AND AMERICA.—INCREASE OF STOCK.

FOREIGN.

I, Wm. A. Ohley, secretary of state of the state of West Virginia, do hereby certify that Lew Wallace, Jr., President of the "Debenture Guarantee and Assurance Company of Great Britain and America," a corporation created under the laws of this state, has certified to me, under his hand and the corporate seal of said company, attested by the signature of Charles B. Ludwig, its secretary, that at a meeting of the stockholders of the said company, held on the 4th day of August, 1890, at 72 Broadway, in the city and state of New York, pursuant to a notice published for four successive weeks, in conformity with law, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted, all of the stock of the said company being represented by the holders thereof, either in person or by proxy, and voting unanimously for their adoption:

"WHEREAS, It has become expedient to increase the capital stock of this company from 5,000 shares of $100 each, to 10,000 shares of $100 each; and also to resolve all doubts about the construction of article third of the by-laws of the company; be it

"Resolved, by the unanimous vote of all the stockholders, that the capital stock of this company be increased to 10,000 shares, each of the par value of one hundred dollars, of which seven thousand shares shall be common, ordinary or deferred, and three thousand shares shall be preferred; and

"Resolved, That section one of article third of the by-laws of this company shall be amended to read as follows:

"Section I. The capital stock of this company shall be one million ($1,000,000) dollars, divided into shares of one hundred ($100) dollars each, making ten thousand shares in all, of which three thousand shares shall be preferred as provided in this article, and seven thousand shares shall be deferred or common stock; and this stock may be increased, from time to time, to an amount not exceeding five million dollars, or fifty thousand shares in all, by a majority vote of the stockholders present, and voting in person or by proxy at any stockholders' meeting, duly called for that purpose by publication of notice as required by the statute governing such matter; provided, however, that the proportion of preferred to deferred stock, and the terms and provisions of preference shall not be changed from those provided in this by-law; and provided also, that, except to increase the capital stock, this by-law can be amended or altered only by the unanimous consent of the stockholders of all the stock of this company outstanding at the time of such amendment or alteration, voting in person or by proxy at a regular or special meeting after one week's notice that such action will be proposed, has been given either personally or by mail to the respective addresses of the stockholders, as the same appear on the books of the company."

And the said president of the said company certifies that the said five thousand additional shares of the capital stock of the said company, each of one hundred dollars, was subscribed for by Charles B. Ludwig, trustee, and paid for in cash.

Wherefore, I do declare said resolution and subscription to stock to be authorized by law.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the said state, [G. S.] at the city of Charleston, this eighteenth day of October, eighteen hundred and ninety.

INVESTORS SECURITY AND ACCOUNTING COMPANY.—
NEW AGREEMENT.

FOREIGN.

I, Wm, A. Ohley, secretary of state of the state of West Virginia, hereby certify that E. H. Talbott, president of the "Investors Security and Accounting Company," a corporation created under the laws of this state, has certified to me, under his hand and the corporate seal of said company, attested by the signature of J. C. Wilson, Jr., its secretary, a resolution and new agreement, enlarging the purposes and objects of said corporation, adopted at a meeting of the stockholders thereof, especially called therefor, and signed and acknowledged in the manner prescribed by law, which resolution, new agreement and certificate are in the words and figures following:

"WHEREAS, The stockholders of the Investors Security and Accounting Company, a corporation created under the laws of the state of West Virginia, desire to adopt a new agreement, enlarging the objects and purposes for which said corporation was organized, so as to enable the said corporation, in addition to transacting the business provided for in said agreement, to transact the business of promoting, constructing, maintaining, owning and operating lines of steam, electric or street railway, and other works of public or internal improvements, in any part of North, Central or South America, or making contracts, borrowing money and negotiating securities for these purposes; and,

"WHEREAS, We, the stockholders of the Investors Security and Accounting Company, on this first day of October, 1890, are now in meeting assembled at the principal office of the company, in the city and state of New York, specially called for the purpose of agreeing to and adopting a new agreement so as to enlarge the objects and purposes for which said corporation was formed; and,

