DIVISION HISTORY

During the period between 1863 and 1891, state banks were entirely free from regulation and supervision by the State. The Legislature in 1891 passed a law providing for a State Banking Department and authorized the Governor to appoint a State Bank Examiner, to be under the jurisdiction and control of the Board of Public Works. The Office of the Commissioner of Banking was created by Legislative enactment on February 21, 1901, and continues to function under and by authority of West Virginia Code §31A, as amended.

The following officials served as heads of the State Banking Department. There was an official name change in 1989 to the Division of Banking, and on February 29, 2012 to the Division of Financial Institutions.

As an alternative to the sales finance charge allowed by West Virginia Code §46A-3-103(3), with respect to a consumer credit sale made pursuant to a revolving charge account, if the billing cycle is monthly, a seller may contract for and receive a sales finance charge not exceeding one-twelfth of twenty-five percent on the unpaid principal balance. If the billing cycle is not monthly, the maximum charge is that percentage which bears the same relation to the applicable monthly percentage as the number of days in the billing cycle bears to thirty. A billing cycle is monthly if the billing statement dates are on the same day each month or do not vary by more than four days there from.

Under this alternative sales finance charge rate, no origination fee, points, investigation fees, or similar prepaid finance charges are permitted, unless the transaction is fully secured by real estate.

This Order is effective December 1, 1999 and, pursuant to West Virginia Code §47A-1-1(g), shall remain in full force and effect until such time as the Board meets and prescribes different maximum rates of interest and/or maximum finance charges.

This Order is effective December 1, 1999 and, pursuant to West Virginia Code §47A-1-1(g), shall remain in full force and effect until such time as the Board meets and prescribes different maximum rates of interest and/or maximum finance charges.

The following rates, set by prior Orders of the Board effective December 1, 1996, remain unchanged and in full force and effect pursuant to WV Code 47A-1-1(g) until such time as the Board meets and prescribes different maximum rates of interest and/or maximum finance charges:

A billing cycle is monthly if the billing statement dates are on the same day each month or do not vary by more than four days there from.

Under this alternative revolving loan finance charge rate, no origination fee, points, investigation fees, or similar prepaid finance charges are permitted, unless the transaction is fully secured by real estate.
