DIVISION HISTORY

During the period between 1863 and 1891, state banks were entirely free from regulation and supervision by the State.

The Legislature in 1891 passed a law providing for a State Banking Department and authorized the Governor to appoint a State Bank Examiner, to be under the jurisdiction and control of the Board of Public Works.

The office of the Commissioner of Banking was created by Legislative enactment on February 21, 1901, and continues to function under and by authority of West Virginia Code §31A, as amended.

The following officials served as heads of the State Banking Department. There was an official name change in 1989 to the Division of Banking, and on February 29, 2012 to the Division of Financial Institutions.

ORDER

As an alternative to the sales finance charge allowed by West Virginia Code §46A-3-103(3), with respect to a consumer credit sale made pursuant to a revolving charge account, if the billing cycle is monthly, a seller may contract for and receive a sales finance charge not exceeding one-twelfth of twenty-five percent on the unpaid principal balance. If the billing cycle is not monthly, the maximum charge is that percentage which bears the same relation to the applicable monthly percentage as the number of days in the billing cycle bears to thirty. A billing cycle is monthly if the billing statement dates are on the same day each month or do not vary by more than four days there from.

Under this alternative sales finance charge rate, no origination fee, points, investigation fees, or similar prepaid finance charges are permitted, unless the transaction is fully secured by real estate.

This Order is effective December 1, 1999 and, pursuant to West Virginia Code §47A-1-1(g), shall remain in full force and effect until such time as the Board meets and prescribes different maximum rates of interest and/or maximum finance charges.

ORDER

As an alternative to the sales finance charge allowed by West Virginia Code §46A-3-101(1), with respect to a consumer credit sale made on a closed-end basis, a seller may contract for and receive a sales finance charge, calculated according to the actuarial method, which may not exceed twenty-five percent per annum.

This Order is effective December 1, 1999 and, pursuant to West Virginia Code §47A-1-1(g), shall remain in full force and effect until such time as the Board meets and prescribes different maximum rates of interest and/or maximum finance charges.

The following rates, set by prior Orders of the Board effective December 1, 1996, remain unchanged and in full force and effect pursuant to WV Code 47A-1-1(g) until such time as the Board meets and prescribes different maximum rates of interest and/or maximum finance charges:

ORDER

As an alternative to any statutory rate, any person [which defined in West Virginia Code §31A-1-2(n) means "any individual, partnership, society, association, firm, institutions, company, public or private corporation, state, governmental agency, bureau, department, division or instrumentality, political subdivision, county court, municipality, trust, syndicate, estate or any other legal entity whatsoever, formed, created or existing under the laws of this State or any other jurisdiction"] may charge a maximum finance charge not exceeding eighteen percent per annum calculated according to the actuarial method, on all loans, credit sales or transactions, forbearance or similar transactions, regardless of purpose.

This Order is effective December 1, 1996 and, pursuant to West Virginia Code §47A-1-1(g), shall remain in full force and effect until such time as the Board meets and prescribes different maximum rates of interest and/or maximum finance charges.

ORDER

As an alternative to the loan finance charge allowed by West Virginia Code §46A-3-106(3), with respect to a consumer loan made pursuant to a revolving loan account, if the billing cycle is monthly, a lender may contract for and receive a loan finance charge not exceeding one and one-half percent on the unpaid principal balance. If the billing cycle is not monthly, the maximum charge is that percentage which bears the same relation to the applicable monthly percentage as the number of days in the billing cycle bears to thirty. A billing cycle is monthly if the billing statement dates are on the same day each month or do not vary by more than four days there from.

Under this alternative revolving loan finance charge rate, no origination fee, points, investigation fees, or similar prepaid finance charges are permitted, unless the transaction is fully secured by real estate.

This Order is effective December 1, 1996 and, pursuant to West Virginia Code §47A-1-1(g), shall remain in full force and effect until such time as the Board meets and prescribes different maximum rates of interest and/or maximum finance charges

PARITY DECISIONS

West Virginia Code §31A-8C-2(d) provides that the Commissioner "shall include a list of every financially related activity authorized pursuant to this section during the previous twelve months in his or her annual report to the legislature."

During Fiscal Year 2014, the Commissioner of Financial Institutions granted the following authorizations pursuant to W.Va. Code §31A-8C-2:

- Citizens Bank of West Virginia, Inc. was granted authority to exercise expanded powers at a proposed loan production office (LPO). Specifically:
  - o approving loan applications at the LPO pursuant to lending authority established by the Board of Directors;
  - maintaining a transaction account at the main office into which funds for LPO originated loans are deposited and from which LPO loan officers may draw instruments in order to disburse loan proceeds;
  - o closing loans at the LPO; and
  - o transmitting information at the LPO on any loan account the customer may have with the bank, even if a particular account was not originated at the LPO.
- Union Bank was authorized to enter into a referral arrangement with another entity whereby the bank would refer certain trust customers to that entity and receive in return a referral fee from the entity for that activity.