"WHEREAS, There is now represented in this meeting a majority of all the stockholders of said company, holding a majority of all the capital stock thereof; and,

"WHEREAS, Each of the stockholders of said corporation have had due notice of this meeting and the purposes for which it was called; Now therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the stockholders of the Investors Security and Accounting Company agree to and adopt a new agreement, enlarging the purposes and objects for which said corporation was organized, to-wit: using the language of the original agreement down to and including the word 'corporations' where it first occurs in the statement of purposes for which the corporation was formed, and inserting thereafter and before the words 'of representing railways and other corporations, etc.,' the words, 'of promoting, constructing, maintaining, owning and operating lines of steam, electric or street railway, or other works of public or internal improvement, in any part of North, Central or South America; of making contracts, borrowing money and negotiating securities for these purposes,' so that the new agreement for the enlargement of the purposes of the corporation shall read as follows:

"The undersigned agree to become a corporation by the name of 'The Investors' Security and Accounting Company,' for the purpose of examining into the merits of such railway, mining and other industrial enterprises or properties as offer opportunity for investments; of bringing the same to the attention of capitalists; of representing investors; of bringing them into contact with investments; of acting as fiscal agent or trustee for individuals, firms or corporations; of promoting, constructing, maintaining, owning and operating lines of steam, electric or street railway, and other works of public or internal improvement, in any part of North, Central or South America; of making contracts, borrowing money and negotiating securities for these purposes; of representing railway and other corporations, also individuals and firms, as their financial or business agents, or as registrar of their stock or bonds in the city of New York and elsewhere; of dealing in, taking the title to, or acquiring, either absolutely or as trustee, and of transferring, holding and owning the stock or bonds of either corporations or joint stock companies, and of doing, executing, and performing all such other lawful acts and things as are necessary or proper to the exercise of the powers and purposes hereinbefore enumerated, or such as are incidental thereto, including the power to report upon the condition and value of properties, and to render accountings as to the financial or physical condition and affairs of individuals, firms or corporations, and to employ for that purpose skilled experts and accountants.'"

OF STOCK.

FOREIGN.

I, Wm. A. Ohley, secretary of state of the state of West Virginia, do hereby certify that Lew Wallace, Jr., president of the "Debenture Guarantee and Assurance Company of Great Britain and America," a corporation created under the laws of this state, has certified to me, under his hand and the corporate seal of said company, attested by the signature of Charles B. Ludwig, its secretary, that at a meeting of the incorporators thereof, held on the 30th day of April, 1890, and prior to the organization of said company, each incorporator being present in person, following agreement was made and executed:

"NEW YORK, APRIL 30TH, 1890.

"We, the undersigned, incorporators of the Debenture Guarantee and Assurance Company of Great Britain and America, do hereby agree that waiving notice we do now meet at No. 72 Broadway, in the city of New York, to do all things which, as incorporators, we may and ought to do, under the laws of the state of West Virginia, before the organization of said company, and to further assist such organization.

“And we do hereby agree that 4,990 additional shares of the capital stock of this company shall be sold, at private sale, at No. 72 Broadway, in the city of New York, between the hours of 10 o'clock in the morning and 2 o'clock in the afternoon, of the first day of May, 1890, said stock to be sold at not less than par, and to be paid for in cash, and said sale to be made under the direction and superintendence of Leonard G. Levy, who is hereby appointed to make said sale, and authorized to do all things necessary and proper in connection therewith.

“In witness of which agreement the undersigned have hereunto set their hands, this 30th day of April 1890.”

This is to certify, that we, the undersigned, agree to become a corporation, under the statutes of the state of West Virginia, relating to the formation of corporations and joint stock companies.

First—The name we have assumed to designate the company, and to be used in its business and dealings, is The New York and London Underwriters Contract Company, Limited.

Second—First: That the objects for which this company is formed are to act as agents, trustees, receivers, liquidators, managers, brokers, attorneys, or referees, or any other situation of trust or confidence, in respect to the establishment and promotion of companies and associations, for the acquisition, prosecution and execution of undertakings, businesses, works, projects, and enterprises of any description in England or elsewhere.

