Complaints

During the two year period of 2008-2009 there was one complaint filed with the Board regarding the unlawful practice of acupuncture without a license. The Board was informed of an unlicensed practitioner in Spencer, WV who had posted false credentials in an online format. Upon investigation the Board found that the individual named had already left the state. No further prosecution of the compliant was followed.

During the two year period of 2008-2009, there were no disciplinary actions taken on any license during this period.

During the two year period of 2008-2009, there were no Board initiated procedures against any license. The Board had no hearings or investigations regarding any license during this period.

Continuing Education

The Code requires the Board to oversee the continuing education of the licensees and to establish Codes of Ethics. The Board routinely audits the licensees to check for compliance with the continuing education requirements and professional liability coverage.

Respectfully submitted,

Linda Lyter Executive Director

These letters must give the name of the school and the dates both you and the letter writer started and graduated (month/year). The letters must be received by the WV Board of Acupuncture directly from the letter writer, not the applicant. - Page 8: If you were first licensed by taking a State Board Examination this page must be sent to that State Board. They will, in turn, attach your scores and return the page directly to the WV Board of Acupuncture. The respective state may require a fee for this, so contact that State Board directly.
- Page 9: If your application is based upon successful completion of the NCCAOM examination this page must be sent to NCCAOM. The applicant will complete the RELEASE part of the page (down to the broken lines). The NCCAOM will, in turn, attach your scores and return the page directly to the WV Board of Acupuncture. The NCCAOM may require a fee for this, so contact them directly.