Second—To guarantee and investigate the statements by the owners as to the standing, profits, assets and conduct of undertakings, businesses, works, projects, and enterprises of every description in the United States of America, England and Canada, or elsewhere.

Third—To examine and inquire into, search for, prospect, explore, and obtain information, with respect to any business, property or undertakings, mines or freehold property, and report on the same in the United States of America, England and Canada, or elsewhere.

Fourth—To establish and promote, or assist in establishing or promoting, companies and associations for the acquisition, prosecution and execution of undertakings, business works, projects, and enterprises of any description in the United States of America, England, Canada, or elsewhere; and to acquire, hold, dispose, and deal in any shares and interest in such companies or associations, or in any other companies or associations, or undertakings thereof.

Fifth—To purchase or take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, rights, franchises, or privileges which this company may think suitable or convenient for any of the purposes of its business.

Sixth—To pay out of the funds of the company all expenses of or incidental to the examination and information in respect to any property, business, and undertaking of this or any company, and the issue of its shares, stocks, obligations or securities, including brokerage and commissions for obtaining such properties, or placing of its shares, or underwriting shares, debentures or otherwise, under the American or English laws, severally or jointly.

Seventh—To promote or establish, and in any way to assist in promoting and establishing agencies; to establish, and promote and bring out or issue any company, syndicate, association, or partnership, whether public or private, in the United States of America, Canada or England.

Eighth—To enter into any arrangement with any government or authorities, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the company may think desirable to obtain, and which may seem conducive to any of the objects of the company.

Ninth—Generally to undertake and transact any of the business of merchant, capitalist, financial agent, trustee, or promoter, which seem conducive to any of the objects of the company.

Tenth—To issue any new or original shares of the company, as fully paid or in part paid up, with power to increase the capital by the creation of new shares.

Eleventh—To raise money by the issue of debenture bonds and debenture stock, or otherwise, in such manner as the company may think fit.

Twelfth—To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principals, agents, trustees, contractors or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through sub-contractors, agents, trustees, contractors or otherwise.

Thirteenth—To draw, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue bills of exchange, promissory notes to be used in the business.

Fourteenth—The liability of the members is limited.

Fifteenth—The above mentioned business may also be carried on out of this state, in the above mentioned places, and elsewhere in the United States of America, Canada and England.

Third—First: The principal office or place of business of said company is in the city of New York, state of New York, and is to expire on the 15th day of October, nineteen hundred and forty.

Second—For the purpose of forming said corporation, we have subscribed the sum of five hundred dollars to the capital thereof, and have paid in on said subscription the sum of fifty dollars, and desire the privilege of increasing the said capital, by the sale of additional shares from time to time, to five millions of dollars ($5,000,000) in all.

SOUTHWESTERN CONSTRUCTION COMPANY—CHANGE OF NAME TO THE SOUTHWESTERN COMPANY, AND PURPOSES ENLARGED.

FOREIGN.

I, Wm. A. Ohley, secretary of state of the state of West Virginia, hereby certify that a resolution and new agreement, adopted at a meeting of the stockholders of the "Southwestern Construction Company," (a corporation created and formed under the laws of this state) changing the name and enlarging the purposes and objects of said company, and signed and acknowledged in the manner prescribed by law, have been duly certified to me by all the stockholders, representing the entire capital stock of said "Southwestern Construction Company."

Which certificate, resolution and new agreement are in the words and figures following:

We, the undersigned, John K. Creevey, Joseph A. Scaver, William J. McPherson, Robert D. Murray and George R. Davidson, representing the entire capital stock of the Southwestern Construction Company, do hereby certify that at a meeting of the said Southwestern Construction Company, held at the city of New York, on the 8th day of September, 1890, the following resolution was duly adopted by all the corporators and stockholders of said company:

"WHEREAS, The secretary of state of the state of West Virginia has issued to the Southwestern Construction Company to agree to and adopt a new agreement, so as to change the name of the said Southwestern Construction Company to the Southwestern Company, and to embrace among the objects and purposes of the said corporation in addition to those mentioned in the agreement dated August 18th, 1890, a copy of which is embodied in said certificate of incorporation; and

"WHEREAS, It is deemed expedient by the corporators and stockholders of the said Southwestern Construction Company to agree to and adopt a new agreement, so as to change the name of the said Southwestern Construction Company to the Southwestern Company, and to embrace among the objects and purposes of the said corporation, in addition to those mentioned in the said agreement dated August 18th, 1890, the acquiring, leasing and selling of rolling stock and equipment; the issuing and negotiating of the securities of the said Southwestern Company, and the negotiating and guaranteeing of the securities issued by other corporations; and also to provide that the said company shall have the privilege of increasing its capital, by the sale of additional shares from time to time, to one million dollars ($1,000,000) in all. And

“WHEREAS, A meeting of the corporators and stockholders of said Southwestern Construction Company has been duly called for the purpose of adopting said new agreement; and

“WHEREAS, All the said corporators and stockholders have also duly received and waived notice of said meeting; and

“WHEREAS, The corporators and stockholders of said Southwestern Construction Company, representing the entire amount of the capital stock of said company, have agreed to enter into a new agreement, as aforesaid.

“Now, therefore, it is unanimously

“Resolved, That the stockholders of the said Southwestern Construction Company hereby agree to and adopt a new agreement in lieu and instead of the agreement heretofore entered into between the corporators and stockholders of said Southwestern Construction Company, dated August 18th, 1890, a copy of which is embodied in the certificate of incorporation of the said Southwestern Construction Company issued by the secretary of state of the state of West Virginia, under date of August 27th, 1890, which said new agreement reads as follows:

The undersigned agree to become a corporation by the name of the Southwestern Company, for the purpose of constructing, maintaining, owning and operating, as authorized by law, lines of railway and other works of internal improvement in the states of Missouri, Kansas and Texas, and in the Indian Territory, and elsewhere, in the the southern and southwestern parts of the United States, and in Mexico; of making contracts, borrowing money and negotiating securities for the purposes aforesaid, and for purchasing and owning lines of railway and the stocks and bonds of railway, construction and other companies, and of holding, operating and transferring the same, as authorized by law, and of acquiring, leasing and selling rolling stock and equipment; of issuing and negotiating the securities of the said Southwestern Company, and of negotiating and guaranteeing the securities issued by other corporations, as authorized by law, and of doing all and every the things proper, necessary and incident thereto.

Which corporation shall keep its principal office or place of business at the city of New York, in the county of New York, and state of New York, and is to expire on the 18th day of August, 1940. The undersigned agree to become a corporation by the name of The Columbian Construction and Improvement Company, for the purpose of establishing, conducting and maintaining, in the Republic of Columbia, and other parts of South and Central America, an institution for the following purposes :

To receive deposits of money, stocks, bonds, mortgages, deeds, wills and other securities, and other kinds of valuable personal property and evidences thereof, from any state, body politic, municipal or other corporation, association, or person, for the safe keeping thereof; and for this purpose to own real estate, to construct buildings and fire and burglar proof rooms, vaults, safes and boxes for the deposit and safe keeping of papers, securities, plate, jewels and other valuable personal property, and for renting the use of the same. The construction of all railroads, bridges, buildings and all other public or private improvements, and the manufacturing, selling and dealing in machinery, appliances and materials used in the same. The building, owning, leasing and using motive power, cars, barges, boats and all other means of transportation of passengers or property by water, rail or other means of carriage; and the furnishing of motive power for manufacturing and commercial purposes, together with all the elevators, docks, piers and other convenient structures for carrying on commerce. For constructing and maintaining lines of magnetic or electric telegraph, telephones; or lines of piping or tubing for the transportation of oils or other fluids, and carrying on the business properly pertaining to such improvements. For purchasing, operating, maintaining, leasing or renting mines of all kinds of minerals, jewels and precious stones of all kinds.

For engaging in the purchase and sale of all articles or substances of value grown, indigenous, or capable of being produced in said territory, including all kinds of woods, barks, and similar articles.

To obtain, own, hold, use, exploit and sell all concessions obtained from the government of any of the states of South and Central America, or from any other political body or corporation, necessary or useful in connection with any of the above purposes.

To manufacture any and all of the above metals and other articles in the various products thereof.

To act as the fiscal, or transfer, or other agent and attorney, in fact, of any state, municipality, body politic, association, or person, within such territories, and in such capacity to receive and disburse money; and transfer and register and countersign certificates of stock, bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness; to purchase and sell stocks, bonds and other personal property on commission, and do a general brokerage business; to buy and sell bills of exchange, emit letters of credit, to take, accept and execute all legal trusts and commissions in regard to the purchase, holding, management, sale and disposition of any estate or property, real or personal, and the rents, issues, profits and incomes thereof.

To act as agents for any and all persons, firms, companies, corporations (national, municipal or otherwise), for the purpose of loaning or investing money upon real estate or other securities, or for the payment of such loans; and to do any other lawful business which may be granted or confided to it by any such person, association, corporation, or other legal authority. To charge such rents, fees or commissions as may be agreed upon, or as are just and reasonable for the services rendered.

To loan the funds belonging to the company or entrusted to it on security of real or personal estate; to discount notes and bills of exchange, and to receive interest and discount in advance; to receive funds or money on deposit and give certificates therefor.

To manufacture all articles of merchandise or traffic, and construct buildings for said purposes, and for all purposes connected with mining, shipping and transporting minerals or smelting and reducing the same, and to buy, sell and lease mineral or other mines, as far as authorized by the laws of the state of West Virginia, together with all appliances and machinery necessary or proper for any of said purposes.

To buy, breed, pasture and deal in cattle, horses and other live stock; and to buy, own sell and lease lands for agricultural and other purposes, and all water rights, range rights, mill rights and other rights, franchises and privileges whatsoever, in so far as such rights do not conflict with the laws of the state of West Virginia.

To carry on the business of life, fire, marine, steam boiler, plate glass and other insurance, as well as the business of guaranteeing titles to real and personal property. To mortgage, for such sum of money as the directors may deem necessary or advisable, all the assets, real or personal, and all the rights, concessions, franchises and grants of such corporation. To conduct the business of a mercantile agency; to obtain reports as to the financial standing of corporations, firms and individuals, and supplying such information to its customers.

To establish hotels and spring companies, gas works, electric light plants, water works, building and loan associations, and transacting all business pertaining to any of said branches.

For establishing agricultural and industrial societies, in so far as the same do not conflict with the laws of the state of West Virginia.

Which corporation shall keep its principal office or place of business in the city of New York, in the county of New York, and state of New York, and such other branch offices as may be established from time to time elsewhere, and is to expire on the 25th day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and forty (1940.) And for the purpose of forming said corporation, we have subscribed the sum of one hundred and twenty thousand ($120,000) dollars to the capital thereof, and have paid in on said subscriptions the sum of sixty thousand ($60,000) dollars, and desire the privilege of increasing the said capital, by the sale of additional shares from time to time, to five million ($5,000,000) dollars in all.

THE AMERICAN AND EUROPEAN UNDERWRITERS
CONTRACT COMPANY, LIMITED.

FOREIGN.

I, Wm. A. Ohley, secretary of state of the state of West Virginia, hereby certify that an agreement duly acknowledged and accompanied by the proper affidavits, has been this day delivered to me, which agreement is in the words and figures following:

This is to certify, that we, the undersigned, agree to become a corporation under the statutes of the state of West Virginia, relating to the formation of corporations and joint stock companies.

First—The name we have assumed to designate the company, and to be used in its business and dealings, is The American and European Underwriters Contract Company, Limited.

Second—First: That the objects for which the company is formed are, to act as agents, trustees, receivers, liquidators, managers, brokers, attorneys or referees, or any other situation of trust or confidence, in respect to the establishment and promotion of companies and association, for the acquisition, prosecution and execution of undertakings, business, works, projects and enterprises of any description in England or elsewhere.

Second: To guarantee and investigate the statements made by the owners as to the standing, profits, assets and conduct of undertakings, business, works, projects, and enterprises of every description in the United States of America, Europe and Canada or elsewhere.

Third: To examine and inquire into, search for, prospect, explore and obtain information with respect to any business, property or undertaking, mines or free-hold property, and report on the same, in the United States of America, England and Canada or elsewhere.

Fourth: To establish and promote, or assist in establishing and promoting companies and associations for the acquisition, prosecution and execution of undertakings, business, works, projects and enterprises of any description in the United States of America, England, Canada, or elsewhere, and to acquire, hold, dispose and deal in any shares and interest in such companies or associations or undertakings thereof.

Fifth: To purchase or take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, rights, franchises or privileges which this company may think suitable or convenient for any of the purposes of its business.

Sixth: To pay out of the funds of the company all expenses of or incidental to the examination and information in respect to any property, business and undertaking of this or any company, and the issue of its shares, stocks, obligations or securities, including brokerage and commissions for obtaining such properties, or placing of its shares, or underwriting shares, debentures or otherwise, under the American or European laws, severally or jointly.

Seventh: To promote or establish, and in any way, to assist in promoting and establishing agencies; to establish and promote and bring out, or issue any company, syndicate, association or partnership, whether public or private, in the United States of America, Canada or Europe.

Eighth: To enter into any arrangement with any government or authorities, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions, which may seem conducive to any of the objects of the company.

Ninth: Generally to undertake and transact any of the business of merchant, capitalist, financial agent, trustee, or promoter, which seems conducive to any of the objects of the company.

Tenth: To issue any new or original shares of the company as fully paid, or in part paid up, with power to increase the capital by the creation of new shares.

Eleventh: To raise money by the issue of debenture bonds and debenture stock, or otherwise, in such manner as the company may think fit.

Twelfth: To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principals, agents, trustees, contractors or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through sub contractors, agents, trustees, contractors or otherwise.

Thirteenth: To draw, accept, endorse, discount, execute and issue bills of exchange, promissory notes, to be used in the business.

Fourteenth: The liability of the members is limited.

Fifteenth: The above mentioned business may also be carried on out of this state, in the above mentioned places, and elsewhere in the United States of America, Canada and Europe.

Third—First: The principal office or place of business of said corporation is in the city of New York, state of New York, and is to expire on the 15th day of October, nineteen hundred and forty.

Second: For the purpose of forming said corporation we have subscribed the sum of five hundred dollars to the capital thereof, and have paid in on said subscription the sum of fifty dollars, and desire the privilege of increasing said capital by the sale of additional shares from time to time, to five millions of dollars in all.

The capital so subscribed is divided into shares of ten dollars each, which are held by the undersigned respectively, as follows, that is to say: By

MARTINSBURG DEVELOPMENT COMPANY.

DOMESTIC.

I, Wm. A. Ohley, secretary of state of the state of West Virginia, hereby certify that an agreement duly acknowledged and accompanied by the proper affidavits, has been this day delivered to me, which agreement is in the words and figures following:

We, the undersigned, agree to become a corporation by the name of the Martinsburg Development Company, for the purpose of owning and operating real estate, and in mining, improving and buying and selling the same, as well as manufacturing and having manufactured on the same, in every legitimate way, for any legitimate purpose; also to operate railway, telephone and electric plants in every way legitimate and proper, and to buy and sell the same; all to be in accord with the laws of West Virginia, regulating corporations of this kind.

Which corporation shall keep its principal office or place of business at Martinsburg, in the county of Berkeley, and is to expire on the 1st day of January, 1920. And for the purpose of forming said corporation, we have subscribed the sum of one hundred (100) dollars to the capital thereof, and have paid in on our said subscriptions the sum of ten dollars, and desire the privilege of increasing the said capital, by the sale of additional shares from time to time, to one million ($1,000,000) dollars in all, and to hold the amount of real estate provided by law for either mining, manufacturing or other legal purposes.

The capital so subscribed is divided into shares of ten dollars each, which are held by the undersigned respectively, as follows, that is to say: By

H. H. Boyd, Martinsburg, W. Va., two shares.

F. S. Emmert, Martinsburg, W. Va., two shares.

B. F. Fiery, Martinsburg, W. Va., two share.

O. L. Stearnes, Salem, Va., two shares.

S. V. Fiery, Martinsburg, W. Va., two shares.

And the capital to be hereafter sold is to be divided into shares of like amount.

Given under our hands, this 11th day of December, 1890.

THE UNION CREDIT COMPANY—AMENDMENT TO CHARTER.

FOREIGN.

I, Wm. A. Ohley, secretary of state of the state of West Virginia, hereby certify that a resolution and new agreement, adopted at a meeting of the stockholders of the Union Credit Company, and signed and acknowledged by all of the stockholders of said corporation, has been certified to me by Daniel Macanley, president of the said company, under the corporate seal thereof, which resolution and new agreement is in the words and figures following:

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Union Credit Company, Washington Branch, chartered by the state of West Virginia, November 29th, 1890, specially called for the purpose of adopting a new agreement amendatory of the original agreement heretofore executed by them, (amongst other business,) there being all of the capital stock of said company represented at said meeting, the following resolution, amendatory of the charter as already issued by the state of West Virginia, was universally adopted:

Resolved, That the company hereby agrees to and adopt a new agreement as follows:

That we desire the privilege of increasing the said capital of said company, by the sale of additional shares from time to time, to one hundred thousand dollars in all.

And, that the capital already subscribed is divided into shares of ten dollars each, instead of fifty dollars, as heretofore allowed by charter.

And, that with the exception of the two items thus amended, all the remaining conditions and purposes of said charter of November 29th, 1890, stand approved and accepted by this company.

A true copy of such new agreement is hereto attached :

The undersigned agree to become a corporation by the name of the Union Credit Company, (Washington Branch,) for the purpose of investigating and reporting upon the financial status of corporations, business houses and individuals, and for the collection of debts and accounts, whether in the District of Columbia or in any other part of the United States, and for the transaction of such business as may properly pertain to such purposes, and for the purpose of acquiring and holding real estate, stocks, bonds or other securities of corporations or individuals as authorized by the laws of the state of West Virginia, and necessary or convenient to the proper transaction of the business aforesaid, and selling the same; for the purpose of acting as fiduciary agents in the collection of debts, and for doing any and all things necessary, convenient or pertinent to the aforesaid business of ascertaining and reporting credits and making collections.

Which corporation shall keep its principal office or place of business at Washington, in the District of Columbia, and is to expire on the 25th day of November, A. D., 1940. And for the purpose of forming the said corporation, we have subscribed the sum of fifty dollars to the capital thereof, and have paid in on said subscriptions the sum of fifty dollars, and desire the privilege of increasing the said capital by the sale of additional shares from time to time, to one hundred thousand dollars in all.

The capital so subscribed is divided into shares of ten dollars each, which are held by the undersigned respectively, as follows, that is to say: By Daniel Macauley, one share.

Henry C. Sailors, one share.

W. W. Dudley, one share.

M. V. Bailey, one share.

H. D. Green one share.

All are of Washington, D. C.

And the capital to be hereafter sold is to be divided into shares of the like amount.

Given under our hands, this 12th day of December, 1890.

DANIEL MACAULEY,
HENRY C. SAILORS,
W. W. DUDLEY,

M. V. BAILEY,
H. D. GREEN.

Wherefore, the corporators named in the said new agreement, and their successors and assigns, are hereby declared to be a corporation until the twenty-fifth day of November, nineteen hundred and forty, by the name and for the purposes set forth in said new agreement.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the said [G. S.] state, at the city of Charleston, this sixteenth day of December, eighteen hundred and ninety.

WM. A. OHLEY,
